Thoughts from Monsignor McClory

Dear Parish Family:

The Good Samaritan and Unleash the Gospel

This weekend we hear the story of compassion and charity in the story of the Good Samaritan. As we reflect on that outpouring of mercy, we can draw inspiration in all of our charitable efforts from this passage in Archbishop Allen Vigneron’s pastoral letter Unleash the Gospel:

Evangelical Charity: Let your light shine before others, so that they may see your good works and give glory to your Father who is in heaven. Matthew 5:16

Our service to the poor and marginalized needs to be a clear witness to Jesus our Lord, not mistaken for humanist philanthropy. Catholics around the world and in our local Church have developed a remarkable network of charitable programs for health care, disaster relief, hunger alleviation, poverty reduction, refugee aid, family services, counseling, and help for people in every form of need. We must continue and intensify these works of service that manifest God’s love to those around us. … We need to ensure that in ministering to the material needs of others we are also responding to their spiritual thirst for God. Every Catholic charitable work must also be an authentic expression of Catholic faith. We must be unabashed to speak the name of Jesus and to invite every person to the fullness of life in him. The world needs the light that is in Christ alone. (Unleash the Gospel 8.4)

"The saints were fully aware that Christ in the Blessed Sacrament is a reality—that in the Blessed Sacrament His heart is living, beating, waiting to refresh us with His graces."

"There is nothing brilliant or scholarly that attracted me to the Roman Catholic Church. What attracted me to Catholicism was love.

It all goes back about ten years when beaten and disillusioned I crept into the rear of the Mission Church in Roxbury to rest. I didn’t go in because I was attracted to the church, or because I sought spiritual nourishment; it was only a place to sit down and get off my feet and find, if possible, a few moments of forgetfulness. How long I sat there, I don’t know, but I suddenly became aware of something living. There was an actual presence all around that seemed to emanate from the altar. It was pleasing and restful to feel. And without half realizing what I was doing I moved up front until I was sitting in the first pew. The weariness and strain all fell away and a great sense of peace and love came over me, combined with an intense desire to sleep. And right here and now I want to explain that at that time I knew absolutely nothing about the Catholic teachings. No one had ever told me of the Host or of the ever-present living God on the altar.” ~The conversion of Elsie Briggs as submitted to the Boston Pilot

Father of mercies,
look upon us in our weakness and make us strong.
For in the face of death and destruction,
selfishness, sin, and the darkness of the culture of death,
our fear threatens to keep us from doing your will.
Give us the grace to trust in your power.
Make us rely on you alone, the God through whom all things were made,
and give us a passion for the gift of life with which you have endowed us, and the Gospel of Life which is the foundation of our being.
Through the dying and rising of your Son,
give us strength and courage and joy in your name.
We ask this through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.

in advance for their funeral and burial. This weekend, Shrine will be hosting an opportunity for you and your family to deepen your understanding of Catholic funerals and think about your own plans.

The Community Outreach team from Catholic Funeral and Cemetery Services, a ministry of the Archdiocese of Detroit, will be at Shrine to give an informative 20-minute presentation followed by an opportunity to ask questions. The sessions will occur after the 4:30 PM, 6:30 PM, 9:00 AM, 10:45 AM, 12:30 PM, and 4:00 PM Masses. The presentations will be held in the boardroom of our parish offices, accessible through the reception desk in Heritage Hall.

This presentation was given to our parish staff a few weeks ago and was very well received. Among the topics covered: the importance of Catholic funeral and burial, the Church’s position on cremation, and mission programs for families in need of burial assistance.

Light refreshments will follow. Please stop by to learn more about this important topic.

Bless you Boys! Say Hi to PAWS after the 9:00am Mass this Sunday

The last time the Tigers won the World Series, the catchphrase was “Bless You Boys.” This phrase went viral after it was adopted by Detroit sportscaster Al Ackerman for the 1984 Detroit Tigers team that started the year with a 35-5 start. Sparky’s Anderson’s book on that season was entitled: “Bless You Boys: Diary of the Detroit Tigers’ 1984 Season.”

The Tigers certainly need some blessings. It’s been a tough year so far. Just time for the second half of the season, we will have a special guest in Heritage Hall after Sunday 9:00 AM Mass: PAWS! Yes, the mascot for the Tigers will be visiting us in Heritage Hall after our 9:00 AM Mass.

PAWS is coming to promote Catholic Night at Comerica Park which will be Tuesday, September 10th at 6:45 PM. All parishioners in the archdiocese and beyond are invited for a night of fun and fellowship. Each ticket purchased includes a donation to Catholic Charities of Southeast Michigan and also a limited-edition Detroit Tigers + Unleash the Gospel hat. It will be a relaxing night of faith, fun and fellowship at the ballpark. So, stop by after the 9:00 AM Mass next Sunday to have your photo taken with PAWS or just to give him a high-five! And say a prayer for the Tigers. Bless you Boys!

Prayers of Intercession for Prisoners:
Pray for prisoners and their relationship with God, that they would:
• Allow God to work in them and accomplish His purpose in their lives
• Remain strong in their faith and know that if they ask for forgiveness they will be forgiven
• Stay away from harmful associations that will lead them astray

Pray for prisoners’ relationships with others, that they will:
• Be committed to keeping a strong connection with their family, despite being separated
• Experience reconciliation in strained or broken relationships
• Have strength and courage to be a friend to the lonely, the discouraged, the lost

Pray for volunteers who enter the prisons to minister to the inmates that God would:
• Use their lives to draw many into a saving relationship and faith in Jesus Christ
• Let the love of Jesus be shown in their actions and attitudes.
• Help them to find the right words when a prisoner shares a feeling of hopelessness or a doubt that God could ever forgive their particular crime.
More from Fr. John McKenzie

Dear Parish Family,

In this week’s column I want to share more of a “Short Biography” so that you might come to know me better.

I was born in Detroit, MI on January 4, 1981. In Redford, MI I attended Our Lady of Grace School in Dearborn Heights. At age 11 I was baptized into the Catholic Faith. During this time, I was around so many different types of people of all colors. It forms who I am today. In 1994, I moved to St. Louis, MO to live with my grandparents.

In 1999, then again in 2001, I had a conversion experience. In 2003 I decided, with the assistance of my Spiritual Director, to enter a discernment house in Rome called the Casa Balthasar. After having finished the two-year program, I decided to enter the newly founded Benedictine Community of Norcia, Italy.

During those years, I was sent to Paris to learn French as well as entering the program of Philosophy and Formation at Conception Abbey and Seminary College in Conception, MO. In 2015, with the permission of my superiors, I lived four months at the ancient Abbey of Montecassino, in Cassino, Italy. After those four months I returned to Detroit, MI where I lived with my former conferee of seven years, Fr. Michael Suhy, now pastor of St. Louise de Marillac Parish in Warren, MI.

In 2016, I entered Sacred Heart Major Seminary. In these past three years I have taken classes in Theology as well as various practical aspects regarding Diocesan priesthood.

I was ordained with two others to the transitional Diaconate on Saturday, April 14, 2018. That summer I spent three months at Corpus Christi Parish in Detroit, MI. It was a great assignment as it was a very diverse group of people with over 15 different nations represented in the parish! From there I went to Our Lady of Refuge Catholic Church in Orchard Lake, MI. I loved this parish as well! So much faith filled people are there!

Lastly, I am thankful to God and Archbishop Allen Vigneron for assigning me to the Basilica of the National Shrine of the Little Flower. I am delighted to work with Msgr.Bob McClory, Fr. Joe Lang, and Fr. John Kopson. It’s a great joy to be able to serve alongside such men of God!

Last week after the 9:00 AM Mass, you showed me just how welcoming the Shrine community is to a new priest! I am thankful to the Hospitality Team as well as Dan Rajnicek, Facilities Director, for making the event happen! I was equally welcomed by our Hispanic community at the 4:00 PM Mass that same Sunday.

Please keep me in your prayers as I enter the first month of being ordained a priest of Jesus Christ. Please know of my prayers for you and know, that as an Associate Pastor, I will do all that I can to help “Confirm you in your faith.”

God bless you all!

Stewardship Thoughts
Fifteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

God’s law connects today’s First Reading and our Gospel from the evangelist St. Luke. In the Book of Deuteronomy, Moses points out to the ancient Israelites that keeping God’s law is doable for it is already in your mouths and in your hearts. In the Gospel, in the parable of the Good Samaritan, we hear Jesus encouraging us to express our love of God through love and mercy for our neighbor. For all Christians, love of God and neighbor are the two greatest commandments — and serve as the foundation for evangelizing through our acts of stewardship. One way to express the love of God is through our devout actions before and while partaking of the Holy Eucharist — the true presence of the Body and Blood, Soul and Divinity of our Lord and Savior. Receive Holy Communion regularly for the strength and courage to feed the hungry, clothe the naked, and perform other Corporal Works of Mercy.

The Commandments We Keep; A Catholic Guide to Living a Moral Life

Fr. Peter J. Vaghi

Do you have a real understanding of the 10 Commandments? There are more to some of the commandments than meets the eye. Fr. Vaghi uses a three fold approach - the analysis of the Jewish understanding of the commandments, the effect of Christ’s coming on them and some practical and pastoral implications. He points out that all the commandments are linked to the covenant between God and Israel. By reading this book, you will have a deeper understanding of the commandments. You will learn to live the examined life based on these practical applications. Each chapter concludes with a reflection and prayer.

Vacation Bible schools allow children to have fun while growing spiritually.

Through the archdiocesan Department of Evangelization, Catechesis and Schools, your gifts to the Catholic Services Appeal support the work of catechists, who plan vacation Bible schools in parishes throughout the Archdiocese of Detroit. These faith-filled weeks during the summer help children encounter Christ in a relaxing way.

Dedicated catechists also teach the Catholic faith in parishes and Catholic schools. Their mission includes helping others to reflect on their faith and understand its purpose in today’s secularized world.

High School Yearbook Honored

Congratulations to our high school Spirit Yearbook Staff who were recently honored with the induction into Walsworth’s Gallery of Excellence. The Gallery of Excellence is an annual collection comprised of the most distinguished yearbooks Walsworth prints. These yearbooks are chosen based on being a quality example of theme, coverage, design, photography and the copy they provide. Only a select number of the yearbooks that Walsworth prints receive this honor. The Shrine yearbook will be an example of exceptional student journalism and used at training workshops throughout the company. Congratulations to the yearbook staff and their moderator, Mr. Wright Wilson. Pictured: Walsworth Yearbook Advisor, Catrina Buchanan ’19 and Shrine Yearbook Moderator, Wright Wilson.

High School Graduates Featured

During the summer, members of our Class of 2019 are being featured on our social media channels. Each graduate is leaving an incredible legacy at Shrine Catholic High School! As they begin the next chapter in their young lives, we wish them well and send them forward with the support of the entire Shrine community. We are very proud of them! Be sure to like The Official Site of Shrine Catholic Schools on Facebook to follow this series.
Grade School Service Learning

Service Learning is a strong part of our religion curriculum. What is Service Learning? It refers to learning that actively involves students in a wide range of experiences which often benefits others and the community while also advancing the goals of a given curriculum. During the month of September, our second graders worked on their Service Learning project as they prepared for their second Sacrament of Initiation, Holy Eucharist.

They also spent time learning about the first Sacrament of Initiation, Baptism, with Father Kevin Roelant teaching them in front of the Baptismal Font. The students also learned about how to make a card for someone and what the message in the card should be. They then made birthday cards for babies who were Baptized at Shrine and recently celebrated a birthday. This community outreach shares our Shrine spirit with the community.

Here are some pictures of our second graders and their service learning.

Fifth graders worked hard in the science lab applying the information learned in class. They explored measuring the volume of liquids, regular, and irregular shaped objects using three different methods: basic calculation, beakers and graduated cylinders, and displacement. They then completed a “Mystery Matter” activity where they were challenged to identify unknown matter based on the properties of the objects, as described by a lab partner.

At Shrine Catholic Grade School we exemplify Christ by praying, learning, and growing together.

At Shrine Catholic Academy we exemplify Christ as we reflect, challenge and aspire to become the middle school students and disciples we are called to be.

At Shrine Catholic High School we exemplify Christ, by serving, succeeding, and leading through academics, athletics and the arts.
