Thoughts from Monsignor McClory

Dear Parish Family:

There is need of only one thing: Jesus

This weekend we hear the story of the sisters Martha and Mary and Jesus. I often find myself identifying with Martha, the busy worker. Of course, it’s very good to do things FOR Jesus: various ministries and service projects, helping people, organizing, planning and so on. At the same time, we need to remember that we can’t just be busy about doing things FOR Jesus, without spending some time WITH Jesus. If we substitute our activities for a relationship with Jesus, then our busy-ness will become a chore, not a joy. Rooted in a relationship with Him, all our work takes on a new meaning. So, yes, let’s be of service to Jesus, but always stay close to Him.

Jesus tells Martha: “Martha, Martha, you are anxious and worried about many things. There is need of only one thing. Mary has chosen the better part and it will not be taken from her.” Mary has chosen to stay focused on Jesus, sitting at His feet. For those of us who identify with the busy-ness of Martha, it’s good to remember that later, as Jesus comes to raise their brother Lazarus from the dead, Martha does heed these words of Jesus. It is Martha who goes out to meet Jesus while Mary is at home.

The “one thing” we need is Jesus. Archbishop Allen Vigneron summarizes this primary focus on Jesus, and how that affects everything we do in this passage from his pastoral letter, Unleash the Gospel:

“Everything is peaceful, everything has quieted, how good the peace of God is!”
~St. Elizabeth of the Trinity

“The tranquil soul becomes a place of peace for God Himself. What has been freed from earth becomes a heaven for God, where He can live, the ‘de-finitized’ soul becomes a container for divine limitlessness. ‘Release my soul, make her into your heaven, your beloved dwelling and the place of your peace,’ ‘a bottomless abyss into which God can overflow and lavish Himself,’ ‘for God hollows out deep chasms in my soul, chasms that He alone can fill.’

Life Matters

The following is a statement from the Archdiocese of Detroit from June 26th regarding the two prolific petition drives:

The Department of Communications of the Archdiocese of Detroit shares Archbishop Allen Vigneron’s comments on the two citizen initiative petition drives set to take place in Michigan that would have an impact on pro-life policy in the state. The drive announced Wednesday, June 26 in Lansing, organized by Right to Life of Michigan, would prohibit dilation and evacuation abortion procedures, also known as “dismemberment abortion.” A second proposal seeks to prohibit abortion after cardiac activity is detected in the developing child. The Michigan Catholic Conference (MCC) Board of Directors, with Archbishop Vigneron as its chair, is in full support of the dismemberment abortion petition drive, and has expressed reservations about the heartbeat petition. Archbishop Vigneron’s comments are as follows:

“The Catholic Church in Michigan lends her support to sound and reasonable public policies, especially those which protect the most innocent among us. I invite all people of goodwill, regardless of religious or political affiliation, to join the citizen initiative effort to prohibit the heinous dilation and evacuation abortion procedure that requires the dismemberment of a human child in the womb. While the proposal advanced by the “heartbeat” coalition shares the goal of ending abortion, it appears to raise the possibility of negatively impacting existing law in Michigan that protects all unborn human life, which only lies dormant due to the Roe v. Wade decision. As these petition drives move forward, I applaud those who continue to change hearts and minds by invoking the humanity, dignity, and rights of the unborn child while at the same time being close to and offering unyielding support for women who may find themselves in a challenging or crisis pregnancy.”

Shrine will have the petitions available for signatures at Masses on August 10th and 11th and September 7th and 8th.

For everyone in the Archdiocese, it entails making one’s relationship with Jesus and alignment with His will the central guiding principle of every aspect of life. This missionary conversion entails a strikingly countercultural way of living grounded in prayer, Scripture, and the sacraments; unusually gracious hospitality; a capacity to include those on the margins of society; and joyful confidence in the providence of God even in difficult and stressful times.

No Summer Slowdown at Shrine: Feast of St. Anne, Evangelization Training

We have some wonderful activities coming up this summer at our parish. We will have a special summer faith formation opportunity for children on Friday, July 26, the Feast of Saint Anne, our Archdiocesan patroness. As you know, St. Anne was the mother of the mother of Jesus. So, we always remember grandparents in a special way on this day. The morning activities will involve our young people asking a grandparent or other special person to join them. For details, contact our religious education office. (See page 17 in this Herald)

Look elsewhere in the bulletin (Page 13) for details on St. Paul Street Evangelization’s two-part Basic Evangelization Training on Thursday, August 1 and Thursday, August 8 from 6:30-8:45 PM. The sessions will be held in our conference center. Dinner and materials are included at no cost, but registration is required in advance as space is limited. You’ll learn great skills and be ready to join our outreach efforts during the Woodward Dream Cruise!

NEVER MISS AN OPPORTUNITY TO DO GOOD.
St Francis de Sales
Hello Shrine!

My name is Beth Spizarny, and I joined the staff team this past June as the Director of Evangelization and Faith Formation. I’m excited to be here!

In this newly created role, I will be responsible for our parish efforts of evangelization, which includes the goals of Unleash the Gospel among active parishioners, inactive Catholics, and the unchurched. I will also be responsible for supporting our faith formation and catechetical efforts—from Religious Formation to Youth Ministry, to RCIA, as well as our other adult faith formation offerings. It is a big job! I am counting on your prayers.

Prior to joining the team at Shrine of the Little Flower, I served as the Director of Evangelization at St. Thomas the Apostle in Ann Arbor. It was amazing to see God transform hearts and lives through Alpha! We also saw cultural shifts in our parish through focusing on a welcoming initiative, parish retreats, parish-wide novenas, and door to door outreach. It is an awesome thing to see people encounter Jesus, and to see lives transformed as a result! God always has more for us.

Before this role, I served as the Youth Minister for 10 years. I love teens! It was a blast to hang out with young people and help them discover Jesus Christ, who alone satisfies.

I am originally from Ann Arbor, and my husband Kevin and I have three young children, ages 6, 4, and 2 1/2. We moved from Ann Arbor to Farmington Hills in early July to be closer to Shrine. My husband works in Westland, so Farmington Hills is a great spot for us to be.

I look forward to getting to know you. There are so many amazing people here!

• If you have a passion for evangelization—drop me a line.
• If you have questions about evangelization—drop me a line.
• If you have questions or ideas for our faith formation offerings, don’t hesitate to reach out.
• If you have a passion for prayer and intercession, and you would be willing to partner with me in prayer, let me know!

St. Therese, patron saint of missions, pray for us!

Manresa Retreat- September 6 - 8, 2018

“Bring me your labored, and I will bring you peace,” the Lord called. Have you ever thought that it just may be the call He has given to you? We get so busy in our lives we sometimes forget the purpose of why we are here. Each year, many of us men from the parish take the time to pause and listen for God in the serene beauty of Manresa Jesuit Retreat House in Bloomfield Hills. We arrive on Friday evening in time for a good meal and settle in for a series of talks. It can be a time to catch up on some reading we have set aside or perhaps just some time to be alone with God. By Sunday afternoon, we have found not only rest, but often a whole new insight in who God is or, if we are blessed, who we truly are. Join us this year. You can get more information or register by calling Julius Tomaszewski 248.571.2871 or by calling Manresa directly at 248.644.4933. Tell them you want the retreat of September 6 - 8, 2019 Shrine-Reichenbach’s Men’s Retreat. It will be a time well spent and long remembered.

Dear Shrine family,

I wanted to thank everyone who wrote so many kind and supportive words, as well as the gifts people shared, especially for the promise of prayers. Your prayers are the greatest gift. I’d like to thank the ladies guild. My farewell reception was beautiful. Reflecting upon my time serving at Shrine again, there are so many graces and blessings I received during my time there. I was especially blessed by the fidelity and love from so many of you.

I am settling a little more in the parishes I am serving, but there is definitely still more to do. Serving in my home area, the transition has been easier and I have been able to jump into relationships. I know some people have asked for contact info for myself. I am living at the rectory at St. John’s. Mail can be sent to:

Fr. Kevin Roelant
511 South Monroe Street
Monroe, MI 48161

A number I can be reached at is 734-241-8910 ext 115. My new email is frkevinroelant@gmail.com.

Know of my prayers. God bless you all richly!

Peace,

Fr. Kevin Roelant

In His Likeness: Be Transformed into a Disciple of Christ by Edward Sri

To be a disciple, we must have a real encounter with Jesus, understanding that God loves you as who you are right now, a beloved son or daughter. Discipleship isn't only for saints but is expected from all of us. To be one, we must make the radical commitment to surrender our lives to Jesus and to follow Him. Conversion is an ongoing process in which we learn to be conformed to Christ and to desire a deeper relationship with Him. Edward Sri guides us and provides the inspiration and tools we need to be true disciples.

DVD of the Week
Confession by Fr. Larry Richards

The Lending Library hours are Sunday from 10 AM to 2 PM and Friday 9:15 AM to 12 PM in Conference Room C. The important theme of hospitality connects today's Scripture readings. In the Book of Genesis, Abraham's kindhearted hospitality to three unknown visitors results in Sarah and him being granted a son in their old age. Nothing is impossible with God. In St. Luke's Gospel, the evangelist narrates Martha's welcoming of Jesus to their home; she, though, complains to Christ when her sister, Mary, decides to listen to His teaching rather than help Martha serve the meal. Martha does not realize that Mary is extending hospitality to Jesus through her attentiveness. Hospitality is an important pillar of the threefold aspect of Hymns, Homily, and Hospitality promoted at the parish. The stewardship act of greeters welcoming those who enter the church before Mass expresses warmth and hospitality toward newcomers and parishioners alike. Begin the evangelization process of unleashing the Gospel in your parish through hospitality.

Your 2019 CSA Commitment

“Love, Naturally! Natural Family Planning: Cooperating with God’s design for married love” is the theme of National NFP Awareness Week this July 21-27. This United States Conference of Catholic Bishops' annual educational campaign celebrates God’s design for married love and the gift of life while raising awareness of NFP methods.

Gifts to the Catholic Services Appeal allow the archdiocesan Office for Natural Family Planning to offer presentations to couples in our Archdiocese who are using or are curious about NFP, as well as classes in NFP methods for married couples seeking families. Endorsed by the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops, NFP is a way of life by which couples recognize natural, biological signs of fertility and infertility.

For information about the Catholic Services Appeal, please go to aod.org/CSA.

Girl Scout Tradition Continues

Recently spotted on Mackinac Island!....some of our very own Shrine Girls Scouts carrying on a 90-year tradition! According to mackinacisland.org, the tradition began in 1929 when then-Michigan Gov. Fred W. Green commissioned eight Eagle Scouts from around the state as honor guardsman on Mackinac Island, home of the Governor’s summer residence. One of those original scouts was Gerald R. Ford, who went on to become a U.S. congressman and, later, president of the United States.

Today, the scouts stay in the 85-year-old barracks which host, approximately 60 scouts per week throughout the summer from Memorial Day to Labor Day. Each day, they march around the island in uniform to conduct morning and evening flag ceremonies at the Scout Barracks and elsewhere, including the Governor’s summer residence, the visitors center, the fort and the cemetery. They serve as guides at Fort Mackinac and other historic state park buildings, assisting paid park staff by greeting visitors and checking tickets, answering questions and running errands.

The program benefits Mackinac Historic State Parks, which gets an estimated 30,000 hours of volunteer service from scouts each summer. The Mackinac Island Scout Service Camp is one of the few remaining scout camps in the country and the only place where scouts handle operations at an historical site.
