SHRINE HERALD

NATIONAL SHRINE of the LITTLE FLOWER BASILICA

Jottings from Fr. Joe Horn

Dear Parish Family,

Preparing for Holy Week

Holy week is the most holy and sacred time of year for Catholics. Starting next week, beginning with Palm Sunday, the faithful will walk with our Lord Jesus Christ on the way to Calvary. The readings, Mass, and liturgies of Holy Week will "make present" once again the events that led to our salvation. As disciples of Jesus we are expected to make time for God, both in personal prayer and in prayer with the community. It is my hope that we all set aside Holy Week, especially Thursday, Friday, and Saturday of Holy Week, as days of increased prayer.

These three days are referred to as the Triduum—the most sacred three days of the year. The Triduum is like a documentary of the last days of Christ broken into three parts. On Holy Thursday only two Masses are allowed to be celebrated: The Chrism Mass at the cathedral where priests renew their commitment to the priesthood and the holy oils are distributed for use in our sacraments. These oils are used to anoint the sick, those who will be baptized, those who will be confirmed, and those who will be ordained. The only other Mass celebrated on Thursday is the Mass of the Lord's Supper where we gather in the upper room with Christ to celebrate His last meal, or Passover, with His disciples.

The second part of the Triduum is Good Friday where the liturgy reminds us of the Lord's passion and death. Mass is not celebrated, the cross becomes our focus in the liturgy as we venerate the crucifix. It is a day of universal fasting and abstinence. That evening we pray evening prayer together in a beautiful service called

Perpetual Eucharistic Adoration

"Suffering is the disagreeable feeling which we experience when something--a situation, a circumstance, --does not correspond to our inclinations, our needs, or our hopes, which does not harmonize with them or gratify them, but on the contrary, contradicts and opposes them. Whereas all men are subject to this misery, the Christian alone possesses the secret of accepting it into his life without destroying the harmony or the happiness which he can enjoy on earth."

"Every kind of suffering can then be made conformable to the highest ideals of the Christian: eternal salvation, sanctity, the glory of God, the good of souls. But this congruity is impossible without love; or rather, it will be possible only in proportion to our love, for it was by love alone that Jesus transformed the Cross, a terrible instrument of torture, into a most efficacious instrument for the glory of God and the salvation of mankind. It is the same for us: charity, the love of God and souls, will enable us to accept any kind of suffering, harmonizing it with our loftiest aspirations."

Divine Intimacy

Please call Joe or Marie Lama at 248.655.0309 or email us at msuzanne1981@gmail.com if you would like a Holy Hour with Jesus, truly present in the Blessed Sacrament. We are presently adoring Jesus remotely from the Northwood parking lot. The monstrance is visible from the rectory window. Please consider helping with one or more of the following Holy Hours: Sunday, 12:00 AM, 1:00 AM; Monday 8:00 AM, 10:00 AM; Tuesday, 10:00 AM, 11:00 AM, 12:00 PM; , Friday, 1:00 AM, 2:00 AM, 4:00 AM 10:00 AM, 1:00 PM; Saturday, 10:00 PM. LIFE MATTERS

40 DAYS FOR LIFE

PUT YOUR FAITH IN ACTION – PRAY FOR THE UNBORN

Remember the 2000 movie, "Pay It Forward". It's about a 7th grader given a school assignment to do something to change the world. The boy decided that he would do something life-changing for three people and then ask them to do something life-changing for three more people. In the end, this movement spread across the country without him even realizing it. How many times do we look at our nation's position on abortion, embryonic stem cell research, euthanasia, etc. and become discouraged because it seems like there is nothing we can do to stop it. Like, that 7th grader, we need to believe we can change the world and that all things are possible when we put our faith in God. Let your heart be enkindled by the Holy Spirit to have the courage to start your own "Pay It Forward" movement to change the culture of death…

- Talk to 3 people who are pro-abortion and explain why this position is anything but pro-choice.
- Invite 3 people to join you in taking an hour or more during the 40 Days for Life campaign
- Ask 3 people to write letters to their congressional representatives regarding defunding Planned Parenthood or any other pending legislation that will have an impact on the dignity of life

I know that there are many of you who would love to join us on the sidewalk, but cannot. Please continue to offer your daily prayers and fasting for the end of abortion. For those of you who can, won't you sacrifice one or two hours this Lent to pray outside Planned Parenthood? As the largest parish closest to the Ferndale Planned Parenthood, our participation is key to the campaign's success. If you can find a day/time that works for you, please sign-up to come as many times as possible during the campaign and invite a friend to come with you.

Jottings from Fr. Joe

Tenebrae. If you have never attended a Tenebrae service, I suggest you make this year your first. It is a powerfully moving prayer which reminds us that though Christ's body is in the tomb, He is about to be risen at Easter.

And finally the third part of the Triduum is the Easter Vigil liturgy where, with great celebration, we welcome the Risen Christ. We begin with the Lucinarium, the lighting of the Paschal candle, from which all the other lights in the church are lit. On this night we baptize those in the RCIA who have been preparing all year, some are confirmed, and others are received fully into the faith.

Consider Holy week to be the Super Bowl of weeks and, please, make room for these special liturgies in your busy schedules.

Palm Sunday

Next week we will be passing out palms differently than in the past. You will be handed a palm as you enter. The blessing of palms will take place in a procession through the basilica before Mass. We will invite those who are seated in the back rows of the basilica to join the procession. If you do not want to be part of the procession, we ask that you not sit in those pews. Extra palms will be available after each Mass.

Stimulus Check

Many of you may be receiving a stimulus check this week. Have you thought about making all or part of it a gift to the church? We are still in need of funds to replace the flat roofs on the basilica. Please consider sharing your windfall by making a generous contribution to "Raze the Roof" here at the National Shrine of the Little Flower.

God bless you,

Fr. Joe Horn
Pastor/Rector
National Shrine of the Little Flower Basilica

Christian Service

"Then, taking the five loaves and the two fish and looking up to heaven, He said the blessing, broke the loaves, and gave them to His disciples to set before the people; He also divided the two fish among them all. They ate and all were satisfied." (Mark 6:41-42)

At the Sanctuary gates in the Basilica there will be baskets to receive donations for the poor. Please bring non-perishable items at Holy Thursday 7:00 PM. Mass and place them in the baskets. Thank you for your generosity.

Blessings,
Paula Dixon

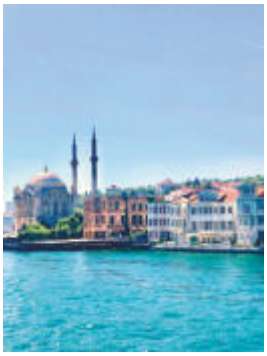
Evangelization & Faith Formation



One summer during my college years I found myself in Istanbul, Turkey, talking to college students about faith. Each day I took a ferry across the Bosphorus, had the best conversations, and drank chai. The Turkish people were amazingly kind, and the college students were fascinated to meet a Christian for the first time in their entire lives!

Istanbul is a bustling city, and I often found myself bumping into people. A friend taught me how to apologize– yet people seemed confused when I spoke. After asking a Turkish friend, I learned that I was saying "please forgive my grave error." Just the right note if you ran over a neighbor's child with your car, but perhaps a little too serious for bumping into someone on the sidewalk! My mistake led me to a deeper dive on the Turkish language, which led to more discoveries.

Imagine how much we could discover if we pursued our curiosity about the things of God.

When we pursue our curiosity about the things of this world, we discover so many new things. Imagine how much we could discover if we pursued our curiosity about the things of God!

In this column I've been exploring the habits of spiritually healthy disciples. Lately we've been talking about the importance of studying our faith. Healthy disciples make time to study their faith! Let's get started.

Send me (Beth Spizarny) an email (bspizarny@shrinechurch.com) or give me a ring (248-556-9898) and let me know your thoughts. - Follow Your Questions. We all have questions about our Catholic faith. Are you curious about the Resurrection? Do you wonder how the Trinity could be three Persons in one God? God puts questions on our heart to lead us on an adventure. As someone who nearly left the Catholic Church in search of answers– I can tell you with confidence that there are answers for all of your questions in our Catholic faith. So get on your quest! If you need help on your journey– email the Faith Formation Solutions Team at questions@shrinechurch.com. We can share some places to look, or maybe answer your question in an upcoming Herald.
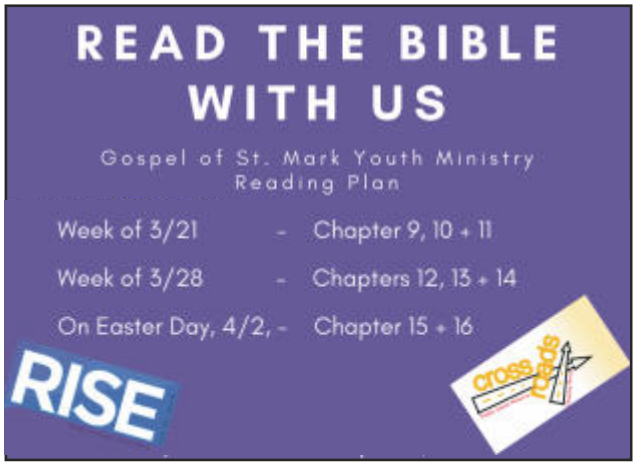
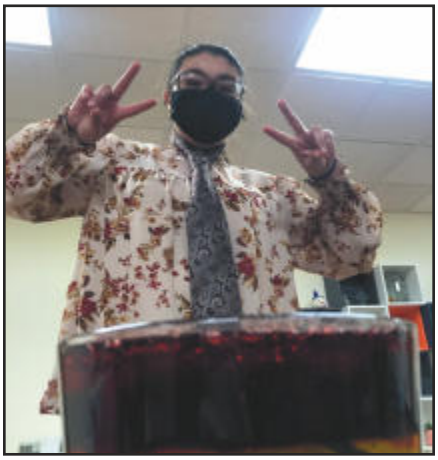
- Formed.org. You have access to a Catholic "Netflix" through Shrine! This incredible resource has talks, movies, video series, faith studies, even programs for children. Setup your free account by clicking "Sign-Up" and selecting Shrine from the list of participating parishes. Use the search bar to find just what you're looking for!
- Open That Book. That Catholic book that's been sitting on your bookshelf and you always meant to read? Pick it up! See what God has to say. Perhaps like parishioner Karen Pettke you've picked up a Lenten Little Black Book. She says, "I truly love each night reading and meditating on the reflections!" Time to pick yours back up?

Well Done Team Voldemort: Office Olympic Champs

We competed in a variety of games from season 2 of The Office, including eating Jell-O to free office supplies, and running with reams of paper on our feet. In the end, only one team took home the gold colored yogurt lid, and that was Team Voldemort (I said his name, whoops).





Join us at our Upcoming Events!

We will plan to be in the Youth Room until further notice moving forward. It's a tricky space to find, but is on the Northwood Blvd side of the Church, near the base of the Tower, just past the handicap ramp at the entrance to the Basilica. There's an outdoor staircase!

- Rise, this Sunday 3/14 from 7:15-8:45pm. "How to Find Yourself in Scripture" will be our last topic to close our scripture series!
- Crossroads Middle School Adoration and Pizza Night, Friday, 3/26 from 7-8:30pm. There's going to be pizza and Jesus. Need we say more?

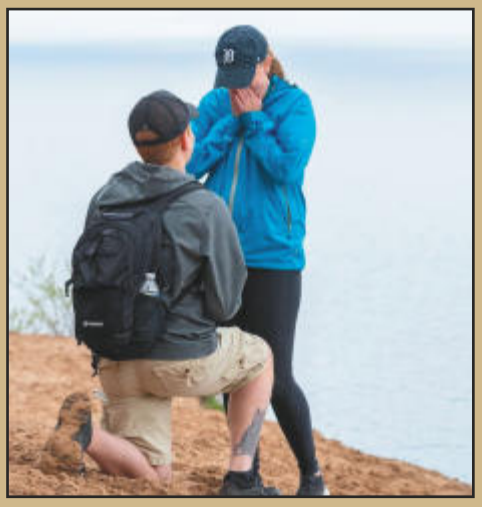
The Fourth Sunday of Lent

The Second Scrutiny

On Sunday, March 14th we celebrated the Second Scrutiny with our "elect" Tara Paladino and Alyssa Kruszewski who will be baptized at the Easter Vigil- please join us!

The Scrutinies are meant to uncover, and then heal all that is weak, defective, or sinful in the hearts of the elect; to bring out, then strengthen all that is upright, strong, and good. The Scrutinies are celebrated in order to deliver the elect from the power of sin and Satan, to protect them against temptation, and to give them strength in Christ, who is the way, the truth, and the life. These Rites, therefore, should complete the conversion of the elect and deepen their resolve to hold fast to Christ and to carry out their decision to love God above all. Please continue to pray for our elect as the continue their preparation for their new life in Christ, thank you!

We welcome Alyssa Kruszewski



I've always been someone who believes by seeing and I've always heard 'God will show you the signs when you're ready'. This was something I always struggled with because in my heart, I knew there was something bigger out there but I couldn't grasp the concept because I couldn't see it. I always looked for signs where I could and since my fiancé and I started attending Shrine a few years back, I couldn't help but notice them.

For instance, when my fiancé asked me to marry him, we were making our way to Pyramid Point, part of Sleeping Bear Sand Dunes, and it was raining the whole ride there. As we started to hike, it was continuing to sprinkle, as soon as we got to the outlook, where he asked me to marry him, the rain stopped and the sun started shining. Shortly after this, I made the decision that I wanted to be baptized and really start my journey.

The defining moment that solidified that this was what God wanted was when I choose my Godmother to accompany me on my journey. I told her the saint's name I had chosen to take, Cecilia, and she told me that was her godmother's name. Later that day, we went to dinner to celebrate our day spent with God and a picture of Mother Theresa was on the wall in the corner. My godmother turned to me and said "We were meant to be here today." I think that was God's way of telling me I made the perfect choice."

Wondering about the Catholic Faith? We would be so honored to walk with you on your journey in exploring the Catholic faith and becoming Catholic. You are welcomed at any time. Now may be the perfect time for you! Please feel free to contact Ann Ferguson @ 248-291-8275 or aferguson@shrinechurch.com

ATTENTION ALL PARISHIONERS

Holy Thursday, the night of the Last Supper, holds special meaning for all priests as it is considered to be the inception of the priesthood in the Catholic Church. The Shrine Vocations Committee invites you to show your appreciation for the priests in our parish for all they do in supporting our faith community by sending them a kind note, a card, or a letter of thanks to arrive on Holy Thursday. Please, no gifts. As we all know, the demands on the clergy are always increasing and their numbers are decreasing. We encourage you to affirm their hard work and dedication with a simple thank you. We wish you a blessed and joyous Easter, and we ask you to continue to pray for religious vocations. Please let our priests know you care.

Shrine Vocations Committee

NOTICE TO ALL MINISTERS OF HOLY COMMUNION

Located near the Blessed Sacrament Sacristy is the Minister of Holy Communion Early Sign up Sheets for the Easter Weekend Services.

Please select and sign up for a location and a Service of your choice to service.

Also, whether or not you have signed up early, please check in with the Coordinator at the service you attend to either let the Coordinator you are present or to volunteer to serve at that

We always have many visitors during this season; therefore we will need more Ministers at each Service than normal.

So, please come forward to serve.

Being One With God With "Ascend"

Fr. John McKenzie Associate Pastor
National Shrine of the Little Flower Basilica

The goal of prayer is unity with Jesus. Fr. John McKenzie will teach us how to unite ourselves with Jesus in the Eucharist. We will then experience letting God love us through His Presence in the Eucharist as we participate in "Ascend".

Divine Mercy Celebration

Divine Mercy Sunday is celebrated on the Sunday after Easter. Divine Mercy has a simple message: that God loves us all and that His Mercy is greater than our sins. Jesus desires us to trust in His Mercy so that His Mercy can flow through us. This year Shrine will celebrate the feast with a variety of events for people of all ages. Mark your calendars and join us as we reflect on Jesus' gift of Divine Mercy and how it changes hearts and transforms lives.

Good Friday-Saturday, April 10: Pray the Divine Mercy Novena each day.

Friday, April 9:

6:00 PM Bring your lawn chairs and join us for dinner in the parking lot. Details to follow.

7:30-9:00 PM

What is Divine Mercy and how is it a message for us today? Hear the story of Divine Mercy through the lives of St. Faustina Kowalska, St. Maximillian Kolbe, and St. John Paul II in the movie entitled Ocean of Mercy. Appropriate for teens and older. The movie will play in the Basilica.

Saturday, April 10:

8:30 AM Mass with Fr. Mark Livingston.

9:15-10:15 AM Fr. Alex Kratz, OFM will speak on Divine Mercy.

12:00-2:00 PM Extend mercy to others through Corporal Works of Mercy activities in the community. Watch the Herald for more details.

2:00-3:00 PM Gather with your family in Heritage Green to make a Divine Mercy triptych and statue for your home.

3:00 PM Pray the Divine Mercy chaplet as a family in the Basilica. Confessions will be heard at their normal times.

Sunday April 11:

3:00 PM Gather as we pray a living Chaplet of Divine Mercy in the Basilica.

Prayer for Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.
I love you above all things and I desire to receive you in my soul.
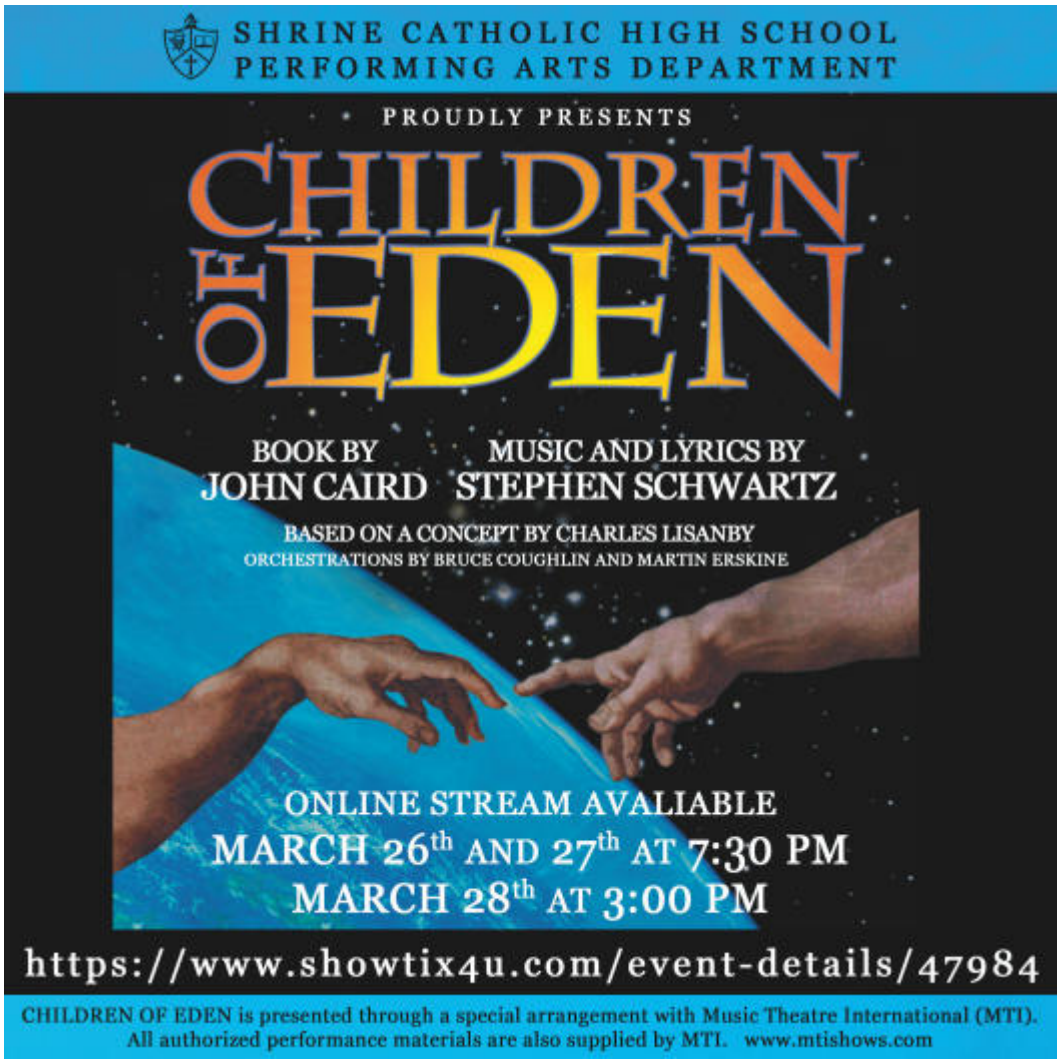
Since I cannot at this moment receive
you sacramentally,
Come at least spiritually
into my heart.
I embrace you as if you
were already there
And unite myself wholly to you.
Never permit me
to be separated from you. Amen.

Saint Michael, the Archangel, defend us in battle; be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly host, by the power of God, thrust into hell Satan and the other evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen



Special Lenten Music Concert & Holy Mass

There will be a special hour long 6 PM Lenten Music Concert, featuring Pergolesi's Stabat Mater, on Monday, March 22 at Historic St. Joseph Shrine, 1828 Jay St., located across from Eastern Market in Detroit.

The featured vocalists are Brittany Woodcock, soprano and Stephanie Weil, alto. They will be accompanied by the St. Joseph Chamber Ensemble.

A Solemn High Mass, in honor of St. Benedict, will immediately follow at 7 PM. For more information, please visit www.institute-christ-king.org/detroit/ or call (313)784-9152.

Got questions about the Catholic faith? Wonder why Catholics do what we do?

The new Shrine Faith Formation Solutions Team would love to answer your questions. If we don't know the answer, we'll find someone who does! You might even see your question (anonymously cited) in the Herald one day.

Send your questions to: questions@shrinechuch.com

READ THE GOSPEL AND COMPLETE A PUZZLE!

SHARING THE GOSPEL

When you act bossy, selfish, or rude, no one will want to spend time with you. You will be lonely and unhappy. Follow the example of Jesus instead. Be strong in your faith. Do all that God asks you to do, even when it is not easy. Be honest. Be kind. Share what you have been given. Be helpful. Forgive. Show everyone what God is like. When you follow Jesus' example, you won't be lonely. When people around you see that your faith is real, they will come to you for help. They will want to know what makes you different. Then you can point them to Jesus.

PRAYER

God, help me to follow Jesus. I want to show everyone how great you really are.

MISSION FOR THE WEEK

Look for ways to be helpful in your family. Help set the table. Take the trash out. Put away your toys and books without being asked. When your family notices you being so helpful, tell them you are trying to follow Jesus' example.

Next Religious Formation Session

Our next Zoom session is Sunday, March 21.
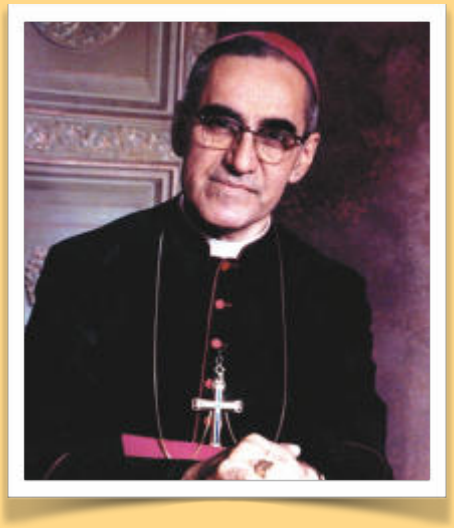
We look forward to "seeing" you then!
Our remaining sessions are
April 11, April 25,
May 2, and May 16.

Saint of the Week

St. Oscar Romero

Feast Day March 24

1942-1980



St. Oscar was an archbishop in El Salvador during a time of political and social unrest.

He was not swayed by politics or people, and was a vocal critic of the government and rebels. His outspoken support of the poor brought threats to his life.

He was martyred while saying Mass at a hospital.

We pray to him for the courage to live our faith faithfully.

give central

Our church is now accepting online donations through GiveCentral, our new safe, secure, and paperless way to make your contributions. GiveCentral was designed specifically for Catholic organizations and hundreds of parishes have found success. The site allows you to make one-time or recurring payments on a schedule that works best for you, using any credit or debit card, or electronic (ACH) bank withdrawal.

We believe that having flexible giving options will make it easier for you to support our church. Please visit GiveCentral and take a few minutes to set up your contributions. Your generosity and support are greatly appreciated!

WATCH

THE SANCTUARY COURSE FOR CATHOLICS

Misconceptions surrounding mental illness can prevent us from responding well to those suffering. This eight-session course explores the realities of mental illness, as well as the need for faith-based conversations about this topic. Featuring stories of Catholics living with mental health challenges, along with the insights of archbishops, theologians, and psychologists.

LEARN

A BIBLE STUDY ON THE ANNUNCIATION

In this video, Dr. Ben Akers leads us through a brief study of Luke 1:26-38, highlighting some of the key Old Testament passages evoked by Gabriel's words. The reflection concludes with some thoughts on how we can imitate Mary's Yes in our own life, especially in this time of suffering.

LISTEN

SAY YES TO CHRIST: ALLOWING JESUS TO BE THE LORD OF YOUR WHOLE LIFE BY SCOTT HAHN

Mary conformed the entirety of her life to the Divine Will. In doing so, she became the model of perfect discipleship. In this talk, Dr. Scott Hahn discusses why we too should surrender our lives to the Lord.

"I Gave Jesus My Rebel Heart"

This weekend after all the Masses, we shared Amanda Sharrak's Story of Hope. Here is a written summary of Amanda's story.

———————————————————-

Soon after Amanda made her sacraments, she decided the Church had too many rules, and she didn't like rules. She stopped going to church and she had no interest in God.

She replaced God with "stuff." She worked in her father's business and had every "thing" she could imagine. Despite of all her possessions, Amanda felt a great sense of dissatisfaction.

One day Amanda was with her friend Ashley, who she called a "Jesus Freak." Amanda could see how happy Ashley was and she told her, "I wish I had hope in Jesus. I just don't believe." Ashley offered to pray with Amanda. Soon after, Amanda felt a deep desire to go Confession- and Ashley went along with her.

Amanda's life was changing, in Reconciliation she was healed; she returned to Mass, she could not stay away from Adoration, she lived for the Eucharist. She finally knew pure happiness through her relationship with Jesus.

Amanda's challenge for you: give Jesus your heart, don't settle for anything less!

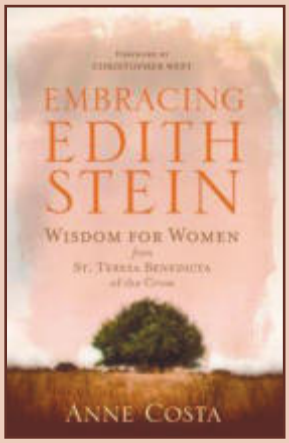
Calling all Women! Join us for:



Embracing Edith Stein: Wisdom for Women from St. Teresa Benedicta of the Cross

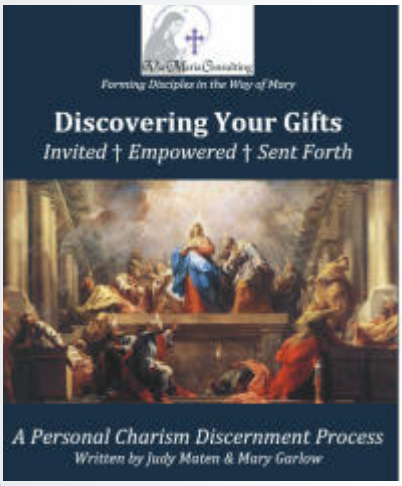
Begins Friday, April 9
9:30-11:30 AM Location: TBD

St. Teresa Benedicta of the Cross (Edith Stein) was a philosopher, spiritual writer, feminist, Carmelite, and inspiration for Pope John Paul II's writings on the feminine genius and Theology of the Body. Her writings on women's spirituality are an inspiration for all women as we seek to discover our authentic identity as women created in the image and likeness of God.

We will be reading and reflecting on Stein's writings from the book entitled: Embracing Edith Stein: Wisdom for Women from St. Teresa Benedicta of the Cross by Anne Costa. The book can be ordered through Amazon. Cost for the book is $14.99 plus tax and shipping. Sessions will be facilitated by Judy Maten. If you would like Judy to order the book for you, or if you have questions, please contact her at judym@viamariaconsulting.com.

Location for the sessions will depend on COVID restrictions and weather. Early sessions may be via Zoom. RSVP to Judy if you plan on attending.

How is God calling You? Join us for Discovering Your Gifts Charism Workshop



Thursdays, April 15, 22, 29, May 6 and May 13
Live in the Basilica April 15 & May 13; 7:00-8:30 PM
Virtual sessions 4/22, 29 & May 6; 9:30-11 AM or 7:00-8:30 PM

Have you ever wondered:

- How can I live a fulfilled and joy-filled life?
- Am I living to my fullest potential?
- What should I be doing at this stage of life?
- What is God's plan for me and how do I know I am on the right path?

We invite you to attend and discover the answer to these questions and more!
We will uncover how God has uniquely gifted you to live out your baptismal call, find happiness, lead a fulfilling life, and go deeper in your relationship with Jesus. During the sessions, you will learn how both your spiritual gifts (charisms) and natural talents are discerned, activated and exercised through ministry, career, volunteer opportunities, and relationships with others. We will learn how to pray deeply so as to be able discern wisely. Presenters for the sessions will be Judy Maten and Mary Garlow.

The workshop will begin on Thursday, April 15, in the Basilica from 7:00-8:30 PM. Sessions 2-4 will be held virtually on Thursdays, April 22, 29, and May 6. We will gather back in the Basilica for session 5 on May 13, from 7:00-8:30 PM. Virtual sessions will meet from 9:30-11:00 AM or 7:00-8:30 PM—participants can select which time slot best fits their needs.

Workbooks and handouts will be distributed on April 22, so please plan on arriving at least 10 minutes early to pick up your materials. Bring a pen or pencil as well.

To register, go to https://viamariaconsulting.com/event-registration.

There will be a free-will offering collected at the first and fifth sessions in the Basilica to help cover costs.
If you have any questions, please contact Judy Maten at judym@viamariaconsulting.com.

Recognize God In Your Ordinary Moments

When Our Own Hour Comes

We parents know that it's tricky, tackling the topic of fear with our kids. We want them to know that it's okay to be scared, that it's something we all feel from time to time. We want them to understand that bravery isn't the absence of fear, but the choices we make in persevering despite that feeling.

Most of all, we want to model the right kind of behavior for our kids. Whatever our scary situation is — illness, a job loss, life changes — we want them to see us make a choice to face that fear head-on.

Jesus seems to be the parent who is gently broaching the topic of fear with his children. A great sense of foreboding hangs over these readings. Jesus knew what was coming. He knew it was going to be hard, both for him and for his followers, who did not have his courage. Even he admits to being "troubled" and he speaks of "the time of judgment." There is the dramatic raising of Lazarus, the talk of how a grain of wheat must die in order to bear fruit, the depiction of Christ as an obedient student of his own suffering.

"Yet what should I say?" he asks them. "'Father, save me from this hour?' But it was for this purpose that I came to this hour."

This week, Christ gives us a very parental gift: He shows us his fear, and he shows us how to conquer it. He challenges us to embrace the purpose for which we came to this hour — whatever that hour may hold.

WHY DO WE DO THAT?

Catholic Life Explained:

Question:
What is spiritual communion, and do you need to be in a state of grace to receive it?

Answer:
The practice of making a "spiritual communion" dates back several centuries and St. Thomas Aquinas described it as "an ardent desire to receive Jesus in the Holy Sacrament and a loving embrace as though we had already received Him." Traditionally, a prayer of spiritual communion has been used by those who are unable to receive sacramental communion because of health, inability to attend Mass, or who cannot receive communion because of grave sin. This practice has been encouraged by many saints and spiritual writers and most recently Pope Francis encouraged the practice when the realities of the COVID-19 pandemic prevented so many Catholics from taking part in the Mass or receiving sacramental communion.
Although the graces offered in spiritual communion are not the same as those offered in the sacramental communion of the Mass, this practice is still a powerful opportunity to express our desire for union with the Lord and to be united with Christ and the Church, even in an imperfect way.
