NATIONAL SHRINE of the LITTLE FLOWER BASILICA

They were exceedingly astonished and said among themselves,
"Then who can be saved?" Jesus looked at them and said,
"For human beings it is impossible, but not for God.
All things are possible for God." - Mk 10:26-27

Saint of the Week

St. Teresa of Ávila (1515-1582) was a Spanish Carmelite nun who lived in the 16th century. She was a mystic and author of spiritual writings and poems. The originator of the Carmelite Reform, she founded numerous convents throughout Spain and restored a contemplative life to the order. She became well known for the mystical experiences, many of which she described in her autobiography.

The first of only four women to be named a Doctor of the Church, St. Teresa's ascetic doctrine and Carmelite reforms shaped Roman Catholic contemplative life, and her writings on the Christian soul's journey to God are considered works of art. Her writings, especially the "Way of Perfection" and "The Interior Castle," have helped generations of believers.

St. Teresa of Avila died on Oct. 15, 1582. She was canonized on March 22, 1622, along with three of her greatest contemporaries: St. Ignatius Loyola, St. Francis Xavier, and St. Philip Neri.

Perpetual Eucharistic Adoration

After many years, Joe and Marie Lama are stepping down as coordinators of Perpetual Eucharistic Adoration. For them, this has been a labor of love for Shrine Church and for our Lord. This is a gift that will not go unrewarded in the next life. All those involved in Adoration wish them well, and pray for continued blessings for Joe and Marie in the years ahead.

Until a new lead for Eucharistic Adoration is found, sign-ups will be coordinated via e-mail at shrineadoration@gmail.com.

New Adorers and Substitutes are urgently needed to cover over 30 open hours on the weekly schedule. This requires a regular one hour commitment each week, or for subs, to be on call for certain hours/days. Early morning hours are a special challenge to fill. Please consider spending a Holy Hour with Jesus, truly present in the Blessed Sacrament.

Open Holy hours:

We look forward to hearing from you! Contact shrineadoration@gmail.com.

LIFE MATTERS

In October, the Catholic Church in the United States celebrates Respect Life Month, and the first Sunday of October is designated as Respect Life Sunday.

> "The infant Christ "came into our world in a state of great vulnerability. He needed to be defended, protected, cared for and raised by Joseph" (PC 5). The humble and often hidden carpenter of Nazareth accompanied Mary in her pregnancy, assisted at the birth of the Messiah in a stable, presented Jesus in the Temple, fled with his family far from their homeland to protect them, and lovingly raised Jesus as his own son in the years to come. (Excerpt from Respect Life Month 2021 Reflection)

With St. Joseph as our model, we too need to protect the vulnerable among us. This October you have the opportunity to join others and publically stand up for life. Here are some opportunities:

Evangelization & Faith Formation

Years ago, I sat across from a young man on a date. We were eating spaghetti, and I realized we would never work as a couple the very moment he picked up his fork. He held the fork in his fist, scooping up forkfuls of food as though he were operating a forklift.

I often wonder in what ways my own manners may be lacking without my own knowledge! I also often think back to that moment when I marvel at the impact of our families on who we become as we grow up. Archbishop Allen Vigneron wrote, "It is impossible to overestimate the centrality of the family in the passing on of faith from one generation to the next...Families are the first and most important setting in which evangelization takes place." " (Unleash the Gospel, Guidepost 7).

This October, we're celebrating St. Thérèse, our parish patroness. In St. Thérèse, we see that saints grow in families! Her parents Saints Louis and Zelie Martin are the first married couple to be canonized together. In their canonization Mass, Pope Francis declared, "The holy spouses Louis Martin and Marie-Azelie Guerin practiced Christian service in the family, creating day by day an environment of faith and love which nurtured the vocations of their daughters."

Here at Shrine we love families! So often parents aren't sure how to talk to their children about faith if they're still journeying themselves. We're lucky to have such great parents at Shrine, and a great team supporting them! This year at Shrine we're supporting our parents and their kids with an in-person Family Catechism program; parents and their kids gather for prayer, and split into age-appropriate classes to learn and grow in their faith. Parents are doing The Search, from Formed.org, and giving it rave reviews.

Send me (Beth Spizarny) an email (bspizarny@shrinechurch.com) or give me a ring (248-556-9898) and let me know your thoughts. As Director of Evangelization and Faith Formation, I am responsible for overseeing the formation of children, youth, and adults, as well as implementing Unleash the Gospel with parishioners, and reaching out to inactive Catholics, and the unchurched.

Draw Near to Saint Thérèse

We're also beginning something new to further support our families– a Family Holy Hour. Since St. Thérèse was so committed to prayer herself, we are eager to help our children and families pray.

It is such a mystery that God listens to every prayer we offer, and in a particular way, calls us to pray for one another! St. Thérèse reflected on this mystery, saying "It is God's will that in this world souls shall dispense to each other, by prayer, the treasures of Heaven, in order that when they reach their Everlasting Home they may love one another with grateful hearts."

Join us for our first official Family Holy Hour this Monday, October 11, in the basilica. We'll have simple music, a reading from Scripture, and a word of hope from our priests. Pre-packaged snacks will be available in Heritage Hall afterwards. All are welcome. We'll invite children to kneel at the railing to be very close to Jesus in the Eucharist, and everyone will receive a very special Eucharistic blessing. We're crafting this time of prayer especially with little ones in mind– so don't hesitate to bring on the strollers!

Question: What is "The Little Way?"

Answer: It is a way of living and path to heaven exemplified by St. Thérèse and for that St. John Paul II declared her a Doctor of the Church in 1997 - one of only four women to be so named, and the youngest person overall! In his declaration he reminds us "One can say with conviction about Thérèse of Lisieux that the Spirit of God allowed her heart to reveal directly to the people of our time the fundamental mystery, the reality of the Gospel.... Her 'little way' is the way of 'holy childhood'. There is something unique in this way, the genius of St Thérèse of Lisieux. .., What truth of the Gospel message is really more basic and more universal than this: God is our Father and we are his children?" (DIVINI AMORIS SCIENTIA, 1997).

In St. Thérèse's autobiography, The Story of a Soul (SS), there are countless references to her Little Way. In Scripture, Jesus said, "Let the children come to me"(Luke 18:16). St. Thérèse's "Little Way" involves approaching God as a little child approaches their father - fearless and innocent.

Calling women of all ages!

Study the Creed with Bishop Barron

Begins Friday, October 22 from 9:30-11:30 AM

At every Mass we recite the tenets of our faith in the Nicene Creed. The words may be recited, but do we truly understand the magnitude of what we are praying?

Join the Friday morning women's ministry group as we begin a new study on Friday, October 22 of The Creed, the new video series by Bishop Robert Barron. In this study we will break open the Creed to discover the roots of our Catholic faith.

There is an accompanying book, Light from Light, which will be read at home that participants can order through Word on Fire for $19.96 each. Go to the link below to order online:

https://bookstore.wordonfire.org/products/light-from-light

Light from Light is also available on Kindle through Amazon for $9.99 each. Go to the link below to order:

https://www.amazon.com/Light-Robert-Barron/dp/1943243840

If you are planning on attending the series, please RSVP to Judy Maten so she can make sure enough printed materials are prepared for all participants (Email: judym@viamariaconsulting.com or call 313.268.1985).

Saint of the Week

St. Faustina

Feast Day October 5

1905-1938

St. Faustina was born in Poland to a devout peasant family. Only slightly educated, she entered the convent at age 20 and had a vision commanding her to paint an image of the Divine Mercy. Not a painter, it took her three years to find someone to paint the image she saw.

She continued to receive visions, and like St. Thèrése was encouraged to write down her thoughts. Her Diary has been published in many languages. She was sickly her whole life and died of tuberculosis.

She is the patron saint of Divine Mercy.
