In Historic Romeo

SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME • JANUARY 16, 2022

From the Parish Office:

The End of Year Contribution Statements will be mailed soon. Please contact the parish office if you have not received it by January 31.

Donations for MCREST

Cash and check donations will be accepted to help offset the cost of hosting MCREST for the week. Donations can be dropped off at the Parish Office. Thank you for your generosity.

PB&J Ministry Jelly Donations Needed

The PB&J Ministry is in need of donations of jelly. Jars can be placed on the carts at the entrance of church. Thank you for help with this wonderful ministry.

Forgotten Harvest

The Forgotten Harvest pop-up pantry will be in our parish's parking lot. Volunteers from Forgotten Harvest will be distributing food on Mondays from 9:00 a.m. - 11:00 a.m.

MCREST BEGINS TODAY!

It is once again time for our MCREST week. Our parish will begin our week on January 16 and will finish up on January 23. Due to the COVID virus and the variants we are once again hosting our guests off site to ensure the safety of our guests and volunteers. We will meet all the needs of our guests but just offsite. We will be providing them with hot meals (breakfast, lunch and dinner), a warm place to stay, personal care items, needed clothing, gas cards when needed and of course, warm hearts! There are plenty of volunteer opportunities. Please contact Denise at 586-372-3576 to sign up! We are in need of: kitchen prep, meal packaging, kitchen clean up, transportation of meals to the MCREST office in Roseville and to the "new" women's shelter in Mt. Clemens.

Our Father, today we pray for children who live without homes. We know that they are most vulnerable to the dangers of homelessness. We pray for their protection and comfort, and for avenues to open so they can find stability and safety. We pray for agencies working to provide shelter and support. Lead us to know how best to minister to the needs of homeless children in our area. Amen.

Weekly Soup for the Homebound

Do you know anyone who is elderly and home bound, anyone who has undergone a recent surgery, or anyone who is struggling with health issues and would appreciate a weekly visit to drop off some soup? If so, contact Christian Services 586-651-0734 and we will add them to our SOS ministry. We are currently deliver soup weekly to 27 households. The SOS (serving others soup) ministry delivers soup that is donated from the Romeo Family Restaurant.

We of St. Clement of Rome Parish, with the Power of the Spirit, welcome, embrace and unite all the many faces of Christ who worship with us. As a family, we deepen our faith and seek God in the community, through prayer and good works.

PB&J Ministry Needs Volunteers

Every Sunday individuals or families from St. Clement make 100 peanut butter and jelly sandwiches for the homeless and deliver them to Trinity Lutheran Church in Utica. All supplies will be given to you. If you would like to volunteer for our PB&J Ministry, please call 752-9611.

When the wine ran short, the mother of Jesus said to him, "They have no wine." And Jesus said to her, "Woman, how does your concern affect me? My hour has not yet come." His mother said to the servers, "Do whatever he tells you." – Jn 2:1-5

It Takes All Kinds

"If every flower wanted to be a rose," wrote St. Therese of Lisieux, "spring would lose its loveliness."

Who is God asking you to be today? There is an obvious answer that springs to mind right out of the gate. God wants me to be a good person (a good father, a good husband) today; today, God wants me to be a saint.

But this answer fails to get to the heart of the question. We are all striving today to serve the same Spirit, but we are given different gifts to do so. The one who has the gift of knowledge may fail if today he decides he wants to be a healer. The one who has the gift of "varieties of tongues" might falter in the expression of wisdom.

Think about the wedding at Cana and the players in the scene: the servers, the guests, the bride and groom. They all have a unique role to play, and though it is to the servers that Mary gives the instruction, "Do whatever he tells you," her words apply to all.

Today, are we called to be the servers — do we wait on God's instruction and carry it out, no matter how foolish or impossible it may seem to our human ears? Are we asked to be the disciples, to bear witness to a miracle and to give our testimony? Are we called to imitate the Blessed Mother herself and give encouragement to follow God's word?

Let us examine our gifts and listen in the silence of our hearts to the direction of the Spirit. Then and only then, let us do whatever He tells us.

— Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

St. Lawrence Open House

St. Lawrence Catholic School (grades K - 8) will hold an open house on Sunday, January 30 from 1:00 p.m. - 3:00 p.m. This is a perfect opportunity to tour the school, meet the staff and ask any question one may have about St. Lawrence Catholic School.

Exciting News

St. Clement Christian Service now has a clothing closet for adults and children. If you need clothing or know of someone who does, please contact Denise at 586-372-3576 to schedule a time to come in to shop. "The CS Boutique" is in the upper level of the Agape Center.

One for Every Room

One Sunday our priest announced he was passing out miniature crosses made of palm leaves. "Put this cross in the room where your family argues most," he advised. "When you look at it, the cross will remind you that God is watching."

As I was leaving church, the woman in front of me walked up to the priest, shook his hand, and said, "I'll take five."

Prayer of a Soldier's Mother

Oh, Sweet Mother Immaculate receive my earnest plea. To guide and guard my soldier son/daughter; take care of them for me. When danger stalks too close to them, their hand in yours to take, and lead them to a place secure; my child, do not forsake. But, most of all, dear Mother mine, their soul I trust to thee, that grace sublime in them may shine and God-like they may be. Amen.

Faithful Departed

Question: How can we pray for the dead throughout the year?

Answer: We commemorate the faithful departed on November 2nd each year. However, we can and should continue to pray for the dead. Our growth in Christian perfection takes a long time. At the time of our death, many of us might not be saints yet. But God, in His mercy, allows for those who love Him to experience purification after death. Our word for that state is Purgatory. It's the antechamber of heaven, so to speak. We know we're getting in the house, but we're not quite ready to go all the way in. There's rain to shake off our coats and dirt that's clogging our shoes.

Here on earth, we can pray for the souls in Purgatory. One way is to request that your parish offer a Mass for the intention of a specific loved one. We can also remember the departed in our daily prayers. Just as we have special intentions for family and friends here on earth, we can pray for those who have died. It's also a good act of Christian charity to pray for the forgotten, those who have no one else to pray for them. God knows who they are!

2ND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Spiritual Health for the New Year

As we anticipate the New Year ahead we frequently make resolutions for improving our physical health, such as losing some weight or getting more exercise. The state of our spirit is even more important to our health and well-being, but we too often fail to take the time to attend to it. Join us for a retreat day focused on the cornerstones of our spiritual health—Sacraments, Scripture, Prayer, and Community. Learn how these support our spiritual framework and gain new tools for prayer to enrich your spiritual journey throughout the coming year. Join us to participate in a variety of prayer experiences designed to refresh your spirit. Adoration and Reconciliation will be available. Meets the Archdiocese of Detroit retreat requirements for catechist certification.

Held at St. Lucy's Parish in St. Clair Shores, Thursday, January 27, 2022. If you are interested, please contact Debbie Knoblock at (586)752-6592 or email dknoblock@stclementromeo.com

God delights in you. How do you feel when you hear that? Delight usually comes with an exuberant flow of joy that seemingly arises from one's toes with the expression of great glee. Reflecting upon the deep measure of joy God has in us can be a source of joy for ourselves. Delight is infectious. A very young brother and sister were playing on the beach when the all too familiar ice cream truck made its daily rounds. The boy shook with excitement and delight as he took his sister's hand and exclaimed, "The ice cream man is here, isn't it great!" As they ran off toward the truck, one could hear the girl reply, "Yeah, I can't wait!" The experience of a child's delight in something so simple as ice cream, lifts our spirits from our burdens and transports us to the lighter, more innocent side of life.

Life is not meant to be a burden. Believe it or not, God actually wants us to be happy! In fact, the wedding feast at Cana shows us that God even puts His blessing on our happiness. It is okay to celebrate the wonder of ourselves and others. Life is good. It is always interesting to note that Jesus saves the good wine until last. You would think it would be the other way around. The superb quality of Jesus' wine points to the superior quality of life we find in Christ. It is not a life of burdens but a life of wonder and delight! In Christ, we are lifted from the superficial and mundane to a life of purpose, hope, and love.

God is with us through the long haul, through the challenges and sorrows as well as the successes and accomplishments. In spite of the fact that we often wander from the path, God's celebratory delight in us remains. As spouses are asked to remain faithful to each other through whatever life brings, God remains faithful too. This promise remains through this life and into the next. All we have to do is take the advice of Jesus' mother to heart when she says, "Listen to him." This wisdom saves us from foolishly giving in to the illusion that we can make better wine than Jesus.

Mass Intentions

If you would like to have a Mass said in honor or memory of someone you can request at the parish office, 752-9611. Mass intention cards can also be picked up from the parish office. Names will be printed in the bulletin the Sunday prior to the Mass.

“We must develop and maintain the capacity to forgive. He who is devoid of the power to forgive is devoid of the power to love. There is some good in the worst of us and some evil in the best of us. When we discover this, we are less prone to hate our enemies.” ~ Martin Luther King, Jr.

St. Sebastian | January 20

Not much is known about the life of St. Sebastian (256 – 287), except that he was a Roman martyr whose name has been mentioned throughout history since early 350.

We see St. Sebastian many times in art, especially from iconic paintings from Guido Reni, Andrea Mantegna and Hendrick ter Brugghen. Historical scholars now agree that a spiritual story has the beloved saint entering the Roman army because only there could he assist Christian martyrs without arousing suspicion on himself. Eventually he was found out, brought before Emperor Diocletian and delivered to Mauritanian archers to be shot to death. Pierced with arrows, he was left for dead, but managed to survive. He recovered from his wounds but still refused to leave.

One day, St. Sebastian took up a position near where the emperor was to pass. He confronted the emperor, condemning him for his cruelty to Christians. This time the sentence of death was carried out, and St. Sebastian was beaten to death with clubs. Today he is the patron saint of athletes.

Praying for children who are hidden from sight, but not hidden from God... Praying for the protection of unborn people...

I Said a Prayer for You Today

I said a prayer for you today and know God must have heard. I felt the answer in my heart although he spoke no word. I didn't ask for wealth or fame (I knew you wouldn't mind). I asked Him to send treasures of a far more lasting kind! I asked that He'd be near you at the start of each new day. To grant you health and blessings and friend to share your way. I asked for happiness for you in all things great and small. But it was for His loving care I prayed the most of all!

Don't Forget to Recycle... your newspapers, mail, catalogs & magazines while helping the environment. Proceeds go to the parish youth.

Lectors & Communion Ministers

For more than four decades, the Church has invited the faithful to participate in the celebration of the liturgy as Lectors and Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion.

Today the Church, and especially our parish, relies heavily on the work of lay ministers to bring forth a meaningful liturgy. As with all ministries, they begin with an invitation.

The requirements for serving as a liturgical minister is fully confirmed, at least 16 years of age, and available for training/formation. Training will be scheduled for a day and time to accommodate those interested.

We would like to invite anyone who may be interested in discerning these ministries to contact the Worship Office at (586) 752-6984.
