

St. Clement of Rome Catholic Church

Fourth Sunday of Lent

March 10, 2024

From the Parish Office:

Catholic Services Appeal 2024

So far 221 individuals/families have responded. Please continue to give thoughtful prayer to your CSA contributions for the coming year.

Farewell Celebration for Russ Morgan

Please join us after the 10:30 a.m. Mass on March 17 in the Social Hall, as we wish Russ Morgan well. He is leaving after Easter to begin a new chapter in his life. We have appreciated his dedicated service to St. Clement for many years. He will truly be missed!

Easter Egg Hunt

Hop on in to our annual Easter Egg Hunt! It will be held on Saturday, March 30 at 10:00 a.m. in the St. Clement picnic area. There will be fun games in the parking lot as the children arrive, followed by the Easter Egg Hunt. Please arrive promptly!

Helping Local Families with Easter

This year our parish has committed to helping some local families with Easter dinner and Easter baskets. If you are able to donate a ham, please contact Denise Kehren at 586-372-3576 to make arrangements. Your assistance is much appreciated!

Come Join the Comfort Makers

We are the Comfort Makers who make fleece blankets for our Veterans. Our ministry is one of thankfulness and honor to our Veteran Patriots. Everyone is welcome! Just bring your lunch and scissors, and together we will cut, knot, smile, laugh, plan and share. Our next meeting is Tuesday, March 12 from 10:00 a.m. - 2:00 p.m. Please bring your own lunch. For more information please call Nan Kyllonen at 752-2712.

Throughout the Lenten season of reflection and medication, you are invited to write your prayer requests on the back of the little purple crosses and pin them to the cross in the sanctuary.

Knights of Columbus Scholarships

For many years the Knights of Columbus at St. Clement have offered financial assistance to our parishes students attending Catholic K-12 educational institutions and colleges. The application period is now open. All submissions are due March 15th. Applications without the essay will not be considered. Please see our website for more information or to download the application. Copies of the application are also available in the parish office. More information on our website www.romeoknights.com or contact Joe Suminski at 586-337-5776.

A Family Perspective...

Today's gospel speaks of light and darkness. Often a parent is deliberately "left in the dark". Darkness can be comforting for it makes no demands on us. Light can be disturbing for it forces us to take action. Parents walk a delicate balance of when to "sit in the dark" and when to "turn on the lights". ~
Bud Ozar

The Uncomfortable Life in The Light

If you have ever been a woman over the age of 30 who stayed in a budget motel, you know the horror of awakening in a dark room, switching on the bathroom lights and screaming at the shriveled-up she-witch you find hiding there.

And you know the feeling of disappointment that blooms in the pit of your stomach as you realize the shriveled-up she-witch is your own reflection staring back at you beneath the merciless glare of overhead fluorescent lighting.

You may also know the relief of visiting a nice restaurant after dark and catching sight of yourself in the mirror. You lean forward, mesmerized by how different — how matte! How smooth! — the contours of your face look in what we call "forgiving light." But this turn of phrase is simply not correct. It is not light, and it does not forgive. It is darkness, and it merely conceals.

But it feels so much better, doesn't it? Salvation can feel like condemnation, when being lost is all you know. Sometimes it is so much more comfortable to live lost in the shadows.

It is possible to yearn for darkness. Darkness gives cover to so many things. The light has a harshness that can almost seem demanding, exposing. Light can bleach. Light can burn. "Is this really me?" you think in that budget hotel bathroom, examining acne scars you never saw before and crow's feet that seem to have developed overnight. The answer is yes. Yes, that is really you, all of it, every inch. There's nothing to be afraid of, just step into the light and own it.

"And this is the verdict, that the light came into the world, but people preferred darkness to light, because their works were evil." — John 3:19

Prayer Chair Yoga

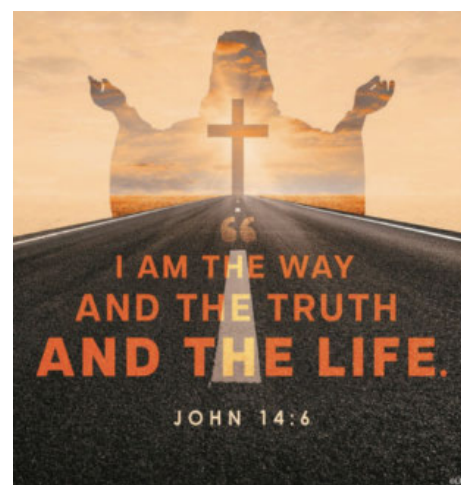

Come join us as we pray, stretch & relax together doing chair stretching/yoga. No experience is needed. This exercise is safe for everyone. Do as much as you feel comfortable. It is wonderful for your body and soul. Invite a friend. Fridays in April and May at 1:00 p.m. in the social hall. $5 donation. Tea served afterwards.

IHM Sisters' Raffle

Through your generous support of the IHM Sisters' Raffle, you make it possible for us to provide quality and compassionate care to our retired sisters. $25 raffle tickets are sold in the parish office.

Bus Trip to Assumption Grotto

The Knights of Columbus are looking to organize a bus trip to Assumption Grotto Parish to celebrate the Feast of the Assumption on August 15, 2024. We are looking for volunteers to help organize or anyone interested in going. Please contact John Swan at jfswankofc@gmail.com.

Walking In The Gym...

The gym is available for walkers Monday through Friday from 9:00 a.m. to 12:00 noon. Please remember to wear your gym shoes.

Healing Prayer

Heavenly Father, we pray that You will lay your healing Hands upon all those who are sick. We beg You to have compassion on all those who are suffering so that they may be delivered from their pitiful circumstances. In Jesus, we pray. Amen.

Help us keep our sick list current. Please notify the parish office at 752-9611 when changes occur. We enjoy hearing the good news of recovery and extend our deepest sympathy for those who have departed.

Praying the Rosary... On the 4th Sunday of every month in the Chapel starting at 10:00 a.m.

Easter Flowers

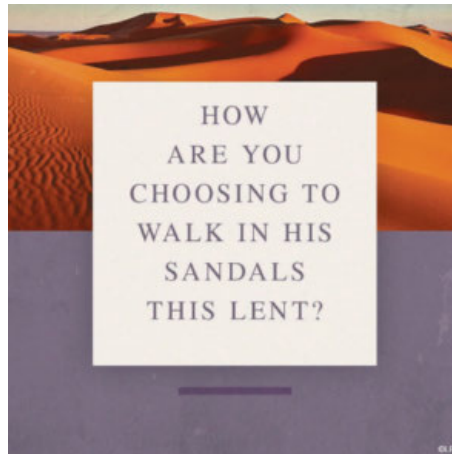

It is our custom at St. Clement to make an offering for the decoration of the worship space for the Easter Season, in the names of friends and family - living or deceased. The flower donation is $30.00. The names will be published in the Easter bulletin.

OUR TRUE HOME By Deacon Kurt Godfryd

There was a couple that had been married for more than 50 years when one day, unexpectedly, the husband passed away. A few days after the funeral, their pastor visited the widow and found that even though she was grieving, she was filled with peace and joy. “Mrs. Winslow, I’m glad to see you’re holding up so well. But even so, I’m sure you must miss your husband terribly.” The widow responded: “Oh, yes, I miss him more than ever. But I think of it this way. For years, I would wait all day for him to come home from his job. I’d keep busy here with work around the house and look forward to the time he’d walk through our front door. I’d always have dinner ready and, each evening, we would enjoy our time together. All these years, I was the one waiting for him to come home. But now, he’s waiting for me.” (adapted from Roy B. Zuck, The Speaker’s Quote Book, p. 102)

In each of our lives, there is one certainty: we will all experience death. Perhaps it will be the death of our parents, after which we will feel as though we are orphans. Perhaps it will be the death of our spouse, after which we will feel abandoned and alone. Perhaps it will be the death of our friends, after which we will feel the need to reflect and ask: “Am I next?” Or, worst of all, perhaps it will be the death of a child. For those of us who have experienced this tragedy, myself included, we know how we have cried out to the Lord: “Lord, why my child? Why couldn’t it have been me?”

It is at our baptism that we begin our Christian journey. If we think about it, it is though the words spoken by the priest or deacon set our lives in motion. For, at the anointing after baptism, we hear: “As Christ was anointed priest, prophet, and king, so may you live always as a member of his body, sharing everlasting life.” During the clothing with the white garment, we hear: “May we see in this white garment the outward sign of our Christian dignity. With our families and friends to help us by word and example, may we bring that dignity unstained into the everlasting life of heaven.” And during the lighting of the Paschal candle, we hear: “May we always walk as children of the light and keep the flame of faith alive in our hearts so that when the Lord comes, we may go out to meet him with all the saints in the heavenly kingdom.”

Given all of this, it is important that we remind ourselves of where we are headed—and of what God has promised us. We are headed for glory in the kingdom! We are headed for everlasting life! We are headed for reunion with those we love and continue to love us, who are now in union with all the saints in the heavenly kingdom! The Holy Scriptures remind us of this reality: That the souls of the just are in the hand of God. (Wisdom 3:1-9); That the Lord is our Shepherd. (Psalm 23); That our hope rests in Christ Jesus, who does not disappoint. (Romans 5:5-11); and that everyone who sees the Son and believes in him may have eternal life and shall be raised on the last day. (John 6:37-40)

In the year 125 A.D., a pagan author named Publius Aristides attempted to explain why Christianity had been spreading: “If any righteous man among the Christians passes from this world, they rejoice and offer thanks to God, and they escort his body with songs and thanksgiving as if he were setting out from one place to another nearby.” (Zuck, p. 106)

Our Christian understanding of death is this: First, that we are journeying from one place to another. And second, that our movements are from a temporary dwelling to an eternal home. In considering death, most of us feel frightened, especially of the unknown. As such, we must always keep our ultimate goal in mind.

Late one evening, as evening drew on, a little girl entered a cemetery which she frequently used as a shortcut after school. An old man walking near the cemetery gate stopped and asked her, “Aren’t you afraid to go through the cemetery in the dark?” To which she replied, “Oh, no. For my home is just on the other side.” (Zuck, p. 110)

Each day, may we pray for those who have died and for those who are dying. And to borrow words from Blessed Solanus Casey, may all of our prayers “thank God ahead of time.” After all, our true home—with Him— is just on the other side.

4th Sunday of Lent

Can we see the goodness around us?

Today we have the story of a man
born blind. In Jesus' time, blindness was viewed as a punishment for sin. Lent is all about looking inward and rooting out sinful desires and actions. So this story of a blind man and Jesus restoring his sight is a story about the forgiveness of sin.

How often do we hold on to sinful ways or thoughts? Do we need Jesus to give us something in our lives to see again? Or do we need to concentrate on something we do well so that our "sight" may be improved?

This week, let us look through eyes of faith and attempt to see goodness around us. Also, let us help each other to remove sin so that we might see God more clearly.

Stephen Ministry provides Christ-centered companionship to those who are experiencing difficulties in their life.

Caregivers are trained to support and to companion those in need privately and confidentially. If you or someone you know could benefit from seeing a Stephen Minister, Please contact our Parish Office at (586)752-9611.
