Reading I*Is 50:4-7

The Lord GOD has given me
 a well-trained tongue,
 that I might know how to speak to the weary
 a word that will rouse them.
 Morning after morning
 he opens my ear that I may hear;
 and I have not rebelled,
 have not turned back.
 I gave my back to those who beat me,
 my cheeks to those who plucked my beard;
 my face I did not shield
 from buffets and spitting.
 The Lord GOD is my help,
 therefore I am not disgraced;
 I have set my face like flint,
 knowing that I shall not be put to shame.

Responsorial Psalm 22:8-9, 17-18, 19-20, 23-24

R. My God, my God, why have you abandoned me?

All who see me scoff at me;
 they mock me with parted lips, they wag their heads:

"He relied on the LORD; let him deliver him,
 let him rescue him, if he loves him."

R. My God, my God, why have you abandoned me?

Indeed, many dogs surround me,
 a pack of evildoers closes in upon me;
 They have pierced my hands and my feet;
 I can count all my bones.
 R. My God, my God, why have you abandoned me?
 They divide my garments among them,
 and for my vesture they cast lots.
 But you, O LORD, be not far from me;
 O my help, hasten to aid me.
R. My God, my God, why have you abandoned me?

I will proclaim your name to my brethren;
 in the midst of the assembly I will praise you:
 "You who fear the LORD, praise him;
 all you descendants of Jacob, give glory to him;
 revere him, all you descendants of Israel!"
R. My God, my God, why have you abandoned me?

Reading IIPhil 2:6-11

Christ Jesus, though he was in the form of God,
 did not regard equality with God
 something to be grasped.
 Rather, he emptied himself,
 taking the form of a slave,
 coming in human likeness;
 and found human in appearance,
 he humbled himself,
 becoming obedient to the point of death,
 even death on a cross.
 Because of this, God greatly exalted him
 and bestowed on him the name
 which is above every name,
 that at the name of Jesus
 every knee should bend,
 of those in heaven and on earth and under the earth,
 and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord,
 to the glory of God the Father.

GospelMk 14:1—15:47

The Passion of the Lord

Nicene Creed

I believe in one God,
 the Father almighty,
 maker of heaven and earth,
 of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
 the Only Begotten Son of God,

born of the Father before all ages.
 God from God, Light from Light,
 true God from true God,
 begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
 through him all things were made.
 For us men and for our salvation
 he came down from heaven,
and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.
 For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
 he suffered death and was buried,
 and rose again on the third day
 in accordance with the Scriptures.
 He ascended into heaven
 and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
 He will come again in glory
 to judge the living and the dead
 and his kingdom will have no end.
 I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
 who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
 who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
 who has spoken through the prophets.
 I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
 I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins
 and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead
 and the life of the world to come. Amen.

An Invocation to Saint Michael, the Archangel

In the name of the Sacred Heart of Jesus and through the intercession of the Immaculate Heart of Mary, we kneel humbly before your majesty, O God Almighty, and implore you to send us Saint Michael that he may rescue us in our adversity.
 Saint Michael, prince of the heavenly host, come to us! We call out to you with all our hearts! We place ourselves and our communities, our families and our parishes, our country, and the entire world under your very special protection.

May God create Saints among us! May He send us many priests! And through them, O saintly archangel, bring about the triumph of the Church in the battle that is waged against the demons of hell.

By virtue of the Holy Spirit, establish the reign of Christ in our country and in the entire world, so that peace may be secured forever. Amen.

Palm Sunday of the Passion of the Lord

Reflections on Families of Parishes

Part 5: The Bad Habit of a Worldly Notion of the Church (UTG Reference)

*Better to take refuge in the LORD than to put one's trust in mortals.
Better to take refuge in the LORD than to put one's trust in princes. Psalm 118:8-9*

"Too often the Church is viewed, even by Catholics, as simply a human institution, and the Catholic faith as merely a lifestyle enhancer. In this outlook the Church's value is based primarily on its contributions to society, whether in education, health care, advocacy, or service to the poor. The priest is seen as a kind of ecclesiastical civil servant. When this outlook prevails the Church's mission can become captive to human plans, and the clarity of our witness to the Gospel is compromised. Cardinal John Henry Newman observed that perhaps one of the reasons Christ's disciples in a particular time and place seem to escape being persecuted is that they have conformed themselves to the thinking and behavior of their society.

They "have taken the world's pay, and must not grudge its yoke." What is lacking in such a worldly mindset is a humble recognition that the Church belongs to Christ as his body, his beloved bride. It is Christ who directs the mission and activity of the Church and who will bring her without fail to her final destiny. All of us, clergy and laity alike, are servants of the Lord who will one day render an account of our service to him." Unleash the Gospel

We priests, despite our great sacrifice, can succumb to the bad habit of a worldly notion of the Church. It may not be as obvious in us as it is in the laity, but we know it when we see it.

We can be tempted with the idea that because we offer the Mass and the Sacraments, because we are there with people in their most raw moments, that this somehow allows us to enjoy the trimmings and trappings of our ministry in a worldly way. We see it in some of our brothers who may be quite holy and sincere at the altar but who live lives unbecoming of a shepherd when the vestments come off, drawn into the temptations of money, power, and prestige, as if they were the king rather than the servant.

We must always remember that the life we have to which we have been called is about laying prostrate before the Lord, as our ordination sought to instill in us, and not about sitting at the head of a banquet table. Our move to Families will challenge all of us to truly reflect upon what this means as we must surrender some of the worldly allurements of being the pastor and embrace the idea of being one of the pastors.

Reflection: John 1:9-13

The true light, which enlightens everyone, was coming into the world. He was in the world, and the world came to be through him, but the world did not know him. He came to what was his own, but his own people did not accept him. But to those who did accept him he gave power to become children of God, to those who believe in his name, who were born not by natural generation nor by human choice nor by a man's decision but of God.

Have a prayer-filled week,
Fr. Douglas Bignall

The Seven Last Words of Jesus Wednesday, March 31st at 6:30PM

The final words of a dying person are precious to those left behind. When time is short, one has a chance to speak only of the most important things—love, forgiveness, faith. The last words are often the summation of a life, cherished and pondered long after the loved one has died. The final testament of a human life can be known in these words. —Alice Camille

The "seven last words of Jesus" are not really seven words, but rather seven incredibly poignant phrases uttered by Jesus as he died on the cross. Why are they so important? These are the last words spoken by Jesus before he died.

These are His last words to his mother Mary, the apostle who stood at the foot of the cross and His last words to his Heavenly Father. His last words to the mob who captured him, beat him and nailed him to the cross. His last words to the onlookers who watched him die. They are the final utterances of a man who would be resurrected from the dead to be seated at the right hand of his Father.

Add to your Holy Week meditation by joining us on March 31st, as we read and reflect on the seven last words of our Lord.

Individual Penance at St. Hubert
Tuesday, March 30 after the 9:00 am Mass.

There will be no Confessions on Holy Saturday, April 3rd.

Christian Service

Easter Triduum

Maundy Thursday, (or Holy Thursday) is observed in commemoration of Jesus Christ's institution of the Eucharist during the Last Supper.

Good Friday of the Lord's Passion

Ponder today, this dark day, the final words of Jesus. Scripture records seven last statements, or the "Seven Last Words." (On Wednesday, March 31, at 6:30 p.m., please join us at St. Hubert Church for reflection of the "Seven Last Words")

Holy Saturday

Today, there is a great silence. The Savior has died. He rests in the tomb. Many hearts were filled with uncontrollable grief and confusion.

The message of Holy Saturday is clear. It's a message of hope. Not hope in a worldly sense, rather, it's the message of divine hope. Hope and trust in God's perfect plan. Hope in the fact that God always has a greater purpose. Hope in the fact that God uses suffering and, in this case, death as a powerful instrument of salvation.

All are invited to join St Hubert's K of C & The Divine Mercy Prayer group in a 9 day Novena that starts April 2 & ends April 10th. The Divine Mercy Sunday Service will be on April 11th. Time to be determined later.

LIVE THE LITURGY

Inspiration for the week

What an ironic twist of events! Jesus is hailed with palm branches as he comes down a street one minute and faces agonizing suffering and death on a cross the next. Does any of this make any sense? They shouted, "hosanna to our King," out of one side of their mouths and, "crucify him," out of the other. At first glance it seems like such hypocrisy. Yet, when we step back there may be more truth to the story than we care to admit. We struggle with Jesus. We hail him in our churches but struggle to figure out what to do with him on our streets. We are fine when we hear pious renderings of his messages and preaching but wince when it gets to the part about changing the way we conduct business and becoming more sensitive to the disadvantaged, poor and marginalized. We invoke God's name when we want victory and keep silence when it comes to global solidarity. We talk out of both sides of our mouths too, looking only to what works or suits us at the time and leaving the rest. There exists in each one of us a person who hails our King with hosannas and a person who is all too willing to choose Jesus over Barabbas for the cross. Something to think about this Holy Week!
