Divine Mercy Sunday

[Jesus] said to Thomas, "Put your finger here and see my hands, and bring your hand and put it into my side, and do not be unbelieving, but believe."

John 20: 19-31

Gospel Connection

In an essay in The Christian Century [July 14, 2021], editor and publisher Peter Marty writes about his four-year-old daughter Rachel's first swimming lesson.

Even though she's shivering, Rachel loves being in the water. But the hardest thing for her to learn is how to float. The instructor puts one hand beneath her spine and with the other hand supports her legs. The instructor coaches her to relax and to stay in a flat position — but as soon as the instructor withdraws his arms, the little girl reverts to a V-shape and sinks in panic.

"It's a lot to expect a four-year-old to understand the physics of water enough to know that the human body can float on its surface. For this buoyancy to work, one has to be relaxed enough to trust the capacity of the water to keep one's body mass afloat."

But, over time, Rachel's panic lessens and she learns to float more easily — not because she suddenly grasps the science of buoyancy, but "because she loved that strong, friendly guy in the pool and knew that he was fond of her."

Gospel Reflection

The essence of faith is trust; to believe is to trust what God has done in Christ, to act as if it were true. As Barbara Brown Taylor writes in her book Always a Guest: "The word 'believe' is always a verb in John's Gospel. To believe is to wash another's feet. To believe is to abide in love. To believe is to lay down one's life for one's friends.

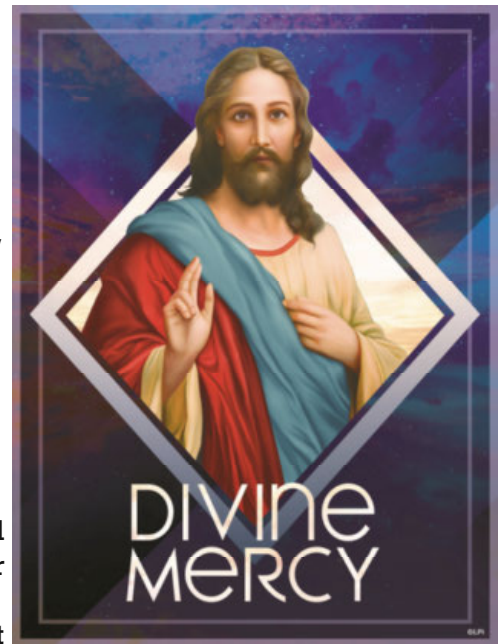

In John's Gospel, Jesus is not interested in what we think or feel. Jesus is interested in how we "act." For many of us, faith is a list of beliefs that we adhere to, believing (hoping?) that God will answer our prayers if we cling faithfully to these propositions. But affirming a list of "beliefs" is one thing — "believing" is to jump into the pool, despite our fears and doubts.

God invites us to trust our own experience of life to find our faith. Thomas neither doubts nor rejects: He recognizes that each one of us possesses, within ourselves, the grace to seek God and discover for ourselves the truth about what God is doing in our lives. True faith is not passive acquiescence; faith is to be actively engaged in seeking God's presence in every facet of our life; to be open in mind and heart to identifying the signs of resurrection and re-creation in our midst. In doing so, we experience the transforming life of God's grace to its fullest.

Quote to Ponder

Above all, attention shall be paid to the care of the sick, so that they shall be served as if they were Christ himself.

Saint Benedict

Have a glorious Easter, Fr. Douglas Bignall

Stewardship Appeal

For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also.
MATTHEW 6:21 NIV

Reflecting on our recently completed Stewardship Appeal, it is clear to see that St. Hubert Parish is truly blessed. We are working together to create and sustain a community of belonging, where each individual's dignity and self-respect is strengthened by the solidarity of our shared faith, the respect and affection we have for one another, and our mutual dedication to our God-given mission.

With God's help we will continue to grow in discipleship. The willingness of our members to enter into sacrificial giving of time, talent, and treasure in response to our Stewardship Appeal speaks of our continuing gratitude for God's gifts.

May God continue to bless us as we share in His work!

The Month of May

For centuries, the Catholic Church has set aside the entire month of May to honor Mary, Mother of God. Not just a day in May, mind you, but the entire month. We honor Mary with our May Crowning which will take place on Sunday, May 1, after the 9:00 Mass (the weather will determine location.)

We also take this day to acknowledge the nurses and teachers of our Parish with a blessing during the 9:00 Mass. Thank you for all you do for God's people!

This is the perfect day to share in fellowship with our St. Hubert Family. Please join us after the Masses today for coffee & donuts in the Activity Center.

National Teacher Appreciation Week – May 1-7

Dear Lord,
Help me to be a fine teacher, to keep peace in the classroom, peace between my students and myself, to be kind and gentle to each and every one of my students.

Help me to be merciful to my students, to balance mercy and discipline in the right measure for each student, to give genuine praise as much as possible, to give constructive criticism in a manner that is palatable to my students.

Help me remain conscientious enough to keep my lessons always interesting, to recognize what motivates each of my students, to accept my student's limitations and not hold it against them.

Help me not to judge my students too harshly, to be fair to all, to be a good role model, but most of all Lord, help me to show your love to all of my students. Amen.

National Nurses' Week - May 6-12

O my God,
Teach me to receive the sick in Thy Name. Give to my efforts success for the glory of Thy Holy Name. It is Thy work; without Thee, I cannot succeed.

Grant that the sick Thou hast placed in my care may be abundantly blessed, and not one of them be lost because of any neglect on my part.

Help me to overcome every temporal weakness and strengthen in me whatever may enable me to bring joy to the lives of those I serve.

Give me grace, for the sake of Thy sick ones and of those lives that will be influenced by them. Amen

Mother's Day

Mother's Day weekend, May 7th and 8th, Christian Service will be accepting donations to benefit Right to Life. For each $1 donation you will be given a beautiful carnation to brighten someone's day...or even one to brighten your own day. All proceeds will be used to assist pregnant women and their newborn babies.

Christian Service representatives will be in the Gathering Space after all masses. We hope you consider supporting Right to Life with a small donation for this worthy cause.

Thank you.

Supplies Needed For Ukraine Civilian Military

In our Beacon on March 27, my article initially listed supplies for Ukraine that were being collected and dropped off to Tony Pate in St. Clair Shores. Since that time, and with the volume of supplies that are being dropped off at Tony’s home, the St. Clair Shores Civic Arena at 20000 Stephens Street in St. Clair Shores has become the location for drop off. You may drop office supplies seven days a week between 9 a.m. and 9 p.m. If you like, you could also sponsor a soldier. With the help of volunteers and businesses, $250 will give a soldier full body armor and a medical field kit. For more information, call (517) 402-3648.

You can find the entire online article published on April 5, 2022 on, “Click on Detroit, St. Clair Shores couple’s mission to help Ukraine is expanding: How to get involved”

As I receive more information from Tony on ways to help, I will publish the article in our Beacon.

MCREST Women & Children’s Shelter Opening Sunday, April 10, 2022

I’ve attached several pictures of the Shelter which will house the women & children for up to 90 days. This means no more rotating to a different church every week, their own laundry area, a warm and welcoming common room, play room for the children, Resource Center with several computers to assist in job training, large kitchen and eating area, and much, much more.

I’ve attached a few pictures just to give you an idea of the inside of the facility. This is very exciting for MCREST and the entire community.

After years of hard work and the efforts of a dedicated community, the day finally arrived. The ribbon cutting ceremony at the newly-renovated MCREST Women and Children’s Shelter took place on Friday, April 8!

Called to Serve

Called to Serve© is an interactive workshop for high school teens. The program is designed to guide, empower and encourage teens to promote and model safe and nurturing behavior in their jobs, service and volunteer roles within their schools, parishes and the greater community. Many places of businesses require the Called to Serve workshop to be completed in order to volunteer with them. This workshop is a 3 hour presentation where they will learn to recognize appropriate behavior and understand physical, emotional and behavioral boundaries, particularly in relation to their work with younger children.

LIVE THE LITURGY

Inspiration for the week

Life is about to get very interesting for the disciples. Finding themselves questioning what happened to Jesus and whether he actually was raised from the dead, they are afraid and uncertain. In the midst of this fear, questioning, and uncertainty, Jesus decides to surprise them with a visit! This visit, complete with the gift of peace, fills the disciples with great excitement and joy. But their detailed testimony is not enough to convince their absent friend Thomas. He wants to see for himself. We struggle with belief as well. It is hard for some to give themselves over to the testimony of another. We want to see the resurrected Christ in person. God, through the gift of eyes of faith, gives us the ability to do precisely that: when we witness the healing that comes from forgiveness, the beauty that flows from love, the wonder of creation, the new life that comes after we fall, and the unique soul that lives behind each person's life. Christ is risen. Life will get very interesting for us too, when we stop unbelieving and believe!

We meet the fourth Sunday of each month at St. Hubert's in Harrison Township. "Come and See!" Inquiry Meeting on May 22, 2022 Please call in advance. Contact Margaret (586-764-5128).

St. Vincent de Paul "Bundle" Days April 30 – May 1

All SVDP Thrift Stores are in dire need of stock for so many reasons. In addition, a new store is opening in northern Macomb County in early May. They will be starting from scratch and need everything to succeed in their mission of supporting St. Vincent DePaul's humane objectives.

Therefore, on Saturday, April 30 before and after the 5:00 PM Mass and on Sunday, May 1 before and after both 9:00 AM and 11:00 AM Masses, a St. Vincent DePaul truck will be available and staffed by SVDP volunteers to receive your donations. SVDP is in particular need of new and gently used clothing. Donations should be placed in tied, heavy duty trash bags since the paper donation bags are no longer available. Thank you and God bless you for helping our less fortunate brothers and sisters.
