[Drawn from Connections]

Second Sunday of Ordinary Time

John the Baptist saw Jesus coming toward him and said, “Behold, the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world.”

John 1: 29-34

Scripture Connection

The Fourth Gospel emphasizes John the Baptizer's role as the bridge between the First and New Testaments; he is the last great prophet who identifies Jesus as the Messiah. In his vision of the Spirit of God "resting" upon and within Jesus, the Baptizer realizes that this is the chosen Servant of God who has come to inaugurate the Messianic era of forgiveness and reconciliation (today's first reading, the second of Isaiah's "servant" songs, describes the mission of the servant: to bring Israel back to the Lord and, through her, extend the Lord's salvation to every nation and people on earth).

Scripture Reflection

By our baptisms, we are called to be witnesses and prophets of the "Lamb of God" along the Jordan Rivers of our homes, schools and work places.

Christ's presence among us is a time for new beginnings: an invitation to walk from the shadows of hatred and mistrust to the light of understanding and peace, a chance for healing our brokenness and mending our relationships with one another, a call to be seekers of hope and enablers of reconciliation in our own time and place.

Through our own acts of compassion and generosity, of justice and forgiveness, we proclaim that "the Lamb of God" walks in our midst, that the love and mercy of God has dawned upon us.

Quote to Ponder

The Lord was baptized... to cleanse waters, so that those waters... might have the power of Baptism.
Saint Ambrose of Milan

Bonus Quote to Ponder

The essential thing is always to begin again, despite everything and against everything, and never to be discouraged.

Blessed Maurice Tornay

Have a prayer-filled week,

O God, true shepherd of all the faithful, look with kindness on your servant Pope Benedict XVI, whom you set as head and shepherd of your Church.

We give you thanks for your grace at work in him as he has led us by word and example: in his teaching, in his prayer, and in his great love.

Grant him your strength in frailty, comfort in sorrow, and serenity amid the trials of this world; and guide your Church, built on the rock of Peter, with the power of your Spirit as we continue on the path that leads to you.

Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Bell Choir Update

We at St. Hubert have a beautiful 2-octave set of bells! BUT, we are short a "few" people needed to play our "Full-Compliment" of bells.

- * To play in the Bell Choir you do not have to read music or be a "musician"--we can teach you.
- * The "Commitment is light": about 1.5 hours each week for rehearsal.
- * Bell Members grow personally, musically, and socially--while having fun with minimal stress--it is an easy way to participate in music.
- * The Bell Choir is good for St. Hubert Parish--it expands our musical liturgy.

Interested? Talk to Shelly, Bell Director in the gathering space after weekend masses January 14/15, 2023 and January 21/22, 2023, or call Shelly at (586) 707-2464.

LIVE THE LITURGY

Inspiration for the week

John the Baptist had been told that he would see the Lamb of God, who takes away the sins of the world. He listened, he believed, and he kept his eyes open. He was ready when God revealed the truth. Let's ask ourselves: are our eyes open? Are we ready?

SAINT OF THE WEEK

Known as the Snowshoe Priest, Venerable Bishop Frederic Baraga, was a lifelong missionary to the Native American people of the upper Midwest. He loved the people he served, knew their languages, and even published the first Ojibwe-English dictionary!

PRAYER

Prayer for the Cause of V. Frederic Irenaeus Baraga

O God, thank you for the life and holiness of your servant, Frederic Baraga.

I pray you will honor him by the title of Saint. He dedicated himself completely to missionary activity to make you known, loved, and served by the people who you love. As a man of peace and love, Baraga brought peace and love wherever he traveled.

Lord, grant Venerable Bishop Baraga the grace of beatification.

We ask this in Christ name.

Amen.
