BigNews.... By Fr. Douglas Bignall

[Drawn from Connections]

Fourth Sunday of Easter
Good Shepherd Sunday

Gospel Connection

Today's brief Gospel is the conclusion of the Good Shepherd discourse in Chapter 10 of John's Gospel. Yahweh, the eternal shepherd of Israel (cf. Ezekiel 34), has raised up his own Son as the Good Shepherd to guide the new Israel of the Church to eternal life. In listening to the voice of Jesus the Good Shepherd, the "flock" finds its way to the Father.

Gospel Reflection

Christ the Good Shepherd calls us to listen consciously, deliberately, wisely for his voice in the depths of our hearts, to listen for his voice in the love and joy, the pain and anguish, the cries for mercy and justice of those around us; Christ the Son of God assures us that we are always safe and accepted in the loving embrace of his Father.

Christ speaks in many voices — including our own. We can be the "voice" of Christ's compassion, comfort, forgiveness and peace in even our smallest and simplest words and acts of kindness and generosity.

Jesus calls each one of us to take on the role of "shepherd": to walk and lead one another through the steep paths and dangerous ridges we all must walk, not diminishing the danger or pain but helping one another make our way through it. The challenge of taking up the Good Shepherd's staff is to face the truth despite our own fears, to search for God's light (if only a flicker) in the midst of overwhelming darkness, to reach out to grab another despite our own tenuous grasp.

Quote to Ponder

Our life is a short opportunity to say yes to God's love.

Henri Nouwen

CLASS OF 2024

GRADUATION

MASS

SUNDAY, JUNE 2ND AT 11:00 AM MASS

Congratulations! What an accomplishment!
St. Hubert Parish wants to celebrate with our high school and college graduates and mark this important milestone at an upcoming Mass.

You, your family, and friends are invited to a recognition Mass.
Afterwards, stop into the Activity Center for coffee, donuts and fellowship.

We ask that you wear your cap and gown and any medals, ropes, and pins you received.

Please email your RSVP to SPeltier@sthubertchurch.com along with a photo of the Grad by May 15th, 2024, so that we can add to the bulletin.

Evangelical Charity
(Formerly Christian Service)

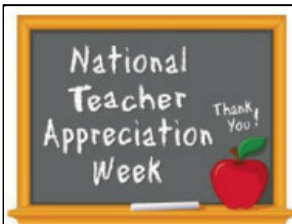

The Month of May

For centuries, the Catholic Church has set aside the entire month of May to honor Mary, Mother of God. Not just a day in May, mind you, but the entire month. We honor Mary with our May Crowning which will take place on Sunday, May 5, after the 9:00 Mass (the weather will determine location.)

We also take this weekend to acknowledge the nurses and teachers of our Parish with a blessing during all of the Masses. Thank you for all you do for God's people!

This is the perfect day to share in fellowship with our St. Hubert Family. Please join us after the Masses on Sunday, May 5, for coffee & donuts in the Activity Center.

Teacher Appreciation Week ~ May 6-10, 2024

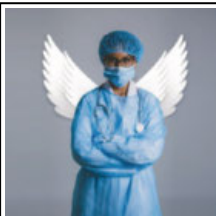

Dear Lord,
Help me to be a fine teacher, to keep peace in the classroom, peace between my students and myself, to be kind and gentle to each and every one of my students.

Help me to be merciful to my students, to balance mercy and discipline in the right measure for each student, to give genuine praise as much as possible, to give constructive criticism in a manner that is palatable to my students.

Help me remain conscientious enough to keep my lessons always interesting, to recognize what motivates each of my students, to accept my student's limitations and not hold it against them.

Help me not to judge my students too harshly, to be fair to all, to be a good role model, but most of all Lord, help me to show your love to all of my students. Amen.

National Nurses' Week ~ May 6-12, 2024

O my God,
Teach me to receive the sick in Thy Name. Give to my efforts success for the glory of Thy Holy Name. It is Thy work; without Thee, I cannot succeed.

Grant that the sick Thou hast placed in my care may be abundantly blessed, and not one of them be lost because of any neglect on my part.

Help me to overcome every temporal weakness and strengthen in me whatever may enable me to bring joy to the lives of those I serve.

Give me grace, for the sake of Thy sick ones and of those lives that will be influenced by them. Amen

Our annual "Movers For Moms" drive, sponsored by Two Men and a Truck, will take place from March 18-April 28.

There is a box at each entrance of the Church to place your donations. Thank you for supporting, "Moms In Need."

Mother's Day

Mother's Day weekend, May 11 & 12, Christian Service will be accepting donations to benefit Right to Life. For each $1 donation you will be given a beautiful carnation to brighten someone's day...or even one to brighten your own day. All proceeds will be used to assist pregnant women and their newborn babies.

Christian Service representatives will be in the Gathering Space after all masses. We hope you consider supporting Right to Life with a small donation for this worthy cause.

Thank you.

CATHOLIC FAITH FORMATION NEWS

Jeanine Walker
Director of Religious Education

I'm sure many of you have seen the movie, "Four Weddings and a Funeral," or at least heard of it. Well, here in our family of parishes we have, "5 Holy Communion and a Confirmation!"

Last weekend, our 2nd graders at St. Louis made their First Holy Communion. This Sunday, 80 eighth graders will make their Confirmation and become fully initiated into our beautiful faith! Then...next Sunday, we will have two First Communion Masses at St. Hubert. And on May 5th, we will have the two final First Communion Masses at St. Peter.

What a blessing these children and their families are to each and every one of us! I love it when I see "my" kids out and about...at Kroger on their bike, at Target, walking in my neighborhood, or at Easter Vigil! We have the absolute greatest kids and families in our parish of families and they always bring a smile to my face.

Please keep our First Communicants and Confirmandi in your prayers as they receive their sacraments and continue their journey of faith. All of our parents gave us the most precious gift they could...the gift of our beautiful Catholic faith. It's a beautiful thing to see that gift being passed on to our youngest of disciples!

Joyfully in Christ,
Jeanine

Gospel Meditation

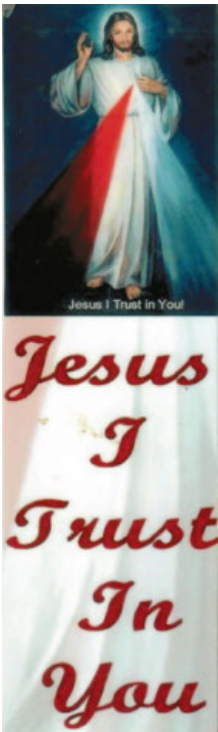

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

Recently I was with my little dog Libby at a retreat center in the Arizona desert. I sat in a chair near a ravine filled with shrubs. Unbeknownst to me, Libby wandered down there and disappeared. Suddenly an animal's wild shriek erupted from the area. Without thinking, I bolted down into the ravine fully expecting to see coyotes, javelinas, or rattlesnakes. I didn't care. I desperately wanted to get Libby out of there, without any self-regard. Before I could face whatever danger lay hidden, my dog blissfully trotted out from an entirely different area, utterly unaware that I had (quite heroically) just placed my life on the line.

When the adrenaline wore off, I thought to myself: how far would I have been willing to go to save her? I don't know. But I do know, if I had literally died, my friends and family would have certainly thought me insane for dying for a dog. No offense, Libby.

How passionately Jesus wants us to know him and his willingness to die for us! This week he says, "I know my own and my own know me," and "I lay down my life for the sheep." Here we encounter an insanely excessive love for us. Christianity is a relationship and not simply a religion or ethical code. In Jesus, God rescues and saves us. He laid down his life for you and me — and he has taken it up again. So often we are like Libby — blissfully ignorant of the reality of both our spiritual danger and his saving love. This Easter season, the risen Jesus calls us to be more conscious than ever before about his love. He never ceases to lay down his life for us.

— Father John Muir

(Matthew 26:40) Then Jesus returned to the disciples and found them sleeping, "Were you not able to keep watch with Me for one hour?" He asked Peter.

Come and join The Divine Mercy Group at the Oratory on Tuesday evenings from 7-8 p.m. Learn about Trusting in God's mercy, the Image of Divine Mercy, and the Chaplet of Divine Mercy entrusted to St. Faustina (Canonized by John Paul II on April 30, 2000) and Divine Mercy Sunday proclaimed by St. John Paul II, the Second Sunday after Easter. Let us pray together the Chaplet of Divine Mercy and meditate on St. Faustina's Diary entries for the mercy that we and our world so desperately need.
