EASTER SUNDAY

A Blessed Easter to All

On behalf of Deacon Dennis and the staff of Saint Hubert, I wish each and every family a blessed Easter filled with resurrected joy. Take some time to enjoy your family, embrace the Spring Season, and share with one another the radiant abundance of God's love in this Easter Season.

Alleluia! Fr. Douglas Bignall

An Easter Poem
written by Linda Pittiglio

Jerusalem, Jerusalem
How My heart is crushed for thee.
So broken are My people,
So blind they cannot see.

Their time of visitation
Will soon pass from their sight,
Then darkness will encroach
To cast it's shadow on their light.

How often have I yearned
To take you up beneath My wings,
But unwilling you resisted,
So reluctant to believe.

Now the Peace that I desire
To bestow upon your soul
Will give way in harsh calamity
As legions take control.

I weep for loss of Paradise
I weep for death's dark sting
I weep to know the cost
Of winning Victory in these things.

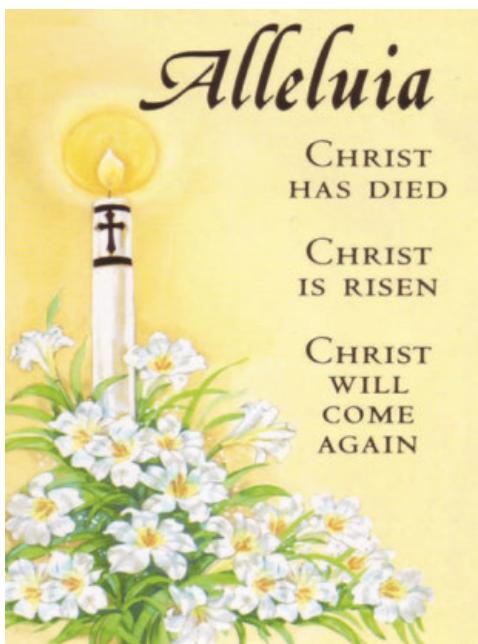

My face is set like flint,
With firm resolve I turn to go.
Like a lamb led to the slaughter,
No resistance do I show.

Like a seed cast to the ground
Trampled underneath your feet,
Heads will shake and tongues will wag
That I have met with start defeat.

I am bruised and I am beaten,
Crowned with thorns in unbelief.
To make a mockery of My kingship
They relentlessly compete.

With crucifixion in ignominy,
Their decision they repeat.
They know not what they do,
Father, forgive them, I entreat.

It is finished. The ransom paid
For man's redemption is complete.
In Risen Glory I now reign.
May you with Joy be made replete!

Parish Offices will be closed Good Friday through Sunday, April 27th and will reopen Monday, April 28th

Prayer for Those Receiving the Easter Sacraments

Let us pray for our catechumens and candidates

Preston Colombo
Sebastian Colombo
Cynthia Galvan
Brent LaRowe
Ashley O'Connor
Rose Raffaelli

God of the Samaritan Women, the Man Born Blind and Lazarus, You show yourself in many ways. Most often in ways we cannot see until we look with eyes of faith.

Continue to bless these catechumens and candidates who will receive the Church's sacraments during the Easter Vigil. Fill their lives and hearts with your unending love and grace.

Help us to continue to be models of living Christian lives and grant them the endurance to continue to race to the resurrection.

We ask all this in the name of Jesus, your Son who reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, One God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Brick Pavers

Memorial Pavers at the front entrance of the church are available for engraving. Each brick is 8" x 8" and can be engraved with your loved one's name and dates. An order form is available at the Rectory or email Lynn at LPietila@sthubertchurch.com and an order form can be emailed to you. You

Come and join The Divine Mercy Group at the Oratory on Tuesday evenings from 7-8 p.m. Learn about Trusting in God's mercy, the Image of Divine Mercy, and the Chaplet of Divine Mercy entrusted to St. Faustina (Canonized by John Paul II on April 30, 2000) and Divine Mercy Sunday proclaimed by St. John Paul II, the Second Sunday after Easter. Let us pray together the Chaplet of Divine Mercy and meditate on St. Faustina's Diary entries for the mercy that we and our world so desperately need.

Music Corner

Easter / Liturgy: Just a bit of commentary about the beauty and love in our Roman Catholic music and heritage on Easter—the Sequence “Victimae Paschali Laudes” aka “The Easter Sequence” located on page 1065 in the Blue Gather III Hymnals (in English: “Praise To The Passover Victim”)—this has been chanted for centuries in Latin for the Roman Rite Easter Liturgy is a medieval biblically-based Latin poetic-liturgical hymn for meditation.

It is an obligatory element of Easter Sunday Mass. This sequence is one of only four sequences continued/preserved after the Council of Trent (including the other three: “Veni Sancti Spiritus” at Pentecost, “Lauda Sion” for Corpus Christi, and “Dies Irae” for the Requiem mass All Souls), and is still used in Liturgies today, sung just before the gospel acclamation, and also is sung every day from Easter Sunday through the Easter Octave.

This chant narrates the death and life within a struggle—where Christ the Paschal Victim in his victory over death reconciles us all back to the Father. The chant also narrates Mary Magdalene’s finding the empty tomb of the Risen Christ and finding the clothes that covered his head and limbs—she then proclaims “Christ, my hope has arisen!” The sequence ends affirming Christ’s resurrection—to be true in large part based on St. Mary Magdalene’s testimony—the Latin verb “scire” quite strong as to referring to the highest level of human “knowing” then the sequence ends with Christ the Victor, King / victor Rex, show us mercy.

Cardinal Newman understood the sensitivity to be “deep in history”—and we also preserve our history—our precious treasures of Gregorian Chants “...diligently and to impart it generously to the Christian people...and great care should be taken that it be performed properly, worthily, and reverently.” (adapted from encyclical Musicae Sacrae 1955)

We wish you and your families a very Happy Easter!      Lisa Paradowski, Todd Stevens

MCREST – May 4-10, 2025

Our new MCREST week at the Women's & Children's Shelter in Mt. Clemens is May 4-10, 2025, making it easier for us to deliver meals without worrying about snow and ice! Each day, approximately 50-60 women & children receive a bagged breakfast and lunch meal, and dinner meals are provided by seven families from St. Hubert Church. Some families bring their own people to serve the meals and cleanup, but there may be a day or so where we may need additional assistance with serving and cleanup.

We arrive at the Shelter at approximately 4:30 p.m. and finish around 8:30 p.m.

There will be a signup sheet in the back of Church for anyone interested in volunteering during our week to serve dinner and/or shop for additional groceries and supplies. Please list your name, phone number, and the evening(s) you would be available, and you may be contacted if help is needed. All volunteers must have a Background Check Form completed and on file at the Rectory along with a Protecting God's Children certificate on file.

Any monetary donations of cash or checks may be dropped off at the Rectory or put in an envelope marked "MCREST" and dropped in the weekly collection basket. Checks should be made out to St. Hubert Church, with "MCREST" written in the Memo line.

Thank you, again, for all you do to provide a successful week for the clients in the MCREST program. If you have any questions, please contact Joan at (586) 463-5877 x115.
