CONFESSIONS:

3:00pm Saturdays at St. Anne
6:30pm Tuesdays at St. Charles

God delights in you. How do you feel when you hear that? Delight usually comes with an exuberant flow of joy that seemingly arises from one's toes with the expression of great glee. Reflecting upon the deep measure of joy God has in us can be a source of joy for ourselves. Delight is infectious. A very young brother and sister were playing on the beach when the all too familiar ice cream truck made its daily rounds. The boy shook with excitement and delight as he took his sister's hand and exclaimed, "The ice cream man is here, isn't it great!" As they ran off toward the truck, one could hear the girl reply, "Yeah, I can't wait!" The experience of a child's delight in something so simple as ice cream, lifts our spirits from our burdens and transports us to the lighter, more innocent side of life.

Life is not meant to be a burden. Believe it or not, God wants us to be happy! In fact, the wedding feast at Cana shows us that God even puts His blessing on our happiness. It is okay to celebrate the wonder of ourselves and others. Life is good. It is always interesting to note that Jesus saves the good wine until last. You would think it would be the other way around. The superb quality of Jesus' wine points to the superior quality of life we find in Christ. It is not a life of burdens but a life of wonder and delight! In Christ, we are lifted from the superficial and mundane to a life of purpose, hope, and love.

God is with us through the long haul, through the challenges and sorrows as well as the successes and accomplishments. Although we often wander from the path, God's celebratory delight in us remains. As spouses are asked to remain faithful to each other through whatever life brings, God remains faithful too. This promise remains through this life and into the next. All we must do is take the advice of Jesus' mother to heart when she says, "Listen to him." This wisdom saves us from foolishly giving in to the illusion that we can make better wine than Jesus.

News from Third Grade

In third grade, we are working on our Young Author’s books that are due next month. We’ve written our rough drafts, made revisions, edited, and some students have begun writing their final copies in their bare books. Next step will be adding illustrations and completing the book covers. We are excited to see whose story might be chosen for the conference in the spring!

In other subjects, we are practicing our math facts each night because we have moved into double-digit multiplication. In Social Studies, our focus is on Michigan’s government. In Science, we are learning about Earth Science. Our focus this month has moved into physical science. We are studying matter, mass, volume, and density. In Religion, we are learning about the different ways God calls each of us to serve the Church. Some people will be called to celebrate the Sacrament of Matrimony, while others may be called to Holy Orders. Our focus has been on how God has given each of us the gifts and talents we need so we can answer His call to serve according to His will.

ST. SEBASTIAN JANUARY 20

Not much is known about the life of St. Sebastian (256 – 287), except that he was a Roman martyr whose name has been mentioned throughout history since early 350.

We see St. Sebastian many times in art, especially from iconic paintings from Guido Reni, Andrea Mantegna and Hendrick ter Brugghen. Historical scholars now agree that a spiritual story has the beloved saint entering the Roman army because only there could he assist Christian martyrs without arousing suspicion on himself. Eventually he was found out, brought before Emperor Diocletian and delivered to Mauritanian archers to be shot to death. Pierced with arrows, he was left for dead, but managed to survive. He recovered from his wounds but still refused to leave.

One day, St. Sebastian took up a position near where the emperor was to pass. He confronted the emperor, condemning him for his cruelty to Christians. This time the sentence of death was carried out, and St. Sebastian was beaten to death with clubs. Today he is the patron saint of athletes.

Day of Prayer for the Legal Protection of Unborn Children

Saturday, January 22 is the anniversary of Roe v. Wade and the day established by the Church of penance for abortion, has been formally named as the Day of Prayer for the Legal Protection of Unborn Children. Since that vote 49 years ago, almost five decades, over 61 million unborn children have lost their lives through abortion in the United States.

In all the Dioceses of the United States, January 22 shall be observed as a day of prayer for the right to life and of penance for violations to the dignity of the human person through acts of abortion.

“Say YES to life, be decisive and without hesitation. The first right of the human person is his life.” Pope Francis also said, “Children are the greatest blessing God has bestowed upon men and women.”

When we pray for the defenseless in danger of abortion our prayers must also include both parents for spiritual support for they also are vulnerable.
