The Mission Statement of St. Anne Parish

"We, the people of St. Anne, are a growing Catholic Community with various gifts and talents, and we are open to the Spirit among us. Rooting ourselves in The Word of God, we reach out to all in loving service, witnessing, and celebrating the life of Jesus Christ in our midst."

Fr. Craig's Contemplations

Hello Friends,
 In this second week of Advent, we hear from the Prophet Baruch. In the fifth chapter of Baruch, we hear a message of consolation, that eventually Jerusalem will enter "the splendor of glory from God forever." The ancient people are called to live according to the will of God, if they do, they will find lasting peace. St. Paul in the first chapter of Philippians teaches each of us, "true friendship extends into eternity." Indeed, if we live according to God's will for us, we will find true friendships that will carry us beyond this life, to the heavenly banquet.

Sometimes, it is the "least likely" person who will offer us this "life giving" friendship. However, to "hear" God's word, to "see in faith" we need time in quiet prayer. At St. Anne's we have a time(s) of Eucharistic Adoration before Mass each Monday evening and each Friday morning before Mass and on every Thursday morning. It's a time of "quiet prayer." Many of the greatest spiritual teachers in our faith teach us that in those times of silence, God speaks in a unique way to each of us, as adopted sons and daughters.

So, for this second week of Advent, as we prayerfully ponder, "how am I preparing the way of the Lord" in my life? Let us give thanks for those "least likely" friends, who are assisting us with their prayers and works. Finally, let us ask our Lord for greater peace, so that we may be enriched in a whole new way this Advent.

May God bless you,

Fr. Craig

CAROL
YOU'LL BE MISSED!

There are certain people who make the world a better place just by being in it, you, Mrs. Carol Zimcosky, are that person. Not just to us, but to all the parishioners here at St. Anne. Your warm smile and your words of kindness will be greatly missed. Thank you for all the help you have given to us, the woman who has never once said NO, no matter how busy. You are a treasure and we have been blessed to have you as a member of our staff. Wishing you good health and happiness always. You will always be one of us!
 Blessings,

Fr. Craig & His Delightful Parish Staff

St. Nicholas Feast Day December 6

Children all over the world know him and love him.

In Germany, he's Kriss Kringle. In France, he's Pere Noel. British children call him Father Christmas. Of course, you know him as Santa Claus.

He's got another name, you know. It's an ancient one that goes back hundreds of years. It's one of the very first names people called him: St. Nicholas.

Children tell lots of fun stories about Santa Claus, Pere Noel, or Kriss Kringle. All of these stories remind us of how much we're loved and of how happy we are when we give. The earliest stories we know were told about St. Nicholas, the bishop of Myra.

Hundreds of years ago, Nicholas lived in a seaside town named Myra, which is in the country we now call Turkey. Ever since he was a small child, Nicholas loved God more than anything. He studied hard, prayed often, and followed Jesus by helping the poor.

Nicholas was loved for one reason. He loved. He loved God and God's people so much that he would do anything for them.

He is the Patron Saint of:

Sailors
Wolves

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

Recognize God In Your Ordinary Moments

God's Personal Assistants

If you have ever planned a large-scale event, whether it's a musical performance or a religious conference, you may have dealt with someone's personal assistant. Possibly this person would be a representative of the keynote speaker or the master of ceremonies for the local bishop; perhaps it's even the staffer of a local politician or the lackey of a well-known musical act.

Personal assistants are masters of stewardship — overseeing things in their boss' absence. They prepare the way. This person's job is to get everything ready for the person in charge, so that when he or she shows up — whoever he or she is — it's smooth sailing for them to do whatever it is they need to do: sing, speak, pray, mingle, what-have-you. It's usually a big job full of little things, a gig where attention to detail is key.

God is the guest of honor in our life, the keynote speaker, the main event. And what He wants — what He needs — to do is to change our hearts. Constantly, over, and over, and over again.

We are all His personal assistants in this endeavor. We need to prepare the way of the Lord, to make straight His paths. We need to make everything ready so that when He shows up — however He shows up, whether it's in the form of a neighbor in need or a burning bush right in front of us — everything is ready for Him to do His job.

— Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

WHY DO WE DO THAT? Catholic Life Explained:

Question:

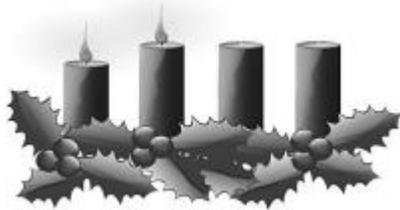

With Christmas fast approaching, can you give me some practical tips to prepare myself and my family that will help us stay grounded in what this holiday is really about? With all the commercialism, it's easy to stray.

Answer:

Happy times and events bring fond memories and a renewed sense of love and kinship with others. The anticipation is half the joy of the event itself. The coming of the Lord is that kind of event that people have been looking forward to for generations with fervent hope and desire. It gave them strength and courage as they waited for the coming of the Lord.

We know that Christmas is rushed. Sales begin in August and carols blare long before the season begins. Everyone laments the commercial aspects of the season, but as Advent begins, do something to help you be more mindful of the Lord's coming. Use an Advent wreath, or enthrone the Bible prominently, or read the readings from the Bible assigned to each day. Postpone the tree and decorations until closer to Christmas. Establish new family rituals, customs and prayers that help remind everyone that we are preparing to celebrate the birth of Jesus. Fasting, daily Mass, a special celebration of reconciliation, reaching out to those alienated from family or society, and visiting the homebound manifest the love of the Christ Child and the Holy Family. Resist the temptation to rush the season. In his own time and in his own way, God will come. Our task is simply to be watchful and ready.

Worship

Baruch, considered to be the scribe of the prophet Jeremiah, provides messages of hope to the Israelites exiled in Babylon. Enslavement and the destruction of their temple had devastated these exiles. Jeremiah gives them reason to rejoice through the despair. God has commanded that "every lofty mountain be made low" so that Israel could "advance secure in the glory of God."

Youth Ministry News:

National Catholic Youth Conference

This conference was AMAZING! We traveled with 300 young people and adults from the Archdiocese of Detroit by bus to Indianapolis, IN (Yes, we wore masks the entire time and tested prior to leaving.)

They had the opportunity to attend reconciliation, which each one took advantage of. We had Mass and Adoration with all 10,000 participants which included over 220 Bishops, Priests and Seminarians-WOW! The Emcees were Sister Miriam, Brian Greenfield and James Heidland, all national inspirational speakers. We heard many Beautiful "Witness" stories from people of all ages proclaiming their conversion and love of Christ. Some of the workshops we attended were:

Put Out into the Deep-(getting deeper with your faith), Trusting in a God we cannot see (learning to listen to the Holy Spirit), Heaven, Hell and Hot Topics (separation from the body of Christ is the definition of Hell), Faith, Science and the gift of Wonder (how faith and science go together).

There was a magician, Giancarlo Bernini, who tied magic with our faith in an awesome way and a comedy group hoping to change the way media is so negative.

Live music by: Sarah Kroger, Ike Ndolo, Steve Angrisano, Ricky Vasquez, Dana Catherine, LeCrae, PJ Anderson and Joe Melendez-all national entertainers.

Here are some things our young people had to say:

"My favorite part of NCYC, where I felt Christ the most, was during Mass and Adoration." Ali Anthony

"One of the speakers said "tomorrow we have to go back to the real world, then he said "this is the real world and tomorrow we go back to spread the message of our faith" that really spoke to me." Sarah Burgard

"It was awesome to have 10,000 people all together who share the same faith as you." Natalie Llewellyn

"As a follower of Jesus it is often easy to be overcome and discouraged by the trials of the world, but looking around at everyone firm in hope in the Lord gave me Joy." Rebekah Devine

"Experiencing prayer in the form of music and listening to all the relatable speakers helped me find Peace and Guidance in the Lord." Lucas Lasky

"I felt a true connection with God and loved every moment of this experience." Allison Ressler

A couple quotes I took back were "Comparison is the thief of Joy" and "It's normal for a child to be afraid of the dark, the tragedy is when man is afraid of the light".

It was a blessing for me to be able to witness these young people so on fire for the Lord, the theme of this conference was "Ablaze", which was perfect. Kim Zernec

EVERY VALLEY

Refrain: Every valley shall be exalted and every hill made low. And all God's people shall see together the glory of the Lord.

1. A voice cries out in the wilderness, "Prepare the way of the Lord. Make straight in the desert a highway, a highway for our God." (Refrain)
2. Comfort all my people. The time for war is gone. The blind shall see, the deaf shall hear, the lame shall leap for joy. (Refrain)
3. Stand up on the mountain top. O lift your voice to the world. Sing joyfully, Jerusalem: "Behold, behold your God!" (Refrain)
