The Mission Statement of St. Anne Parish

"We, the people of St. Anne, are a growing Catholic Community with various gifts and talents, and we are open to the Spirit among us. Rooting ourselves in The Word of God, we reach out to all in loving service, witnessing, and celebrating the life of Jesus Christ in our midst."

Fr. Craig's Contemplations

As we enter into Ordinary Time, we hear how our Lord Jesus "reveals His glory" at the Wedding Feast of Cana. Many of you who are married, may have asked for this to be read at your own wedding. Or perhaps, you have heard this Gospel proclaimed at a friend or family member's wedding.

How fitting, that our Lord Jesus chooses a wedding feast to offer such a profound miracle. Teachers of biblical history remind us that in John's Gospel, the wedding feast of Cana, is the first of the "seven signs" (miracles). It seems, perhaps a bit "odd" we really don't hear anything about the bride and groom for whom this wedding is celebrated for. Yet consider, John is placing a "special emphasis" on what wasn't "visible." You see John illustrates an "earthly event" to REVEAL a divine mystery.

Remember the synoptic Gospels (Matthew, Mark and Luke) {synoptic means alike} stress Jesus' earthly ancestry. John's Gospel, stresses Jesus' heavenly ancestry. And you see, we need to understand BOTH. Jesus is fully human and fully divine.

Brothers and Sisters - divine mystery's, first and foremost are REVEALED through "concrete realities." Through the gifts of the Holy Spirit, at every Mass, simple bread, and wine, become the very, Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity of Jesus Christ.

A second important interpretation to consider, when reading of the wedding Feast of Cana, is this, Cana is about nine miles north of Nazareth. Beyond this simple report of a wedding feast, this helps our ancestors in faith to "recall" the "covenant relationship" between God and Israel to a marriage. (Hosea 2:16-26) God is the groom, and His people are the bride.

A final thought, consider Our Lady's [Mary's] simple instruction at the wedding of Cana "do whatever He tells you." First, this teaches us, Mary's twofold role. (1.) Mary is the Model disciple. (2) Mary is the "intermediary" between her Son and the members of the household. St. Thomas Aquinas teaches us that Our Lady, first intercedes with her son. Second, our Lady instructs the attendants of the wedding. Mary, our Lady is always interceding and instructing. Let us ask Mary, our mother, to intercede and instruct us as we carry out our own individual call(s) to be a disciple for our Lord Jesus Christ.

May God bless you,
 Fr. Craig

LITURGICAL LIFE

RESPONDING to the Call

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

Recognize God In Your Ordinary Moments

It Takes All Kinds

"If every flower wanted to be a rose," wrote St. Therese of Lisieux, "spring would lose its loveliness."

Who is God asking you to be today? There is an obvious answer that springs to mind right out of the gate. God wants me to be a good person (a good father, a good husband) today; today, God wants me to be a saint.

But this answer fails to get to the heart of the question. We are all striving today to serve the same Spirit, but we are given different gifts to do so. The one who has the gift of knowledge may fail if today he decides he wants to be a healer. The one who has the gift of "varieties of tongues" might falter in the expression of wisdom.

Think about the wedding at Cana and the players in the scene: the servers, the guests, the bride and groom. They all have a unique role to play, and though it is to the servers that Mary gives the instruction, "Do whatever he tells you," her words apply to all.

Today, are we called to be the servers — do we wait on God's instruction and carry it out, no matter how foolish or impossible it may seem to our human ears? Are we asked to be the disciples, to bear witness to a miracle and to give our testimony? Are we called to imitate the Blessed Mother herself and give encouragement to follow God's word?

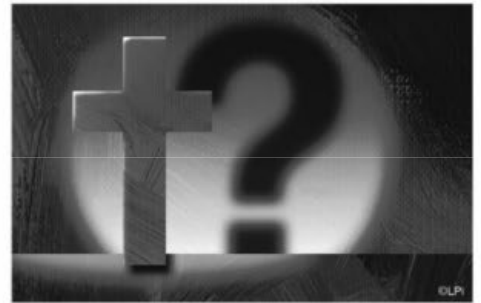

Let us examine our gifts and listen in the silence of our hearts to the direction of the Spirit. Then and only then, let us do whatever He tells us.

— Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

Community...You Did It Again!

As we enter into another year of uncertainty, the ONE THING that has NOT changed is the generosity of our beautiful churches, businesses and community which remain such a blessing. The willingness to share what you have, regardless of your circumstance has been very humbling. Each donation made, was a blessing to someone, and since I work with these wonderful families daily, I know how appreciative they are of your kindness and generosity. Christ truly lives in the hearts of our community! In closing, I am honored and privileged to live and work in this community and be able to call it home! Thank you everyone for sharing your kindness—you are a true blessing to so many.

Wishing you Peace and Blessings always,
Karyn

WHY DO WE DO THAT? Catholic Life Explained:

Question:

How can we pray for the dead throughout the year?

Answer:

We commemorate the faithful departed on November 2nd each year. However, we can and should continue to pray for the dead. Our growth in Christian perfection takes a long time. At the time of our death, many of us might not be saints yet. But God, in His mercy, allows for those who love Him to experience purification after death. Our word for that state is Purgatory. It's the antechamber of heaven, so to speak. We know we're getting in the house, but we're not quite ready to go all the way in. There's rain to shake off our coats and dirt that's clogging our shoes.

Here on earth, we can pray for the souls in Purgatory. One way is to request that your parish offer a Mass for the intention of a specific loved one. We can also remember the departed in our daily prayers. Just as we have special intentions for family and friends here on earth, we can pray for those who have died. It's also a good act of Christian charity to pray for the forgotten, those who have no one else to pray for them. God knows who they are!

Worship

When we are mindful of what Jesus wants us to do, we may find that miracles occur; we may just need to fill our stone jars with water. God will do the rest. That's our hope as we take steps, one by one, through this life. We need to trust and place ourselves in our Creator's care. The Gospel story about the wedding at Cana is filled with imagery that can enrich us as we place ourselves in that location.

THE CONVENIENCE OF AUTOMATED TITHING

Many families have already chosen to give one-time or recurring donations through our website. Explore the convenience of online giving at churchofstanne.org under the donate tab on the left side of the screen, and be one of the families who set their tithe to automatically occur when, how often, and in the amount they'd like to give. And always have access to update your information, change gift amounts, enter new payment methods, or pause/cancel a gift at any time. With online giving, you can forget about writing checks or swinging by the ATM.

With the 2021 tax year now upon us, we will soon be working on year-end tax statements. Due to the increasing cost of postage, the parish would like to focus on sending these statements electronically. Since so many individuals are unable to itemize taxes due to the current tax laws, we will gladly provide your year-end tax statement upon request. Please contact the parish office during normal business hours at 248-627-3965 ext. 100 and provide your email address. Your statement will then be sent out by January 31. Thank you for your cooperation and patience. On behalf of Fr. Craig Marion and the Staff, thank you for your generosity to St. Anne Church and blessings to you and your families throughout 2022!
