This weekend, October 12th/13th, we will be taking up the annual collection for the financial support of our retired Archdiocesan priests. This special collection will take place after the Communion of the Mass. Any checks can be made out to “St. Patrick Parish - Priests’ Retirement Fund”. Envelopes, as well as brochures, are available from the ushers or at the doors of the Church. Please try to be as generous as possible in offering your prayerful financial support, and in offering your daily prayer intentions for all of our Archdiocesan senior priests.

May the Lord richly bless you for your willingness to share some of your financial blessings with our senior priests who have offered their lives of dedicated committed service to the Lord and to the local Church of Detroit throughout their years of active priestly ministry. 94 senior priests of the Archdiocese (some of whom are my own 1964 classmates) are now receiving a monthly pension check from the Archdiocesan Priests’ Retirement Fund. Please do your part to help our Archdiocesan senior priests in this annual appeal.

This week, please join with us in prayer as we together, as the St. Patrick Parish Faith Family, ask God’s continued blessings upon them for their dedication in the “Service of Christ”.

By strengthening the Archdiocesan Priest Retirement Fund, we will help to ensure adequate retirement assistance and health coverage in the years ahead for those who have served us with much faith-filled commitment. Please be generous. They certainly were most generous to us!

World Mission Sunday Next Weekend

Next weekend, October 19th/20th, at the request of our Holy Father, Pope Francis, we will commemorate the 93rd Anniversary of World Mission Sunday. Pope Francis is a great champion for the poor. He said recently... “We must become a poor Church for the poor”. As he continues to call us all to a greater simplicity of life and a deeper faith in the Lord, he demonstrates his love for poor people not only by his spoken words but also by the example of the life-choices that he makes.

As we prepare to celebrate World Mission Sunday, Pope Francis asks that we all do our part to help the poor of the world through our sacrificial offering and personal prayers for all missionaries and for the people and families they serve so (cont’d on page 2)
Cardinal Tobin will be the main speaker and Archbishop Byrnes will serve as our Spiritual Director during the Convocation.

I ask that you will pray for us during this Convocation as we will be spending time together as members of the Presbyterate of Detroit. Know that we will also keep you in our prayers as well.

Peace and Joy in the Lord

Whom We Serve,

Fr. Tom

Everyday Stewardship Recognize God in Your Ordinary Moments

In the South, the use of “Yes, Sir”, “Yes, Ma’am” and “Thank You” have been drilled into many a little person’s brain. Unfortunately, as time goes by, those social conventions seem to be in danger, even in the very places that have held them sacred for so long. In fact, I found that I sometimes will even get a strange look when I utter similar words to a stranger or passer-by. It seems manners are being traded for acceptance of ill-conceived tolerance, even tolerance of the ill-mannered.

We know this is nothing new when we look at the story of Jesus’ healing of the ten lepers. After healing ten, only one comes back to show gratitude to the healer. Why did 90% of those healed not offer thanks?

We all find our lives filled with blessings. We may sometimes think we deserve the good things we receive. We may also believe because everyone receives the same gifts—things like life, air, and the planet—that God didn’t single us out, and our obligation to offer thanks is diminished. However, gratitude is never obligated. The other 9 did not get their leprosy back due to ungrateful hearts. Gratitude is simply the gift we give to the one who was generous to us in the first place. A gift for a gift. Generosity gives birth to more generosity. Without as much gratitude in the world, there is less chance for an increase of love and generosity. So, who do you need to thank today?

ST. PATRICK PARISH

MISSION STATEMENT

We, the St. Patrick Parish of White Lake, are a Catholic faith community that celebrates Life in Christ. As we are nourished and led by the Holy Spirit, our common baptismal mission is: to evangelize; to proclaim and to teach the Word of God; to praise and to worship God in Word and Sacrament; and to live His Word through loving service to ALL people. On this active faith journey, we are called to be disciples who affirm, heal and forgive in the love of Christ. Amen

Sacristans Needed

Before Mass, Sacristans set out the correct amount of bread and wine along with the appropriate liturgical vessels. Sacristans prepare everything in a timely way for the ministers and the assembly who will worship together at Mass.

It is easy to do and training is provided. We particularly need Sacristans at the 12:00 Mass. Please call Ann at 248-698-3100 x 222 if you are interested in serving your parish in this very important way.

Eucharistic Ministers TRAINING

Training will take place on Monday, November 4 at 7:00pm and on Tuesday, November 5 at 1:00pm in the church. This ministry puts you at the center of the Church’s life. The celebration of the Eucharist on the Lord’s day our most important activity. When the faithful believers participate at Mass, they look forward to receiving Holy Communion. You will be a servant of Christ fulfilling His will to feed the hungry by giving them something to eat and drink. Please rsvp to Ann at 248-698-3100 x 222 if you are interested in being trained for this essential ministry.

October is the month of the Holy Rosary of the Blessed Virgin Mary. But did you ever ask yourself, how did the Rosary become associated with Mary? Let’s see if we can shed some light on the answer.

Since the early days of the Church, Christians have used knotted cords or prayer beads to help keep track of their prayers. The Rosary, as we know it today, evolved in the Middle Ages, when the “Hail Mary” prayer became widely known. The term “Rosary” comes from the word “rosarium,” or a bouquet of roses; the prayers of the Rosary were seen as a spiritual bouquet of roses offered to Mary, our Blessed Mother. In fact, there’s an old tradition that Mary herself appeared to St. Dominic (1170 -1221) and gave him the Rosary as an aid in his preaching against the Albigensian heresy, which denied the Incarnation of Christ. The Christian church was perceived as evil and renounced by the Albigensians throughout the 12th and 13th centuries.

While praying each decade of the Rosary, Catholics meditate on key moments in Christ’s life. Many of these involve Mary (the Annunciation, the Visitation, the Assumption, etc.). For this reason, the Rosary is seen as a way to draw closer to Christ through Mary. As Pope Paul VI wrote in his apostolic exhortation Marialis Cultus, the Rosary helps us “meditate on the mysteries of the Lord’s life as seen through the eyes of her who was closest to the Lord. So, because St. Dominic had an apparition of Mary in the 13th century when Mary gave him the Rosary, the Rosary we say today is greatly due to St. Dominic with a natural tie back to the Blessed Virgin Mary.

Pray the Rosary often!

Now you know the rest of the story…

Have a blessed week,

Stan Politowicz

A Prayer For Our Family

Heavenly Father, thank you for the gift of our family. We long to draw close to you so that someday we may be with you for eternity.

Give us the grace to accompany one another on this journey of faith.

Lord Jesus, open our hearts so that we may encounter you and grow more deeply in our relationship with you. Help us to be joyful witnesses of your love and mercy to one another and to everyone who enters our home.

Come, Holy Spirit, fill our home with your loving presence. Move deeply within our family and help us to use our gifts to serve as a model of faithful discipleship as we go about our daily lives.

Amen.

Good Hand Washing

I want to write this article because of what I witnessed recently weekend during the church fair. People eating without washing their hands. Money handling is one of the dirties things anyone can handle. If you handle money before you eat, wash your hands because you don’t know what and where the hands that gave you the money were. I also witnessed women going into the bathroom and leaving the bathroom without washing their hands. Please, we are always an example to others. One would be surprised to see what you see when you are just standing there. I am just pointing this out because children are watching us always. So, when washing your hands, sing Happy Birthday because with hand washing and good health, we will see each other next year at the church fair or picnic.

Any questions or comments, please call me. I am here for you. If I can help you or visit you for a health question call me, 248-698-3101.

The Angel Haven Shoe Box Project

If you would like to participate in this great pre-Thanksgiving family project, here is what you can do. Get a shoe box. Decide if you would like to create it for a child or adult. Place hat and gloves or mittens, some warm clothing items, personal care items and/or toys or treats in the box. Wrap the outside of the box and the top separately with Christmas wrap (this allows the delivery committee to adjust boxes so children in the same family receive equitable items).

Write on the box the size of clothing and the age that is appropriate for any toys inside and the gender of the person you created the box for. Labels for the boxes are available in Christian Service and tags to print will be available in future bulletins as well.

For several years we have had two families of parishioners who get together with family and friends and fill as many shoe boxes as they can, having a great time while they work. Now a rivalry exists to see which family fills the most shoe boxes. I was told it was such a great experience they can’t wait to do it again every year! Our St. Patrick Teens also make dozens of shoe boxes to send each year.

Just think, if all you received for Christmas was the shoebox! The Appalachian people are so grateful for their shoebox gifts. Call Christian Service if you have any questions at 248-698-3103 ext. 215 or 216.

Please deliver to Christian Service no later than November 10th!
