As we continue through the Easter Season, the Church does not want us to lose sight of our journey toward Pentecost, which is the last and greatest day of Easter. (The Resurrection is such an important event, that we can't compress its celebration into just one day: Easter goes on for fifty days!) On the last day of Easter, Pentecost, we celebrate the Spirit. And it is the Spirit—Jesus' gift to us from the Father—who directs our individual lives, brings the Church to life, and sends us on mission as disciples. This is quite evident in the readings at Mass, both on Sunday and through the weekdays. Pentecost is already "anticipated" in these days after Easter Sunday.

As Church, and as individuals within the Church, we never quite know where the Spirit will lead. As Jesus told Nicodemus, "The wind blows where it will. You hear the sound it makes but you don't know where it comes from, or where it goes. So it is with everyone begotten of the Spirit." (John 3:8) In the Greek language the same word, pneuma, means both "wind" and "spirit". Jesus is talking on a different "level" for those who are listening! Well, not knowing exactly where the Spirit is leading us, the important thing is for us to be 1) prayerful, 2) open, and 3) expectant. Then, the Spirit has a free hand to accomplish His work in our lives. If you do that, you can be assured that somehow He's going to use you to touch someone else's life, allowing you to witness in some way about how the power of the Lord's Resurrection has affected your life. If the person you are addressing is also open to the Spirit, that person can be led to the love of Christ. Not a bad day's work. (And you thought you had your day already scheduled!) Keep praying for that special person you know who needs to come [back] to the Church.

As long as you're praying, I have a few more suggestions for your intercession. There's seven of them. Perhaps you can choose one for each day of the week to

Offerory Report

(The fiscal year begins July 1)

	Collected	Budgeted*	Over/(Under)
As of Mar., 2021	*$617,508	$749,997	($132,489)

*This does NOT represent needed income, but only the amount we expected would actually come in.

Note: For clarity and accuracy, this report now shows reconciled month-end balances.

The "One-Hour Challenge!"

To have a happy, peaceful life, it is important that we have our lives in order, with our grateful response to God for his gifts being our top priority. That is how a disciple responds in the areas of prayer, family, finance, and service.

If you need help to put balance in your life, take the "one-hour challenge": Each week, spend at least...

- One hour in prayer and worship.
- One hour, special, focused on your family or other important relationship.
- One hour's wage (if you have a job) for the Lord. No job? Then give what seems right for you.
- One hour in service. (Helping another, or working for some cause.)

It's important to be specific in what steps to take in order to ensure that each "hour" actually happens!

May God bless you!

focus on:

- Pray for the outpouring of the Holy Spirit upon the whole Church of the Archdiocese of Detroit. Next Pentecost it will be FOUR YEARS since the Archbishop released his pastoral letter on evangelization, Unleash the Gospel. Like the disciples gathered in the upper room, “devoted to constant prayer” as they awaited the Spirit before they could begin their mission of proclaiming the Good News, (Acts 1:14), now’s the time to intensify our prayer! May we all come to embrace the direction given by our Archbishop!
- Pray for our children who will be making their First Holy Communion on May 1, that they will grow in their hunger for Jesus in the Eucharist. —and pray for their families who need to bring them to Church each week!
- Pray for the young people who will be confirmed by Bishop Robert Fisher on May 21. May they be open to the Spirit, and to whatever vocation God has in mind for them.
- Pray for vocations! Pray especially for vocations to the priesthood, since the priest shortage is going to get much worse unless there is a strong uptick in men applying to the seminary—and even then it will take a number of years of steady growth to fill in for the priests who are reaching, or are beyond, retirement age. But also pray for ALL vocations within the Church—which includes those called to marriage, as well as others who are called to a single life.
- Pray that those who are called to consider some position of professional lay ministry within the Church will respond to the Spirit. This too, is a vocation and is a particular need within the Church at this time. And we should pray that both young people—and those considering a second career—will give this vocation some serious consideration.
- Pray for our parishioners who are now able to return to Mass. There are some who are reluctant due to legitimate medical concerns, and there are others who perhaps have become “comfortable” with being away. Pray that they will be drawn back to Eucharist. —And pray for all our faith-filled parishioners, whose job it is to invite them home.
- Pray for my Pastoral Advisory Team. This group of six dedicated men and women meet with me for prayer and discussion for 2 to 4 hours each week, trying to discern the will of the Spirit for our Parish, keeping our goal of evangelization front and center in all our parish efforts.

As a matter of fact, in general, pray for a further outpouring of the Spirit on our parish this Pentecost! But don't stop praying after May 23rd! I have personally made it a practice to pray each night for our parish and I invite you to make this a feature of your daily prayer along with me. Pray for the various ministries within our parish—and that people will be willing to extend themselves in the stewardship of Service. Pray for the financial support of the Parish—that we will have enough resources to do the things the Lord wants us to do. Pray for the parishioners. Pray for the people you love. You even get to toss in a prayer for your pastor!

In Jesus,
Fr. Michael

Camp Ozanam

Our parish St. Vincent de Paul Conference is blessed to share an opportunity with families struggling (financially or suffering some other hardship such as divorce, separation, death of a loved one, etc.) with children between the age of 8 and 14. If this applies, we'd like to offer your child(ren) the opportunity to attend Camp Ozanam this summer for free. Camp Ozanam provides children the chance to experience a free week of summer residential camping. Children will enjoy the great outdoors, making new friends and life-long memories this summer at Camp Ozanam!

Please contact Melani by leaving a message for her at the parish office, 248-624-1421.

Bundle Days are coming!

With the arrival of spring in Michigan, most of us are looking forward to getting back to normal, and putting this pandemic in our rear-view mirror. To that end, your St Vincent de Paul conference is happy to sponsor Bundle Day weekend collection drive on May 15th & 16th.

We will be accepting clean, useable clothing, linens, shoes and accessories, as well as kitchen items and other household goods. Please do not bring TV's or electronics but small appliances are accepted. Your goods may be dropped off before and after all Masses or really anytime all weekend, as our members monitor the truck regularly, in order to keep things neat and organized. Thank-you for your patience and generosity!

USHERS COLLEGE SCHOLARSHIP

Once again it is time for high school seniors to apply for the Ushers College Scholarship.

Applicants may obtain an application from any usher. The directions for applying are on the application form. We encourage all parish member high school seniors to apply.

Hospitality Committee

April Update!

We do hope that everyone had a Spiritual Lent and a Blessed Holy Week and Easter this year. It was so nice to see so many friends and fellow parishioners returning to Church to celebrate this most special feast! Please pray for those Initiated at the Easter Vigil that they may continue to grow in their Faith.

We hope that everyone who received one of our 'Evangelizing Messages' with their Fish Fry dinners found them to be uplifting and meaningful! Maybe someone who was thinking about returning to Mass, did!

As we move forward from Divine Mercy Sunday toward Pentecost, we should be praying especially for the children who will be receiving their First Holy Communion and Confirmation in May, both significant milestones in our Catholic Faith!

As always, we are looking for Parishioners to become part of the Hospitality Committee. Each of us can turn to another and welcome them in the name of the Lord. Consider joining us in that endeavor. God Bless!

Knights of Columbus

Knights of Columbus Tootsie Roll Drive Update!

The Knights of Columbus Tootsie Roll Drive supporting people with Intellectual Disabilities was held March 26th-28th, 2021 at various Walled Lake, Wixom, and Commerce Township locations! What a TREMENDOUS OUTPOURING of support was realized in those 3 days! With a Goal of $4,500 for the Drive, we blew right through that and collected $7,200!! We had 27 Knights and Family members helping and we kept the intersections well manned throughout the 3 days. The following Organizations benefited from this Drive: Michigan State K of C Charities - $1,440; St. William School - $2,880; WL Schools Special Olympics - $1,440; and St. Francis on the Lake Camp - $1,440. If you put some monies in one of our cans – THANK YOU VERY MUCH!

Knights of Columbus Sunday Breakfast Update!

The Knights of Columbus are preparing to restart our monthly Breakfasts on May 2nd, 2021! We know everyone is looking forward to this event, but here's a few things you need to know. As stated before, we are going to hold it OUTSIDE by the Convent, weather permitting! We plan to have small tables located in the grassy areas but YOU will need to bring a lawn chair (saves us from having to move chairs across the street from Zepf!) We'll be cooking and serving under a dining fly and the menu will be pancakes, sausage, scrambled eggs, maybe donuts from Nino's, plus coffee and juice! We're asking for a 'Free Will' donation for this Breakfast! We are depending on GOOD WEATHER so continue praying so that we can make this event happen!

WHY DO WE DO THAT? -

Question: Do children need to receive the Sacrament of Reconciliation before their First Communion?

Answer:

For centuries the Catholic Church has taught that a person needs to be in a state of grace (free from mortal sins) in order to worthily receive the Eucharist. To that end, Catholics should make an effort to celebrate the Sacrament of Reconciliation any time they recognize the need for the sacrament (and in keeping with the precept of the Church that asks that we celebrate this sacrament at least once each year).

In the case of children preparing for their First Communion, the Code of Canon Law is very clear that they should also celebrate the Sacrament of Reconciliation before receiving the Eucharist for the first time: "It is the responsibility, in the first place, of parents and those who take the place of parents as well as of the pastor to see that children who have reached the use of reason are correctly prepared and are nourished by the divine food as early as possible, preceded by sacramental confession" (Canon 914).

While some might question the significance of the Sacrament of Reconciliation — especially in the case of children who might not fully understand the reality of sin or the meaning of the sacrament itself — a child's "First Confession" can be a wonderful time for families to reflect together on the quality of their relationships, how they put their faith into practice, and, when it is possible, to celebrate the sacrament as a family. In the end, the celebration of these two sacraments marks important moments in the spiritual journeys of children and we hope their "First Confession" and "First Communion" help instill in them a love of the sacraments of the Church.

Pray for the Sick of Our Parish

All-powerful and ever-lasting God, your Son accepted our sufferings to teach us the virtue of patience in human illness. Hear the prayers we offer for our sick brothers and sisters. May all who suffer pain, illness, or disease realize that they have been chosen to be saints and know that they are joined to Christ in his suffering for the salvation of the world. We ask this through Christ our Lord, Amen.

Gospel Meditation

Third Sunday of Easter

We often act out of ignorance. Armed with the best of intentions, we think we are seeing clearly and correctly, but we are not. We don't always understand the full meaning of things and only perceive part of the truth. Hence, our judgments and actions can be impaired by myopic, incomplete, or erroneous perceptions. The meaning of life, understanding of human experience, and negotiating life's challenges can all become skewed without proper understanding and vision. The resurrection of Christ is the corrective to our incomplete and limited view of life. Looking at things with the eyes of faith brings a depth of clarity and understanding to how we see God, ourselves, others, and the world.

Even the disciples struggled with their limited understanding and ignorant perceptions. It was only when Jesus opened their minds to understand the Scriptures that their eyes were opened. It was their "aha" moment when everything clicked. We all want the substance of our lives to come together, make sense, and have meaning. This is easier to achieve when things are going positively and life is good. It is when suffering, disappointment, death, hardship, and injustice enter the picture that things can become unsettled and disoriented. Our faith in the goodness and love of God is tested. We tend to shift our focus on these difficult and challenging moments and do not see them within the greater picture of how God intends life to unfold. We can gain, from the passion and resurrection of Christ, the clear vision we need in order to move away from ignorance to enlightenment.

We need our "aha" moment when everything comes together and clicks. It can come in a fleeting instant when we feel totally connected with God, where we find ourselves, others and all of creation. It is a moment when all is right and good, regardless of how difficult our journey. Our "aha" moment assures us that God is here, right with us, in us and around us bringing us a gift and blessing we can receive nowhere else: peace. In those brief sacramental encounters when we are lifted up out of ourselves and centered, we can hear God say, "peace be with you," and we feel secure. It's all okay. The resurrected Christ has the power to bring this gift to us. Some people, as they are facing their deaths, remark about this peace. When looking into the window of eternity, they experience a depth of joy and are amazed at God's goodness and closeness. We are called to be witnesses to this Good News.

©LPi

Live the Liturgy

When the greeting "Peace be with you" is sincerely offered to a person, it can resonate very deep within, bringing comfort and reassurance. When someone possesses the power to bring peace, it brings us to a place of safety and fills us with joy. The resurrected Christ has this power. God can open our minds so that we can more fully understand the meaning of Sacred Scripture and God's compassionate, loving, tender, and untiring embrace constantly present and offered to people throughout history. Without the anchor of truth that only God can provide, we can easily become startled and terrified at the sight of what life brings us. Being open to God's offer of peace, we can turn away from old habits and short-sighted vision and experience the gladness and joy of God's gift. Only then can what is wounded and broken be mended and reconciliation achieved. We are the resurrection witnesses called to proclaim the Good News.

A Family Perspective

by Bud Ozar

The apostles were afraid of Jesus until he ate with them and they touched him. In your family the ordinary acts of eating together, touching, embracing not only confirm our love for each other, but also celebrate God's presence in your family. These 'ordinary' moments contain the 'Extraordinary.'

Everyday Stewardship — How to Fail Your Way to Heaven

You know what are some of my favorite moments in Scripture? The little “Easter eggs” of Jesus’ humanity, things like Jesus falling asleep, Jesus drawing in the sand, Jesus playing with kids. And how about Jesus rising from the dead, appearing to his disciples and saying, “So, have you got anything to eat?”

It’s right for us to always keep in mind that Jesus is God. But we also have to remember that he was man. He got hungry. He cried when he felt sad and laughed when he felt happy. He got tired. He got bored.

Because he was God, none of those feelings ever led him into sin, like they do us. He never spent a car ride trying to pass the hours by seeing how annoyed he could make his older sister. He never smacked Peter over the head for saying something really stupid. But he did unleash some Biblically righteous anger on those traders in the temple, didn’t he? And he wasn’t shy about calling Peter “a Satan” when his friend tempted him to take the easy way out.

It’s the tightrope walk we all try to balance every day, honoring our human emotions while still answering God’s call to be better. Being perfect isn’t the domain of the Christian — that’s the domain of Christ only. Trying and failing, then trying again (and failing again) and again and again? That’s the domain of the Christian.
