Last week I mentioned that in a future column (well, this is it) that I would inform you about the changes that are happening to how our parish is organized. This is all part of our efforts to better accomplishing our Mission.

These changes are particularly important as we move forward with the establishment of “Families of Parishes” (FOPs) within the Archdiocese. Drawing from the “Playbook”, which is a guide to how “FOPs” are to function, it is apparent that we will be better able to collaborate with the other members of our “Family” when all our parishes are structured according to the new model of ministry. (By the way, the other members of our Family are Holy Family Parish in Novi, St. James Parish in Novi, and St Joseph Parish in South Lyon.)

In the past, all parish activities and all parish organizations fell under the umbrella of one or another of four “Commissions” (Worship, Service, Stewardship, or Education), whose work was overseen by the Parish Pastoral Council. The members of these groups, some appointed and some chosen in our annual selection process, would typically meet monthly—except during Christmastime or Easter, or some of the summer months. Over the years these Commissions had various degrees of effectiveness, some being very active and others sometimes wondering what why they were meeting. (No one is thrilled to come to a meeting just to get reports.) In recent years we introduced templates for both the agendas and minutes that certainly helped

The "One-Hour Challenge!"

To have a happy, peaceful life, it is important that we have our lives in order, with our grateful response to God for his gifts being our top priority. That is how a disciple responds in the areas of prayer, family, finance, and service.

If you need help to put balance in your life, take the "one-hour challenge": Each week, spend at least...

- One hour in prayer and worship.
- One hour, special, focused on your family or other important relationship.
- One hour's wage (if you have a job) for the Lord. No job? Then give what seems right for you.
- One hour in service. (Helping another, or working for some cause.)

It's important to be specific in what steps to take in order to ensure that each "hour" actually happens!

May God bless you!

make the meetings more efficient and effective, but still there seemed to be some underlying sense that we could be doing even better, be more innovative, and focus the parish efforts toward evangelization more directly.

In any event, COVID pretty much shut the meetings down, although the Service Commission has re-engaged in their activities wherever they could. Still, God can bring blessings even out of a bad situation, and this was one of those occasions. The shutdown allowed us time to consider how to make the structure of the Parish more attuned to our Mission and be more effective. We realized that the Commissions would each benefit from having a small leadership team who had charisms for administration and organization, and a larger number of members who had other charisms to actually accomplish the specific objectives that the leadership established. When people are working out of their charisms (i.e., gifts of the Holy Spirit to the individual, for the building up of the community) they find themselves energized and enthused about accomplishing God's work. (By contrast, when people are asked to do things for which they have no charism, they tend to get frustrated and discouraged.)

In the midst of this introspection, the diocese gave us the "Playbook" for the Families of Parishes. The playbook envisions not "four" but "FIVE" areas of focus for parish ministry. The four commissions will now become five "Teams", and the Parish Council's role will be subsumed into the work of the Parish Finance Council (required under Canon Law) and the work of the Parish Leadership Teams, whose main task is to keep us focused on Mission. Our parish's leadership team I have dubbed my "Pastoral Advisory Team" to make it clear that their role is not to be a super "Council" making decisions for the parish, but rather an advisory team to help keep me, as Pastor, focused on Mission.

As I said, instead of "Worship, Education, Service, and Stewardship" the Playbook published by the Archdiocese is now re-imagining parish life to fit under five Mission Direct "Teams": Discipleship, Engagement, Family Ministries, Worship, and Evangelical Charity. (The Playbook also calls for Mission Support Teams, to assist in parish administration.) What's involved in each of the Mission Direct Teams is detailed on our website and on our Facebook page. (It's easier to see the whole picture in a chart rather than trying to explain it here,

Eucharistic Adoration

Saturday, March 19th

1 to 4 PM

Please come and spend some time with Jesus during our Saturday Adoration on Feb. 19th, 2022. The church is open 1-4pm with Jesus present to listen to your prayers or concerns. If you can spare a few minutes even if it is 15 minutes he will not let you down.

since a picture is worth a thousand words, which would take up way too much space in my column.)

Currently we are actively recruiting persons who have gifts for leadership to head up each of these Mission Direct Teams.

Please join with me in keeping the Parish in prayer!

Fr. Michael

P.S. Lent is coming in a week and a half, so start praying NOW for a great Lent, and start thinking about how you can make that happen. On Page 9 of this bulletin there is a treasure trove of electronic resources that have been recommended to us for Lenten reflection and prayer that can be downloaded to your smartphone or to your computer. (Some of these are free, some have free trials, and some have costs.)

And don't forget the wonderful resource that the Parish has already purchased on behalf of all of our parishioners! There is a link on our parish website to access "FORMED", which has everything from movies to study sessions. Explore! It's great!

In today's Gospel Jesus gives us the challenge to: "Love your enemies... Give to everyone who asks of you...Do to others as you would have them do to you...Be merciful, just as your Father is merciful.

In studying the effects of religion upon family relationships, researchers inform us hostility and prayer can't coexist. You cannot be hostile toward someone for whom you are praying. Today's gospel encourages us: "Bless those who curse you. Pray for those who treat you badly."

Word of Life

"We often assume parenthood happens easily after 'I do,' but for many married couples, it does not. For some, the joy of conception never happens. Others suffer repeated miscarriages. Still others experience secondary infertility... If you experience difficulty bringing a child into your family, know that you are not alone. God is with you, and his Church desires to walk with you... God has a beautiful plan for your life as a married couple."

What Is Mammon?

Question: When Jesus says, "You cannot serve both God and mammon," what does he mean? What is mammon?

Answer: When you hear Scripture proclaimed each Sunday, remember it wasn't originally written in English. Hebrew, Aramaic, Greek — these ancient tongues were the original language of our Old and New Testaments. Most of the time, all of the words are translated into our native language. Sometimes, a word or two is left in the original language. Such is the case in this Scripture passage.

Mammon is an ancient Aramaic word referring to money, wealth, or profit. Earthly wealth isn't bad in itself, nor does it automatically exclude us from being a disciple of Jesus. But what dominates our life? To serve money — that is, to seek accumulation of wealth for its own sake and to structure our lives around it — is morally problematic. What good is our wealth if it isn't at the service of others? What good is our wealth if its pursuit leads us to selfishness, obsession, greed, envy, and comparison? There are many things that can be opposed to our service of God — power, prestige, popularity. Ultimately, something in our lives will be our master. But there is only one God worth serving.

Dear
RE Parents,

I am delighted to share with you this invitation to a VIRTUAL FAITH GROUP that is forming for parents.

Amy Rates is a wonderful and spirit filled leader in our religious education program and would like to share this message with you. Start the new year with some new friends and fellowship!!

Kim

Hi there! My name is Amy and I am a member of St. William parish. I've been taking bible study classes for 8 years here and I felt the Holy Spirit was calling me to lead one. I have two children and have been married for 17 years to a great guy.

Are you a parent that needs a spiritual jumpstart in your faith? Are you interested in learning more about your faith with other Catholic parents that are going through the same struggles as you? Then join us in this virtual Catholic Faith Group. I will be facilitating a study on "The Search", finding the meaning of life, hosted by Chris Stafanick. Chris is so engaging and moving that you will get so much out of this. We will meet virtually one night a week for 7 weeks.

I am considering Wednesday or Thursday nights, from 7-8:30. I have seen this short series before and it was so good that I said, people need to see this! So here is your chance to join us! I promise you will walk away from this study saying, that was so inspiring, when does the next section start.

If you're interested, please send me your email and phone number and someone will be in contact with you. I look forward to hearing from you, God bless.

Amy Rates :)

Pray for the Sick of Our Parish

All-powerful and ever-lasting God, your Son accepted our sufferings to teach us the virtue of patience in human illness. Hear the prayers we offer for our sick brothers and sisters. May all who suffer pain, illness, or disease realize that they have been chosen to be saints and know that they are joined to Christ in his suffering for the salvation of the world. We ask this through Christ our Lord, Amen.
