On Tuesday we celebrate the Fourth of July, and I seem to remember that by now the corn is supposed to be knee-high. ("Knee high by the 4th of July!")

Speaking of remembering, it is also a good time to remember our obligation to pray for our country. Unless you've been living on the far side of the moon for the last couple of years, you know well that political controversies are regular fodder for news broadcasts. But it seems that more than ever (at least in my memory), citizens have become intolerant of any viewpoint but their own. Rather than having reasoned debate over issues, showing respect to other persons even while disagreeing with their opinions, the "opposition" is vilified, even demonized. Since, by definition, such persons are evil, their thoughts and actions are—at the least—suspect, or are even rejected automatically. That's not a healthy attitude in a democracy. Two years ago, our Archbishop wrote a very insightful Pastoral Note about "speaking the truth in love" rather than continuing "the uncivil nature of our civil discourse". (The Pastoral Note is available in its entirety on our Parish Website. I recommend it!)

Violence in our society seems more and more accepted, and is actually expected in our "entertainment" whether "news", sports or "reality" TV. Our tolerance of violence surfaces as "road-rage", as well as violent acts in our homes, workplaces, and even schools. For years now at Mass, during the Prayer of the Faithful, we have been regularly praying for an end to our "culture" of violence, and for a greater respect for all human life.

Of special concern are the efforts on the part of some to expand access to abortion on demand. There are even efforts to repeal the Hyde Amendment, which prohibits the use of Federal tax dollars to pay for abortions. In Michigan, sadly, a pro-abortion ballot initiative was passed that has enshrined "Reproductive Rights for All" into the Michigan Constitution.

Then there is the issue of global warming (and debate about what to do with it). There are frustratingly difficult situations like China and Taiwan, Iran, North Korea—and

The "One-Hour Challenge!"

To have a happy, peaceful life, it is important that we have our lives in order, with our grateful response to God for his gifts being our top priority. That is how a disciple responds in the areas of prayer, family, finance, and service.

If you need help to put balance in your life, take the "one-hour challenge": Each week, spend at least...

- One hour in prayer and worship.
- One hour, special, focused on your family or other important relationship.
- One hour's wage (if you have a job) for the Lord. No job? Then give what seems right for you.
- One hour in service. (Helping another, or working for some cause.)

It's important to be specific in what steps to take in order to ensure that each "hour" actually happens!

May God bless you!

of course the war in Ukraine! Pray for wise decisions by political leaders throughout the world. We pray that leaders be successful in their efforts to bring about peace, through justice.

If you make the mistake of consistently listening to the evening "News", you are probably aware that many items are not so much "news", as stories designed to increase viewership with little regard for balanced reporting or attempting to fairly present both sides of an issue. No, controversy sells better.

Inflation and the still looming threat of a recession are major concerns for most people, with inflation having the heaviest impact on the poor. I reiterate that the threats to our religious freedom should be a concern for us all. Then there are the ongoing controversies about immigration, along with the ongoing crisis at the southern border. The importation of illegal, dangerous, and deadly drugs has increased dramatically. (Over 100,000 Americans died last year from fentanyl overdose.) We continue to struggle with issues arising from gender dysphoria, same-sex marriage, and LGBTQ+ questions. There are also very heated controversies about education, criminal justice, and green energy.

Fortunately, our primary citizenship is not "U.S."; it is citizenship of the Kingdom of God, and we're supposed to bring those values into our society, for its sanctification. Our identity is to be a "joyful band of missionary disciples", as we seek to "Unleash the Gospel"! As citizens of the Kingdom, all of us have been called by our baptisms to embrace radically different values from the prevailing culture. As St. Paul said, we must "no longer live as the pagans do—their minds empty, their understanding darkened...[rather], lay aside your former way of life and old self which deteriorates through illusion and desire, and acquire a fresh, spiritual way of thinking." (Eph. 4)

Happy Fourth, and keep praying.

Also for the Fourth and during the rest of the summer, some people undoubtedly will try to get away for a few days of vacation. We pray that they return to us safe, healthy, and refreshed.

Getting away for vacation is great, of course, whether it's just for a day or two, or for several weeks. But I remember something from my earliest seminary days that I share with you now because it applies to us all: "There is no vacation from a vocation!" We all share the vocation of being disciples of the Lord.

When you do get away, relax and have fun. God wants that for you. But always remember your Christian vocation, and make prayer part of your vacation agenda. We also need to keep Mass on our vacation schedules as well. All Catholics, even those who are not able to physically come to Mass, have the obligation to keep Sunday as a special day of prayer and rest. Able-bodied Catholics fulfill their obligation by attending Mass. If you know of persons who are homebound, you might mention to them that a great way for them to fulfill their obligation is by tuning into our livestream at 10:00 AM or praying along with the recording later that day. It also has the advantage of keeping them more connected to the community.

Have a great Fourth, and a great summer!

In Jesus,
Fr. Michael

Respect Life Baby Shower Summary - 2023

The Respect Life Committee hosted a Baby Shower over two weekends in May for Another Way Pregnancy Center in Farmington Hills. Once again, the generosity of the parishioners of St. William Parish was shining bright. The donations filled the back of an SUV from the front seat to the cargo door and from floor to ceiling. Among the items delivered were three portable cribs, a brand new car seat, dozens of packages of diapers, and numerous wipes. There were precious outfits and onesies as well. Cash donations totaled several hundred dollars.

The loaded vehicle was amazing to see! The staff at Another Way helped unload and were so appreciative of all you had done.

St. William Parish is the BEST! You always outdo yourselves with your support of the babies. Thank you for all you have done!

Changing Lives at Another Way Pregnancy Center - Baby Bottle Drive Update

WOW! What a showing of support for Another Way Pregnancy Center. The 53 bottles turned in last week netted $1,850.83 to them – thanks St. William! Another 35 Baby Bottles were collected on June 17/18 and are on their way to AWPC for counting! With 200 bottles distributed, we still have 112 more to return. Boxes will be available in both Tower Entrances for the next several weeks for your donations. We'd like to have this drive completed by mid-July so please bring them in ASAP. St. William Parishioners have a history of great support for this cause and I'm confident that will continue to be the case! Thanks for whatever amount you care to contribute!

NATIONAL Eucharistic Revival

DEACON'S CORNER

Do Not Be Afraid

These have been very trying times, and it can be easy to fall into despair and discouragement. But, God calls us to trust in Him, to have faith.

The Lord invites us to be courageous and fearless, not because we are strong but because He is. The Bible tells us not to fear 365 times - once for every day of the year.

If you have been away from Church, if you have been away from Mass, if you have been away from the Eucharist, we invite you home. Do not be afraid, only have faith. Come home. Come be fed. Do you have questions about the Catholic faith? Do you want to know more about what it means to be Catholic? Call me, Dcn. Mike, 248-624-1421.

We need your help. Within the boundaries of St. William Parish there are five retirement centers, one rehabilitation center and one major hospital. Each of these facilities has parishioners and residents who are in need of receiving our Lord in the Eucharist. If you have ever experienced anyone who has received communion from an Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion in a hospital or nursing home, it is both a tremendous blessing to the person receiving and the one giving. We will provide training and the individual commitment is based on your schedule and your ability to serve. If interested please contact myself or Karen Sommers, 248-624-1421.

Blessings
Deacon Mike

"And I will be a father to you, and you shall be sons and daughters to me," says the Lord Almighty.

2 Corinthians 6:18

Peace To You Sons and Daughters of the King!

Welcome to St. William Adult Formation. You will always be able to find us by looking for the crown and the scripture verse 2 Corinthians.

This verse speaks to all of us, reminding us that no matter our age, we are all God's children. We are never too young, or too old to learn more about our Lord. If we want to continue to grow our relationship with Jesus, we are going to have to do the work.

I will offer opportunities, and resources to assist you on your journey.

I would like to start by encouraging you to visit formed.org. You can register for free by signing up through the parish. Just type in St. William and it will allow you to continue the registration process. Once you are on the site, you will search "The Search." This has about seven, twenty-five-minute videos to watch. This will not cost you anything but a little bit of time.

I can guarantee you that there will be something in the videos that will cause you to question, wonder or be inspired.

Please feel free to send me an email with any questions you have.

Schedule for watching The Search- Between Sunday, June 24 and July 23 watch the first 4 videos. The first discussion session will be set for Wednesday, July 25. Beginning July 30, watch the remaining 3 videos. The second discussion session will be on August 16. Both discussion sessions will be held in the evening at 7 pm. If there is interest in a daytime session, that can be worked in.

Until next time...
God's blessings!

13th Sunday in Ordinary Time

In today's Gospel hear Jesus tell us: "Whoever gives only a cup of cold water to one of these little ones to drink because the little one is a disciple—Amen, I say to you, he will surely not lose his reward."

This week, know that you will bring hope to the poor by your gift to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul.

Every relationship is a journey, and the grind of everyday life can cause you to lose touch with your spouse.

For more than 50 years, Worldwide Marriage Encounter has helped over 3.5 million couples in almost 100 countries unlock the power of their relationships with new ways to do the "I do." The Marriage Encounter experience helps you listen, share, and connect more deeply. There's no group discussion. It's just about the two of you learning to be the best, most loving, and thriving couple you can be.

Uncover the secrets to a lasting, supportive, transformational marriage!

If you have a "normal" marriage, you know that the "honeymoon" doesn't last forever. Long-term relationships inevitably have moments of disillusionment, boredom, or isolation. But that doesn't have to be the end of the story!

A Family Perspective
by Bud Ozar

13th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Today's gospel challenges us to resist the individualism of our culture. Everything we are and have is pure gift which we are expected to share especially to the "lowly ones." What has been freely given needs to be shared freely. No strings attached.

When we declared freedom from England and became our own nation, we made very sure that we enshrined the freedoms we did not have in England--especially freedom of worship and speech. Unfortunately, these God given freedoms are now under attack everywhere a pro-life word is spoken. Do not allow yourselves to be silenced or cancelled for your pro-life beliefs. On this national holiday stand for freedom, speak for freedom and celebrate our nation's best ideals.

Sharing the Gospel

God wants you to love your family and friends. But God wants you to love him even more. Be kind to your mom and listen to her. Help your dad with chores and have fun with him. But also remember to help people who are not in your family. God gets excited when you share his love with others.

Prayer

God, show me ways to help all people who love you.
