Dear Parishioners,

This weekend you and I will begin a new chapter in our parish life as I take up my appointment as your pastor. Technically, I have been your pastor, per Archbishop Vigneron's directive since 1 October. I will be formally installed by Bishop Robert Fisher, our Regional Auxiliary Bishop during the 10:00 Mass on 3 October. I want each of you to know how truly humbled I am to take the helm at Saint Peter Parish and Saint Mary School. I have utilized the word "humbled" intentionally as I am most mindful that I am your first new pastor in over thirty years. My predecessor, Father Mike Cooney has cast an indelible shadow over this parish and its story will never be able to be properly told without his contribution being prominently mentioned. As I said in my statement to you following the archbishop's announcement that I would become your pastor, I will never attempt to be a Father Cooney to you. Rather, I will simply be the best Father John that I can be.

We have ever so much to be grateful for at this parish. We are financially sound and our pews are more occupied than many of our sister parishes. We have an incredibly successful school lead by a great principal and a truly talented faculty and staff. Our parish staff enjoys a wonderful reputation and I have been informally working with many of them, particularly our very talented business manager, Moira Shaum who has served as the parish's ambassador to me since I was designated. We are truly lucky to have such talented individuals giving their professional lives to the work of Christ.

I would be remiss if I did not express my sincere thanks to Father Doug Bignall who served as administrator of this parish since Father Cooney went to God. His support in transition has been incredible and I look forward to working closely with him in his role as pastor of Saint Hubert's which is part of our designated family of parishes. Likewise, I know I speak for all of you when I express my thanks to Fr. Dale Redwanski for his long-standing and truly stellar support of our parish – especially since we lost Fr. Mike. I want to also thank all of my other brother priests who have so ably assisted us with daily Mass.

I also wish to offer a special thanks to my late parents, Anthony S. MakSYM and Dr. Jeanne H. MakSYM whose example and endless giving will never be forgotten by their oldest son. Lifetime educators, they were living examples of true service to others – a trait that began at home.

Of course, my partner in crime, our associate pastor, Fr. Christopher Muer has been on-station since July manning his battle station and getting to know you. As you have discerned, Fr. Christopher is a truly talented, insightful and happy gentleman who will serve as my primary advisor and collaborator as we ensure that the wonderful parishioners of Saint Peter and the future of our parish – the students at our Rockstar parish school, Saint Mary's receive the full measure of our efforts for as long as we carry on in this assignment.

Some view change and anything new as a bit unsettling, especially a significant change in leadership within any successful and valued institution. As someone who wore the uniform of our country for thirty-one years before I donned a Roman collar for the first time, I have experienced my share of changes in command. Yet, while I truly admired and liked many commanding officers I was honored to serve with, I never viewed change as a negative. Indeed, I have always viewed a leadership change as an opportunity to take stock of where we have been and where we are going and as an opportunity to make what is already great just a bit better. I have a great deal to learn about this dynamic parish and its beloved school, its people and history. I can only promise you that I will never engage significant change for changes sake and will always recall that happy is often the mortal enemy of glad. I was a judge for many years and I will deploy the observation skills I honed in that position to approach our future fully informed and armed with appropriate prudence. In doing so, I will be relying on each of you. After all, you are why Fr. Christopher and I are here. It will be Fr. Christopher and I who will be present at the most important moments in your life. Together, we will rejoice at the baptism of a perfect infant, celebrate the wonderment of your second-graders receiving their first confession and then donning white for their First Holy Communion. Together we shall watch one of our bishops confirm your teenagers and several years later, witness their marriage to the love of their life. Likewise, we shall stand in hospital emergency rooms praying for just a little more time with our parents and grandparents who are slipping from this life and walking toward our Lord's open arms after receiving the Sacraments of Mother Church. We shall sadly convene for funerals and joyfully celebrate the ordination of what in time are hopefully several sons of this parish to the holy priesthood. Yes, you and I have many adventures ahead of us. I will do my very best never to let you down. While I may not always be able to provide you with the answer you are looking for, I am hopeful that I will always be able to get you to where you need to be. Together, you and I will become ever closer friends with Jesus Christ.

WE WELCOME OUR NEW PASTOR, FR. JOHN MAKSYM To St. Peter Parish & St. Mary School!

So let us begin. In doing so, let's thank and re-dedicate ourselves to Jesus the Christ, our only hope, and place ourselves under the certain protection of His Mother, the Blessed Virgin Mary. We know her petitions on our behalf are never rejected by her Son. Finally, we ask for the intercession of our parish namesake, Peter of Rome, the first pope. Saint Peter was much like us, absolutely imperfect, often times afraid, sometimes rejecting, but in the end, utterly dependent upon Jesus the Savior of the World.

Over my first sixty years I have held many offices and received many accolades and honors, experienced combat and imminent harm; but no position or experience in any corner of the globe compares to being entrusted with the good of your souls. I look forward to meeting each of you in time. Please pray for me as I begin this new ministry for which I am clearly unworthy but which with God's help I will prove equal to.

Yours in Christ,
 Fr. John
 Rev. John A. Maksym
 Pastor, St. Peter Parish and St. Mary School

Hello and happy Sunday!

This weekend we as a parish family welcome Fr. John Maksym and celebrate with him his formal installation as our new Pastor. It has been a great joy for me over these past few months to start to get to know all of you, and I know Fr. John is excited to get to know all of you as well in the months to come. I look forward to continuing our journey of faith with Fr. John at the helm and I am excited to see what blessings God has in store for us in the future.

This week in my article, I wanted to give a few pastoral notes on some of the changes you might have noticed at Mass or will notice in the future. One of the great blessings to our parish and one of the biggest changes we will be experiencing, is that there will now be two full time priests assigned to St. Peter; Fr. John as our Pastor, and me continuing to serve as the Associate Pastor. As we were anticipating Fr. John's arrival, over the last month, you have seen me coming out and helping with the distribution of Holy Communion at Fr. Dale's Masses. When it comes to the distribution of Communion, Priests and Deacons are the ordinary (primary) ministers of Holy Communion. When there are not enough Priests or Deacons to help with communion, lay ministers known as extraordinary ministers of Holy Communion help minister communion to the faithful at Mass. Moving forward you will see two priests at each Mass helping with Communion.

Another change we have seen surrounding Communion is with the conclusion of Communion. When the reception of the Eucharist by the faithful has concluded, the priest consolidates the Eucharist into one ciborium and reposes the Eucharist in the tabernacle. Once the Eucharist has been reposed in the Tabernacle, the faithful may sit back in their pews or remain kneeling. Immediately following reposing the Eucharist, the priest purifies the vessels used for the distribution of the Eucharist. I know it looks like we are doing the dishes, but we are doing something so much more important. We are collecting the particles of the Eucharist from the ciboriums and what precious blood remains in the chalice and consuming them. This purification of the vessels shows the reverence we have for the Eucharist and the precious blood of our Lord. During the purification of the vessels, is a great time for us to take a moment in prayer to thank the Lord for the gift we have just received, the Eucharist.

When we have a better understanding of what takes place during the Sacred Liturgy, and come to know why we do what we do when we do it, we can then come to a deeper appreciation of what we celebrate at Mass. I hope these brief explanations have helped shed some light on a few of the changes you might have seen at Mass. I pray that all of us might experience in a deeper way during Mass, God's love for us and can be open to the grace He desires to give us. It is important for us to remember that celebrating the Sacred Mass (most importantly, the receiving of the Eucharist) is the greatest thing we can possibly do. May we continue to do this with reverence and gratitude!

Fr. Christopher

FIVE WAYS to welcome a new pastor to a parish.

It's been 31 years since we've had a new pastor! So, we're all a little out of practice. Here are some great tips.

1. Be patient. Everything is new! New faces, new buildings, new schedules, new ministries, new faces, new names, new routines, did I mention new faces?? In our parish, there are so many parishioners, activities and things going on. We need to give lots of grace and patience.
2. Introduce yourself, your name, what you're involved in and don't be embarrassed to do it more than once! Don't be offended if he doesn't remember you from that first meeting. You are meeting one new person, he is meeting HUNDREDS!
3. Let him change his mind. Sometimes questions are thrown at a new priest and, like all of us, they can be caught off guard. Sometimes decisions are rushed or without knowing all the details. Once again, give a lot of grace and wiggle room. Put yourself in their shoes.
4. Did your mother ever tell you that "Comparison is the thief of joy"? Comparing to what we're used to is an easy trap to fall in. We all know that no two people are alike, we shouldn't expect our priests to be all alike either. Again, this is where grace and patience come into play and we should avoid the comparison trap which poisons relationships.
5. Pray, pray, pray. We should always pray for all our priests. They are under enormous pressure. "When people want to destroy religion they begin by attacking the priest; for when there is no priest, there is no sacrifice: and when there is no sacrifice, there is no religion. - St. John Vianney

Charity Community Garden Update

It has been a very busy summer at the Charity garden. We began working in March and continue working six times or more a week to harvest, deliver produce to the pantries, and do maintenance chores; such as weeding, supporting plants and cleaning up plant debris.

Last fall, the L'Anse Creuse Schools Pankow Center began making large, raised garden boxes for us through a joint effort between the Horticulture Science and Construction Technology programs. So far, we have received nine boxes and planted crops in all of them this year. The school also provided us with soil for the boxes and garden tools. Students in the Horticulture program plan to visit the garden in September for hands-on learning. We are currently trying to arrange an opportunity for L'Anse Creuse elementary students to come out for tours. This is a teaching garden. We show the kids around and explain our gardening practices and how the plants provide food. Our hope is to foster a love for gardening in the children.

In July, several Master Gardeners visited the garden for a Michigan State University Extension sponsored Meet and Greet. They toured the garden, and we discussed our practices, challenges and successes. They were very impressed with how much we accomplish with so few people, and admired our mission of feeding the poor.

We are hoping to have a garden walk for our parishes next summer. We are always available for questions. Feel free to come out and ask us for help with your gardening issues. The garden runs on donations and grants to purchase items we need on a continual basis. Many of our workers donate needed items to the garden. Any monetary donations you wish to make should be payable to St. Peter Parish and sent to St. Peter Ministry office, attention Debbie Goff-Lieggio at 110 New Street, Mt. Clemens, 48043.

This garden has been a huge undertaking but it is necessary for our less fortunate neighbors and families to get the fresh vegetables they need. Due to the heavy rains and severe heat this summer, as well as our lovely wild four legged critters, we lost many plants. These conditions also encourage insect activity and disease growth in the plants. We do our best to treat those to continue to produce vegetables. Despite these challenges, so far we have harvested more than 2800 pounds of produce and have put in over 1300 hours in labor. We donate produce to 9 food pantries - St. Peter, St. Hubert, St. Thecla, St. Faustina, St. Paul of Tarsus, Grace Episcopal, the Vets Returning Home program and the Veterans Service Center on 15 Mile, which services the entire Macomb County region as well as delivers to home bound vets. We also supply produce to the Macomb County Food Bank at North Rose and Groesbeck.

Our biggest need in this ministry is more manpower. This is a great ministry to get your kids involved in. It is a terrific outreach to the community and impacts thousands through the pantries. If you are interested in helping please contact Vicki Jastrzebski at our email stpetercharitygarden@gmail.com. Thank you and God bless.

WOMEN'S BOOK CLUB

Even though A Land More Kind Than Home was a sad and tragic story, we all agreed that this is our temporary home and look forward to eternal life in heaven. Overall, our readers gave the book a 4.8 rating.

The next novel selection is The Four Winds by Kristin Hannah. This story centers around the grit and determination of the people living during the Depression and the Dust Bowl era, as the crops are failing and the water is drying up. In this uncertain time, Elsa Martinelli must make an agonizing choice: to leave the home she loves, or move west to California.

We will be returning to the Pantry in Clinton Twp. for our lunch meeting. We will be meeting on Thursday, October 14 at 1:00 p.m.

Revelation

The Kingdom Yet to Come

NEW BIBLE STUDY

Perhaps no book in the Bible fascinates people more than Revelation. Yet relatively few people have studied the book, especially from a Catholic perspective. Revelation: The Kingdom Yet to Come is an intriguing Bible study that shows how the kingdom established by Christ in this Church is intimately connected with the kingdom of heaven.

St. Peter Parish will begin an eleven week Bible Study

For more information or to register contact

Deb Goff-Liegghio at the Parish Office at 586-468-4578

Or email dglieggio@spmconline.com

In this intriguing look at one of the most talked-about books in Scripture, Jeff Cavins explores Revelation to demonstrate how the kingdom established by Christ in his Church is intimately connected with the kingdom of heaven, especially through the celebration of the Mass.

You will learn what all the mysterious figures and images of Revelation present, as well as what will happen during the Second Coming of Christ, what has already happened, and what is happening now in salvation history..

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil; May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; And do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Host, by the power of God, thrust into hell Satan and all evil spirits who wander through the world for the ruin of souls.

Amen.

Friendly Reminder!

When you come up for Communion, please "cup" your hand when receiving so that you do not drop Jesus!!

Please remember to consume the Host before you turn away from the altar. After Father or the SME's place the Host in your hand, please step to the side, facing the altar and receive before turning away.

Thank you!

EUCARISTIC ADORATION CHAPEL

MAKE AN APPOINTMENT WITH JESUS!

To commit to a regular hour each week is truly an act of charity. We need you! You will make it possible for those of us who cannot commit to a regular hour just yet, but would like to drop by whenever we can. Our goal is to have two adorers in place for every hour.

Jesus has given us the beautiful gift of Himself. Come, let us adore Him!

If you are interested in a regular hour or in dropping by when it is possible, please contact Deb Goff-Liegghio at dglieghio@spmconline.com, or call at 586-468-4578 (office) – 586-481-0102 (cell). It will be the best hour (or minutes) you spend in our week – GUARANTEED!

Did you know we have a You Tube channel? You can listen to Sunday homilies and watch Mass. Mass is live-streamed weekly.
