My Dear Parishioners,
Merry Christmas!

If you had asked me a year ago as I was celebrating Christmas in Washington, D.C., if I believed I would be celebrating the following Yuletide in Mt. Clemens as the Pastor of Saint Peter parish and Saint Mary School I probably would have snickered at you. Yet, the Holy Spirit throws the world's trickiest curve ball and one never knows what the priesthood is going to bring. What I can say is that since my arrival I have found great spiritual growth in baptizing your infants, celebrating Mass with your school age children (especially my wonderful 2nd graders who are preparing to receive the Sacraments of Penance and Eucharist respectively), marrying your young and not so young couples and sadly, burying way too many of our parishioners. I am very grateful to my Associate Pastor, the very talented Fr. Christopher Muer, our Staff Director Jill Barrett, our terrific parish and school staffs, our amazing teachers, volunteers, sacristans, readers, and ushers. I also want to thank our Finance Council members for their stewardship and faithful service. As the Christ Child dwells among us we can count ourselves as ever so lucky for having such a vibrant Catholic community and most especially for possessing an incredible school, packed with truly wonderful children. To say we are blessed would be an understatement.

I want to thank our Director of Stewardship, Debbie Goff-Lieggio and Elisabeth Kujawa for making our 1st annual Christmas Extravaganza a memorable event – a new tradition begins, signaling a new beginning for Saint Peter's! I also want to thank our new Liturgy Director, Denise Bommarito for your tireless work in preparing our beautiful church for Christmas and for her incredible efforts in conjunction with Fr. Christopher in returning our altar servers to their rightful place in the Lord's sanctuary.

As we experience the majesty and glory of the Savior's coming, we are called upon by Luke's beautiful nativity narrative to take stock of what is really important in our lives. Clearly, our relationship with God must stand in the first place. Second, our relationship with our families, our standing with our friends and our stewardship over those, the least of our brothers and sisters who are in want. We celebrate the coming of a pauper-king, born in a manger, exposed to the elements. He is the king destined to wear a crown of thorns and reign over His people from a cross. His is an existence of service, always giving, never taking. My wish for each of you this Christmas is that you may more deeply develop your friendship with Jesus Christ, the God-man. May you open a section of your heart just for Him. I promise you that if you do so, you shall want for nothing - certainly, not for anything that counts.

Finally, please accept my blessings for a Happy and Merry Christmas. May the blessings of the Christ Child descend upon you and your family and remain with you until you look our Lord in the eye and see He who presented Himself as the babe in the manger. God bless you all and MERRY CHRISTMAS AND A TRULY HAPPY NEW YEAR!

Your Pastor,
Father John

Hello and Merry Christmas!

We as a Christian community have been praying and preparing for four weeks for this amazing weekend, the time of year when we celebrate the birth of our Lord and Savior, Jesus the Christ. One of my favorite things about Christmas is the time I get to spend with my family, biological and spiritual. As many of you know, I come from a big family and it is not everyday that all of us get to be together and when we do it is a treasured time for me. I feel the same way about celebrating Christmas as a priest. At Christmas, many of our parish family (college students, those who grew up here and have moved away), come home to celebrate the birth of Christ. How fitting that at the birth of Christ, Joseph had to travel home for the census. He went back to where he was from and now all of us come back and gather as a spiritual family, as the body of Christ to celebrate the birth of Jesus.

This year we have a unique liturgical cycle where we had an entire fourth week of Advent and Christmas and Sunday are a day apart. Why is this interesting? On the first Sunday after Christmas, we celebrate the Holy Family (Jesus, Mary and Joseph) which this year is the very next day. As I prayed on this and pondered it, I realized that it is fitting for us since the Holy Family and the birth of Christ are so closely connected. Jesus the Son of God broke into our lowly humanity in the same way we did. He was born into a family, to a mother and father, just as we were. The family was the vehicle through which Christ entered the world for our salvation.

In seminary for my capstone presentation I spoke about the importance of the domestic Church, the family. The family is where the seeds of faith are planted, watered, and nourished. I often tell couples preparing for marriage that one of my favorite things is watching my friends and family learn to become parents. I enjoy watching them teach their children about Christ and the amazingly insightful questions that children come up with.

On this Sunday where we celebrate the birth of Christ and the Holy Family I want to ask all of you for your prayers for families. Let us pray for the family we came from, to pray for our families and to pray for the family of faith, the community of St. Peter. The family is the first source and experience we have of God's love. Family is so very important. Again the family is where we receive our first experience of God. I encourage us to not forget the family's importance and you parents, not to forget the important role and privilege God has called you to, to be the first teachers of love and faith for your children. Like St. Monica, never cease to pray for your children. Never cease to invite your children to Christ. We also can't forget that we cannot give what we do not have. Let us all be encouraged by the Holy Family this weekend to draw close to the Christ Child that we might sit before Him and adore Him and receive from Him in a new and particular way the grace we need to draw others (our families) close to Him as He draws us to Himself.

May God continue to bless you and your families this Christmas season with the love and closeness of His Son.

Fr. Christopher

With the recent increase in COVID-19 cases in Michigan, and the approaching winter season, we wish to remind parishioners of the following update from the Archdiocese.

The Archdiocese of Detroit encourages Mass-goers, regardless of vaccination status, to wear face-coverings and to practice social distancing to reduce exposure to COVID-19. There is hand sanitizer throughout the church and we encourage our parishioners to use it as needed.

And of course, most importantly, if you are not feeling well, please stay home and rest!

We are so close to our goal!!! We ask you to prayerfully consider donating to the CSA. We encourage you to make your donation online to avoid mail delays. You may make your 2021 CSA contribution online at www.stpetermtclemens.com/csa

Donation forms are also available at the Information Desk at church or at the Parish Administration Building. As always, thank you so much for your unfailing generosity.

Each year, the CSA raises critical funds that support more than 170 ministries, services, and programs so we can respond to the material and spiritual needs of individuals and families throughout Southeast Michigan. This is how we act from the heart, putting Christ and His mission above all else.

“Whatever you do, do from the heart” (Colossians 3:23).

We are so grateful to those of you who support St. Peter Parish & St. Mary School with your time, talent and treasure.

If you would like to set-up Online Giving, scan the QR code or visit our parish website stpetermtclemens.com and click the Give button on the top right. You can opt for monthly or weekly giving.

Thank you!!!!

Thank you to all our parishioners who graciously took tags from our Giving Trees or Sign-Up Genius. Our St. Peter Parish family is generous beyond compare. We had 1,250 tags on our giving trees. Every tag was taken. We witnessed Christmas miracles daily because of the generosity of our parish family.

Thank you to Cyndi Kuehnel for leading the Giving Tree initiative. She has worked day-in and day-out for a solid month making phone calls, doing the paperwork, collecting supplies, getting volunteers, decorating the trees, collecting and sorting the packages, shopping for the gifts that did not come in, and delivering the gifts. Her hard work and heart of gold made it easy for others to help her.

Thank you to all of Santa's helpers (and there were a lot of you) who worked behind the scenes to ensure that each agency received the right gifts. There were people making tags, decorating the trees, bringing the gifts to the activity room, sorting the gifts, bagging them up, and delivering them. I do not think the North Pole has as many Santa helpers as St. Peter Parish does. You all were generous beyond compare with your time and talent.

The following is a list of agencies that received Christmas presents because of your generosity:

Abigayle Ministries (Home for single mothers)
 Albert House (a Group Home)
 Big Families of Michigan
 Macomb County Jail
 Martha T. Berry Care Facility
 Salvation Army
 Shut-ins of St. Peter Parish
 St. Margaret of Scotland McWARM Center
 St. Vincent de Paul at St. Raymond Parish
 Turning Point
 Vietnam Veterans, Chapter 154

The St. Peter Parish Giving Tree Program was once again a huge success because of all of you.

Praying the gift of faith, the blessing of hope, and the joy of family be yours this Christmas and always,
 MERRY CHRISTMAS!

Deb Goff-Liegghio

WOMEN'S BOOK CLUB

"This book really shows how important a father is." "Do you believe in angels?" "Christmas is truly for those in need." These are some of the statements from our readers who enjoyed the December book selection, Faithful: Christmas through the Eyes of Joseph by Adam Hamilton. We wish you all a Merry Christmas and a Blessed New Year.

Our book selection for January is The Beekeeper of Aleppo, by Christy Lefteri. This is a story that illustrates how our lives can be upended instantly. The war in Syria has destroyed all that Nuri and his family have. Journey with him as he must rebuild his life.

We will be discussing the book at the Pantry in Clinton Twp. for our lunch meeting on Thursday, January 13 at 1:00 p.m.
