Hello and happy Sunday!

As is the case for many of us, life gets busy, hectic and we seem to always be moving from one thing to the next. In my life, I have come to realize the importance of stopping once in a while and admiring God's handy work and the beauty expressed in the complexity of the universe. In every moment, God is willing us and the universe into existence and is always creating; new moments, new things and most importantly, new people. The complexity of the human body and the human person (body, soul, personality, etc.) truly is a miracle. This miracle begins at the moment of conception when God infuses a soul and a particular and unique person is created by God. One of the most amazing things is that we have been created in the likeness and image of God and therefore we reflect God's beauty and glory to each other. By being made in the likeness and image of God, all people (human beings old and young, born and unborn) have dignity and the dignity of human life must always be respected, upheld, and fought for.

As Christians, we all must work together to promote life and to protect the dignity of every human person. In our current culture, it seems on many levels the dignity of the person is challenged or presented as open to opinion. It must be said that all people deserve respect no matter the color of their skin, their gender, place of origin, age, or stage of life. We must also state clearly that there are objective truths. There are things that are right and things that are wrong. There are things that are vices (sins) and other things that are virtues. The world wants to say that all things are ok and permitted as long as it is what you believe and this is just not true. Some things are open to opinion while others things are not, especially with regard to moral issues. It is true there are gray areas with moral issues, but for most, they are not open to our personal opinions. Rather they are fundamentally right or wrong. This is the case with the issue of abortion.

Abortion is the intentional killing of a human life. Again life begins at conception. The baby in the mother's womb is not a clump of cells, but rather a unique individual. The sin of abortion since the Supreme Court case Roe vs. Wade (Jan 22, 1973) has taken the lives of more than 62 million children in this country. This is horrific and staggering and must end. I know abortion has effected the lives of many and for some of you in a very personal way. To those who have had an abortion, I would like say, God loves you. You are not beyond forgiveness, healing or God's mercy. Having an abortion is a grave matter, a mortal sin, and God longs to bring you healing. The day you had an abortion you lost a child and with the loss of any child by a parent, there is grieving, sadness, and long lasting effects. I know this decision was not an easy one and included many factors and I pray you experience God's love, mercy and forgiveness.

As Christians, we are all called to fight for the respect of life, not certain lives or groups of lives (races, genders, ethnicities), but for all lives. Remember that all lives matter, the born and the unborn, the young and the elderly, the healthy and the infirm. Speaking out (with love and truth) on the dignity of life and abortion is our Christian duty. It is most important when we stand up for the dignity of life, that we acknowledge that all of us are sinners and in need of redemption and repentance in Christ.

DAY OF PRAYER
LEGAL
OF UNBORN CHILDREN

This fact helps us to judge the sin and love the sinner and aids us in walking with others in the truth of Christ. Sadly, I have seen from many who speak out on this issue, do so not from a place of love or compassion, but rather with malice and harsh judgment. As I mentioned, we judge harshly the sin, but need to offer compassion and love to the sinner and meet them where they are as they move to deeper understanding.

The acceptance of the sin of abortion by our culture, needs to end. This comes about first when we allow Christ to change and convict our own hearts and help us to remember that abortion is always wrong and is the intentional ending of an innocent life. When we accept that life begins at conception and all lives matter and teach this to our children, then we can start to change our culture. I pray and ask as a community of faith that we pray this week particularly for those who have had an abortion, that they may find healing in Christ and that this sin may end in our country. We also pray that those who have been affected by abortion may turn back to Christ and the mercy and healing He longs to bring as our Divine Physician.

As we fight for change in our culture, to move from one that promotes sin and death to one that upholds the dignity of life and virtue, let us not lose heart in this battle. Rather, let us continue to entrust this fight and battle to the guidance and protection of Our Lady the patroness of our Country. That she may guide us forward in love. Mary, Mother of God and protector of the unborn, pray for us.

Fr. Christopher

“As a Eucharist-centered movement within the Roman Catholic Church, Life Teen leads teenagers and their families into a deeper relationship with Jesus Christ and His Church. With the Blessed Virgin Mary as our intercessor and guide, Life Teen seeks to unleash the fullness of the Sacramental power present within the young Church.”

By following in the footsteps of Jesus, we endeavor to create fruitful encounters to help students, young people and their families to become joyful missionary disciples of Jesus Christ through the Catholic Church.

Here at St. Peter we offer two programs to engage our youngest parishioners. Edge is our middle school program for our 6-8th grade students. Edge and Life Teen provides a safe fun place for youth to find solid Catholic Community, to get answers to their questions about faith and most importantly to experience Jesus in a profound and personal way. We always start with some games or ice breakers to get to know each other and then we dive into the topic of the week. This weekend we begin our series on The Church. We will begin looking at how and why Christ established the Church and our relationship with the Church and our faith.

Life Teen is our high school program for any and all students in grades 9-12. Our first meeting of the new year was this past Sunday and we are diving into the truth of discipleship, what it means, what it looks like and how do we live it out. Our students are excited about their faith and honest in their pursuit of truth. Please continue to pray for them and please pray for me and my volunteers as we walk with them on this faith journey.

Blessings,
Tori Polhill

WOMEN'S BOOK CLUB

The Beekeeper of Aleppo, beautifully written by Christy Lefteri, illustrated the loss of a family during the Syrian war. Nuri and Afra suffered great loss and yet managed to have hope in a new future as they flee their home country to England. Our readers gave this book a rating of 4.6

Next month's book is Catherine Steadman's Something in the Water. A tantalizing story where an afternoon scuba dive in Bora Bora is perfect until.... thunk-thunk.... there is something in the water.

We will be discussing the book at the Pantry in Clinton Twp. for our lunch meeting on Thursday, February, 10th at 1:00p.m.

The Joy of STEWARDSHIP by Bob Petitpren, J+M+J+L

Dear Readers,

After Fr. Maksym's Christmas Eve Homily about "A Charlie Brown Christmas", featuring Linus dropping his security blanket inspired me to write my last article about Linus reciting Luke 2, 8-14 and dropping his security blanket with the words, "... do not be afraid", I found this letter from our late Pastor, Fr. Mike Cooney. It is about Charles Schultz, the creator of the Peanuts cartoon series.

THE LEDGER, February 20, 2000: My dear friends, This past week Charles Schulz, the creator of the Peanuts comic strip died. Many of us grew up with Charlie Brown, Linus, Lucy and all the other characters who Mr. Schulz brought to life. Much has been written about Schulz's death, especially the fact that he died the night before his last comic strip was to be printed. Many people have commented that the timing of his death was poignant. He finished his job, and he went home quietly as he said goodbye in his comic strip. I for one shall miss the adventures of characters who have become my friend over the years of my life.

There are three things to be learned from Mr. Schulz's life and his cast of characters. Each one of us, even if our lives are very public, are really private individuals. Most of our lives are lived out in a day-to-day basis far away from the harsh lights of public scrutiny and evaluation. It is in our private lives that we dream, hope and love. Most of these things people will never know until we have returned home to be to the Father.

Each one of us is like a beautiful jewel with many facets. Each one of the Peanut characters had their own defined personalities. Each one of those characters is really a part of each person. We are all Charlie Brown, Linus, Snoopy and the others all rolled up into the one creation who we are. It is important to remember that when we go through different emotions and adventures in our lives.

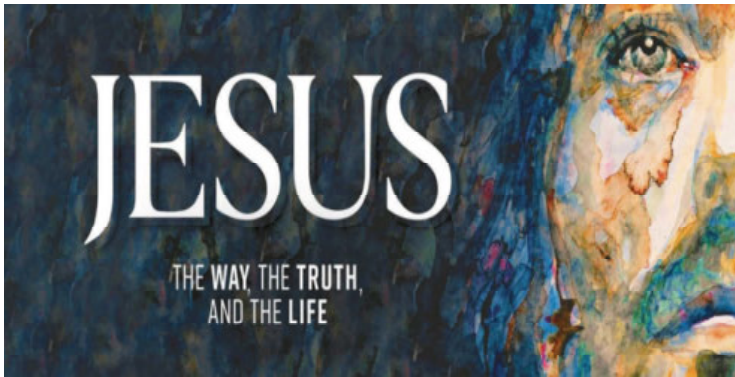

Finally, we only go home when our job is done. God does not call us until our product, our lives are completed. We may not realize that when a loved one passes, or we face death, but it is true. When we finish, we put down the brush we used to create, paint, and make our lives come alive. It is only then that our final goodbye is heard and understood just as the final Peanuts comic strip was read and understood in a different way.

I know that many will feel that I am being morbid in this article. I really am not. I am just trying to understand and keep yet another lesson Charles Schulz tried to share with all of us through his beloved extended family of Peanuts. The lessons are what lives on even when the comic strip goes into reruns.

God Bless. Love, Peace, Joy.

Fr. Mike

Jesus: The Way, the Truth, and the Life

Jesus is our savior, our redeemer, our Lord, and our God.

Our belief in Jesus is what makes us who we are as Catholics, as Christians, but do we really know him as we should? Is Jesus a part of your life, or is he at the center of your life as he should be? We invite you to make him the center of your life by joining us for Jesus: The Way, the Truth, and the Life, a 10-week video study program that explores the entirety of Jesus' life and what he means for us as Catholics today. St. Peter Parish will begin the Jesus study on Mondays, January 31, 2022 at 9:00 a.m.

Participants will meet every week to view an engaging video presentation by Marcellino D'Ambrosio, Jeff Cavins, and Edward Sri, followed by a lively group discussion and fellowship. For more information or to register, contact Deb Goff-Liegghio at 586-468-4579 or dgliegghio@spmconline.com. We hope you can join us!

Dear St. Peter Parishioners,
 On behalf of Big Family of Michigan and the children we serve, we want to send you our sincere gratitude for your caring and generosity. Your gifts for our little ones in our Christmas program and your gifts of books and items for Aging Out, have made a difference in the lives of so many foster children. Because of your contributions, you helped us provide Christmas presents and fill wish lists for 1,691 children this year. We cannot do what we do without the help of God and wonderful people like all of you.

It is all about the kids and the kids are essential.

Sharon McCaughrin
President
Big Family of Michigan

Dear Amazing Parishioners,

Thank you for your incredible donation of gift cards and holiday items—we are overwhelmed by your generosity! We truly appreciate your kindness and on behalf of our survivors, thank you! All of our donors play an integral role in the support of our mission to provide programs and resources that enable victims/survivors of domestic violence and sexual assault to regain control of their lives.

2021 marks Turning Points 41st year of providing free emergency and supportive services such as an emergency shelter, 24 hour crisis hotline, Personal Protection Order assistance, legal advocacy, counseling and a Forensic Nurse Examiner Program. This year, we have added a new housing program that will eliminate a significant barrier that many survivors face—having a safe place to live after leaving the shelter.

Our new housing program provides an apartment for up to 24 months to help victims/survivors start a new life. They will also have access to a suite of services that will put them on track to self-sufficiency. The program offers employment opportunities, educational opportunities and career coaching.

Since our inception, we have served over 100,000 domestic violence and sexual assault survivors and unfortunately, there are still more people who seek our help. Again, we thank you for joining us in helping survivors regain control of their lives

Sincerely,
Sharman Davenport, Ph.D.
