My Dear Parishioners:

So, here we are, about a month away from the annual Saint Peter Parish and N.E. Central Macomb Family of Parishes Picnic. This will be a great deal of fun of course and the challenge hereby goes forth to all takers who dare to dunk their priest. Frankly, I don't think you have the guts to show up and try to dunk me, but perhaps I am wrong. In any case, it will be a great time for all so get ready to share a wonderful afternoon with the parishioners of all four of our great and storied parishes. My thanks to the Usher's Club and our Knights of Columbus for already voicing the desire to play a big supportive role in this extremely fun undertaking.

An update on our new priest, Fr. John Salvamony, who will be joining us from India in the near future. While it was hoped Fr. John would be here by July 1, I think a prediction of "sometime in July" would be more appropriate. The good news is that Father's visa application was granted. Father is now arranging for his transportation and then he will be among us.

Make sure to stop by to meet our newest staff members. We have two major league director level rockstars on our staff. Janine Wojtonek has relieved Deb Goff-Lieghio as our Stewardship Director and Maestro Michael Yaros has taken over the choir loft for his predecessor Nancy Simmons. We have lost two amazing leaders and contributors...real professionals – and we are replacing them appropriately with equally skilled experts. Please give Mike and Janine a hearty welcome aboard when you see them.

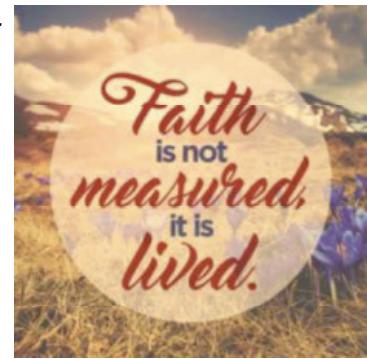

I have been asked a good deal about Fr. Christopher "leaving" us. Of course, I have transferred Fr. Christopher to Saint Louis which will form his primary ministerial duties, but please know that you will still see him on the Mass schedule from time to time and around the parish assisting with ministry. He will not completely disappear.

Summer is a opportunity to grow closer to our families. If you are married, recall that the way to heaven is through your vocation of marriage with your wife. The rank of husband and wife is higher than the rank of Mom and Dad. Remember that. Use summer as a chance to grow closer, and further in love with your spouse.

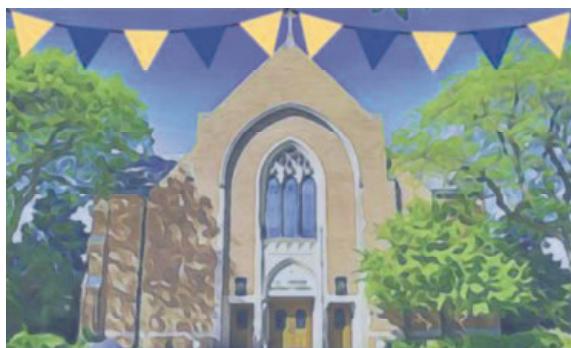

The 4th of July marks the beginning of the great American experience in the democratic process. I hope each of you commemorated this day by concentrating on what unites the American people rather than the almost ever petty nature of those matters that divide us. Together, the people of our great nation can do anything – divided we are helpless indeed,

See you at Mass.

Fr. John

Mike's Musical Minute Vol 1, No 1

Dear Friends,

As I work my way into a routine at St. Peter as your director of sacred music and organist, occasionally, I would like to catch your eye and ear in the bulletin about various topics. Since there are so many parishioners, and only one of me, this is the best way to be seen by all.

I figured the best place to start is to tell you a little about myself. I come to you from a long line of Catholic faithful. My great grandparents immigrated to the US near the turn of the previous century. Since my grandparents were already born, it made my father's generation the first full-blooded American generation in my family. People always ask me, "Are you Greek?" I always playfully respond by saying that I am not, tall, dark, and handsome, but short, squat, and I eat sausage and pierogi. (I do like Mediterranean food!) My lineage is Polish, and my name was spelled "Jarosz" in previous iterations. Jarosz in Polish means "vegetarian", but I assure you the moniker is far from accurate.

My wife Cristen is a wonderful mother, teacher, and also very talented cantor. You will hear her at many masses in the future singing psalms and leading hymns. God blessed us with four beautiful children - Atticus, (12) Nolan, (9) Claire, (6) and Joseph (3). My eldest two you will see on the altar, serving. However, Atticus may take my job someday as he is also a very talented pianist. They all have nice voices, by osmosis, I suppose.

The number one question I am getting from folks is, "Are you continuing the Cantare?" The short answer is, I would like to, but half of the group will be using the transition process to retire and focus on other endeavors. Please be patient as we try to reinvent the music for the noon mass. The adult, children, and resurrection choirs should maintain as usual.

I am also a teacher, and school band director. I am very patient with children and adults alike, and view the congregation as my classroom. I hope you will consider saying hello at some point. I love to chit chat and meet new people.

Ad majorem Dei gloriam,

Mike Yaros,
 Director of Sacred Music

THANK YOU!

THANK YOU!

A special thank you to Fr. John, Fr. Dale, and our hard-working staff (employees and volunteers) for such a beautiful Mass and joyous reception. It was simply the best I have ever experienced. I have truly enjoyed working with you and for you, and all those we serve.

Thank you for all those who have graciously extended their friendship, love, and appreciation to me at the beautiful Mass and joyous reception. It was overwhelming. Thank you for loving me. I am so grateful for each and every one of you.

Thank you to Tina as well for the delicious staff luncheon for Nancy and I. She worked so hard, along with staff and volunteers to create such a beautiful venue and to ensure delicious and plentiful food. As always, everything was perfect! Thank you, too, to Chef Teresa for the scrumptious, yummy desserts.

Last, but not least, thank you to ALL OUR VOLUNTEERS. I cannot thank you enough. It has been a privilege to meet you, to get to know you, and to walk with you on our journey to heaven. I will miss you all; but, know that you are in good hands with Janene Wojtomek. She is an amazing lady with a warm and tender heart. I know she will love you as much as I do. I wish you all a beautiful time with each other.

Lastly, or again – Fr. John, thank you for the last three years. I know you have heard this before; but it bears repeating. Our parish is growing because of you. Our young people are coming to church. This brings hope to us all. Our faith will live on in all of these young people. What a tribute that is to you. I think God is smiling upon you – saying “Well done, my good and faithful servant.”

You all will always be in my prayers,
Deb Goff-Liegghio

MCREST Week 2024*August 4-10

MCREST week is August 4th-10th and it is approaching very fast. St. Peter will be hosting women and children at the shelter in Mt. Clemens. We have 4 nights of meals covered, and are still in need of 3 more meals sponsored. We would love to have a family sponsor and or serve a meal. Children are welcome with adult supervision.

Donation suggestions are as follows:

Individual cans of pop, juice and bottled water (non-refrigerated). Large bottles of juice, ice tea or lemonade to serve at dinner.

Pop tarts, muffins, breakfast bars, donuts, individual boxes of cereal.

Fruit, bread, peanut butter, jelly and lunch meat.

Individual packs of condiments such as mayo, mustard and ketchup, and individually wrapped hard boiled eggs.

Chips, pretzels, or other single serve salty snacks.

Single servings of sweet snacks-cookies, pudding and fruit cups.

We are also looking for large paper lunch bags, Ziplock bags, plastic silverware, napkins, plates and solo cups.

Other needs include: diapers, any size pull ups, feminine care products, toiletries, regular size laundry pods and fabric softener.

Monetary donations are greatly appreciated. We provide bus passes which are approximately $1,100.00 We also provide gas cards which run about $300.00 This all comes from parishioner donations.

Please make checks payable to St. Peter with a note or memo on the check "MCREST". All donations should be brought to the Church office.

Lastly we would love to find volunteers for things such as but not limited to: haircuts, bingo, karaoke, magician. Last year the ladies asked for a bible study, and that would also be amazing.

Please feel free to contact myself, Andrea Graustein, at 586-879-5662 or contact the Church office with questions you may have. Calls may be returned in the evening.

Thank you for your support for this community program,

Andrea Graustein

If you haven't utilized your St. Peter Giving Envelopes in the last two years, we will be discontinuing your mailings effective August 1st.
