For GOD
SO LOVED
the WORLD

4th Sunday

of Lent

March 14, 2021

JOHN 3:16

Hopefully your week was blessed!

This weekend we celebrate the fourth Sunday of Lent, called Laetare Sunday. Laetare is a Latin word that means "rejoice." Even as we observe our Lenten sacrifices, we rejoice in anticipation of the joy that will be ours at Easter. Even as we experience crosses in our lives, we already rejoice with the future resurrection.

It is from today's passage that we get the command from Jesus to always 'lift up the Son of Man' by the way of the Exaltation of the Holy Cross.

The Cross can have different meanings and interpretations from person to person. To Christians, it has a spiritual meaning but for the secular and historical people, it has a tragic and awful meaning.

For the secular and historical perspective, the bad and awful meaning attached to the cross is derived from the story that goes like this: long time ago there was a man who was extremely popular and was loved and hated by many in equal measure. Those who hated this man planned and executed his brutal crucifixion.

We the Christians perceive the Cross, not from a secular point of view, but from a divine perspective. We believe that Jesus Christ was lifted up on the Cross for all to see. We believe that He died a horrible death on the Cross to atone for our sins. Jesus ultimately became victorious for He defeated death on that Cross and rose from the dead. So, whenever we see the Cross, we see a victorious and glorious throne that deserves to be exalted all the time.

During the time of Moses, after the Israelites sinned and rebelled against God, The Lord sent snakes to punish them. The serpents bit them, and many people died. God instructed Moses to make an image of a snake and lift it up on a pole so that whoever looked upon it might be healed. Therefore, just as the Israelites looked upon the lifted serpent in the desert, so must we, now, look upon the lifted up Jesus on the Cross for our healing.

We suffer from many issues in life such as ill-health, emotional problems, personal, relational, spiritual and financial issues. Most of these problems are caused by sins of omission or commission. Jesus tells us today that when we, with sincere and repentant hearts, direct our gaze at Him on the exalted Cross, with faith, we shall be healed. We shall live and our problems will be resolved.

Therefore, today, let us spend some time gazing upon the Cross of Christ. Take a crucifix in to your hands while at home, with faith, and you will see the answer to your problems. Ask Jesus for the solution to your problems for He says, "Ask and you shall receive, seek and you shall find, knock and the door shall be opened for you." And pray this simple prayer: "Dear Lord, always give me the grace to gaze upon your Cross. May You help me to experience the victory You won for me on the Cross. May I receive your help all the times I seek it when I look at You. Amen."

P.S. It is a perfect moment for me to officially and joyfully announce to all of you that during next few weeks we'll place a 9 - foot cross with 5 - foot corpus of Jesus in the center of our worship in the church, above the tabernacle. It's not about the decoration, but I truly believe that it will help us focus even more on Jesus, not only in the church but also proclaim through our lives the unconditional love of God revealed for us on the cross! Please pray that all the renovation work would go easily and smoothly. May we always remember looking at the cross: "For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him might not perish but might have eternal life."

This week will be filled with a lot of celebrations. You are all invited for this Tuesday, March 16th – 7 pm Mass with the Devotion to St. Michal and adoration of the Blessed Sacrament till 8.30 pm. Wednesday, March 17th – at 9 am we will celebrate morning Mass and honor God through St. Patrick. And of course, Friday, March 19th there is the solemnity of St. Joseph, as we continue a year dedicated to the Foster Father of Jesus. Mass at 9 am with following Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament till 7 pm. And please don't forget about The Stations of the Cross at 7 pm, because about the Fish Fry Dinner I don't need to remind you ;-)

And one more very joyful piece of information (this is truly Laetare Sunday for us;-)) I'd like to inform you that Pat Knorp who since last October has been taking care of music and musicians in our parish, was officially hired and became a member of St. Genevieve – St. Maurice parish crew.

Dear Pat, welcome on a board!

Happy 4th week of Lent to all of you!!!

~Fr. Tom

READINGS FOR THE 4TH SUNDAY OF LENT / MARCH 14, 2021

FIRST READING

2 Chr 36:14-16, 19-23

In those days, all the princes of Judah, the priests, and the people added infidelity to infidelity, practicing all the abominations of the nations and polluting the LORD's temple which he had consecrated in Jerusalem.

Early and often did the LORD, the God of their fathers, send his messengers to them, for he had compassion on his people and his dwelling place. But they mocked the messengers of God, despised his warnings, and scoffed at his prophets, until the anger of the LORD against his people was so inflamed that there was no remedy. Their enemies burnt the house of God, tore down the walls of Jerusalem, set all its palaces afire, and destroyed all its precious objects. Those who escaped the sword were carried captive to Babylon, where they became servants of the king of the Chaldeans and his sons until the kingdom of the Persians came to power. All this was to fulfill the word of the LORD spoken by Jeremiah: "Until the land has retrieved its lost sabbaths, during all the time it lies waste it shall have rest while seventy years are fulfilled."

In the first year of Cyrus, king of Persia, in order to fulfill the word of the LORD spoken by Jeremiah, the LORD inspired King Cyrus of Persia to issue this proclamation throughout his kingdom, both by word of mouth and in writing: "Thus says Cyrus, king of Persia: All the kingdoms of the earth the LORD, the God of heaven, has given to me, and he has also charged me to build him a house in Jerusalem, which is in Judah. Whoever, therefore, among you belongs to any part of his people, let him go up, and may his God be with him!"

THE WORD OF THE LORD. THANKS BE TO GOD

RESPONSORIAL

137:1-2, 3, 4-5, 6

Let my tongue be silenced, if I ever forget you!

SECOND READING

Eph 2:4-10

Brothers and sisters: God, who is rich in mercy, because of the great love he had for us, even when we were dead in our transgressions, brought us to life with Christ — by grace you have been saved —, raised us up with him and seated us with him in the heavens in Christ Jesus, that in the ages to come He might show the immeasurable riches of his grace in his kindness to us in Christ Jesus. For by grace you have been saved through faith, and this is not from you; it is the gift of God; it is not from works, so no one may boast. For we are his handiwork, created in Christ Jesus for the good works that God has prepared in advance, that we should live in them.

THE WORD OF THE LORD. THANKS BE TO GOD

VERSE BEFORE THE GOSPEL

Jn 3:16

God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so everyone who believes in him might have eternal life.

GOSPEL READING

Jn 3:14-21

THE LORD BE WITH YOU. AND WITH YOUR SPIRIT.

Jesus said to Nicodemus: "Just as Moses lifted up the serpent in the desert, so must the Son of Man be lifted up, so that everyone who believes in him may have eternal life." For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him might not perish but might have eternal life. For God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world might be saved through him. Whoever believes in him will not be condemned, but whoever does not believe has already been condemned, because he has not believed in the name of the only Son of God. And this is the verdict, that the light came into the world, but people preferred darkness to light, because their works were evil. For everyone who does wicked things hates the light and does not come toward the light, so that his works might not be exposed. But whoever lives the truth comes to the light, so that his works may be clearly seen as done in God.

THE GOSPEL OF THE LORD.

PRAISE TO YOU, LORD JESUS CHRIST.

KÛRIE (LORD HAVE MERCY)

*KÛrie, elèison. KÛrie, elèison. Christe, elèison.
Christe, elèsion. KÛrie, elèison. KÛrie, elèison.*

SANCTUS (HOLY, HOLY, HOLY)

*Sanctus, Sanctus, Sanctus Dominus Deus Sabaoth.
Pleni sunt coeli et terra gloria tua. Hosanna in excelsis.
Benedictus qui venit in nomine Domini. Hosanna in excelsis.*

AGNUS DEI (LAMB OF GOD)

Agnus Dei, qui tollis peccata mundi: miserere nobis. Agnus Dei, qui tollis peccata mundi: miserere nobis. Agnus Dei, qui tollis peccata mundi: dona nobis pacem.

Faith Formation News

Hello Faith Formation families,

We are halfway through Lent already! Are your children filling in their Lenten calendars? Check the bulletin for Lenten prayer opportunities you can do as a family, especially Friday evenings Stations of the Cross. The prayer cloth for your prayer table should have been changed to purple for the Lenten season.

On Palm Sunday, March 28th, Fr. Tom would like to process into church with some children of our parish, grades K-6. If you will be at the 11 am Mass and your child would like to process in with Fr. Tom please call the parish rectory or Faith Formation office for simple directions.

ST. PATRICK / March 17th

St. Patrick of Ireland is one of the world's most popular saints. He was born in Roman Britain and when he was fourteen or so, he was captured by Irish pirates during a raiding party and taken to Ireland as a slave to herd and tend sheep. At the time, Ireland was a land of Druids and pagans but Patrick turned to God and wrote his memoir, The Confession. In The Confession, he wrote:

"The love of God and his fear grew in me more and more, as did the faith, and my soul was roused, so that, in a single day, I have said as many as a hundred prayers and in the night, nearly the same. I prayed in the woods and on the mountain, even before dawn. I felt no hurt from the snow or ice or rain."

SODALITY NEWS

It was a fun & successful meeting this month. As always our members were very generous at the Right to Life Baby Shower held at the meeting. A variety of booties, sleepers, shirts & other baby items were donated plus baby bottles filled with cash donations were returned. Thank you one and all! Kathy had a couple of non-traditional baby games involving emojis that were fun to figure out. Thanks also to Kathy for always being so creative.

If you want to add any items to the group homes' Easter baskets put them in the Sodality bin in the back of the Church. There are 5 men & 10 women. Any small personal or fun items or small packages of crackers are welcome. We try to stay away from candy & sweets. They will be distributed about a week before Easter.

Start looking for your plant container for our May meeting project "MARY'S GARDEN".

Remember to say an extra prayer for your fellow Sodality members.

See you in Church,
Theresa

PRAYER TO SAINT JOSEPH

MARCH 19TH

To you, O blessed Joseph, do we come in our tribulation, and having implored the help of your most holy Spouse, we confidently invoke your patronage also.

Through that charity which bound you to the Immaculate Virgin Mother of God and through the paternal love with which you embraced the Child Jesus, we humbly beg you graciously to regard the inheritance which Jesus Christ has purchased by his Blood, and with your power and strength to aid us in our necessities.

O most watchful guardian of the Holy Family, defend the chosen children of Jesus Christ; O most loving father, ward off from us every contagion of error and corrupting influence; O our most mighty protector, be kind to us and from heaven assist us in our struggle with the power of darkness.

As once you rescued the Child Jesus from deadly peril, so now protect God's Holy Church from the snares of the enemy and from all adversity; shield, too, each one of us by your constant protection, so that, supported by your example and your aid, we may be able to live piously, to die in holiness, and to obtain eternal happiness in heaven. Amen.
