From Father Ron DeHondt

"The people were filled with expectation...."

(Luke 3: 15-16, 21-22;

*Gospel of Sunday, January 9, 2022;
The Baptism of the Lord)*

Loving God,

*Your Son humbled himself
by joining his divinity with our human condition and so raised humanity
to a new level
of mission and ministry.*

*Baptized by John in the Jordan waters
he made holy
all the waters of the earth
and gave new life
to the very gift
of creation.*

*After his baptism
Jesus prayed
and opened the heavens
to the sound of your voice declaring him
your beloved Son favored to be salvation for the whole of humanity.*

*Help us to hear that voice through the distractions of this world
so that we might ourselves be cleansed in the waters of Baptism guided by the same Spirit who brings the fire of your word alive in our own times.*

*In the name of Jesus, your Son, baptized and blessed with the Spirit of your forgiving love.
Amen! Amen! Amen!*

St. Margaret of Scotland is a Catholic church dedicated to living the Gospel message.
Our Mission is to welcome all to join us in creating a vibrant parish family through worship, education and service to the community.
Our Goals are: Put God First; Start with Prayer; Invite, Welcome, Embrace; Work and Grow in Christ.

Things ongoing...the beauty of our church will be changing this week as lights and trees are put away for a few months as we enter "Ordinary Time." We thank all of those who prepared the church so beautifully for the Christmas season and those who will be putting away the things of Christmas during this coming week.

What is Ordinary Time in our Catholic tradition and what is its importance in our spiritual life?

The following is taken from an article published in The Catholic Telegraph:

The term 'ordinary' in our common use typically refers to something being plain, unimpressive, or unexciting. A kind of 'it is what it is' mentality. For that reason, many people hear 'Ordinary Time' and they immediately think of the season as such. But that understanding doesn't reflect the true meaning of the season.

Ordinary, in this context, comes from the Latin term "ordinalis", meaning 'numbered' or 'ruled.' This title simply refers to the ongoing and rhythmical nature of the season. Just like everyday life, there is a rhythm to the days and weeks. Sure, we have holidays and special occasions that we look forward to that change the pace, just like we have holy days and feasts in the Church year. But these special occasions aren't the whole picture, just like there is more to the life of Christ than what we celebrate in other liturgical seasons.

When is the season? Technically, Ordinary Time has two parts, but it remains one season. The first part begins right after the feast of the Epiphany or the Baptism of the Lord, and runs through until the Tuesday before Ash Wednesday.

The second part begins the Monday after Pentecost and runs until the First Sunday of Advent.

So enjoy this unordinary "Ordinary Time" in the life of the Church as we follow the words and teachings of Jesus, especially this year through the Gospel of Luke. It will change us if we let it!

Peace and prayer,
 Fr. Ron DeHondt

BIBLE STUDY FOR THE WHOLE FAMILY

The gospels are filled with stories of Jesus working miracles and teaching us about everlasting life. It is easy to see why Jesus caused such a stir in his time on Earth and why we believe He is truly the Son of God.

Jan. 9, 2022 The Baptism of the Lord
Luke 3:15-16, 21-22

In today's gospel reading we hear how Jesus is baptized by John. He is anointed by the Holy Spirit and the voice of his Father identifies Jesus as his Beloved Son. We also hear in this gospel that Jesus prayed following his baptism.

1. This event marks the beginning of Jesus' ministry. What are you called to do through your baptism?
2. Why do you think Jesus prayed? When and why do you pray?

Scripture Verse:

“He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and fire.”

GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

January 9, 2022

The Baptism of the Lord

"We are called to live our baptism every day, as new creatures, clothed in Christ."

— Pope Francis

What reference point do you use when making decisions? Many times, impulse takes control and decisions are made based solely on emotion and desire. We all know that these types of decisions can often get us into trouble. When a person has a confident sense of who they are and a real understanding of what is important and of value, the likelihood of kneejerk impulsive choices diminishes. Baptism gives us what we need to make well informed and purposeful decisions. By this simple gesture, God claims us as His own and provides us with the identity and purpose we need to properly live life.

It is tremendously reassuring, when we truly embrace this revelation and realize that we no longer have to wonder about the purpose of our lives or struggle to find our way. The answer of who we are in God has been given to us. We no longer have to fumble around, trip over ourselves or walk aimlessly about. Issues surrounding the sacredness of life, the meaning of death, the protection of those most vulnerable, care for the weak and the poor, offering hospitality to those in search of a home, the purpose and proper place of work, how to create a just social order, caring for creation, and understanding our roles as heralds and stewards are just a few of the wonderful gifts baptism brings. When we make decisions based on things such as these core Gospel truths we really act as Christ himself, revealing to others the new creations that we are. This is how we live our baptism.

It is difficult to walk against the tide. Yet, that is precisely what baptism calls us to do. Although we are sinners, in need of mercy and far from perfection we are called to order our life and make decisions based upon the wisdom and guidance of Almighty God. He alone is the one who can claim us as His sons and daughters. Standing up for our principles will not make us popular. But who ever said Christianity is a popularity contest? Baptism calls us to stand up for that which goes against the grain of secularism. Standing in line with other sinners, we have our anchor to steady us in the tempests of life and God is very pleased. Forge ahead. There is nothing to fear.

In the Zone with Children's Liturgy of the Word!

We celebrated the Epiphany with the children. We learned about the three gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh was given by the Three Wisemen. We watched the Superbook video of the first Christmas.

We minister at all masses. You do not have to be a member of St. Margaret's to participate. The children will be greeted in the back of the church and escorted to the Chapel or room 205 for our lesson.

Any questions, please contact Miss June Di Franco, Coordinator. 586-801-9877 or junedifranco@gmail.com

Love and Blessings,
Miss June

KID'S CORNER

Sharing the Gospel

Your Dad says, "Wash your hands, please. It is almost time to eat." After you wash your hands really well, your Dad smiles. He says, "That's my boy. You did a good job!" In today's Gospel, it was time for Jesus to be baptized. After his baptism, Jesus talked to God his Father in prayer. Jesus did everything his Father asked. God was happy with his Son and said, "I'm pleased with you."

Prayer

God, I want to make you and my parents happy.
