Loving God,

You have married yourself to your people with a bond of love that will never be broken.

Your Son chose a wedding feast to manifest your love by changing water into wine in a miracle that made known his power to bring a blessing of change into our world.

We had forgotten to celebrate your faithfulness and the joy of being chosen and called to be a people saved from selfishness and sin and changed into a people who live from the love flowing from you into our hearts and our homes.

Your covenant continues into our own time giving us strength to follow your way with forgiving love and peace for eternal life.

*In the name of Jesus, we pray.
Amen! Amen! Amen!*

Things ongoing...Our church returns to a simplicity of environment with the change from the Christmas season into Ordinary Time. Thanks for all those who came last Wednesday to put away the beautiful decorations that blessed the church during the past few weeks. Safely stored, these seasonal items will gain a well deserved rest until 11 months from now when they will be returned to brighten the dark winter months of December and January. And for those who like to prolong the season, we can celebrate Christmas until February 2, the Feast of the Presentation of the Lord (forty days after Christmas) also known as Candlemas Day. We have a rich tradition in our Catholic faith of celebrating our faith life in so many ways. Truly blessed!

Some years ago our parish set up two endowment funds that still supply income to our church for our ministry. One such fund is the Educational Endowment Fund that supplies tuition grants to families with children in our Catholic schools. If your family has children in a Catholic school please let me know so that these scholarships can help with tuition. Simply call or email me (rdehondt@sms-scs.org) with the names of the children, the Catholic school that they attend, and the grade that they are currently in.

The endowment fund makes it possible to give $600.00 for each high school student and $300.00 for grade school. Blessings!

Peace and prayer,
 Fr. Ron DeHondt, Pastor

BIBLE STUDY FOR THE WHOLE FAMILY

The Scriptures are filled with stories of Jesus working miracles and teaching us about everlasting life. It is easy to see why Jesus caused such a stir in his time on Earth and why we believe He is truly the Son of God.

Jan. 16, 2022 2nd Sunday in Ordinary Time
John 2:1-11

In today's gospel reading we hear that Jesus, his mother, Mary, and the disciples have been invited to a wedding at Cana. During the wedding Mary tells Jesus that the wine has run out, but he does not seem to care. Jesus then tells the servants to fill the water jars and begins his ministry!

1. Why do you think Jesus changed his mind? Why does it matter if the wine runs out?
2. Discuss the reaction of the people at the wedding. Imagine you were there. How would you react? Would you follow and believe?

Scripture Verse:

“There was a wedding at Cana in Galilee”

GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

January 16, 2022

2nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

God delights in you. How do you feel when you hear that? Delight usually comes with an exuberant flow of joy that seemingly arises from one's toes with the expression of great glee. Reflecting upon the deep measure of joy God has in us can be a source of joy for ourselves. Delight is infectious. A very young brother and sister were playing on the beach when the all too familiar ice cream truck made its daily rounds. The boy shook with excitement and delight as he took his sister's hand and exclaimed, "The ice cream man is here, isn't it great!" As they ran off toward the truck, one could hear the girl reply, "Yeah, I can't wait!" The experience of a child's delight in something so simple as ice cream, lifts our spirits from our burdens and transports us to the lighter, more innocent side of life.

Life is not meant to be a burden. Believe it or not, God actually wants us to be happy! In fact, the wedding feast at Cana shows us that God even puts His blessing on our happiness. It is okay to celebrate the wonder of ourselves and others. Life is good. It is always interesting to note that Jesus saves the good wine until last. You would think it would be the other way around. The superb quality of Jesus' wine points to the superior quality of life we find in Christ. It is not a life of burdens but a life of wonder and delight! In Christ, we are lifted from the superficial and mundane to a life of purpose, hope, and love.

God is with us through the long haul, through the challenges and sorrows as well as the successes and accomplishments. In spite of the fact that we often wander from the path, God's celebratory delight in us remains. As spouses are asked to remain faithful to each other through whatever life brings, God remains faithful too. This promise remains through this life and into the next. All we have to do is take the advice of Jesus' mother to heart when she says, "Listen to him." This wisdom saves us from foolishly giving in to the illusion that we can make better wine than Jesus.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

It Takes All Kinds

“If every flower wanted to be a rose,” wrote St. Therese of Lisieux, “spring would lose its loveliness.”

Who is God asking you to be today? There is an obvious answer that springs to mind right out of the gate. God wants me to be a good person (a good father, a good husband) today; today, God wants me to be a saint.

But this answer fails to get to the heart of the question. We are all striving today to serve the same Spirit, but we are given different gifts to do so. The one who has the gift of knowledge may fail if today he decides he wants to be a healer. The one who has the gift of “varieties of tongues” might falter in the expression of wisdom.

Think about the wedding at Cana and the players in the scene: the servers, the guests, the bride and groom. They all have a unique role to play, and though it is to the servers that Mary gives the instruction, “Do whatever he tells you,” her words apply to all.

Today, are we called to be the servers — do we wait on God’s instruction and carry it out, no matter how foolish or impossible it may seem to our human ears? Are we asked to be the disciples, to bear witness to a miracle and to give our testimony? Are we called to imitate the Blessed Mother herself and give encouragement to follow God’s word?

Let us examine our gifts and listen in the silence of our hearts to the direction of the Spirit. Then and only then, let us do whatever He tells us.

Sharing the Gospel

At a wedding party, Mary said to Jesus, they have no more wine. Help them. Even though it was not time for him to perform miracles, Jesus honored his Mother by changing the water into wine. When you obey God by honoring your mother's wishes, you turn ordinary things, like opening a door, emptying trash, or making the bed into a gift Of love. This love makes your mother and God smile.

Lord, help me turn chores for my family into gifts for you.
