HOLY BIBLE

We the People

insure domestic Tranquility, provide for the common defence, promote the general Welfare, and secure the Blessings of Liberty to ourselves and our Posterity, do hereby establish this Constitution for the United States of America.

ONE NATION
Under God

FATHER CHRIS HUDGIN, OSFS - ASSOCIATE PASTOR

We celebrate today the 245th birthday of our country. It is an occasion that should cause us to give thanks to God for the blessings of liberty, precious blessings which have been won for us by those who have stood up, fought, and even died that we might be free. On this day, we are also emerging from the pandemic that has caused so many trials, upended so many lives, and taken so many loved ones from us. We owe a special debt of gratitude to the scientists who have developed the vaccines that are now protecting us and enabling us to return to a semblance of normal life.

Along with these blessings, we are unfortunately in a time of great political polarization, perhaps deeper than at any time in decades. Six months ago, we saw a violent attack on the Capitol aimed at interfering with the official counting of the electoral votes by Congress. Whatever one's political views, such actions cannot characterize our approach to advancing them.

Our founding fathers, while they were passionate about democracy, were also passionate about handling differences through reasoned debate. The Declaration of Independence, while rhetorically stirring, is also an eminently reasonable document, arguing that a legitimate government is one that derives its powers from the consent of the governed. That consent is expressed by voting for our leaders, whether local, state, or national. Attempts to make it more difficult to vote can only weaken our democracy.

We need to recognize that there will always be differences of opinion among us, but we must resist the calls to view others as enemies, or even wish them harm. Death threats to election officials and their families, for example, are inexcusable. We need to examine our own assumptions, as well as those of others, with a critical eye, and not listen only to those who agree with us.

Isaiah said that we must reason together. He did not say that whoever shouts the loudest wins.

May God give us the patience, the courage, and the persistence to seek peace among ourselves, even among our disagreements. May God bless America and preserve our democracy!

FATHER DAVE NUSSHOMETOWN SCORN

14th Sunday in Ordinary Time [B]

Despite the swelling crowds from Jesus' remarkable demonstrations of divine power, today's Gospel account describes a hometown reaction that is less than enthusiastic (Mark 6:1-6).

Jesus' own townsfolk only are able to see Him as one of their own and nothing more. They remind one another they know Jesus' mother and His family (v. 3). They are unable to recognize the presence of God in Jesus' words and actions. Jesus only is viewed as one of their local people, not permitting God to be the Mystery that must always be.

This moves Jesus to utter his famous phrase: "A prophet is not without honor except in his native place and among his own kin and in his own house" (v. 4).

How true these words ring in many of our own situations. There remains a tendency to cut down the charismatic person who harbors the courage and vision to raise questions to the established order. There remains stubborn insistence both within the Church as well as beyond Her to cling desperately to what can be controlled, ignoring and dismissing far too many good and gifted people.

The Kingdom of God cannot break into a world which refuses to see the presence of God even in the most habitual and familiar people and events.

The experience of Jesus in his own hometown often is repeated in the experience of Jesus in the hometown of His Church. Stubbornly insisting we know how things should be in our minds and hearts hardens us against God's mysterious workings and prophetic voices that surprise and unsettle. Intentional disciples tirelessly seek to find God in all things, rising above their own comfort and allowing God's ways to astonish.

Nearly 20 years ago, my Aunt Joan donated her kidney to my dad. Aunt Joan was the youngest of the six Nuss kids and my dad was the oldest. Her loving generosity gave my dad an extra 11 wonderful years of life.

Friends, I recently became aware of long-time Little Flower member Michael Dastoli who is in need of a kidney transplant. Michael was one of the very first people I met when I arrived at Little Flower and I remain grateful to him for his acceptance of me along with the entire Dastoli family whose impact upon our parish is lasting. Please join me in praying for Michael and all of those who are battling life-threatening illness. I also am eager to share Michael's blood type is O-positive and if anyone wishes to learn more about possibly helping Michael, please call the Ohio State Comprehensive Transplant Center at (800) 293-8965, option #3.

ENGAGING DISCIPLES

Fireworks! It is a little hard for me to adjust to the fact that I already heard fireworks at least two weeks before the Fourth of July! Perhaps it has served as a helpful reminder that July was quickly approaching.

Fireworks are quite interesting when you think about it. I seek them out for enjoyment and admiration. Their beauty can be breathtaking. They can also serve as a wonderful catalyst for bringing groups together – after all, who goes out to an isolated spot and sets off fireworks just for themselves? On the other hand, fireworks can be startling. If I am not expecting them, they can even be frightening. If I do not know the source of the loud noise, it can be quite jarring. In either case, I do not think of fireworks as being an everyday occurrence; they seem to mark an occasion as a special event or celebration.

So, too, in the spiritual life, I can experience fireworks – those special graces through which God seeks to get my attention. I may go out seeking these graces, looking for the consolation that accompanies them. At other times, when I least expect it, they may startle me. I may be taken off guard by a particularly tender memory that touches the very core of my being. I may be jolted by a conviction based on a Gospel reading I hear. I may experience the felt presence of God in a somewhat unexpected way. God speaks to me in a variety of ways, and sometimes the fireworks of His love and mercy may be His way of getting my attention or an expression of His grace that simply cannot be contained!

Imagine the joy of our Loving God when He sees us delighting in the fireworks of grace He sends into our lives! What fireworks have you experienced lately?

SACRED SCRIPTURE IN CONTEXT*Ezekiel 2:2-5

In the First Reading, the prophet Ezekiel is sent precisely to those in the community who have instigated scandal; that is, those described as deserters, apostates, obstinate, rebels and hard of heart. Notice carefully that political compromise is not God's command to the prophet for there can be no compromises with any of them. The prophet is compelled to make known God's truth and is unconcerned about the success or failure of his mission – only delivering God's message.

Mark 6:1-6

People in Jesus' hometown cause scandal in the Gospel Reading. While they are amazed at Jesus' teaching, they cannot figure how where he got it. Even though they admit Jesus' words and actions are far beyond them, they rebuff Him by their knowledge of His family and His earlier life among them. After all, they say, He is nothing more than an ordinary carpenter.

FAITH FORMATION

ACTS: All women who have made the ACTS retreat at any time over the past eight years are invited to join a discussion and sharing on "You Are Enough" (What Women of the Bible Teach you about your Mission and Worth) by Danielle Bean. The group will meet in the St. Francis Room each Tuesday in July (and Aug. 3) from 7:00-8:00pm. It is not necessary to purchase the book or to attend every session. Come, and share in the community that is ACTS here at Little Flower!

FORMED: We here at Little Flower have been blessed with the priestly service of several Oblates of St. Francis de Sales: Father Tom Landgraff, Father Chris Hudgin, and several others who have helped out over the years. Through them, we have been graced with the spirituality of this gentle and strong Friend of God.

In this four-part series, St. Francis De Sales: Character of a Christian, Dr. Ben Akers and Dr. Christopher O. Blum sit down to discuss St. Francis de Sales, his best-known work The Introduction to the Devout Life, and the character of a Christian revealed through his life's witness and writings. We hope you enjoy this new series on an incredible counter-reformation saint who truly is a gift of God to the universal Church and from whom we can learn much today. <https://watch.formed.org/st-francis-de-sales-character-of-a-christian>

July 4, 2021

We are excited that we can offer our Youth Faith Formation programs IN PERSON in the fall. Please visit our parish website www.littleflowertoledo.org to access the easy online registration form. The same form is used for Catechesis of the Good Shepherd (K-5th Gr.) and Purpose (6th-8th Gr.) Further instructions and a calendar will be available later this summer. THANK YOU! www.littleflowertoledo.org/nextgen/children or www.littleflowertoledo.org/nextgen/middleschool.

PARISH HAPPENINGS

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

Everyone is welcome to attend an open meeting for information on the annual Rummage sale on July 14, 2021 in the St Francis Room at 1:00pm. Please plan on attending if you plan to volunteer, assist workers or have any helpful input. Hope to see you there!

Drop off dates are July 22 and 23

Sale dates are July 29, 30 and 31.

The emergency Covid restrictions have been lifted in Ohio and operations at the St Vincent de Paul Society are approaching normal. We are now accepting and distributing gently used summer clothing as well as housewares! Our food pantry is continuing to serve twice a week which is a big help to those who do not receive government benefits but have not quite returned to full employment. We continue to see a rise in requests for financial aid for those threatened with evictions or utility shut-offs. In the past year, we have given a record amount of money for those struggling with financial issues. Many were unable to work due to child-care issues, especially those with school-age children. Others found their usual avenues of income closed to them as hours and jobs were cut back. Now many of our neighbors are looking for new jobs and finding it difficult to meet monthly expenses in the interim.

Many within our parish boundaries were unable to access grant monies earmarked for help because a large section of our parish lies outside the city of Toledo boundaries and the guidelines required them to live within the city limits. The financial aid counselors at St. Vincent de Paul offer a listening ear, referrals to other agencies where appropriate, and bill payment as needed. Our neighbors are very grateful for all we do. Very often they offer us, and you our benefactors, a heartfelt thank-you and God bless you for all your help! The SVdP volunteers heartily echo that sentiment.

FATHER CHRIS HUDGIN

I want to thank all those who attended the 11:00 Mass and reception on June 13 and helped me celebrate the 40th anniversary of my ordination to the priesthood. Thanks especially to those who took the time to send a card or gift. I have enjoyed the last ten months at Little Flower getting to know you. I feel blessed to be a part of this community!

Little Flower Men: Another great night coming up as we resume in-person fellowship at July Men's Night --

Saturday, July 10 -- 7-9pm in-person in the St. Francis Room. We'll share an engaging talk from former NFL player Matt Birk called The Intersection of Faith and Football. As a former center for the Minnesota Vikings and Baltimore Ravens, Matt shares his story about the special place football has had in his life in bringing him back to his Catholic faith. With his gift of humor and candidness, Matt reminds us that much like football, the fundamentals of our faith never change. What does change is the extent to which we allow those fundamental teachings to be the center of our life and to guide us as strong men of faith in our world. Appetizers and drinks will be provided, so come and enjoy plenty of fellowship with other Christ-centered men as we strengthen each other to be the spiritual leaders God calls us to be. Also . . . mark your calendar for the next Men's Night -- Saturday, August 14 -- 7-9pm (location to be announced soon). Questions? Email to Ed Gillig, Eric Zatko or Paul Figliomeni at lfmensnight@gmail.com.

BOY SCOUTS: The Boy Scouts -- Troop 222 -- are once again meeting on Monday evenings at 6:30pm. If you are interested in learning more about scouting either as a scout participant or as a volunteer, please contact Jim Bishop at 419.531.1907.

St. Benedict is expanding its music program to include band!

Did you know that some studies show that instrumental music participation has a positive relationship to a student's academic performance with the strongest association occurring in reading and/or language arts? This will be a wonderful addition to the quality education that St. Benedict already provides, but we can't do it alone! We are asking both parishes to help us get the program started.

How to help:

- Donate your used, quality band instruments (those purchased from Rettig or other certified band instrument providers) that may be gathering dust in your closet or attic (or that of friends and/or relatives).
- Consider a cash donation to help cover the cost of repairs and cleaning of donated instruments.
- Sponsor a student by supporting the purchase of an instrument for a beginning band student. Our hope is that the band student will build a relationship with their sponsor as they participate in years of instrumental music. More information on becoming a sponsor will be given at a later date.

List of instruments that we are hoping for:

- Clarinets
- Flutes
- Saxophones
- Oboes
- Percussion: Snare Drum, Bongos, Bells, Xylophone, Timpani, Cymbals, Triangle
- Trumpets
- Trombones
- French Horn

Please email Jacob Kempf at jkempf@stbenedicttoledo.org to express your interest or to ask questions.

All donations are tax deductible and can be dropped off at the school office beginning July 12 on Tuesdays, Wednesdays, and Thursdays from 9:00-12:00.

Thank you, as always, for your generosity extended to our students so they may enjoy a rich, and meaningful curriculum at St. Benedict Catholic School.
