During the month of the Rosary you can find so many fun and educational ways to celebrate the Rosary. Visit various websites such as USCCB.org, or Catholicmom.com, or A Catholic Mom’s Life on You Tube, to get great family activities centered on the Rosary and Mary, the Mother of Our Lord. I always found a great time to pray the Rosary was when my family was in the car. Even if our trip was not a long one, we could get in one decade of the Rosary prayed. If you pray one decade per day, in five days you will have completed five mysteries of the Rosary! Praying the Rosary as a family is such good communication with your family because you can offer the prayer for intentions for people you know and love. Other intentions can be offered for situations going on in the world, people who need help, or are far from God and need His help. It also forms communication with Mary and Jesus. Make the Rosary a part of each day during the month of October!
