17TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

“There is a boy here who has five barley loaves and two fish; but what good are these for so many?” Then Jesus took the loaves, gave thanks, and distributed them to those who were reclining, and also as much of the fish as they wanted. - Jn 6:9, 11

Notes from Fr. Steve

Christians who practice stewardship know themselves to be grateful recipients and caretakers of God's many gifts. They are eager to develop their gifts out of love for God and one another. It is not surprising then that the love commandment of Jesus in the Gospel is considered the foundation for Christian stewardship in the Gospel. "You shall love the Lord your God with your whole heart, your whole soul, and with your entire mind. This is the greatest commandment". (Mt 22:30-34) Jesus brings three dimensions of love together for the listener: love of God, love of self, and love of neighbor.

The Christian steward's life of gratitude is marked with the belief that God is love. We therefore, understand that God loves us first and endows us with the gift to love him in return. We, therefore understand that God loves us first and endows us with the gift to love Him in return. Indeed, the practice, of stewardship begins with returning God's love by spending the gift of time with God in prayer. The ability to pray is a gift which opens us even more intimately to God's love. When we stand in honest openness to God in loving prayer, we understand that we ourselves are gifts from God and that God accepts, forgives, and needs us. We also begin to see ourselves as we truly are, without deception: as loveable images of Jesus Christ. It is this love and acceptance of ourselves that helps us turn and present that image to all we encounter.

There remains the temptation to be preoccupied with ourselves, to see others in terms as how we see ourselves. God has created us all unique and different, and we cannot see our own needs or thoughts in another. Good Stewards conduct relationships based on how can I give, rather than what is in this for me? Stewards accept all of God's children as neighbors and we walk together in our human frailty with generosity, patience and love. The love of neighbor sometimes calls for a great deal of patience and often a great sense of humor.

Yet, when we see our neighbors as being made in the image and likeness of God and not in our image we understand more clearly the direction God gave the Israelites in the book of Exodus. God revealed that they were called together to be good stewards, to be kind to widows and children, and to treat the poor with mercy. These instructions are carried out in the teachings of Jesus in the New Testament in our stewardship of others. "If someone who has worldly means sees a brother in need and refuses him compassion, how can the love of God remain in him? (1 Jn 3:17)

God has endowed us with so many gifts, especially the gift of His son, Jesus Christ, our neighbors and our very selves. It is only when we make a commitment to love God "with our whole heart, our whole mind", that we genuinely "Serve him love...bear one another's burdens, and you will fulfill the whole law of Christ" (Gal 5:13, 6:2). This is the beginning of Christian stewardship.

Please remember to pray for the parish, especially for the sick and the suffering, your prayers bring them comfort, healing and peace.

If you have not yet made your CSA donation, please do so. May God bless you and those you love!

STUFFED GREEN PEPPERS

Cut 3 large green peppers in 1/2 lengthwise. Remove seeds and parboil in salted water 3 minutes. Drain and set aside. Brown 1 pound ground chuck (sprinkled with onion salt) in oil. Add 1/2 teaspoon celery seed, 1 cup cooked rice, 1 small can whole kernel corn, 1/2 teaspoon chili powder, 1 can tomato soup. Cook slowly for 1/2 hour, then put the pepper shells into a casserole and pile in the mixture. Bake at 325 F until bubbly for 40 minutes.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

It's All in the Basket

St. Therese of Lisieux made a point of going the extra mile in kindness towards those people who really got under her skin. It was part of her own brand of Everyday Stewardship — thanking God for all His creation, even the parts with which, in her own humanness, she struggled to cope.

I think about this a lot when I challenge myself to give thanks for things that bother me and people who challenge me. When I do this, I envision Christ giving thanks over those insufficient loaves. How many of us would see that paltry little basket and kick a rock in frustration because we can't feed all our people? "You didn't give me enough, Lord! You didn't give me enough patience, enough money, enough creativity, enough stamina to be a good steward. If you had given me more, I could also give more!"

In those moments of despair, we need to take a good look at the life God has given us. We need to look at the trials and the challenges and the shortcomings. The hopes that didn't pan out, the disappointments that keep cropping up. Somewhere therein lies what we need to be the steward God asks us to be, just as St. Therese's own stewardship was defined by the people she simply couldn't stand.

God does not give us all we want. He does not give us all we ask for. He does us one better: He gives us all we need. It's all in the basket.

Readings for Seventeenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Reading I

2 Kings 4:42-44/110

A man came from Baal-shalishah bringing to Elisha, the man of God, twenty barley loaves made from the firstfruits, and fresh grain in the ear. Elisha said, "Give it to the people to eat." But his servants objected, "How can I set this before a hundred people?" Elisha insisted, "Give it to the people to eat. For thus says the Lord, 'They shall eat and there shall be some left over.' And when they had eaten, there was some left over, as the Lord had said.

Reading II

Ephesians 4:1-6

Brothers and sisters: I, a prisoner for the Lord, urge you to live in a manner worthy of the call you have received, with all humanity and gentleness, with patience, bearing with one another through love, striving to preserve the unity of the spirit through the bond of peace: one body and one Spirit, as you were also called to the one hope of your call; one Lord, one faith, one baptism; one God and Father of all, who is over all and through all and in all.

Gospel

John 6:1-15

Jesus went across the Sea of Galilee. A large crowd followed him, because they saw the signs he was performing on the sick. Jesus went up on the mountain, and there he sat down with his disciples. The Jewish feast of Passover was near. When Jesus raised his eyes and saw that a large crowd was coming to him, he said to Philip, "Where can we buy enough food for them to eat?" He said this to test him, because he himself knew what he was going to do. Philip answered him, "Two hundred days' wages worth of food would not be enough for each of them to have a little." One of his disciples, Andrew, the brother of Simon Peter, said to him, "There is a boy here who has five barley loaves and two fish; but what good are these for so many?" Jesus said, "Have the people recline." Now there was a great deal of grass in that place. So the men reclined, about five thousand in number. Then Jesus took the loaves, gave thanks, and distributed them to those who were reclining, and also as much of the fish as they wanted. When they had their fill, he said to his disciples, "Gather the fragments left over, so that nothing will be wasted." So they collected them, and filled twelve wicker baskets with fragments from five barley loaves that had been more than they could eat. When the people saw the sign he had done, they said, "This is truly the Prophet, the one who is to come into the world." Since Jesus knew that they were going to come and carry him off to make him king, he withdrew again to the mountain alone.

17th Sunday
IN ORDINARY TIME

GOSPEL MEDITATION

17th Sunday in Ordinary Time

St. Oscar Romero said, "We cannot do everything, and there is a sense of liberation in realizing that. This enables us to do something and to do it very well. It may be incomplete, but it is the beginning, a step along the way, an opportunity for the Lord's grace to enter and do the rest."

There were a group of ladies many years ago who made quilts. They were beautiful creations reflecting inspirational designs artfully composed from the simple scraps of fabric each woman would bring to their individual pieces. There was no plan for the finished project as each finished work became the combined creation of what each woman contributed. They abounded in vibrant colors and dazzled the beholder with intricate patterns and their myriad textures. They were so beautiful that they became coveted family treasures passed from generation to generation. Those women never realized the power of their work. Countless babies rested in the comfort of those quilts warmly nestled in the legacy of tradition they were fortunate to inherit. They adorned countless homes with their beauty and brought joy and solace to many faces.

We cannot do everything. We are not meant to. Our work in life is to contribute our individual piece, a piece that reflects the unique thumbprint I claim as my own. We only have to do small things well. Then, as St. Oscar Romero reminds us, the Lord's grace will enter and do the rest. We have to trust that this is true just as those women trusted in the eventual beauty of their final work.

Eucharistic blessings are blessings that start small and multiply. We all come to life with only a few loaves of bread and a few fish. Not any single one of us has all that it takes to transform our world. Who knows what God will do with the little we have and how many will benefit from our kindness, compassion, wisdom, courage, conviction, love, warmth, zeal, faith, and hope? That young lad never dreamed that his few leftovers would do all that they did. God shows up in unexpected ways! Where would life's adventure and fun be if it were any other way? Being able to be part of bringing God's creative, transforming, healing to the world opens us up to wonder, awe, and excitement! We can all bring our little piece to the bigger work of God that can result in being a coveted jewel passed generation to generation. This is good news indeed!

Bread and wine transform into Christ's Body and Blood and we become what we eat. Trust that.

Prayer For A Return To Faith

St. Anthony, God chose you for a mission of mercy to those who had fallen away from our Catholic faith. I entrust to you my concerns for (insert name) who does not presently worship at Mass or receive the Sacraments regularly. Speak to their heart, and lead them to want to know God better, to praise God often in the celebration of the Holy Eucharist, and to offer their time and talents in the dedicated service of a welcoming, holy, faith-filled Catholic parish community. Grant them the joy, the privilege, and the power of a committed personal relationship with Our Lord, Jesus Christ, and His Body, the Church. Guide me with patience and wisdom to be a worthy example of faith to all.
Amen.

Neighbors In Need

In such stressful times, St. Vincent de Paul members want to remind all parishioners that our mission is to help anyone who lives within the St. Rene Parish boundaries. We may be able to help with utility bills, clothing, household items and non-perishable food. Because of COVID restrictions our pantry is closed except for emergencies. Prayer During A Health Crisis

Compassionate and Loving Father,
 In the face of confusion and concern impart to us the calm of your presence.
 In You allow us to find hope and healing.
 Be with those who serve the sick and give them Your caring hands.
 Be with those who lead and give them Your Spirit of wisdom.
 Be with those who have fallen ill and give them Your comforting heart.
 Wrap your arms around our world
 and hold us in your love.
 Allow us at this time of trial to then serve as instruments of that love to all we meet.
 We ask this in Your Name.
 Amen.

Spiritual Communion

With a contrite and a pure and loving heart say:
My Jesus, I believe that Thou art present in the Blessed Sacrament. I love Thee above all things and I desire to possess Thee within my soul. Since I cannot receive Thee sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart.
 (Pause)

As though Thou were already there, I embrace Thee and unite myself wholly to Thee; permit me not that I should ever be separated from Thee.

The Council of Trent requires for a spiritual communion an ardent desire, lively faith, and fervent charity.

Daily Offering of the Most Precious Blood

With a contrite and a pure and loving heart say:

O MARY, Immaculate Mother of JESUS, offer, we beseech thee, to the Eternal Father, the Precious Blood of thy Divine Son, to prevent at least one mortal sin from being committed somewhere in the world this day. [night]

“If every night, before we went to sleep,” says Father Faber, “we begged our dear Lady to offer up to God the Precious Blood of her Divine Son for grace to hinder one mortal sin somewhere in the world, during that night, and then renewed the same offering in the morning of the hours of daylight, surely such an offering, and by such hands, could not fail to win the grace desired, and then each one of us might probably hinder numbers of mortal sins every year.”

In our efforts to maintain an updated list, names will stay on the list for four weeks and can be requested by immediate family members only. All others who are sick will be remembered and prayed for with the phrase "and for all our parishioners and family members who are sick, living with chronic health troubles, and / or are in assisted living or nursing homes."
