24TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

He summoned the crowd with his disciples and said to them, "Whoever wishes to come after me must deny himself, take up his cross, and follow me. For whoever wishes to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for my sake and that of the gospel will save it." - Mk 8:34-35

Notes from Fr. Steve

In the United States and other nations, a dominant secular culture often contradicts our religious values about the meaning of life. The culture often encourages us to focus on ourselves and our pleasures. At times we can find it easy to ignore spiritual realities and to deny religion a role in shaping human and social values.

As Catholics who have entered the mainstream of American society and experienced its advantages, many of us have been adversely influenced by this secular culture. We know what it is to struggle against selfishness and greed, and we realize it is harder for many today to accept the challenge of being a Christian steward.

It is essential therefore, that we make a special effort accepting the true meaning of stewardship and live accordingly.

The Christian steward's way of life models the life of Jesus. It is challenging and even difficult, in many respects, yet joy comes to those who take the risk to live as Christian stewards. Women and men who seek to live as stewards learn that "all things work for the good for those who love God". (Romans 8:28)

After Jesus we look at Mary as the ideal steward. As Mother of Christ, she lives her ministry in faithfulness and service; she generously responded to the call.

We must ask ourselves: Do we wish to be disciples of Jesus and Christian stewards of our world and Church?

Central to our Christian vocation each one of us receives from God, is that we be good stewards of the gifts we possess. God gives us the world and the Church to care for and to love. The Spirit shows us the way to do this.

Christian stewardship and the sacramental life go hand in hand. The sacraments empower us to live in a right relationship with God, with ourselves and with others. The sacramental life gives us an ongoing, personal transformation and renewal, a capacity for relationship, so that our true selves can be more perfectly expressed. Sacramental life gives us a new way of being whom we are and what we are, not just respect to ourselves but in relation to every other creature as well as to God. The sacramental life describes God's grace and presence are concretely transforming us continually from darkness into light, from death to life, from slavery to sin to be the true son or daughter we have been called to be. Jesus Christ is the ultimate sacrament, and by embracing Christian stewardship, we are invited to live the sacramental life Jesus himself lived.

This time of the Church's liturgical cycle is called ordinary time. Ordinary time unfolds the mystery of Christ's life in all of its fullness by recalling for the community the events of His three year public ministry. It is in Ordinary Time of all three cycles, for the Gospels of Matthew, Mark, Luke and John that we find the Word of God being proclaimed on the matter of stewardship. Cycle B of the readings which we are in at this time in the Gospel of Mark and mark the stewardship perspective for the rest of the liturgical year.

If you listen closely to the Gospel, you will hear Jesus challenge the disciples and the people to care for and to love what God has given them. Jesus also commands that His followers be loving, kind and merciful. You are the steward over these precious gifts from God. I would like you to think about how you have been using the gifts God has given you. Consider that when you receive the sacraments they are meant to give you strength and to become the disciple and steward He calls you to be.

Please remember to pray for the parish especially the sick and the suffering of the parish, your prayers bring them comfort, healing and peace. God bless you and those you love.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

Can You Walk the Walk?

I've met and talked with enough people to feel confident that if you polled 100 fallen-away Catholics about why they didn't want anything to do with the Church, the term "accountability" would pop up in almost all of their answers.

And to be fair, a lack of accountability isn't just a Catholic problem. Talking the talk but not walking the walk has been a shortcoming handed down throughout the ages, across all creeds and nationalities.

Loving our neighbor, welcoming the stranger, clothing the naked, feeding the poor — it all sounds fantastic, especially when we're the ones saying it. But the doing — well, that's a different story, isn't it? We would do well to remember that Christ calls one of his best friends "Satan" when Peter tries to convince Jesus to stray from his destiny.

Have you ever been called Satan by one of your good buddies? I'll bet it's not a great feeling. But think about what Peter was doing. He had just said, "You are the Christ." And now, mere moments later, he's saying: "Don't say these things. Don't say you're going to suffer. Don't say you'll be killed."

He was telling Christ to squander what the Lord had given him. He was telling him that having faith was fine, but being faithful? It's just a little too hard. God has a destiny for you, too, and He's asking you to be open to it. Maybe it's not in your comfort zone. Maybe you don't think you can do it.

Lord, give us faith — but help us, also, to do the work.

Readings for Twenty-Fourth Sunday In Ordinary Time

Reading I

Isaiah 50:5-9a/131

The Lord God opens my ear that I
may hear;
and I have not rebelled,
have not turned back.
I gave my back to those who beat me,
my cheeks to those who plucked my
beard;
my face I did not shield
from buffets and spitting.

The Lord God is my help,

therefore I am not disgraced;
I have set my face like flint,
knowing that I shall not be put to shame.

He is near who upholds my right;
if anyone wishes to oppose me,
let us appear together.

Who disputes my right?

Let that man confront me.
See, the Lord God is my help;
who will prove me wrong?

Reading II

James 2:14-18

What good is it, my brothers and sisters, if someone says he has faith but does not have works? Can that faith save him? If a brother or sister has nothing to wear and has no food for the day, and one of you says to them, "Go in peace, keep warm, and eat well," but you do not give them the necessities of the body, what good is it? So also faith of itself, if it does not have works, is dead.

Indeed someone might say, "You have faith and I have works." Demonstrate your faith to me without works, and I will demonstrate my faith to you from my works.

Gospel

Mark 8:27-35

Jesus said to his disciples set out for the villages of Caesarea Philippi. Along the way he asked the disciples, "Who do people say that I am?" They said in reply, "John the Baptist, others Elijah, still others one of the prophets." And he asked them, "But who do you say that I am?" Peter said to him in reply, "You are the Christ." Then he warned them not to tell anyone about him.

He began to teach them that the Son of Man must suffer greatly and be rejected by the elders, the chief priests, and the scribes, and be killed, and rise after three days. He spoke openly. The Peter took him aside and began to rebuke him. At this he turned around and, looking at his disciples, rebuked Peter and said, "Get behind me, Satan. You are thinking not as God does, but as human beings do."

He summoned the crowd with his disciples and said to them, "Whoever wishes to come after me must deny himself, take up his cross, and follow me. For whoever wishes to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for my sake and that of the gospel will save it."

A Prayer to Be Open to God's Will

Good and gracious God,
 I know that life can be unpredictable.
 Sometimes I know what is good and right,
 but I don't have the courage to do it.
 Sometimes I am so busy with my own affairs,
 I forget to see the needs of people in front of me.
 Sometimes I am set in my own ways,
 and I resist growing and learning.
 Help me, Lord, to be open to Your will.
 When You prompt me to do the right thing,
 give me the courage to do it.
 When those around me need my help,
 give me Your heart to love them.
 When I'm stuck in my own ways,
 give me the grace to grow closer to You every day.
 Give me the trust and confidence of Mary.
 Let it be done unto me according to Your word!
 Amen.

GOSPEL MEDITATION24th Sunday in Ordinary Time

We need to get our bearings straight and properly lay life's cornerstone. Otherwise, the rest of our journey will be skewed, and our judgment clouded. We can recall Jesus' famous rebuke of Peter, "You are thinking not as God does, but as human beings do." Even he, as one of Jesus' closest friends struggles with understanding things and grasping the big picture. Pierre Teilhard de Chardin (1881-1955) a renowned and learned French Jesuit priest often has these words attributed to him: "We are not human beings having a spiritual experience. We are spiritual beings having a human experience." Whether they were actually from his lips, they certainly mimic his thought. These wise words orient us and capture the essence of who we really are.

Many people consider spirituality an option. It is no wonder that they come to this conclusion when they predominantly define themselves using human terms and concepts. Immersed in this world view, they struggle finding any semblance of God because God does not work according to human expectations! This is especially true when suffering and death enter life's picture. If we are only human beings having a spiritual experience, then we wrongly expect our spirituality to serve us as we desire. The human expectation is that my spiritual life is something that is useful in avoiding pain, hardship, and death, not something that gives the courage to live through it!

So, when we protest and get upset with God because our journey is becoming difficult, painful, treacherous, disappointing, and even pointing us toward death, Jesus rebukes us as he did Peter and gently reminds us how to see. It is God who inspires and opens hearts to see truth and beauty. In God, the true meaning of things is understood, and we receive a depth of insight and understanding that is not found following purely human paths. It is not our task to understand God, as God is beyond human understanding. Ours is the joyful privilege of simply resting in God's presence simply because God is God and we are who we are. As spiritual beings having an exciting and adventurous human experience, it is in our DNA to do so. Through prayer we can let go and let be. This is how we lose our lives but then save them.

Prayer During A Health Crisis

Compassionate and Loving Father,
 In the face of confusion and concern
 impart to us the calm of your presence.
 In You allow us to find hope and healing.
 Be with those who serve the sick and give them Your caring hands.
 Be with those who lead and give them Your Spirit of wisdom.
 Be with those who have fallen ill and give them Your comforting heart.
 Wrap your arms around our world
 and hold us in your love.
 Allow us at this time of trial to then
 serve as instruments of that love to all we meet.
 We ask this in Your Name.
 Amen.

Spiritual Communion

With a contrite and a pure and loving heart say:
My Jesus, I believe that Thou art present in the Blessed Sacrament. I love Thee above all things and I desire to possess Thee within my soul. Since I cannot receive Thee sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart.
 (Pause)

As though Thou were already there, I embrace Thee and unite myself wholly to Thee; permit me not that I should ever be separated from Thee.

The Council of Trent requires for a spiritual communion an ardent desire, lively faith, and fervent charity.

Daily Offering
of the
Most Precious Blood

With a contrite and a pure and loving heart say:

O MARY, Immaculate Mother of JESUS, offer, we beseech thee, to the Eternal Father, the Precious Blood of thy Divine Son, to prevent at least one mortal sin from being committed somewhere in the world this day. [night]

“If every night, before we went to sleep,” says Father Faber, “we begged our dear Lady to offer up to God the Precious Blood of her Divine Son for grace to hinder one mortal sin somewhere in the world, during that night, and then renewed the same offering in the morning of the hours of daylight, surely such an offering, and by such hands, could not fail to win the grace desired, and then each one of us might probably hinder numbers of mortal sins every year.”

While we know that many people are continuously suffering from pain and illness, the main function for our sick list is to offer prayers for those urgently needing prayer (i.e. someone who is experiencing an acute illness or serious injury...) In our efforts to maintain an updated list, names will stay on the list for four weeks and can be requested by immediate family members only. All others who are sick will be remembered and prayed for with the phrase "and for all our parishioners and family members who are sick, living with chronic health troubles, and / or are in assisted living or nursing homes."
