Welcome Home, from Fr. Tony!

Whether you come to us from across the street or across the country, we are honored that you have chosen to spend part of your day with us.

We provide daily mass in-person and online as part of our commitment to our parish family. We hope you enjoy your visit and encourage you to return often!

We are Witnesses of the Risen Lord!

Jesus and the two disciples On the Road to Emmaus, by Duccio, 1308–1311, Museo dell'Opera del Duomo, Siena. Public Domain

In this week's Gospel, we find the two disciples telling the others that Jesus is alive (Luke 24:35-48). As they were speaking, suddenly Jesus appears and greets everyone with the words "Peace be with you" (Lk 24:36). They became frightened because they thought they were seeing a ghost. Jesus proves he is not a ghost by allowing them to see and touch his wounds, and he even eats a piece of fish in front of them. The disciples are amazed, and Jesus helps them understand why he suffered, died, and rose from the dead. Jesus tells them to preach in his name to the whole world saying: "You are witnesses of these things" (Luke 24:48)).

One on my favorite pieces of art at St. Hugo is the sixteenth Stations of the Cross in the Church, which tells the story of the Emmaus story. The Stations of the Cross are located on the wall in between the Ambry (place where the Holy Oils are kept, and Fr. Tony's reconciliation room. The Stations were created by a local artist Suzanne Young and grouped in a collage fashion. The original fourteen stations are followed by two more stations depicting the Resurrection of Jesus and the Story of Emmaus. The building committee of the Church wanted to remind us all that just like in the Story of Emmaus, Jesus is present in the breaking of the bread at Mass. It is a reminder that we are called to be a disciple and witness to the whole world that Jesus suffered, died, rose, and lives.

The Incredulity of St. Thomas (c. 1621—1623), Rijksmuseum, Amsterdam. Public Domain

Archbishop Vigneron reminds us: "Parishes need to help every parishioner become a witness to God's everlasting mercy and thereby unleash the Gospel to everyone they meet" (Unleash the Gospel, p47). How is Jesus calling you to bring the Gospel to others through your deeds, words, and witness? The Archbishop continues by saying: "When Jesus walked with the two disciples on the road to Emmaus, he did not immediately begin to instruct them. Instead, he first listened to them and allowed them to share their hopes and disappointments, winning their trust. He met them where they were in their faith and helped them to go further" (Unleash the Gospel, p37). What hopes and disappointments do you need to discuss with Jesus?

2. Education: The Education Commission will develop, promote and evaluate faith formation programs with the understanding that through Baptism we are all called to grow in our faith throughout life.

3. Stewardship: The Stewardship Commission will encourage participation in stewardship and call upon parishioners to share their time, talent and treasure.

4. Worship: The Worship Commission will seek to nurture our communal prayer through active participation in our sacramental life and liturgical celebrations.

5. Evangelization: The Evangelization Committee will serve as a catalyst for the total evangelizing effort in the parish.

(Approved by the Parish Pastoral Council on May 28, 2013, for July 2013-June 2021)

Contributing to the CSA is the most efficient and effective way to donate to St. Hugo. This is because the over-target amounts received by St. Hugo are not assessed (taxed) by the Archdiocese of Detroit and the over-target amounts do not impact St. Hugo's CSA target in future years. (Conversely, amounts received in regular Sunday offertory and in the Christmas collection do impact St. Hugo's CSA target in future years.)

The easiest way to provide your donation to the CSA campaign is to give electronically via credit card or ACH bank account withdrawal. See the St. Hugo website and click on the CSA online giving link to make a contribution.

Your contribution, especially during these challenging times, will assist in St. Hugo furthering our parish mission. Thank you for your generosity!

Visit http://sthugo.aodcsa.org for more information.

ONLINE GIVING

There are more choices than ever to ensure our parishioners have the most convenient way to give back to the community. What was once a weekly task of writing a check may seem like a thing of the past to a new generation. Visit www.sthugo.org and click ONLINE GIVING to find the method of giving that best suits you. We are grateful for any contribution of time, talent or treasure. We are a safe and thriving community because of each person under our roof.

RIGHT-TO-LIFE
NEW DATE FOR AUCTION AND FUNDRAISER!

While things are "loosening up" somewhat in our state, the management at San Marino is still allowed only 50% capacity with only six people at a table. Clearly this would not accommodate all who want to attend the dinner so the Lifespan board made the decision to postpone the date until October 12, 2021.
