JANUARY 9, 2022

FROM THE DESK of FR. MARK BRAUER

Today the Church celebrates the feast of the Baptism of the Lord which concludes the Christmas season. For us Christians, it is not enough simply to give gifts or to think about the birth of Jesus. Instead, we have celebrated His birth, His naming, His circumcision, His being shown to the Gentiles, the arrival of the Magi, and now we celebrate His baptism.

Today's feast is part of the Solemnity of the Epiphany. The baptism and the birth of the Lord were originally part of the mystery of the Epiphany. The feasts and celebrations in our Catholic Church evolved to express the full mystery of Christ.

The Baptism of the Lord is not only about Jesus' baptism, but also about our baptism and the need for baptism in general and about Jesus being truly human even though he is truly God.

In the first centuries of the Church, there was an enormous focus on the impossible becoming possible. How is it that God can become fully a human being? Many of the early hymns speak over and over about this contrast: God who is all powerful becomes a tiny baby and cannot survive without the human help of others.

Today, perhaps we have lived so long in the western world with the presence of Christ in our churches and almost taken for granted that we almost forget how incredible this gift of salvation is for us.

The first reading from the prophet Isaiah, describes a savior. Today we recognize that we can see Jesus in this figure from Isaiah. We are so blessed with a Savior who leaves us our freedom, who does not condemn us even when we reject Him and who is constantly there seeking us.

There is a sense of justice in the reading that might leave us quite uneasy. So often we begin to think in our present world that there is no judgement of God that God either does not exist or does not care about what we do.

The scriptures tell us over and over that God does care and that there will be a judgement. Some of this way of thinking is surely just to make us more aware of what we are doing. But the reality is still there: God loves us enough to care about whether our actions are good or bad. We are given time in this world so that we can learn how to choose the good. Baptism is about being willing to die in order to choose the good.

The second reading and the Gospel are about the Baptism of Jesus. It is clear that it was a major event in the life of Jesus. Once again, the early hymns of our Christian faith point out the contract: Jesus, innocent and without sin, undergoes Baptism to bring about our salvation.

Jesus does not need to repent nor to be baptized but chooses baptism to draw us to salvation.

For many of us, our baptism was simply something that happened when we were young. We do not feel the strength of this enormous experience in our lives. We look on baptism simply as an experience of joining the Church.

After Jesus' baptism he went forth into service to God's people. He suffered, died, and rose again to unite us to his heavenly Father. We have been baptized into the life of Christ. We are called to model our life after his in proclaiming the Gospel of Christ to the world.

A baptized and committed Catholic strives to live as a Christian steward in all aspects of life – at home, in the workplace, in the community and in the Church. The way of life called stewardship has so much latitude. Stewardship is after all about everything we say and do after we profess, "I believe..."

Catholics stewards take care of the world, including embracing the Catholic Social Teachings of the Church. We work as partners with God in the redemption of the world. We respect human life and dignity. We protect the natural environment. We share our gifts (time, talents, and treasures) with others, and we communicate our enthusiasm – our faith and trust in God.

Today, as we celebrate the Baptism of the Lord, we can make a commitment to understand our own baptism better, we can commit ourselves to learning more about our faith. Most of all, we can commit ourselves to living the divine life that was given to us in baptism and which is still alive with us. Let us give glory to God and rejoice in His presence within us.

*Peace,
Fr. Mark Brauer

THE BAPTISM OF THE LORD

by Sr. Barbara Rund, OP

The Al-Maghtas Ruins

on the Jordanian side of the Jordan River was the location for the Baptism of Jesus and the ministry of John the Baptist. CC BY 2.5.

The Christmas Season concludes on the feast of the Baptism of the Lord, which is celebrated this year on Sunday, January 9. The Liturgical Season of Ordinary Time begins on Monday, January 10, and continues through Tuesday, March 1, which is the day before Ash Wednesday. Ordinary Time will resume after the Easter Season on Monday, June 6, which is the day after Pentecost. Ordinary Time is in two parts and consists of thirty-three or thirty-four weeks of the year. The focus of Ordinary Time is not very “ordinary” at all, because on each Sunday the church reflects on the mystery of Christ and our role as a disciple of Christ.

The Baptism of Jesus and the wedding at Cana were originally part of the feast of Epiphany. After Vatican II, the liturgical calendar was revised and expanded to a three-year cycle (Cycle A, B and C). This meant that in Cycle A the Sunday Gospel is from Matthew, in Cycle B the Sunday Gospel is from Mark, in Cycle C the Sunday Gospel is from Luke; and every year the Gospel of John is read for special feasts or at other times. So, in the present liturgical calendar of the church, the theme of Baptism is highlighted in all three cycles (A, B, and C). This year the church is using the readings from Cycle C, which uses the Gospel of Luke.

The church assigns a very important place to the event of the Baptism of Jesus. There is a threefold significance to this feast.

- First, God reveals the Divine Sonship of Jesus through the voice from heaven: “You are my beloved Son; with you I am well pleased” (Luke:22).
- Second, the Holy Spirit descends on Jesus as a sign of the anointing and appointment of Jesus to his role as Messiah at the start of his public life.
- Third, the water of baptism has the power to forgive sin and elevates believers to the status of daughters and sons of God.

Let us take this week to ponder our own Baptism into Christ Jesus. At our baptism, we put on Christ and became part of the family of God. We became God’s beloved sons or daughters. We became disciples of the Risen Lord. At our baptism, we professed belief in the Father-Creator, the Son-Redeemer, and the Holy Spirit-Sanctifier.

The opening prayer for the Baptism of the Lord summarizes the meaning of our baptism: “When Christ had been baptized in the River Jordan and as the Holy Spirit descended upon him, solemnly declared him your beloved Son, grant that your children by adoption, reborn of water and the Holy Spirit, may always be well pleasing to you” (2011 Roman Missal p 64).

With the rise in COVID-19 infections and, particularly, hospitalizations in our community, we wish to remind all parishes of our current COVID-19 protocols.

December 13, 2021

With the recent increase in COVID-19 cases in Michigan, and the approaching winter season, we wish to remind clergy and parishes of the Archdiocese of Detroit's current guidelines for liturgies:

- The Archdiocese of Detroit encourages Mass-goers, regardless of vaccination status, to wear face-coverings and to practice social distancing to reduce exposure to COVID-19.
- The Archdiocese of Detroit strongly recommends that each pastor/In Solidum team should evaluate their location in the Archdiocese and implement the following protocols:
 - Establish an area where social distancing is observed
 - Strongly encourage masking and social distancing for all Mass-goers
 - Require all who distribute Holy Communion to wear face-coverings and use hand sanitizer
 - Hang signage indicating masking and social distancing are strongly encouraged
 - Ensure that hand sanitizer is readily available at church entrances and near the sanctuary
 - Evaluate space for the choir, and strongly recommend that those who are unvaccinated do not participate in the choir at this time
- The faithful are reminded that dispensations from the obligation to participate in Holy Mass remain in effect for people who are ill or who find themselves in other specific circumstances.

ST. HUGO PARISH – GIVING TREE – A WONDERFUL GIFT

For over 20 years, our parish community (church and school) has helped others by fulfilling hundreds of Giving Tree items requested by local charities. By supporting these charities through the years, your generosity has enabled others to witness Christ's love and mercy. Your gifts brought the hope of Christmas to many.

The gratitude expressed by the organizations demonstrates your impact:

- “ thanks to your generosity, we were able to give away 300 backpacks Christmas morning filled with essentials for our homeless guests” – Pope Francis Center
- Fifteen residents in Adult Foster Care homes received gifts that “were wrapped beautifully with obvious love and care. These are truly actions that reflect the message of Christ and celebrate his birth in the best way possible, giving to others who cannot provide for themselves.” – St. Charles Borromeo Church

We hope that your family learned about the dedication of these charities in their tireless work to meet basic human needs and provide spiritual resources to multiple individuals. Now that we are in the beginning of a new liturgical year, may the kindness and joyous spirit of helping others be inherent in our daily actions.

SPECIAL HOLY HOUR FOR THE UPCOMING SUPREME COURT DECISION REGARDING ABORTION

The St. Hugo Respect Life Committee is sponsoring a Holy Hour after the 8:30 am Saturday morning Mass. We will continue to have this Holy Hour every Saturday until the Supreme Court comes down with a decision on Dobbs v. Jackson Women's Health Organization-which is expected in June 2022. We will pray for the conversion of the culture of death and that the Commandment; “thou shalt not kill” be respected again. We will pray that Gods laws and our Constitution will again be upheld. If the decision comes down in favor of Dobbs it could bring the responsibility of abortion laws back to the States. In the State of Michigan that would mean that no abortions would be permitted in the State of Michigan except to save the life of the mother. This decision could also be the beginning of the end for Roe v. Wade.

Please come and spend one hour praying for the respect of all human life. If you are unable to come every week, please consider biweekly or once a month.

May God give us all the courage to stand up for His children and end the killing of innocent Life.

ST. HUGO
ST. VINCENT DEPAUL
RECRUITMENT LETTER

Winter is the time of year we endure longer hours of darkness and fewer of daylight. The lack of sunlight resembles the lack of hope in families struggling financially. Those who are worried and burdened often feel alone in their troubles. But just as our Lord's birth brought light and hope to the world, we are blessed to offer hope through the work of the St Vincent de Paul Society. The St. Hugo of the Hills Conference works year-round to be a light in dark times by offering food, clothing, counsel, and hope to those in need.

In our mission to serve the poor, we grow in spirituality and friendship. Members of the Society see Christ in the face of the poor and come to know Christ more clearly in acting out his Gospel. Vincentian work is a vocation, a part of our daily lives. Our members dwell on those who struggle alone or those who struggle to care for their families.

Are you being called to greater spiritually? Has the new year inspired you to step outside yourself to assist others? Your faith set in motion will shape you and those who see you as a role model. If you are curious, come and learn about the Vincentian mission. We will hold an informational meeting in February in the St. Hugo Parish Hall pending safe return to in-person meetings, or by Zoom if in-person meetings are not approved.

If you'd like to know more before then, please contact us at 248.283.2204 or svdpsthugo@yahoo.com.

SINGLE CATHOLIC WOMEN INVITED TO 'ZOOM AND SEE'
LIFE AS AN ADRIAN DOMINICAN SISTER

Are you a single Catholic woman, age 19-35, who is searching for God's purpose in your life – or do you know a woman who is? The new year brings you a special opportunity to discern God's call. Adrian Dominican Sisters are hosting a "Zoom and See" weekend, Friday and Saturday, January 21-22, 2022.

The virtual event offers opportunities to meet other women discerning God's call; take time for prayer, reflection, silence, sharing, and fun; and to learn about the life of a Sister and the Dominican life.

The weekend is free. You are our guests. Register online at <https://tinyurl.com/ADSDiscern>. For information, email Sister Katherine Frazier, OP, Vocation Co-director, at kfrazier@adriandominicans.org or call or text 260-229-3045.

The Dominican Sisters of Adrian, a Congregation of about 460 vowed women religious and more than 200 Associates, traces its roots back to St. Dominic in the 13th century. The Sisters minister in 22 states and in the Dominican Republic, Norway, and the Philippines. The Congregation's Vision is to "seek truth, make peace, reverence life."

ADULT CATHOLICS: DO YOU NEED TO RECEIVE THE SACRAMENT OF CONFIRMATION?

by Sr. Barbara Rund, OP

Three times a year (fall, winter, spring), Confirmation preparation sessions are offered to prepare adults for the Celebration of Confirmation.

Confirmation may be received at different times throughout the year: first, at the parish celebration at St. Hugo of the Hills Church on Saturday, January 29, 2022, at 11 AM Mass or second, at the Cathedral of the Most Blessed Sacrament on Pentecost Sunday, June 5, 2022, at 11 AM Mass. The Archdiocese of Detroit does recommend for adults to participate in their parish celebration. When this is not possible, adults are invited to participate in the Cathedral's Confirmation ceremonies.

What do you need to do?

It is a simple three step process.

First Step: You need to have been baptized and received Communion in the Catholic Church. If not, you need to register for the RCIA process.

Second Step: Candidates for Confirmation are asked to complete the three sessions before the reception of the Sacrament of Confirmation.

Winter Adult Confirmation Preparation for January 29, 2022, at St. Hugo of the Hills

Session 1 = Sunday, Jan. 9, 8:30-9:30 AM
 Session 2 = Sunday, Jan. 16, 8:30-9:30 AM
 Session 3 = Sunday, Jan. 23, 8:30-9:30 AM

Spring Adult Confirmation Preparation for June 5, 2022, at the Cathedral

Session 1 = Sunday, May 8, 8:30-9:30 AM
 Session 2 = Sunday, May 15, 8:30-9:30 AM
 Session 3 = Sunday, May 22, 8:30-9:30 AM

Please bring to the first session a recent copy of your Baptismal Certificate with notations. We ask that you contact the church of your Baptism and request a "new" Baptismal Certificate with notations (issued within the last 6 months). You will need to choose a Confirmation Sponsor: a sponsor must be over 16 years of age; be a practicing Catholic who has received the Sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation and Eucharist; and not be the father or mother of the one to be confirmed (cf. CCC 874). Canon Law states: "It is desirable that the one who undertook the role of sponsor at baptism be sponsor for confirmation" (CCC 893).

Third Step: You need to attend the Confirmation preparation sessions which are held in-person on Sunday mornings in the office conference room, from 8:30-9:30 AM.

Register today for Confirmation or the RCIA process by contacting Sr. Barbara Rund by email barbara.rund@sthugo.org or phone 248-644-5460.

ST. HUGO SCHOOL NEWS

Dear Families of St. Hugo,

As we inch closer to 2022, we are eager for a new year with opportunities to become Stronger As One in our continued pursuit of the safest and most exemplary educational environment for our children.

St. Hugo of the Hills School officially invites you to our 2022 Auction, "COME TOGETHER", on our updated date, Friday, April 1, 2022 at Wabeek Country Club. This will be an evening full of fun, connection and fundraising for St. Hugo families past and present!

Our fundraising efforts for the 2022 Auction will focus on safety, technology, and completion of the library renovation. For both safety and technology, our school is in need of infrastructure updates and enhancements that will allow for modernized equipment. Additional funds are needed to complete the library renovation in order to meet the school's requests for designated learning spaces and specific technologies.

'Come Together' to attain our goal of making St. Hugo the absolute best school for our children! The initial corporate and family sponsorships are listed below. Expect to see more sponsorship options and specifics in the new year.

Helping You Find Peace, Power, and Passion After Your Divorce

Surviving Divorce was created to bring hope and healing to those who have experienced the pain and loneliness of a broken marriage. It is for the newly separated and divorced and those still struggling with issues many years later. It will help them find answers to their questions, restore hope, and begin authentic healing. Developed and hosted by Rose Sweet, Surviving Divorce features experts Dr. Ray Guarendi, Ph.D., Fr. Donald Calloway, M.I.C., Fr. Steve Porter, S.T.L., Fr. Mitch Pacwa, S.J., and Christopher West. It also includes personal testimonies of Catholic men and women who have experienced the breakdown of their families. They courageously share their stories with heart, humor, and wisdom. As they witness to their pain and the healing power of Christ in their lives, participants will laugh, cry, and identify with their journeys from heartache to healing.

For Men and Women Seeking Healing from Divorce

Surviving Divorce will help you:

- Work through the emotional upheaval of separation and divorce.
- Find personal healing and hope.
- Discover a deeper understanding of God's love for you.
- Gain wisdom and comfort from experts and others who share your experiences.
- Navigate new concerns like custody, court hearings, and finances.
