December 10th Lessons & Carols 3 pm in Church

Come and join us for a relaxing and reflective service of readings, music and prayer. Our Festival of Lessons and Carols gives us a chance to slow down a bit and enjoy the preparation for the Birth of Our Lord. We reflect on the scripture that tells us the story leading up to the birth of Jesus, interspersed with hymns and music to help celebrate this joyous time of year. Our service will be on Sunday, December 10th at 3pm. Bring the entire family and join in this wonderful gathering of scripture and music.

Eucharistic Adoration

Mother of Divine Love Family is offering the opportunity to encounter Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament through Eucharistic Adoration. To encounter Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament is a life-changing event that enables us to truly love our neighbor as He loves us; with a self-giving love.

To adore means to worship. To be able to sit in the quiet, close to Jesus in the Sacred Host gives us the opportunity to open our hearts to His heart, to listen to His voice in the same whisper that Elijah heard on Mt. Horeb.

On December 18/19 at St. Genevieve-St. Maurice the invitation is open to all. The parish will have a 24 hour adoration—beginning on December 18th at 7 pm to December 19th at 7 pm followed by Mass. This will be the final opportunity this year.

Advent Penance Service—Mother of Divine Love Family

St. Genevieve/Maurice parish will be hosting our Advent Penance Service on Wednesday, December 20th at 7 pm. As always, Father will have many priests on hand to hear confessions.

Giving Tree

Please be sure all Giving Tree donations are returned today by 1 p.m. Thank you for your generosity.

From Faith Formation

Jubilation to Share

Sometimes you have something to share with people that causes you to well up inside with excitement to the point of going crazy. A pregnancy test, a pay raise, a college acceptance, a wedding or engagement are all examples of moments in life when we might be bursting at the seams to tell somebody the good news. When we finally get the chance to tell somebody, joy just seems to flow through us with ease. We literally want the entire world to share in our jubilation.

When was the last time you shared with a friend or loved one how much your faith in Jesus means to you? You don't feel the same motivation to share? Are you not overwhelmed with a desire to spread the Good News?

Don't feel bad. You are not alone. As Christians, we often fail to grasp the powerful implications of being a disciple of Jesus Christ. We can become complacent and lose sight of what matters the most. That is when sharing with others about our faith seems uncomfortable.

Faith is a gift. As everyday stewards we are called to share with others what God has given us. Advent is a great time to grow in our faith and love of the Lord. The more we cultivate our faith and the closer we draw to Him, the more we will want to share about Him. We might not have the impact of John the Baptist in the course of human history, but our proclamation of the Gospel to another might be the gift that changes their history.

Giving Tree

Thank you to everyone who has returned their gifts for the Giving Tree. Gifts are due back today, Sunday December 10th at 1:00 pm.

Questions of the Week

First Reading: The prophet Isaiah offers comfort and hope to the Israelites who were captive in Babylon in proclaiming that the glory of the Lord is returning to Israel. Do you have family or friends who could use words of encouragement from you?

Second Reading: Peter speaks of being at peace while we wait for the promise of new heavens and a new earth when Christ returns. What gives you peace of mind these days?

Gospel:

Fulfilling the prophecies of Isaiah, John the Baptist proclaimed the arrival of Jesus, "one mightier than I...(who) will baptize you with the Holy Spirit." Where do you sense the Holy Spirit present in your life? ©LPI

Faith Formation Nativity Play

Fun Facts

There are many miraculous properties of the tilma of Our Lady of Guadalupe that cannot be explained by modern science. For example, several images can be seen reflected in the eyes of the Virgin. It is believed to be the images of Juan Diego, Bishop Juan de Zummaraga, Juan Gonzales-the interpreter and others.

Family Challenge

Say a Hail Mary prayer each day this week to honor Mary.

Family Fun

Meet Our Extended Family*St. Lucy Feast Day*Feast Day—December 13th

We do not know much about the life of St. Lucy as it has been lost to history. However, from the earliest time of the Church, her name has been held in high regard. She, like St. Cecilia, dedicated her entire life to God from an early age. She lived during a time of great persecution and was eventually killed for her faith. We know she was tortured during her execution by having her eyes plucked out. When she is depicted in art, she is shown holding her eyes on a platter as a sign of what she suffered for Christ. Martyrs are often depicted showing some aspect of the death they endured as a reminder that what was painful in this life, when endured for the love of Jesus, is transformed into victory and God's glory in heaven.

John the Baptist appeared in the desert proclaiming a baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of sins. John was clothed in camel's hair, with a leather belt around his waist. He fed on locusts and wild honey. And this is what he proclaimed: "One mightier than I is coming after me." - Mk 1:4, 6-7a

2nd Sunday of Advent

We like to think we are totally free, but the bitter truth is we simply are not. Or better put, our freedom is limited on every side — by governments, corporate giants, physical and mental frailties, genetic shortcomings, and even the boundaries of time and space, and above all, the burden of our sins and pending deaths. In our day, we are perhaps particularly aware that we are not free to disconnect from the technocratic rulers of the air. If you doubt me, try not paying your internet bill and see what happens. We are not totally free.

It's nothing new, of course. In Jesus' day, everyone felt the crushing weight of the Roman Empire. You can say you're free all you want. But try not paying your taxes to Rome and see what happens.

Once we feel this burden in our own lives — however it comes — we are ready to hear the stunning announcement that commences Mark's gospel, "The beginning of the Gospel of Jesus Christ, the Son of God." It's not a simple perfunctory introduction, but a dramatic announcement of new freedom. The word "gospel" was a political, even military, term. It meant: a great victory has been won and a new king is in charge. This Jesus — not the Roman emperor — is God's son, and he has defeated all that crushes human freedom. It's time to follow him and be truly free. This week let's refuse to submit our freedom to false rulers — especially that of sin. And let's rejoice that Christ is coming to make us perfectly free from all our oppressors.
