Pastor's Ponderings. Greetings and the Father's Blessing be upon you, my dear spiritual children.

Reminder: August 30th is the third "family gathering," which will actually be the Mass of Installation for the Family-Pastors of Saint Christopher, Holy Trinity and Saint Edward under the Pastor-Moderator of Saint Mary's in Port Huron in the presence of his Excellency, Bishop Robert J. Fisher, Regional Moderator of the Northeast Region of the Archdiocese of Detroit, formally, canonically and officially to the Blue Water Vicariate Family 3. A meal will follow this Mass of Installation. The location where the Mass and meal are to occur will be at Holy Trinity (Saint Stephen's site). If you are available, then please make plans to join us! For those from our parish who are helping with this endeavor's planning and execution, thank you so very much for representing our Parish Family in our extended family of the Blue Water Vicariate Family 3.

Reminder: Making a return to Saint Christopher's Parish is Christ Renews His Parish (CRHP), which is now called Welcome (a slightly modified evangelization program brought to us from Dynamic Catholic, Matthew Kelly's organization). Before my arrival as your Pastor, Saint Christopher Parish held several retreats for the sake of evangelization, which led to the further establishment and continuation of the Small Church Communities within our parish (and the only place in our Archdiocese) that strengthened many people in their faith and increased their zeal as they prepared for the Sunday Eucharist by personally reflecting upon the upcoming Sunday readings. For several years, we have discussed another round of "Chirp Retreats," as they've commonly been referred to, and now it has finally come to fruition. Men's and women's retreat teams have been formed who have been working to plan retreats for the Fall in hopes of reenergizing our parish. There will be a men's retreat and a women's retreat. The men's retreat is scheduled for October 9-10, 2021; and the women's retreat is scheduled for November 6-7, 2021. For more information on the men's retreat or on the women's retreat you may contact the parish office at 810-364-4100.

Catechism of the Catholic Church Preface for this Weekend's Readings to Ponder. "As bodily nourishment restores lost strength, so the Eucharist strengthens our charity, which tends to be weakened in daily life; and this living charity wipes away venial sins. By giving himself to us Christ revives our love and enables us to break our disordered attachments to creatures and root ourselves in him: 'Since Christ died for us out of love, when we celebrate the memorial of his death at the moment of sacrifice we ask that love may be granted to us by the coming of the Holy Spirit. We humbly pray that in the strength of this love by which Christ willed to die for us, we, by receiving the gift of the Holy Spirit, may be able to consider the world as crucified for us, and to be ourselves as crucified to the world....Having received the gift of love, let us die to sin and live for God'" (Catechism of the Catholic Church, paragraph 1394).

One of the beauties of the Catholic Catechism is that it is packed full of reflective knowledge that inspires the soul to appreciate a tiny sample of the myriad of blessings an All-Powerful God has bestowed on us, His children, whose greatest attribute is love. Like the paragraph quoted above, the Eucharist strengthens our charity (love), which tends to be weakened in daily life. Does not that single sentence make so simply clear to us our need to receive the Holy Eucharist as often as possible? If love matters to you, then it does. For our love is weakened in daily life. Human persons act for love, or what they believe love is or what they happen to love. Love remains our primary motivation for our lives in all that we do – and it gets weak just by living our lives – but it can get stronger too by receiving the Holy Eucharist in a state of grace. Now how awesome is that? We can eat Love – the very living, breathing, beating Sacred Heart of Jesus Christ, the Son of God – and grow in love, grow in charity. The love that we receive from the Eucharist empowers and enables us to break our disordered attachments to creatures and root ourselves in Jesus Christ Himself. If we are rooted in Him who is Love, then we shall be like Him who is Love. Praise be to Jesus Christ! Now and forever! Amen.

*May we love our Lord Jesus Christ, and one another,
Fr. James*

Jesus has grandparents!

The idea that Jesus has grandparents didn't dawn on me until I was an adult. At first it was a foreign concept to wrap my mind around. I knew that God chose Mary and Joseph to be his parents during his earthly life, but I never really thought about the generation that preceded them.

I wonder if Jesus' grandparents let him get away with things like eating sweets before supper or staying up late at night. Did they have little crafts or wooden creations he made displayed in their home? What kind of things would they talk about with him? I know that grandparents can sometimes think their grandchildren can do no wrong, but with Jesus, that was actually the case!

We just celebrated the Feast of Saints Joachim and Anne last week on July 26. These are the parents of the Blessed Virgin Mary and Jesus' grandparents. They are not mentioned by name in the Gospels, but ancient tradition has revealed their names to us. It was their love and faith that prepared their daughter, Mary, to say yes to the angel Gabriel when he asked if she would bear the Son of God.

Grandparents are so important. Many times they influence the lives of their older grandchildren more than parents do. They are a gift from God that connects us to the past. Our beloved elderly (whether or not they are grandparents) have much wisdom and life experience to offer. They have stories to share, lessons they've learned and advice to give. But do we actually take the time to seek out this wisdom and listen to their stories?

So many older people have felt left behind these past couple years amid quarantine, social distancing, and visitors not allowed. I would like to offer two suggestions to ponder and pray about.

#1 - If you have grandparents who are still alive, reach out to spend time with them. If they live a distance away, call them on the phone, mail them pictures made by their grandchildren, or plan a trip to see them in person. If they live nearby, invite them to their grandchildren's activities or have them over for dinner.

#2 - I recently read this simple opportunity to volunteer that put a smile on my face from Volunteer Match.org

"Volunteer in Richmond [Michigan] to bring a smile to a senior. Spend time with a patient, holding their hand, reading to them, singing to them, playing board games or just "being there". Be prepared to come away feeling good about yourself. Spend as little as one hour a week relieving someone's loneliness or making someone laugh or smile. Take them outside for fresh air. Give them an opportunity to reminisce or tell their stories. Volunteer hours are flexible to work around your schedules."

<https://www.volunteermatch.org/search/opp2665978.jsp>

It's not complicated. We don't need special education or qualifications. We just need to have time and a heart for people who are hurting.

Our beloved elderly are waiting for people to be with them. We need not look any further than our own community, parish, neighborhood, and family to find people who are in need of human interaction. Who is someone in your life that you can reach out to show that you care? Remember that these are the people who raised us and our loved ones, fought in wars for our freedom, and cared for the generation that preceded them as they aged. Let's learn from their example and be Christ's hands and feet (and listening ears) for them.

Joyfully in Christ,

Musical Musings

August is here already! It is in this month that we celebrate the great Solemnity of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary. In the Eastern Churches, both Orthodox and Catholic, there is a fast leading up to the Assumption from August 1 to August 14th. Keeping this fasting period helps mark with more joy and celebration the great Solemnity of the Assumption, and the period of joyful feasting lasts the remainder of the month. It is also traditional in both the East and the West to have flowers and herbs blessed on this day.

This year, this great Solemnity falls on a Sunday (August 15) and takes precedence over a Sunday in ordinary time. So instead of the readings being for the Twentieth Sunday in Ordinary Time they will relate to the Assumption.

The Gospel account for the Assumption is of the visitation of Our Lady to her kinswoman Elizabeth. It is at this beautiful scene that our Lady sings her Magnificat. Recently, I was introduced to a new musical setting of the Magnificat. This particular musical setting is antiphonal, in that the first line is repeated in between the verses: Magnificat, anima me Dominum, which means, “My soul magnifies the Lord.”

I’ll be teaching my choirs this new piece in time for the Solemnity of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin, and am printing the response part here, so that you might have a chance to look at it ahead of time and sing it with the choir at Mass.

Mag-ni-fi - cat, Mag-ni-fi - cat A - ni - ma me - a Do - mi - num.

With Our Lady, may our souls magnify the Lord, and may our spirits rejoice in God our Savior.
