IN ORDINARY TIME

He said to them in reply, "What did Moses command you?" They replied, "Moses permitted a husband to write a bill of divorce and dismiss her." But Jesus told them, "Because of the hardness of your hearts he wrote you this commandment. But from the beginning of creation, God made them male and female." - Mk 10:3-6

Pastor's Ponderings. Greetings and the Father's Blessing be upon you, my dear spiritual children. Your Pastor ponders many things often. The conundrum of the day is "what will our music program look like going forward after our Pastoral Musician's resignation?" Well, I'm not entirely sure, but I have an idea or two. First, we will no longer have music at the weekday "feria" Masses during the week unless there is Solemnity, Feast or Holy Day of Obligation.

Secondly, suffice it to say that your Pastor's most prominent pondering these days and weeks has been and continues to be "how to manage a Liturgical Musician's music program and cantors' schedule without a regular staff person to delegate these tasks to." The market for liturgical musicians in our area is very thin, and so we are seeking assistance from several substitutes quite a distance away. As there is no regular staff person to delegate these tasks to, then we will attempt to take on this task to maintain some semblance of a meaningful liturgical music program. So far, here are a few ideas (effective October 3, 2021), and I will need your help, so keep reading please:

1. Liturgical Musicians: Beginning today – this Sunday – I introduce to you one of our regular contracted substitute Liturgical Musicians, Dean DeMartin. I am sure you will welcome him. Dean will lead us in song from time to time and will likely be a popular face you will see at the organ and piano. Therese Oldani helped us out last weekend; you may see more of her too. Therese has helped us before when we were in a bind earlier on as well. You may remember her. Other contracted musicians will be covering Masses as well, and I hope to introduce them to you as they fill in. This method of multiple musicians will actually make up my general plan to musically assist the many Masses we celebrate. My plan is to have a group of contracted liturgical musicians for quite some time until I can figure out who will be the best fit for a more permanent or semi-permanent job position to serve our parish needs the best – this could be one, two or even three or more persons – at this point it's anyone's guess. We will just have to wait and see how God reveals His plans for us!
2. Mass Setting: For the Mass Setting itself, we are returning to the Mass of Christ the Savior beginning today. The Mass Setting of Christ the Savior begins with number 47 in your blue Glory and Praise hymnal, 3rd edition. Note that the Gloria is number 49, something with which most of you will be familiar.
 A second Mass setting that is very popular in the Blue Water Vicariate seems to be the Heritage Mass, which begins at number 68. Perhaps, in some (long way off) time in the future, I may wish to try this Mass Setting out on us for the sake of moving to a Vicariate-wide commonality; but let's not think about that right now.
3. Cantors and Singers: Where are you? I know you are there because I can hear you singing at the Mass. We need you! If you're singing at the Mass, and you have a pleasant voice, then why not sing in front of a microphone? Please pray about it, then when Jesus tells you to try it out, contact Shelley or Amber at the main office number, extension 201 (Shelley) or 205 (Amber).
 In addition, we will be adding a couple of columns to our "Liturgical Schedules" – both the internal one circulated for planning purposes and the one you will see in the Bulletin that shows the "whose who?" of liturgical minister volunteers. We will add a column for "cantor/singer" and a column for "liturgical musician.” In the meantime, I am asking for all current volunteer cantors and singers to contact Shelley or Amber and provide your contact information so that we can begin to put a cantors’ schedule together.

4. Recruiting Musicians: I am also asking for anyone with proficient keyboard skills to contact me in the event they may be able to be a substitute as a liturgical musician, even if only for certain days or times. I am hoping that we can get a few musicians to commit to some sort of regularity, even if that means a particular Mass weekly, or all three Sunday Masses once or twice a month, or whatever – use your imagination – pick your schedule. All interested keyboardists should call me and send in a resumé as soon as possible. You can reach me at the general number, 810-364-4100, extension 208.
5. A Note on Educational Requirements for Liturgical Musicians: With regard to Liturgical Musicianship educational requirements, earlier, in last weekend’s bulletin, I mentioned a degree is required; but even now, with a very wide search underway, I am going to have to change that to “degree preferred or equivalent experience level” required. In other words, let’s hear how you play for me and then I’ll decide. Given the fact that the search underway for almost month now has clearly shown once again the sparse talent for this particular area of keyboard skills and knowledge of Catholic Liturgy, there is a need to change the educational requirements for the position from “degree required” to “degree preferred or equivalent experience level required” since there are many qualified candidates who have equivalent years of experience that enable them to perform as if they were degreed educated. We need you too. Please pray on it, then when Jesus tells you to call me, do it. Let’s talk.

Catechism of the Catholic Church Preface for this Weekend’s Readings to Ponder. “The love of the spouses requires, of its very nature, the unity and indissolubility of the spouses’ community of persons, which embraces their entire life: ‘so they are no longer two, but one flesh.’ They ‘are called to grow continually in their communion through day-to-day fidelity to their marriage promise of total mutual self-giving.’ This human communion is confirmed, purified, and completed by communion in Jesus Christ, given through the sacrament of Matrimony. It is deepened by lives of the common faith and by the Eucharist received together” (Catechism of the Catholic Church, paragraph 1644).

Happy Respect Life Sunday!

Fr. James

*“Don’t let anyone think less of you because you are young.
Be an example to all believers in what you say, in the way you live, in your love, your faith, and your purity.”*

The Rosary: It’s Not Just for Grandma Anymore!

Mention the Rosary and many people have a mental image of an elderly person in church, usually a woman, with worn hands clenching the Rosary beads as her gray-haired head is bent silently in reverence. Is this an accurate image? Of course! But there are many other images that are accurate, such as a family gathered together in the living room before bed or a group of teenagers surrounding a bonfire praying the Rosary out loud together. Perhaps it’s a young married couple praying the Rosary before they rush off to their jobs or a seasoned priest (or Pope!) who ends each of his days with this prayer. The images are as varied as the people who pray.

Although we are encouraged to pray the Rosary during the entire year, in the month of October, the Church emphasizes this devotion. By turning the spotlight on the Rosary for a whole month, many will discover, or rediscover, the joy and graces that flow from this prayer. During the Rosary we not only honor Mary but we ask her to pray for us as we meditate on the mysteries of her beloved son, Jesus’ life. Since Mary, our Mother, wants nothing more than to carry each of us closer to her Son, it truly is a perfect prayer!

In this week’s article I wanted to share some ideas that I have found both online and from friends that can help both individuals and groups incorporate the Rosary into their daily lives.

Pray a Candle Rosary - Using pillar candles for Our Fathers and votive candles for Hail Marys, light the candles as you move through the Rosary. In the end, you will have a beautiful light display of your prayers.

Road Trips - Use the time in your car in a positive way and pray the Rosary. Whether it is only a decade for those short trips or a complete Rosary for the longer times it is a wonderful way to keep “road rage” to a minimum since you will be driving with Jesus and Mary right there with you!

Tell the Story - If you are praying with children invite them before each decade to take turns and explain the mystery that you are about to pray. It helps everyone ponder and pray the mysteries, not just say the words.

Choose Intentions - Before each decade ask yourself who you would like to pray for at that time. It helps to unite you with the bigger picture of God’s people.

Spread it Out - Pray the 1st decade after breakfast, the 2nd decade before lunch, the 3rd decade in the afternoon, the 4th decade before dinner, and the 5th decade before bedtime.

Rosary Walk - Praying as you enjoy the beauty of God’s creation is a wonderful way to exercise both your body and soul.

Bedtime Rosary - Quietly praying through the mysteries is the perfect way to end your day and set your heart and mind for a peaceful night’s sleep.

The Blessed Archbishop Fulton Sheen once said, “The Rosary is the best therapy for these distraught, unhappy, fearful, and frustrated souls, precisely because it involves the simultaneous use of three powers: the physical, the vocal, and the spiritual, and in that order.” I have to agree with him since I have found that the combination of the physical (touching the beads or my “rosary ring”) while being vocal (using my voice) helps my spirit settle into the meditation. The Rosary can be perfect for children for exactly that reason: it allows them to use both their bodies and their voices reverently rather than being required to sit perfectly still and quiet.

If you’re unsure about how to pray the Rosary we are blessed to have many resources out there including articles, books, apps and videos that can help us learn. If you’d like some suggestions, please give me a call and I’ll be happy to help. One of the best ways is to keep your eyes and ears open for someone who has made this devotion an essential part of their prayer life and ask them. Actually, this may be the perfect time to give Grandma a call after all!

God’s peace and joy to you,

Sign & Social Open House

Last weekend's bonfire was a smash! We had great weather (thank you Jesus!) and an amazing turnout of young people (again thank you!) to get to know each other, play games, roast hot dogs & s'mores, and enter into prayer together. It was so good to see familiar faces that are returning as well as new faces that we welcomed. We look forward to see you all throughout the year!

Our annual Sign & Social Open House is Sunday, October 3 @ 7-8pm in the Social Hall. This is a great place to be introduced to QUEST (high school formation) through individual conversation. Teens & adults will share their experiences with those who attend and answer any questions. Stations will be set up around the Social Hall including:

1. Welcome & layout of the room
2. New-to-QUEST
3. Registration
4. Fall activities that need permission slip
5. Winter activities that need permission slip
6. Spring/Summer activities that need permission slip
7. Business (order optional t-shirt, adult volunteers details)
8. Turn everything in (registration form, permission slip, etc). There is a $10 registration fee per child.
9. Ice Cream Floats! Each teen will get to have an ice cream float in their free QUEST tumbler cup with lid. First come basis.

This is a great event to inquire, learn, talk & have questions answered for anything we have scheduled for QUEST this entire year. I encourage all high school teens and at least one parent each to attend.

As always, feel free to reach out to me beforehand with any questions.

Looking for a handy parishioner (or 2)!

Do you have a talent to construct things? Would you consider sharing it with the youth of our parish? If yes, could you possibly construct a "9-square-in-the-air" game for the youth of our parish to play throughout the year? We have borrowed this wildly popular game from neighboring parishes in the past, but would like to have one on-site for our use for both youth ministry and religious education.

Here are some online instructions on how to create one:

Right to Life of St. Clair County will hold its 23rd Annual Banquet Dinner on Thursday, October 14, 2021 at Alexander's Premiere Banquet Facility in Marysville, MI. The doors open at 5:30 with dinner and program following. This year's theme is "Focus on Life". Tickets are $18 for students and $40 per person other than students. Tables of 8 are $300. Tables for students are $144. We are looking for generous donors to donate tables so that high school and college aged youth can attend free of charge. There will be silent auctions, 50/50 drawing, great food and motivational speaker.

Trevor Pollo is this year's keynote speaker. Trevor is the Director of Training for Protect Life Michigan, our state's outreach to high school and college aged students. He has visited over 100 college campuses. He leads a statewide Stump the Pro-Lifer tour where he intentionally engages pro-choice advocates in constructive dialogue and defends the pro-life world view with a passionate, reasoned and scientific manner.

Please plan on bringing yourself and your friends to this dynamic and informative evening and help support Life in the Blue Water Area. For more information go to our Facebook page.
