RANDOM THOUGHTS

PENSAMIENTOS ALEATORIOS

From Fr Bill Promesso

We are Many Parts

Last weekend we heard that there are many different gifts given by the Spirit, but all are for some benefit. Today, St Paul presents us with the marvelous analogy of the body to describe the Church, the people of God, the community of believers. He does so to address the rivalries and natural competitiveness which had cropped up in Corinth. His words are timeless because the divisions then aren't much different from our own day. There are divisions within the Catholic Church with people taking sides on issues of liturgy, morality and social justice. There are political rivalries among us—red state, blue state, republicans, democrats, libertarians, moderates, centrists, progressives, conservatives. Some people look down on others for all sorts of reasons based on opinions or feelings which may or may not correspond to truth or facts. St Paul reminds us that no part of the body is better than another. Each is different yet each is necessary. None of us can rightly say “I don't need you” because we do need each other. We even need our differences. Yet those differences should lead to discussion, not dissention nor division. Whenever we encounter each other in respectful discussion and conversation we are exposed to different viewpoints and perspectives. This encourages us to pray and ponder. It is rare to encounter without change. That's the challenge St Paul presented to the Corinthians and us. When we recognize both the differences and the mutual importance of each member of the body, then we all grow in holiness. “In essentials, unity; in non-essentials, liberty; in all things, charity,”

Wedding Anniversaries

Look below for information on our annual celebration of wedding anniversaries on World Marriage Day, February 13. On the Sunday closest to Valentine's Day, we pause to honor the covenant and commitment of married couples. Most of them have faced the challenges of such a bond and have done so while recognizing that Christ is a co-partner with them.

SACRAMENTAL PREP FOR NON-TRADITIONAL AGE CHILDREN

Is your child currently enrolled in our Discipleship Formation program and wanting to prepare for First Reconciliation and/or First Eucharist but is a little older than the "traditional" age of celebration?

We are holding a special Parent & Child Evening of Retreat and Sacramental Prep specifically for children 5th grade and up who are currently enrolled in our program, on Thursday, February 24, 2022 at 5:30pm. Please sign up via this link if interested:

Questions? Call our office and/or email eduadmin2@ctredeemer.org

WEDDING ANNIVERSARIES

If you are celebrating a milestone anniversary in 2022 (starting at 15 years together and going up in five year increments), let's observe it together. Each year our parish honors your marriage covenant close to Valentine's Day and World Marriage Day. Join us at the 11am Mass on the February 13 and receive a special blessing.

If you would like to share a copy of your wedding photo you can drop it off in the parish office or email it to officemgr@ctredeemer.org or bring it with you that day and they will be displayed in the gathering area.

Call the parish office with your names and date of marriage by Monday, February 7 for inclusion in the Connection.

Global Giving (targeted to Madagascar Famine Fund)

Madagascar is facing the world's first famine caused solely by climate change. More than 1.1 million people are experiencing severe food insecurity. 30,000 people are experiencing life threatening conditions. Southern Madagascar is experiencing its worst drought in 40 years. A shrinking forest is adding fuel to the fire. Madagascar produces nearly zero global carbon emissions but is experiencing some of the worst impacts of global warming. For additional information, please contact:

<https://www.globalgiving.org/learn/how-to-help-madagascar-famine>

OPERATION COOKIE DROP

Each week, our cookie angels bake 2 dozen cookies and bring them to church Monday. Cookies are delivered to first responders and residents of Hope Warming Center. We are still in need of a few more bakers. If you can help call the office, 248-391-1621 and ask for Karen/Lisa or sign up at <https://bit.ly/3E2ytot>

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

Love in the Name of Christ is looking for a variety of volunteers as we begin the New Year. Volunteer needs include: receptionist and intake worker for the Clearinghouse weekdays, as well as volunteers to assist with clients at the Clothing Closet, Tuesdays from 12-3pm. There is no experience necessary, and training will be provided. If you are looking for meaningful ways to serve our neighbors in need or would like more information about volunteering, please call the Love INC Connection Center at 248-693-4357.

STRONG LANGUAGE

:dialogue around the meaning of the words we use when speaking of the mystery we call GOD

LONELINESS

Even if we come from strong families and have ample social bonds, we still have moments when we feel excluded, misunderstood and involuntarily cut off. The problem of loneliness, though intensified in the last couple years, is not unique to our age. Our continuous struggle to maintain family and community bonds amidst a global pandemic, our constant mobility, more automation and less human interaction in our day-to-day errands, and our pervasive modern media that presents unrealistic ideals of love and intimacy – all these cultural factors push us, as a society, into a new place of reckoning with our loneliness.

We all recognize from our own experience the destructive potential of loneliness, but, surprisingly, many of our tradition's greatest theologians see our universal human tendency towards loneliness also as a great opportunity for spiritual growth. Fr. Ron Rolheiser suggests in his well-researched book The Restless Heart that, spiritually speaking, loneliness itself is not necessarily an unhealthy emotion but rather something that we would be wise to give some special attention.

St. Thomas Aquinas defines human loneliness as our “innate thirst for oneness, with God, others and nature.” He bids us to look through the eyes of faith to see that our loneliness is our God-designed thirst for love and community, our longing for right relationships and to be part of the intimate oneness of creation as God originally intended. From such a perspective, loneliness is a valuable and necessary force in our lives because it keeps us searching and will not let us comfortably isolate or settle for the things that are fleeting and will never truly gratify.

So, on our better days, our loneliness is, in a sense, God's imprint in us, constantly telling us where we should be going; towards love, pulling us out of our protective shells to build the relationships that form the backbone of the kingdom that Jesus preached. Our challenge is to respond to our thirst and discomfort not with bitterness or hardness of heart, but rather with an openness and acceptance to where God is leading us in our sometimes painful longing and loneliness.

Engagement at Christ the Redeemer Thoughts from Drew Peters

“Rolling up the scroll, he handed it back to the attendant and sat down, and the eyes of all in the synagogue looked intently at him. He said to them, “Today this scripture passage is fulfilled in your hearing.”

What does it take to hear, to really listen? These days with so much coming at us with so much competing for our attention it is increasingly more difficult to listen. In the cacophony of messages it takes even more to listen, to hear and understand what people are saying. If we slow down to truly listen we can be more attentive to what is in front of us. The key is often, to what do you listen and what do you hear? Is it hope or despair, joy or sorrow? Love or sin? Perhaps it a combination of all that and everything in between but whatever it is the question becomes how open are you to what you are hearing? In the Gospel today the fulfillment of the scripture is happening for those who are hearing it. The Word Made Flesh, Jesus, is sharing with the people that the hope and promise spelled out from Isaiah, glad tidings to the poor, liberty to captives, recovery of sight to the blind, freedom to those oppressed, is now fulfilled and the kingdom is at hand. It is a message of hope and mercy and it has an echo of Mary’s Magnificat. There in the Nazareth synagogue God is being revealed. Jesus is establishing for the people in Galilee and for us as well, that God is truly with us in the human experience. God is with us when we fulfill our baptismal call, live out our faith and with God bring about these promises of hope, life and love. It’s not enough to hear it, but as James urges, to be doers of the word. As we will hear this isn’t easy for the Nazoreans and so too for us. It becomes a question of whether we believe in what we hear and really desire what Jesus desires, God’s love and mercy for all people. The challenge is how open are you to hear and then respond with a heart and mind tied to God.

A THOUGHT ON EVANGELIZATION

“Every Christian is challenged, here and now, to be actively engaged in evangelization; indeed, anyone who has truly experienced God’s saving love does not need much time or lengthy training to go out and proclaim that love. Every Christian is a missionary to the extent that he or she has encountered the love of God in Christ Jesus ...each of us should find ways to communicate Jesus wherever we are. All of us are called to offer others an explicit witness to the saving love of the Lord, who despite our imperfections offers us his closeness, his word and his strength, and gives meaning to our lives. In your heart you know that it is not the same to live without him; what you have come to realize, what has helped you to live and given you hope, is what you also need to communicate to others.”

Evangelii Gaudium- [120-121] - Pope Francis 2013.

IN 2015 HOPE OPENED THE RECUPERATIVE CENTER

HOPE Recuperative Center is the only place in southeast Michigan where homeless individuals can receive proper post hospital care until they recover their strength. This specialty shelter offers up to 15 guests a safe and supportive environment, as well as meals, oversight of their medical treatment, follow-up care, connection with community mental health programs, legal clinic, helping people secure vital identity documents and connection with housing options.

HOPE nurses help our guests to have continuity of care to through their presence at Recuperative. The nurses help to reduce hospital readmissions through patient education, advocacy, and medication management. Some of the Not Your Ordinary Food tags this month ask for over the counter medical items such as Tylenol, ibuprofen, protein drinks, Gatorade, melatonin, cough syrup and drops.

Please return all items on or before the weekend of January 29/30.

MEALS FOR HOPE

Due to the rise in COVID numbers, the center still is not allowing volunteers in the center and instead is asking for prepared meals ready to hand out to clients each evening. We will prepare carry out meals for the center Tuesday, Feb. 15 thru Saturday, Feb. 19. Food for the meals will be purchased from your generous tithing donations. We will have a sign up genius link available next weekend to sign up to help. We will need volunteers at different shifts between the hours of 3-6pm. We are looking for volunteers to:

- Prepare food at CTR
- Pack prepared food in eco friendly containers.
- Deliver the meals to Hope Warming Center and Hope Recuperative Center, both in Pontiac.

A few specifics:

We ask that you only sign up for one time slot until the 2nd week of February so more people are able to help with this project.

All volunteers preparing and packing food will be required to wear a mask and gloves.

We ask if you are not feeling well to please let us know and we will find another volunteer.

HOW SHOULD WE THINK ABOUT THE POOR?

From time to time, we as a church need to be reminded about our call to serve those in need. We say it all the time.... We are called through baptism to take care of the lowly, the widow, the forgotten, the sick, the lonely, and the poor.....but what does that really mean? Bishop Kenneth Untener, Bishop in Saginaw during the nineteen nineties, wrote about the poor and issued a decree throughout the diocese that every meeting and gathering, no matter what their purpose or agenda, must begin with, "How shall what we are doing here affect the Poor?"

As we begin a new year, after what has been a tumultuous and somewhat difficult year for many of us, let us re-evaluate and re-center our lives to be aware of both the blessings we have and how we may pay forward those blessings to those in most need in our communities. Over the next few weeks, we will publish some of Bishop Untener's reflections and observations learned from those gatherings.

5) Helping the poor is not always a pleasant experience.

It's no picnic helping the poor. There is often no feeling of fulfillment. It's work—like a lot of virtue is work—like taking care of an elderly parent is work.

The poor, as fate would have it, are just like us. They are mixtures of virtues and vices. Like us, they are not always grateful. Like us, they don't always trust. Like us, they don't always respond. Like us, they are both generous and greedy. Like us, they are sometimes wonderful and sometimes awful. Whatever happened to the noble poor? Some are out there, but mostly they are in Charles Dickens.

The "poor" poor are not always so noble, and they are the hardest to deal with - which is probably why we don't.

Mental note: When you help the poor, you always receive more than you give - but it may not seem that way at the time.
