Reflection: On the Divine Liturgy: Community of Love and Faith

The Great Entrance is followed by a rather long list of petitions. Then the liturgy moves on to the solemn confession of our faith. As a prelude to this confession, the priest or deacon addresses to the faithful a supreme exhortation to love: "Let us love one another, that with one mind and one heart we may confess..." And the choir continues: "The Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit: one in essence and undivided."

This moment is of the greatest importance, since these words that have just been spoken express the very nature of the Church. In a common love and by a common love the Church proclaims its faith in the ultimate community of love which is formed by the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit.

The Church itself is a community of love. As such, it declares itself to be as well a community of faith. Those who refuse to love others cannot worthily confess the love of the three divine Persons. I cannot say, "I believe in Love," if at the same moment I do not include in that divine love every man and every woman created in the image of God.

Epistle:

Their sound hath gone forth into all the earth. The heavens declare the glory of God. The Reading from the Epistle of St. Paul to the Hebrews. (13:7-16)

Gospel:

St. Luke. (19:1-10)

At that time, Jesus entered Jericho and was passing through. And there was a man named Zacchaeus; he was a chief tax collector, and rich. And he sought to see Who Jesus was, for it is well that the heart be strengthened by grace, not by foods, which have not benefited their adherents. We have an altar from which those who serve the tent have no right to eat. For the bodies of those animals whose blood is brought into the sanctuary by the high priest as a sacrifice for sin are burned outside the camp. So Jesus also suffered outside the gate in order to sanctify the people through His own blood. Therefore, let us go forth to Him outside the camp and bear the abuse He endured. For here we have no lasting city, but we seek the city, which is to come. Through Him then let us continually offer up a sacrifice of praise to God, that is, the fruit of lips that acknowledge His Name. Do not neglect to do good and to share what you have, for such sacrifices are pleasing to God.

but could not, on account of the crowd, because he was small of stature. So he ran on ahead and climbed up into a sycamore tree to see Jesus, for He was to pass that way. And when Jesus came to the place, He looked up and said to him, "Zacchaeus, make haste and come down; for I must stay at your house today." So he made haste and came down, and received Him joyfully. And when they saw it they all murmured, "He has gone in to be the guest of a man who is a sinner." And Zacchaeus stood and said to the Lord, "Behold, Lord, the half of my goods I give to the poor; and if I have defrauded anyone of anything, I restore it fourfold." And Jesus said to him, "Today salvation has come to this house, since he also is a son of Abraham; for the Son of man came to seek and to save the lost."
