
The Epiphany of the Lord January 3, 2021

For tax statement purposes please be sure that all 2020 offertory and donations are in by January 3, 2021. CSA gifts must be received by January 6 to be counted in the 2020 tax year, please go online to www.give.aod.org. Since we have met our goal all donations are returned to the parish at 100%.

The Parish Office will be closed Dec 24 until Monday, January 4, 2021.

Stewardship Thought

Today, in St. Matthew's Gospel, the evangelist retells the story of the Magi visiting the Christ-child, the newborn King. In this initial meeting, they are overwhelmed, and in response, venerate our Lord by prostrating themselves, face down. The Magi open their treasures and offer Jesus gold, frankincense, and myrrh. These gifts foreshadow Christ's royalty, divinity, and suffering. The Scripture passages from Isaiah and St. Paul further convey that the Good News of salvation is to be proclaimed to all people. Do we, as faithful stewards strive to follow the Magi's example of offering adoration, praise, and glory to God? Do we, in thanksgiving, embrace the Good News, deepening our personal relationship in Christ? Then, in turn, spread His joy, peace, and message of hope and salvation to all those we meet? To encounter Christ, plan to attend Alpha or a similar evangelization event offered at your parish.

The Epiphany of the Lord

"Where is that thing?" mumbled Bob as he searched frantically on his dimly lit desk for the current electric bill. "I know I put it right on top of these papers this morning!" Growing in frustration and bordering on anger, he flies stuff around, moves books and opines why simple tasks need to be so hard. Enter his wife, who calmly says, "Maybe it would help if you put the light on, dear." The desk light goes on and lo and behold, there is the electric bill right where Bob left it earlier. All it took was a little light!

We stubbornly refuse to turn on the lights! Either we are distracted, determined, disinterested, preoccupied, stubborn, apprehensive, or all of the above. Or perhaps, we fail to do the obvious. We would rather live our lives with the dimmest of lights or even in total darkness. Why are we afraid to do something so that we can actually see? It might help us to find quicker and better answers to problems, the meaning of life, relationships, happiness, and what is ultimate truth. Yet, we stumble along, moving things from one side to the other, getting angry, feeling cheated, being unsettled, resigning ourselves to the agony of defeat once again.

"And behold, the star that they had seen at its rising preceded them, until it came and stopped over the place where the child was." The light has come into the world in the person of Jesus Christ! We no longer have to fumble in the darkness. We have been gifted with the illumination we need to see our way through things and find what we really are looking for. All these years later, however, so many are still reluctant to accept him. Perhaps they are unconvinced, disinterested, preoccupied, stubborn, apprehensive, or all of the above. Everyone has their own reason for not wanting to turn on the switch.

But there are so many answers to so many of our problems in this humble Child of Nazareth. A simple birth teaches us about God's tender wedded relationship with humanity. It speaks to the expanse of God's salvation across the globe, and the incarnate Divine wonders and blessings that are a part of our life moment to moment. It calls us to understand the design of world order God intended as found in the Beatitudes, the sacredness of every human life and all of creation and the meaning of things we struggle with most, like suffering and death. We have a lot of Good News to share, not just with a privileged few but with all the world. All races and creeds can receive God's healing word. God continues to manifest himself even now! Use the light to find what you are really looking for!

Jesus Wants to be Invited into Your Home and Family

You and your family are invited to Enthrone the Sacred Heart of Jesus in your home after Holy Mass is celebrated on Sunday, January 17, 2021. When Jesus appeared to St. Margaret Mary Alacoque, He told her that He would bless the homes where an image of His Sacred Heart "shall be exposed and honored".

At St. Francis-St. Maximilian, you will stay after the 10:00AM Sunday, January 17 Holy Mass with Father Steve who will lead you and your family in a short ceremony (30 minutes) including where Father will bless the 8"X10" Sacred Heart of Jesus and Immaculate Heart of Mary image shown below and salt for your home.

Sponsored by The Men of the Sacred Hearts

What is the RCIA?

The RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults) is a journey for adults who are interested in learning about the Catholic faith and or becoming Catholic. RCIA weekly formation sessions offer the opportunity to study sacred scripture, discern the teachings of the Roman Catholic Church, and experience a personal encounter with Jesus Christ through prayer. RCIA is designed for those adults who are:

- In need of Baptism
- Baptized in another Christian tradition who desire to become Catholic
- Baptized Catholic, and in need of the reception of the sacraments of Eucharist and Confirmation
- RCIA formation sessions will begin soon, call the office 586.598.3314 or see Fr. Chris or Fr. Art.

Question: What is the difference between a chastisement and a punishment?

Answer:
The distinction between chastisement and punishment is, in many ways, a subtle one, but which is still relevant in our Catholic tradition.
First, chastisement is a concept that is grounded in Sacred Scripture. Here, we see chastisement as a response by God to people's actions that is intended to teach a lesson. As St. John Paul II observed, "chastisement appears to be … a kind of divine pedagogy, in which the last word is reserved to mercy: He scourges and then shows mercy, casts down to the depths of the nether world, and he brings up from the great abyss" (Tobit 13:2). The idea here is that in order to capture our attention or to highlight how we have not lived out our covenant-relationship with God as we should, there are times when God uses events in life to draw us back to the quality of relationship or faith that we should have.
The concept of punishment, however, has a different sense. The Catechism of the Church observes that punishment is the consequence of a damaging action that "has the primary aim of redressing the disorder" and to protect the community and the common good from further damage or harm (see no. 2266). Although we always hope that someone who is being punished for a crime or some other harmful action will learn from their actions, punishment isn't necessarily intended to teach a lesson in the same way that a chastisement is. Ultimately, how we make the distinction between chastisement and punishment is a matter of discernment. As with almost everything in life, our experiences can be an opportunity for grace — or for something less — depending on how open we are to recognizing the movement of God's Spirit within them.

Leading Others to Epiphany

By Joe Paprocki

Soon we will celebrate the wonderful Feast of the Epiphany, when Jesus is revealed to all the nations as the Son of God. This feast contains so many messages and images that are apropos for Parents and catechists. Here are a few.

The Magi do not travel alone.

Although they are from different locations, the Magi come together to seek the king. We catechists recognize the wisdom in this. We do not travel alone. We are part of a vast catechetical community that supports, nourishes, and challenges us.

The Magi observe signs.

The Magi are led to Jesus because they are observant of a sign—the star. We catechists are called to be observant of the many signs of God's presence in this world.

The Magi seek direction.

The Magi are not too proud to stop and ask for directions from others so that they can find the newborn king. As catechists, we are called to be constantly seeking direction through ongoing enrichment, looking to others to help us find Jesus in our lives.

The Magi offer gifts.

The gifts that the Magi offer are of great value. Of no less value are the gifts that we offer to our Lord. We offer our time and talent to serve him, and we offer our teaching abilities to bring others to him. In essence, we offer our very selves.

FAITH FORMATION

Jane Van Belle, DRE

The Magi departed by another way.

After encountering the newborn king, the lives of the Magi were forever changed. They followed a different way. We catechists are called to ongoing conversion, that we may continue to follow a different way—Jesus—who is the Way, the Truth, and the Life.

No doubt the Magi shared their epiphany with others.

Although Scripture does not tell us this, it is no great stretch to imagine that the Magi, who traveled so far at such great expense, shared the story of their epiphany with others. As catechists, we are called to share our own epiphanies with others—those times when God has been revealed to us—so that those we teach may be led to their own epiphanies of God, Emmanuel, who is truly with us.

La Epifanía del Señor

Hoy celebramos la universalidad del Señor, fiesta conocida como la Epifanía. Celebramos, también la luz de Cristo manifestada en una estrella que guiaba a los Magos de Oriente hasta llegar a su encuentro. "Al entrar en la casa vieron al niño con María su madre; se arrodillaron y le adoraron. Abrieron después sus cofres y le ofrecieron sus regalos de oro, incienso y mirra" (Mateo 2:11). Y, nosotros, ¿Qué podemos ofrecerte en este tiempo difícil que estamos pasando? Solo, nos resta decirte: ¡Señor, que tu estrella nos guie y nos ilumine a ser mejores personas, a integrarnos y ayudarnos en este tiempo tan duro que estamos pasando!
Las lecturas nos hablan cómo la luz, de diferentes maneras, nos orienta y marca el camino, que es Cristo. Jesús brilla en todas las personas de diferentes razas y estatus migratorio. El deseo de Jesús es esparcir su luz a toda persona, esa luz en otras palabras es su gracia, dada también en los Sacramentos. A pesar de todo lo que estamos viviendo actualmente, la invitación estriba en que el corazón palpite y desborde de alegría en el Señor. Muchas han sido nuestras experiencias en este tiempo de pandemia. Los momentos han sido difíciles, pero la luz de Cristo ha brillado de mil formas en medio de la oscuridad. Ni la oscuridad de la enfermedad, de perder a un ser querido, de la falta de trabajo, por mencionar algunos, ha matado la esperanza. Esa esperanza que nos hace ir más allá de nosotros mismos para dar ayuda a quien lo necesita. ¿Qué harás hoy para que la luz de Cristo ilumine la oscuridad de otros?

La Epifanía del Señor (Enero 2/3, 2021)

Hoy, en el Evangelio de San Mateo, el evangelista vuelve a contar la historia de los Magos visitando al Niño Dios, el rey recién nacido. En este encuentro inicial, se sienten abrumados, y en respuesta, veneran a nuestro Señor postrándose boca abajo. Los Magos abren sus tesoros y le ofrecen a Jesús oro, incienso y mirra. Estos dones presagian la realeza, la divinidad y el sufrimiento de Cristo. Los pasajes de la Escritura de Isaías y San Pablo difunden además que la Buena Nueva de la salvación debe ser proclamada a todo el pueblo. Nosotros, como corresponsables fieles, ¿nos esforzamos para seguir el ejemplo de los Magos de ofrecer adoración, alabanza y gloria a Dios? En agradecimiento, ¿acogemos la Buena Nueva, profundizando nuestra relación personal en Cristo? Después, a cambio, ¿propagamos Su alegría, paz y mensaje de paz y salvación con todos los que nos encontramos en el camino? Para encontrar a Cristo, hagan planes de asistir a un grupo de Alpha o un evento similar de evangelización ofrecido en sus parroquias.

If you have someone special in the military, please send their name into the office so we as a parish can pray for them. You can call the office 586.598.3314 or email www.stfrancisnh@comcast.net.
