Cost: $10
Location: Saint Juan Diego Parish, 7800 Woodmont, Detroit, MI, 48228

"I am the vine, you are the branches. Whoever remains in me and I in him will bear much fruit, because without me you can do nothing." John 15:5

All teens ages 13-18 are invited to participate in the 5th Hispanic Youth Conference of the Archdiocese of Detroit. Please register by August 6th, 2021 to participate. David Bisono will be our main speaker and for the second time we will be joined by TRIBEZA ministry. We hope to see you there! Visit aod.org/joveneshispanos to learn more and register.

Catholic Services Appeal 2021

Thank you to those of you who have already mailed your CSA pledge cards. We are asking all parishioners to join in contributing to this year's CSA appeal. If we all give, we will easily meet St. Francis-St. Maximilian's 2021 CSA target of $39,394. Any gifts we receive over our target will be returned to our parish in full. We plan to use our CSA refund to update and remodel the kitchen in the social hall. If, however, we do not meet his target, we will have to make up the shortfall from our general fund.

We ask you to prayerfully consider your CSA pledge, you may mail your completed pledge card in the pre-addressed envelope that was provided you. You may also pledge your gift to our parish's campaign online at www.givecsa.org.

Donation forms are also available in the gathering space or in the Parish Office.

*"Whatever you do, do from the heart"
(Colossians 3:23)*

Faith in Marriage

Question: What kind of religious practices should we begin, once we marry, to help us practice our faith each day?

Answer:

Your spiritual life as a couple is important. The sacrament of Marriage is a gift and a grace, but living it well isn't always easy! It requires intentionality and perseverance. Growing your spiritual life as a couple also requires a plan. Life can be incredibly busy. There's never "enough time" for everything we want to do. But we can live by our priorities. If we don't prioritize prayer, we'll find it slowly disappear from our lives.

If you're not already praying individually, that's a good place to start. If your schedules are similar, take some quiet time at the same time to help hold each other accountable. Praying together is also important! You could start by looking at the religious practices of your family and of families around you that you respect. Talk with your spouse about the ones who make the deepest impression on you or were most meaningful when you were young. Think about what you want your future children to experience. Making faith a commitment now will mean it is engrained habit when you grow your family. Ultimately, these faith practices should help us grow in our love for God and for one another.

Maybe the work is best left to the professionals. That's how many people view the preaching of the Gospel. That's the stuff priests, religious, deacons, lay ministers, and other professional Church people do. It has little to do with me. Well, that's not really true. The fact of the matter is that preaching the Gospel has everything to do with you, with all of us who are baptized members of the Body of Christ. Nobody gets off the hook from that job. The question is, however, how do we do it? Well, there's a safe way, which many choose, to preach the Gospel — and the risky way. The safe way pretty much keeps the Gospel in church and around like-minded people. I say my prayers, go to Mass, contribute to the food pantry, tithe, and attend Bible Study. That pretty much covers the bases, right? Wrong.

The risky way is the more challenging way and for many, the "road less traveled." Imagine those first disciples going out and into people's homes. They must have had some amazing conversations with folks about God's kingdom, changing their hearts, forgiving sins, and looking at the world differently. They must have met people who were hurting, exiled from their communities, neglected, lost, or living self-insulated lives in a society that served the rich and neglected the poor. While there were many who welcomed what they had to say and the conversations they had, there were others who no doubt rejected them and literally tossed them out on their ears! The Gospel, while being a message of joy and hope, is not always received well by those who are very comfortable keeping things as they are.

The risky way involves example and conversation. We have to take the Gospel from church and carry it with us wherever we go. What kinds of conversations do we have with others? We interact with those closest to us, in our work, social circles, institutions, corporations, in politics, and beyond. Our conversations with others reveal a great deal about how we see things and what we consider important. If we are really interested in seeing God's vision for the world succeed, then we will talk about it. It will become a part of our everyday conversation and find its way into our interactions with others. How will we preserve the dignity of human life and encourage others to have a relationship with God? We must be the example, live value centered, virtuous lives, stand against injustice, combating racism, and learn ways to resolve conflicts without violence.

If we are going to succeed going forward, we have to find a way to bring our prayer centered lives into the marketplace. Our conversations have to change. Not everyone wants to hear what the Gospel has to say. That's a risk God asks us to take. ©LPi

What We Carry from Town to Town

In my experience, there are two kinds of people: the folks who kick off their shoes the second they walk through the door, and the ones who don't.

People can feel strongly about this on both sides. The main thrust of the Shoes-Off Brigade seems to be this: we track a lot of weird stuff on the soles of our feet. Little reminders of all the places we've been — whether it's a private home or a public bathroom — cling to our shoes long after we leave.

This same theory applies to our spiritual lives. As human beings and as disciples, we visit a lot of figurative towns and pick up a lot of figurative dust. Sinfulness. Shame. Defeat. Anger. Fear. Doubt. No matter how hard we try to keep free of it, these things have a way of attaching themselves to us, sometimes without us even noticing. We need to take a good look at what unhelpful and unconstructive baggage from our past we're tracking into our present and future encounters.

What is the "town" God is asking you to visit today in His name? Is it a tough conversation with a friend, a brief witness to a stranger in the checkout line, a call to be present to someone in your family? Before you go, remember, shake off the dust. Don't let a past disappointment constrain you. Don't allow yesterday's failures or burdens to keep you from the joy of today's witness, whatever form it might take.

Faith Filled Fun Summer Activities for Families

Find these and many others by going to:
www.focusonthefamily.com/parenting/summer-adventure-kits/

Looking for ways to cultivate your child's faith... and have fun at the same time? Every summer, the editors of Focus on the Family magazine create a new faith-filled adventure kit for families. These kits are filled with activities and lessons that will grow your child's knowledge of God's word and His work in our world. You can download any of the adventure kits below:

Whether from classmates, neighbors or culture, kids often hear difficult questions that pose a challenge to their faith:

- Why can't we ever hear God?
- Isn't the Bible filled with contradictions? Why do we believe Jesus really rose from the dead?

In this summer adventure kit, your kids will embark on a series of secret agent missions that will help them have a ready defense for the big questions aimed at the Christian faith.

Bible Detectives

The Bible Detectives adventure kit will challenge your kids' problem-solving skills while improving their Bible literacy. Bible Detectives is filled with 26 kid-friendly mysteries as well as case files for two dozen interesting characters. Investigate the scene. Study the suspects. Then crack the case.

World Explorers

Take an epic journey around the world with your whole family and learn more about the people in different countries on six different continents. Download the FREE "World Explorers" map, travel guide, passport and country stamps. Use the travel guide to read the clues for each destination. Then enjoy the activities, games or interesting facts about each amazing country.

SUMMERrific Faith Adventures

SUMMERrific Faith Adventures is filled with cards giving fun ideas for summer activities to do with your kids. Read the Scripture, do the activity together and enjoy a teachable faith moment during the warmth and rest of summer.

Conferencia de Jóvenes Hispanos / Enganchado a ti.

Fecha: Agosto 14, 2021

Hora: 10:00 AM - 4:00 PM

Costo: $10

Lugar: Parroquia de San Juan Diego,
7800 Woodmont, Detroit, MI, 48228

Yo soy la vid y ustedes las ramas. El que permanece en mí y yo en él, ése da mucho fruto, pero sin mí, no pueden hacer nada." San Juan 15, 5

Todos los adolescentes de 13-18 años están invitados a participar en la 5ª Conferencia de Jóvenes Hispanos de la Arquidiócesis de Detroit. Por favor regístrate antes del 6 de agosto para poder participar. Desde Chicago nos acompañará David Bisono quien será nuestro conferencista principal y por segunda vez contaremos con la presencia del ministerio TRIBEZA. ¡Jóvenes los esperamos!

Vista aod.org/joveneshispanos para inscribirte y aprender

Este domingo, la Palabra de Dios nos invita a tener en cuenta dos características: "Hoy narra el momento en el que Jesús envía a los doce en misión: Se detiene en el estilo del enviado, que podemos resumir en dos puntos: la misión tiene un centro; la misión tiene un rostro. El discípulo misionero tiene antes que nada su centro de referencia, que es la persona de Jesús. Y la segunda característica del estilo misionero es, por así decir, un rostro que consiste en la pobreza de los medios. Su equipamiento responde a un criterio de sobriedad" (Papa Francisco (7/15/2018).

¿Quién es el responsable de responder al mensaje de Jesús y del Papa Francisco actualmente? Sencillamente, todos los bautizados somos enviados a llevar a cabo el mensaje de Jesús. Teniendo en cuenta que es su mensaje, no mi mensaje. Todos los bautizados somos llamados a dar testimonio del amor liberador del Reino anunciado por Jesús. Y en este tiempo de pandemia, de descontrol, de sufrimiento y de muerte, ¿qué anunciamos, qué misión y mensaje tenemos a cargo? Siempre, es la misma misión y mensaje, un anuncio de conversión, de volver nuestra mirada y corazón al Señor. Existe, tanto por hacer, mucho que sanar, mucho que curar en la familia, y en la sociedad. En resumen, reflexionemos en las últimas palabras del Evangelio de hoy: "Fueron, pues, a predicar, invitando a la conversión. Expulsaban a muchos espíritus malos y sanaban a numerosos enfermos, ungiéndoles con aceite" (Marcos 6:12). Seamos, pues, discípulos misioneros fieles y comprometidos a su Palabra. En cualquiera que sea nuestra vocación, siempre de dos en dos. ¡Misión y mensaje!
