Thanksgiving Food Drive

Thank you to all who participated with our Thanksgiving Brown Bag Drive! Every year we ask for your help to fill Thanksgiving Baskets for those less fortunate and every year you listen to the call and respond with overwhelming generosity. Without your kindness, we would not be able to help the numerous families that come to us asking for assistance. It is at this time, that we ask for your help once again. We are asking for donations Turkey's and gift cards for our families. We will be helping approximately 70 families for Thanksgiving. Gift cards should be in the amounts of $10, $15, $20 and $25. These cards will be passed out to the families so they can buy any perishable items that will be needed to complete their Thanksgiving meal. We have sign-up sheets in the gathering space for turkey donations and we ask that your donations be brought back to the church before November 21st. Again we wish to thank you all for your continued support of helping to make this Thanksgiving enjoyable for those who are still having difficult times.

We often come to life expecting all of the pieces of the puzzle to nicely fit together. We want and expect harmony, order, and fairness, the achievement of rewards for good behavior, good health, and happiness. We can more easily accept death when it comes naturally after a good long life, but have a real difficulty comprehending the meaning of it all when it is cut short. Willing to put in a good measure of effort, we desire positive results. When things go wrong and life gets hurtful, unjust, and downright ugly, we become unsettled and can quickly fall into despair. This is especially true if we are people of faith who believe in a God who sees things on our terms and works in favor of our life agenda. What happens to our faith when we find ourselves sitting in a mess?

Does it help to know that God understands and that hardship, failure, disappointment, injustice, confusion, and all of life's ugliness do not make faith irrelevant or irrational? God is wonderfully and surprising creative! He turns the tables on not only our understanding of life, but of what it means to be a king. God sends us a king who is not exempt from life's ills but embraces them. The king that God gives to us knows what it means to be poor, suffer insults, be ridiculed, face rejection, endure suffering, be betrayed, and face a most unjust and horrific death. This is our king. Jesus is not a king of prestige or grandeur but a king who brings light to darkness, hope to despair, sinners to mercy, and new life out of death. Christ dances before us pleading with us to hold on, cling to love, avoid being negative, stop feeling cheated, and be strong in faith! There may be hardship and disappointment now but there are more surprises to come.

Once we understand this truth, we will also understand that we are on a most incredible and awesome universal journey to Christ and becoming one in Christ. We all carry within us the image of God, the image of our suffering king. The One who lives in us also lives in all of our brothers and sisters. Failing to see this universal Divine Presence in all is one of the greatest mistakes we can make, for we also fail to see God, our king, as well. There are many things that can bring hardship to life. If we keep our head about us and do not lose hope, we can persevere and strive for the greatest degree of justice possible. Even though there are ample things that can challenge our faith, we also know that our deepest joy comes from union with God and our brothers and sisters. One day, the fullness of that joy will be ours to have when we are all eternally one with Christ our King forever.

Our Giving Tree will be available on Thanksgiving weekend at all the Masses. Our project has grown tremendously throughout the past several years. The help from neighboring parishes has helped us handle the increase in requests for assistance. We have always heard God's call to feed the hungry, clothe the naked, and shelter the homeless. This year we have received a blessing in the form of a neighboring nondenominational church in Chesterfield that has come on board to help out with all the aspects of the Giving Tree. Their participation is so great that we will be able to have different kinds of tags on our tree to give you different options in providing assistance to the needy in our community.

We will have the regular tags from families who have registered to receive assistance. You can take a tags with an individual, or you can adopt a whole family. We will also have a number of tags for the "clothes closet" for McLaren Hospital. This closet was established to give people who come into the emergency room with nothing but the clothes they are wearing. They will at least be able to have clean sweat clothing socks and underwear when they leave the hospital. We will also have tags on the tree for newborn diapers. These diapers will complete a layette given to single mothers by the Council of Catholic Women. Also, we have a young man from our parish who is serving in Afghanistan. He has related to his parents that their PX was recently destroyed and they are short of many personal supplies (soap, socks, snacks, etc). He also indicates that many guys in his unit have no family to send care packages. We will have tags on the tree so that you can help out one of our servicemen or women.

Please take a tag with a gift suggestion for a person who is in need this season. Each of the tags has a specific coding to help identify the family, person, or agency where the gift will be delivered. Please make sure that you return the gift wrapped but with the tag securely attached on the weekend of December 15/16. Please mark your calendar to return the gifts in time for distribution!!!! Now more than ever people in our community are in need of this assistance. Help in any way that you can to give them some hope. Make a difference in your community. Get together with your friends, family, and coworkers, take a tag, or two, or three -- or consider adopting a family.

You can help by taking tags from the Giving Tree. You can also help by signing up to wrap, sort, package, and distribute gifts. Please sign up at the back of church to assist in any way that you can. For more information, Contact: Kathy Quayhackx at 586-749-8449.

PRICELESS

Leaves, leaves, everywhere! As I walked the trails of the campground this past weekend. I was once again amazed at one of the many magnificent gifts of Creation, given to me by our Lord. Watching each leaf fall to the ground, I paid attention to the intricacy of the design and color; each one unique and priceless in its own way, although still collectively, leaves.

I was then reminded how much alike those leaves are, to the members of St. Francis-St. Maximilian parish community. Although diverse in culture and ethnicity, we come together as one faith to serve and love our God and neighbor. Through the many diversified programs (Giving Tree, MCREST, Vacation, Bible School, Pantry, Teen Ministry, Faith Formation, Children's Liturgy of the Word, Christmas Pageant, Stations of the Cross, etc.) people experience hope, joy and a sense of worth.

As you gather around your table during your traditional Thanksgiving meal, please know that Graciela and I are thankful for you and wish you every peace and good health, because you are priceless.

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

God is wonderfully and surprisingly creative! He turns the tables on our understanding of what it means to be a king by sending us a king who embraces poverty, insults, suffering, ridicule, rejection, and even death. This is our king. Jesus is not the king of prestige or grandeur but the king who brings light to darkness, hope to despair, sinners to mercy, and new life out of death. God dances on, around, in and through all of the silliness and ugliness of the world bringing all of creation to the eternal dance of new life and hope. Whether we accept it now or hope that we one day do, Christ is king of the universe. Christ is the alpha and the omega, the beginning and the end. Every human being, even those who scorned and rejected him and failed to see him in the least of our brothers and sisters will look upon him. Only those who understand truth will understand that we are on this awesome universal journey to Christ. It is a journey of surprises but also a journey of enlightenment when we will one day see and experience with the deepest joy our being in Christ. We will be restless until we are all one day together united in Christ our King.

Question:

Why do we make changes in the Mass? Some seem so small and unimportant. Are they really necessary?

Answer:

The celebration of the Eucharist is at the heart of our identity as Catholics. Our purpose as a Church community revolves around the Eucharist. Everything we are and everything we do is measured not only by how well we celebrate, but also by how well we live the sacrament. If that is so, then we as a community will always strive to celebrate the Mass as best we can. The reasons for some changes might seem more obvious than others, but there is a reason behind each one.

The General Instruction of the Roman Missal is the introduction to the Missal that contains all the prayers for the celebration of the Mass. The Order of Mass we use now was issued in 1975 and, as often happens over the course of years, some questions have come up about the proper way of doing some things and whether or not other practices are acceptable. These changes clarify some things and make the celebration of the Mass more meaningful for everyone.

The opportunity is presented to us to better learn and understand each part of the Mass, which in turn should help us deepen our appreciation for its beauty and meaning. We will be a better Church if we have a clearer understanding and knowledge of Who and what we celebrate.

SAINT OF THE WEEK – EXAMPLES OF OUR FAITH

St. Francesco Antonio Fasani | Feast Day November 27

St. Francesco Antonio Fasani (1681 – 1742) lived his whole life as a loving, devout, and atoning man. He entered the Conventual Franciscans in 1695, and 10 years later taught philosophy to younger friars, served as guardian of his friary, and eventually became provincial minister. When his term of office ended, St. Francesco became master of novices and finally pastor in his hometown of Lucera.

Known throughout his various ministries as being loving, devout, and penitential, he was also a well-known confessor and preacher. St. Francesco was a loyal friend of the poor and worked tirelessly to find ways to support them. He was a mystic with such a profound prayer life and supernatural gifts that he was known to levitate during prayer. He was canonized in 1986 by Pope John Paul II.

Nuestro Señor Jesucristo, Rey del Universo

Como confirmación de las palabras de Jesús del domingo pasado de que su Palabra nunca pasará, hoy el libro de Daniel nos muestra otra forma de ver la realeza de Cristo desde siempre: “Se le dio el poder, la gloria y la realeza, y todos los pueblos, naciones y lenguas lo sirvieron. Su poder es el poder eterno que nunca pasará; su reino no será destruido” (Daniel 7:14). Y el libro del Apocalipsis lo revela así: “Y de parte de Cristo Jesús, el testigo fiel, el primer nacido de entre los muertos, el rey de reyes de la tierra. Él nos ama y por su sangre nos ha purificado de nuestros pecados, haciendo de nosotros un reino y una raza de sacerdotes de Dios, su Padre” (Apocalipsis 1:5-6).

Esta Solemnidad de Cristo Rey fundamenta su amor y radica en los corazones de todos los que le aman. Desde la Cruz vence a la muerte y al pecado. Desde ahí nos libera y nos salva. Desde la cruz nos invita a un reino de servicio y amor hacia los pobres, hacia los sin voz. Él es el dueño total de todo y de todos. Él es la plenitud de la verdad y la vida, todo fue creado por Él y para Él. El reino de Cristo brota desde la Cruz. Y eso es lo que explica a Pilato después de su interrogatorio: “Tú lo has dicho: yo soy Rey. Yo doy testimonio de la verdad, y para esto he venido al mundo. Todo el que está del lado de la verdad escucha mi voz” (Juan 18:37-38). Santa Benedicta de la Cruz decía: “Enamorarse de Dios es el mayor romanticismo; buscarlo, la aventura más grande; encontrarlo, el mayor logro”. Busquemos enamorarnos del Crucificado. ¡Viva Cristo Rey del universo!

VIVIR LA LITURGIA - INSPIRACIÓN DE LA SEMANA (Live the Liturgy)

¡Dios es maravillosa y sorprendentemente creativo! Él cambia las tornas en nuestra comprensión de lo que significa ser un rey al enviarnos un rey que abraza la pobreza, los insultos, el sufrimiento, el ridículo, el rechazo e incluso la muerte. Este es nuestro rey. Jesús no es el rey de prestigio o grandeza, sino el rey que trae la luz a las tinieblas, la esperanza a la desesperación, los pecadores a la misericordia y una nueva vida de la muerte. Dios danza sobre, alrededor, en y a través de todas las necesidades y la fealdad del mundo, llevando a toda la creación a la danza eterna de nueva vida y esperanza. Ya sea que lo aceptemos ahora o esperemos que algún día lo hagamos, Cristo es el rey del universo. Cristo es el alfa y el omega, el principio y el fin. Todo ser humano, incluso aquellos que lo despreciaron y rechazaron y no lo vieron en el más pequeño de nuestros hermanos y hermanas, lo mirarán. Solo aquellos que entienden la verdad comprenderán que estamos en este asombroso viaje universal hacia Cristo. Es un camino de sorpresas, pero también un camino de iluminación cuando un día veremos y experimentaremos con la más profunda alegría nuestro ser en Cristo. Estaremos inquietos hasta que estemos todos un día juntos unidos en Cristo nuestro Rey.
