The Catholic Family of St. Irene Parish strives to become the people of the Gospel we are called to be by our Baptism. Therefore, we will serve the community by sharing our faith as we proclaim and live the Good News of Jesus Christ.

Today, we celebrate the Feast of Corpus Christi, the Feast of the Body and Blood of Christ. As Catholics, we believe the consecrated bread and wine actually become the Body and Blood of Christ, the Real Presence. When Jesus said, "This is My body," and said, "This is My blood," Jesus meant what he said, not symbolically, but literally!

Today we celebrate the God who would join us and who won for us eternal redemption by his own blood.

“Communion... is food by which to live forever in Jesus Christ.”

St. Ignatius of Antioch

Then taking the five loaves and the two fish, and looking up to heaven, he said the blessing over them, broke them, and gave them to the disciples to set before the crowd. They all ate and were satisfied. And when the leftover fragments were picked up, they filled twelve wicker baskets.

A Family Perspective

by Bud Ozar

In today’s Gospel, Jesus healed, fed and blessed the people. Our families continue the mission of Jesus whenever we care for the sick, feed the hungry and bless and affirm each other. Miracles still happen, but now, God works through us.

Dear Prayer Blanket Ministry,

Thank you so much for the prayer blanket. My husband used it every day and it gave him great comfort. He passed April 23. We got him back to MI April 9. He didn’t seem to be in pain. We were so blessed. He got to see his children & grandchildren and the great grand twins born Jan. 19. The funeral was April 27. We are going to have a celebration of life June 15 as we were planning an 80th birthday party. All is well.

God Bless You All

Corpus Christi Mass

 Archbishop Allen H. Vigneron will celebrate the feast of Corpus Christi at Blessed Sacrament Cathedral this Sunday, June 2. Following the 11 a.m. Mass, a Eucharistic Procession through the neighborhood will celebrate this great Eucharistic feast of the Body and Blood of Christ.

During this Year of Faith, Pope Francis has invited all Catholics, and cathedrals and churches in the world, to be in prayer and adoration at the same time. The Corpus Christi Mass and procession will unite the faithful in Detroit with their brother and sister Catholics worldwide, who will also gather at that exact time for Corpus Christi celebrations.

Foster Families Needed—One Church, One Home, One Family

Catholic Charities of Southeast Michigan is in need of foster parents and families to host children in our Supervised Independent Living program. We are hoping to increase our numbers by at least 1 new foster family in every parish in the Archdiocese. If you are interested in providing a loving home to children in need please call us toll-free at 1-855-88-CCSEM(22736) or write info@ccsem.org.

Please partner with us in our mission: Providing Help, Giving Hope.
