Eighteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time
"This is the bread that the LORD has given you to eat."

As the Church has given us these wonderful readings about the gift of the Bread from Heaven, we will take the next several weeks to share about this gift of infinite value.

Last week it was mentioned that there are two trajectories concerning bread in the earlier Scriptures. One concerns the various bread miracles that occur for the Chosen

People, the first being the manna from Heaven, but then subsequently different multiplications and gifts of heavenly bread.

The other concerns the bread of the Presence, the showbread which is placed on the golden table set before the Ark of the Covenant. That holy bread, made of twelve loaves for the 12 Tribes of Israel, is a holy offering constantly set before the Presence of the Lord. The significance of that bread offering is demonstrated by the fact that when the Holy One of Israel is giving Moses the directions for the furnishings of the Tent of Meeting, it is the golden table for the bread that is the second thing described, only preceded by the description of the Ark of the Covenant itself. This is a great foreshadowing here of the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass, with our Altar holding the Bread of the Presence before the Tabernacle of the Lord. The last fixture described for the interior of that Tent of meeting was a light that was to be kept ever burning in the Presence of the Lord, even as the light ever burns in our sanctuary before the Presence of the Lord!

We hear in the first reading Moses announcing to the People, after the fall of the manna, that "This is the bread that the LORD has given you to eat." This was the miraculous bread that was to feed them during their time of wandering until they enter the Promised Land, when the manna stops. But the bread miracles and the bread of the Presence were all meant to prepare the people for the ultimate bread miracle, the Eucharistic Lord Himself making Himself present to His People for all time.

Jesus Himself announces to them the astonishing proclamation that He Himself is the living Bread come down from Heaven. As the Gospel for next Sunday will show, this announcement was not met with approval for it struck the people as an impossible thing. They knew Jesus, Who He was (or so they thought), where He had come from, etc. How then could He be the living bread come down from Heaven?

The fullness of this mystery is revealed at the Last Supper itself, when He consecrates that bread with the words that will forever enshrine the reality: "This is My Body. . . ." At that moment, the truth of the Gospel we heard this morning is communicated to the Apostles, and they grasped how He could in fact be the living Bread come down from Heaven. The Church has acknowledged His Presence in the Eucharist from the beginning, and made this infinite gift available to the People of God, even daily. The Church teaches that the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass is the source and the summit of our lives as followers of the Lord Jesus. Her care for the Mass is one of the most crucial aspects and most sacred duties of the shepherds of the Church.

This is why when, under the inspiration of the Holy Spirit, Pope St. John XXIII called the Second Vatican Council, prayerfully reflecting on the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass was the first order of business of the Council itself, leading to the Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy, Sacrosanctum Concilium, being the first document produced by the Council Fathers. In it the Fathers of the Council—the Bishops assembled from the entire world—set forth a series of principles that were to be used to renew how the Church (in the Latin Rite) celebrates the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass, with one of the goals being, as the Fathers taught, a desire "to impart an ever increasing vigor to the Christian life of the faithful." (SC, #1). If we are to experience that intended vigor, we need to understand the principles so that we can cooperate with this move of the Spirit. We will spend some time examining those principles in the coming weeks. — Fr. Ed Fride

Christian Marriage ..... Dcn. Pete Hansen
Lay Ecclesial Ministry ..... David Mangan

KofC Contact For any questions or comments about our KofC or to find out how to join, contact Grand Knight Mark Tepen (734-678-2402 or gk.kofc.13360@hotmail.com). For information about the KofC-sponsored Squires program for adolescent young men, contact Larry Gjernes (734-461-1326 or lgjernes@hughes.net).

All-Knights Message from DGK At 4:23pm on Sunday, July 11 (corrected date), our grand knight sent an email to all council members with the subject "A letter from Worthy DGK Terry Dishneau," in which Terry asked some questions about the topics of availability and priorities, seeking an answer from each one of our Knights. The results of this informal survey will be critical for planning and carrying out Council activities for the coming year. Each Knight should feel himself encouraged to read the email and respond. If you find that you don't have that email or never received it, email our Grand Knight; see above for the GK's address. The earlier you respond, the better for the council.

CTK Council Officers The officers of our council for the new Fraternal Year, which began on July 1, are:

Chaplain	Fr. Bill Spencer
Grand Knight	Mark Tepen
Deputy Grand Knight	Terry Dishneau
Chancellor	Tony Redente

Inside Guard	Ted Koehler

For information about the KofC-sponsored Squires program for adolescent young men, contact Larry Gjernes (734-461-1326 or lgjernes@hughes.net).

First Saturday Prayer for Vocations, Evangelization, and in Reparation for Blasphemies against Our Lady's Immaculate Heart: prayed online due to the pandemic. To learn more, contact Brigid Kowalczyk (bak.aa47@gmail.com).

Baptisms: Baptismal Catechesis is a Diocesan requirement (you only have to attend the class once). Next class: Monday, Aug. 9, 7pm. (Please note date change.) You don't need to wait to have your baby before attending the class. Baptisms normally occur on the second Sunday of the month following the 11am Mass (around 12:45pm). To schedule your child's Baptism and/or to register for Baptismal catechesis, please contact Peter Vanicelli (pvanicelli@ctkcc.net or 734-929-0984). If attending the catechesis, please read the section on Baptism in the Catechism of the Catholic Church.

Sacrament of Matrimony: Couples planning on getting married through Christ the King must contact Dcn. Pete at dcnpete@ctkcc.net for an appointment. Please note that the wedding date cannot be set until that initial meeting. Due to the fact that we are a personal parish, we are allowed to offer the Sacrament of Matrimony only to our registered parishioners (that is, the bride, groom, or one of the parents must be a registered parishioner). Thank you for your understanding. Questions? Please contact Dcn. Pete.

Confessions: Please see page 2 of the bulletin.

Bulletin Announcements, Pulpit Announcements, Brochures, and Fliers: All of the above must be submitted to the Parish Office in writing no later than noon on Monday in order to be published that weekend. There are early deadlines before holidays and occasionally for other reasons, so please plan accordingly.

- Bulletin announcements go to bulletin@ctkcc.net or a copy of the announcement may be faxed to 734-663-3735, dropped off, or sent by US Mail. Submissions are prioritized based on specific criteria and space available. Submission alone does not guarantee it will be printed.
- Other announcements, brochures, fliers, and special requests should be submitted by noon on Monday to Theresa Hofer (thofer@ctkcc.net or 734-929-0971). To announce a specific event, the event must be taking place during the weekend of the announcement. To announce registration for an upcoming event, a representative of the group requesting the announcement must be available on the day of the announcement to take registrations. Anything not meeting those criteria should be submitted to the bulletin editor for consideration (bulletin@ctkcc.net). No brochures or fliers will be posted or distributed without approval by Fr. Ed. No exceptions! This includes campaign information, petitions, and voters guides.

Prayers of the Faithful: In the event of the death of a loved one, we want to pray for the deceased at Sunday Masses and announce the death in the bulletin. The normal way to inform the parish is to contact Liturgical Coordinator Peter Vanicelli (pvanicelli@ctkcc.net). When a death occurs at a time when normal communication channels will not allow the parish office to process the information in a timely way (e.g., after business hours on Friday) and you would like the deceased included in the Prayers of the Faithful that weekend, please let Fr. Ed or a deacon know in person before the weekend Mass you are attending.

Liturgical/Sacramental Events: Requests for special activities during the Liturgy, e.g. First Communion, special prayers, renewal of wedding vows, must be submitted for approval to Peter Vanicelli (pvanicelli@ctkcc.net or 734-929-0984), no later than noon on Monday before the weekend.

Scheduling: Please email all scheduling requests to Sharon at scheduling@ctkcc.net. She will send you the room request forms.

Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick/Communion for the Homebound: Please contact Fr. Ed to arrange a time for the anointing or ask to receive the Sacrament after Mass. To arrange for Communion to be brought to a homebound parishioner, please contact the front office.

Prayer for Healing and Other Needs: Third Sundays after Mass; second Fridays at Upper Room Praise & Worship—temporarily suspended due to the pandemic

House blessings: Please contact Dcn. Larry (dnlarry@ctkcc.net) or Dcn. Pete (dcpete@ctkcc.net) to arrange for a time to have your home or apartment blessed.

Parish Nurse Ministry provides educational information, resources, etc. Note: This ministry does not provide medical diagnosis, treatment, or hands-on nursing care. Contact Betty Diefenbach (734-272-6918 or popcombetty2@gmail.com).

Helping Hands Ministry provides volunteers who offer practical assistance in getting daily needs met. To request help, volunteer, or get more information, please contact Betty (popcombetty2@gmail.com).

Mass Intentions: To arrange for a Mass to be said for a particular intention, please call 734-665-5040 and press 0 to speak with someone at the front desk.

Prayer requests: To submit requests to our prayer chain, email prayer@ctkcc.net.
