Banns for Holy Matrimony

Nicole Henderson & Cameron Bauer—Bann I

Wedding banns are published three consecutive times to provide notification of a couple's intent to marry. Any person who may know of an impediment or other reason why a particular couple should perhaps not be married has an opportunity to inform the pastor.

We encourage any registered parishioner or any son or daughter of a registered parishioner of Christ the King who is preparing to get married outside of our parish to contact us so we can pray for you and your upcoming marriage. Please contact Den. Pete at dcpete@ctkcc.net. Thank you!

May the souls of the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace.

Kathryn Allen, wife of John Allen

Early bulletin deadline

The deadline for the September 12 bulletin is this Tuesday, August 31, at noon.

We Adore Him

Eucharistic Adoration is seven days a week, 9am-9pm, in the Bishop Povish Room in the Church. Out of deference and charity toward those Committed Adorers who must exercise greater caution, please continue to wear a mask and maintain social distancing while in the Adoration Chapel.

The Twenty-Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

“Humbly welcome the word that has been planted in you and is able to save your souls.”

One of the amazing gifts that we have been given as human beings is the ability to learn, the ability to receive information. We can get this from many different sources.

One of the most crucial of the human tasks that we face is growing in our ability to discern what is appropriate to accept as true and to discern what is false, erroneous, or otherwise harmful. Unfortunately, we are constantly barraged with both.

On the one hand, we have the option of “welcoming the word...that is able to save” our souls. On the other hand, the world, the flesh, and the devil are all clamoring for our attention as well, with the lead being taken by the father of lies—the same one who brought about our fall by deceiving our first parents. That, coupled with the fact that we are fallen and living in a fallen world, can result in significant challenges as we try to discern what is true. Who do we trust, and why? How do we recognize our own tendencies toward confirmation bias or other blind spots in our discernment process? Where do we start?

The first reading shows the logical place to begin. The Holy One of Israel was not shy in giving His People His Word that they may grow in their understanding of the way of life He is calling them to live and “may enter in and take possession of the land which the LORD” was giving to them. From the very beginning, the Holy One of Israel made available His Word to His People, using a variety of instruments: Moses, judges, prophets, etc. The Word comes with a warning: “you shall not add to what I command you nor subtract from it.” Here are displayed two of the essential components: the Word itself and the instruments that not only present the Word but that also are given a capacity to interpret it for the sake of the People.

This is a task we first see exercised by Moses himself. Then, as the history as well as the Jewish tradition maintains, this gift of possessing a teaching capacity to authoritatively present the truth to the People is passed on to his successors. This is what the Lord Jesus is referring to when He speaks of the “Seat of Moses.” This involves both the Word revealed as well as the authority to interpret it for the sake of the People.

As Catholics, we understand that at Pentecost, when the Church was born, the Seat of Peter was empowered to now hold that authoritative teaching capacity for the Church, what we refer to as the Magisterium: the pope and the bishops in communion with him. This three-fold combination is meant to be the greatest source of instruction for us: the Sacred Tradition, the Sacred Scriptures, and the Magisterium. As the Dogmatic Constitution on Divine Revelation, Dei Verbum, teaches, “Christ the Lord in whom the full revelation of the supreme God is brought to completion...commissioned the Apostles to preach to all men that Gospel which is the source of all saving truth and moral teaching, and to impart to them heavenly gifts.” (DV, #7). Their successors continue the work: “It devolves on sacred bishops ‘who have the apostolic teaching’ to give the faithful entrusted to them suitable instruction in the right use of the divine books, especially the New Testament and above all the Gospels.” (DV, #25).

As we face the daunting task of “humbly welcoming the Word,” the Church has given us clear guidance and urged us to study the Scriptures and those instruments of instruction made available to us, especially the Catechism. If we receive into our hearts and minds this Word with its capacity to save us, then we will have a solid criterion that we can use to judge the truth of all those voices clamoring for our attention. Since it is totally unlikely that that barrage of “information” will lessen, it is particularly crucial that we immerse ourselves in the truth that we know we can trust. He Who is the Word made flesh will guide us as we seek Him. — Fr. Ed Fride

Walking with Purpose Women's Bible Study starting soon!

In a world where levels of despair, addiction, and suicide are rising, we need more than clichés or positive thinking. Grounded in Hope, based on the book of Hebrews, will help you encounter Jesus in such a powerful, comforting, and stabilizing way that He can become your lifeline.

Join other women as we delve into this wonderful Bible Study!

Two options for attending:

- Monday, 10am-12 noon, starting Sept. 13
- Monday, 12:30-2:30pm, starting Sept. 20

For more information, including how to order your books,
and to register for either session, go to Join Sr. Sarah Burdick in studying the Prophets!

The Catholic Biblical School of Michigan of Michigan will be returning to Christ the King this fall with Sr. Sarah Burdick, SGL, teaching "The Prophets: Called to Return to Love." The class will meet on Thursday evenings, 7-9 pm, beginning Sept. 9. You can attend either online or on-site!

Wondering why you should sign up? Fr. Ed says, "I really strongly encourage folks to consider signing up for the CBSM. Especially during these crazy times, we do ourselves, our families, and our parish a great service by becoming even more Biblically literate, that the Word of God would, even more, form our response to the times."

For more information and to sign up, go to www.ctkcc.net/cbsm.

There's still time to be part of our 40th Anniversary Photo Directory!

Did you miss having your photo taken last week for our new 40th anniversary Photo Directory? No worries! Our photographer will be here again on the following dates:

- Monday-Saturday, September 27-October 2
- Thursday-Saturday, October 14-16

Sign up your household today! The photo sitting is free, and you will receive a complimentary 8" x 10" photo along with a CTK photo directory!

Soon volunteers will begin calling anyone who has not selected a photo slot to invite them to participate, so please take a moment to sign up today to have your photo taken. Your help now will lighten our calling load. Thank you!

Also, we would love to have more volunteers to help with the welcome table and making invitation phone calls. Can you help?

To learn more and sign up, go to ctkcc.net/photodirectory.

Financial Peace University online! Thursdays, 8-9pm, starting Sept. 9

This fall, Christ the King is offering the online version of Dave Ramsey's Financial Peace University. Now you can get Dave's great teaching on personal finances, plus apps for budgeting and tracking progress, all from the comfort of your home!

How you can support our sister parish, the Catholic Community of Flint

Growing a Heart for Flint

There is a flower of love that God wants to grow in our hearts, and Flint is the soil it requires. Do you want to let the Holy Spirit stir you up towards love and good deeds? Starting Monday evening, Oct. 11, there will be a 4-week discipleship group on how Catholic Social Teaching directs us to engage with Flint. It will include multiple speakers and activations. More details to come!

Prayer intention for the week

"Lord, who may dwell in Your sacred tent?...The one who lends money to the poor without interest; who does not accept a bribe against the innocent." (Psalm 15:1a, 5) For those in authority in Flint to rule in accordance with God's law and write policies for the good of the poor.

Volunteer with us!

Scan the QR code to the right or go to ctkcc.net/FlintMission and submit a volunteer form to become a regular Flint volunteer!

Thank you for your understanding. Questions? Please contact Dcn. Pete.

Confessions: Please see page 2 of the bulletin.

Bulletin Announcements, Brochures, and Fliers: All of the above must be submitted to the Parish Office in writing no later than noon on Monday in order to be published that weekend. There are early deadlines before holidays and occasionally for other reasons, so please plan accordingly.

- Bulletin announcements go to bulletin@ctkcc.net or a copy of the announcement may be faxed to 734-663-3735, dropped off, or sent by US Mail. Submissions are prioritized based on specific criteria and space available. Submission alone does not guarantee it will be printed.
- Other announcements, brochures, fliers, and special requests should be submitted by noon on Monday to Theresa Hofer (thofer@ctkcc.net or 734-929-0971). To announce a specific event, the event must be taking place during the weekend of the announcement. To announce registration for an upcoming event, a representative of the group requesting the announcement must be available on the day of the announcement to take registrations. Anything not meeting those criteria should be submitted to the bulletin editor for consideration (bulletin@ctkcc.net). No brochures or fliers will be posted or distributed without approval by Fr. Ed. No exceptions! This includes campaign information, petitions, and voters guides.

Prayers of the Faithful: In the event of the death of a loved one, we want to pray for the deceased at Sunday Masses and announce the death in the bulletin. The normal way to inform the parish is to contact Liturgical Coordinator Peter Vanicelli (pvanicelli@ctkcc.net). When a death occurs at a time when normal communication channels will not allow the parish office to process the information in a timely way (e.g., after business hours on Friday) and you would like the deceased included in the Prayers of the Faithful that weekend, please let Fr. Ed or a deacon know in person before the weekend Mass you are attending.

Liturgical/Sacramental Events: Requests for special activities during the Liturgy, e.g. First Communion, special prayers, renewal of wedding vows, must be submitted for approval to Peter Vanicelli (pvanicelli@ctkcc.net or 734-929-0984), no later than noon on Monday before the weekend.

Scheduling: Please email all scheduling requests to Sharon at scheduling@ctkcc.net. She will send you the room request forms.

Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick/Communion for the Homebound:

Please contact Fr. Ed to arrange a time for the anointing or ask to receive the Sacrament after Mass. To arrange for Communion to be brought to a homebound parishioner, please contact the front office.

Prayer for Healing and Other Needs: Third Sundays after Mass; second Fridays at Upper Room Praise & Worship—temporarily suspended due to the pandemic

House blessings: Please contact Dcn. Larry (dclarry@ctkcc.net) or Dcn. Pete (dcpete@ctkcc.net) to arrange for a time to have your home or apartment blessed.

Parish Nurse Ministry provides educational information, resources, etc. Note: This ministry does not provide medical diagnosis, treatment, or hands-on nursing care. Contact Betty Diefenbach (734-272-6918 or popcombetty2@gmail.com).

Helping Hands Ministry provides volunteers who offer practical assistance in getting daily needs met. To request help, volunteer, or get more information, please contact Betty (popcombetty2@gmail.com).

Mass Intentions: To arrange for a Mass to be said for a particular intention, please call 734-665-5040 and press 0 to speak with someone at the front desk.

Prayer requests: To submit requests to our prayer chain, email prayer@ctkcc.net.
