The Twenty-Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time
"Would that all the people of the LORD were prophets!"

Moses' response to Joshua's complaint about some people receiving the gift of prophecy, just not in the expected way, reflects his great desire that all of the Jewish people could walk in God's presence, receiving His guidance. However, that level of availability of the prophetic gifts was not to be the case for another 1300 years. It wasn't until Pentecost in 33 AD that the gift of prophecy became far more available to the Christian faithful.

The fact that that first outpouring of the gift of prophecy caused some concern should not be a great surprise; in fact, it is the first time that gift is mentioned in the Scripture. Up to that point, there had been sporadic events in which some had experienced more specific communication from the Holy One, but the event of the 70 elders recounted in the first reading marks the real beginning of the use of that gift.

What is that gift? Popular parlance today usually sees "prophecy" as a future-telling gift, but in fact, as the content of the Biblical prophetic books demonstrates, it is much more about God communicating His desires in the here and now and is only rarely concerned with future events. Typically, the gift involves God Himself speaking through a man or woman to deliver a message to the people of God. As was noted, it was very rare in the earlier Scriptures but fairly commonplace after Pentecost. It became fairly rare again after the turn of the first millennium but, after the outpouring of the Holy Spirit in the late 1960s, it has once again become a gift that is flourishing. And, not unlike that first "prayer meeting" recounted in Numbers, its use today has not been without controversy. But, since the Dogmatic Constitution on Divine Revelation fairly strongly points out, "all the preaching of the Church must be nourished and regulated by the Sacred Scripture," so any consideration of this remarkable gift should be grounded in what the Scripture says about it.

Concerning that, St. Paul's repeated admonitions to all the Christian faithful to pursue this gift should particularly be noted, e.g., "Earnestly desire the higher gifts, especially that you may prophesy." (1 Cor. 14:1) It should also be noted that the occurrence of the gift of prophecy was one of the most common results of having received the Holy Spirit, as is demonstrated repeatedly in the Acts of the Apostles. St. Paul proclaims that the gift is for all the people of God, a vehicle for the Lord to be able to more concretely direct and guide us. In our time, thanks to the outpouring of the Holy Spirit, many people indeed have been experiencing this gift, and even some are being given the gift in a more regular way, that they may serve the people of God with that charism.

Many folks have had the experience—often the frustrating experience—of trying to receive the gift so that they might more concretely hear from the Lord. While there can be several different factors why that might be difficult in some cases, one of the important lessons that the Lord Jesus gives us is that we need to persevere and not give up when we are pursuing some spiritual gift that the Scriptures make it clear we should be pursuing. One of the reasons we have Upper Room at Christ the King is to provide a concrete way that people can come and learn more about prophecy and the other gifts of the Holy Spirit and actually put them to use in their lives. To that end, we have also done different courses or seminars that can assist in that. In fact, beginning in October, one of our parishioners, Sean Breeden, who is particularly gifted in this area, will be offering a four-week Prophecy Workshop. It will take place during the Tuesdays of October, from the 5th to the 26th; 7-8:30pm in the gym. To learn more and to register, go to ctkcc.net/prophecy.

This gift can be a huge asset in our lives as followers of the Lord Jesus. Now would be a particularly useful time to hear more clearly from the Lord! — Fr. Ed Fride

Attention, Business Owners:

Advertise in our Annual Guide Book & Directory!

Later this year, we will be publishing our annual Guide Book and Directory, which will be mailed directly to all Christ the King registered parishioners. This valuable communications tool is provided at no cost to our church and parishioners, thanks to the support of our advertisers.

The publisher, Guide Book Publishing (GBP), will be soliciting advertisements from local businesses, but they would prefer to place advertisements from members of our parish over those of competitors. A recent survey by GBP showed that 92.1% of families would rather patronize a Guide Book advertiser over a non-advertiser.

If you own or manage a business and would like to learn more about advertising in our Guide Book, please contact Guide Book Publishing at 1-800-597-3037, Monday-Friday, 9am-5pm (CST). To learn more, go to www.GuideBookPublishing.com. Thank you for your support!

First Saturday Prayer for Vocations, Evangelization, and in Reparation for Blasphemies against Our Lady's Immaculate Heart: prayed online due to the pandemic. To learn more, contact Brigid Kowalczyk (bak.aa47@gmail.com).

Baptisms: Baptismal Catechesis is a Diocesan requirement (you only have to attend the class once). Next class: Monday, Nov. 8. You don't need to wait to have your baby before attending the class. Baptisms normally occur on the second Sunday of the month following the 11am Mass (around 12:45pm). To schedule your child's Baptism and/or to register for Baptismal catechesis, please contact Peter Vanicelli (pvanicelli@ctkcc.net or 734-929-0984). If attending the catechesis, please read the section on Baptism in the Catechism of the Catholic Church.

Sacrament of Matrimony: Couples planning on getting married through Christ the King must contact Dcn. Pete at dcnpete@ctkcc.net for an appointment. Please note that the wedding date cannot be set until that initial meeting. Due to the fact that we are a personal parish, we are allowed to offer the Sacrament of Matrimony only to our registered parishioners (that is, the bride, groom, or one of the parents must be a registered parishioner). Thank you for your understanding. Questions? Please contact Dcn. Pete.

Confessions: Please see page 2 of the bulletin.

Bulletin Announcements, Brochures, and Posters: All of the above must be submitted to the Parish Office in writing no later than noon on Monday in order to be published that weekend. There are early deadlines before holidays and occasionally for other reasons, so please plan accordingly.

- Bulletin announcements go to bulletin@ctkcc.net or a copy of the announcement may be faxed to 734-663-3735, dropped off, or sent by US Mail. Submissions are prioritized based on specific criteria and space available. Submission alone does not guarantee it will be printed.
- Other announcements, brochures, posters, and special requests should be submitted by noon on Monday to Theresa Hofer (thofer@ctkcc.net or 734-929-0971). To announce a specific event, the event must be taking place during the weekend of the announcement. To announce registration for an upcoming event, a representative of the group requesting the announcement must be available on the day of the announcement to take registrations. Anything not meeting those criteria should be submitted to the bulletin editor for consideration (bulletin@ctkcc.net). No brochures or posters will be posted or distributed without approval by Fr. Ed. No exceptions! This includes campaign information, petitions, and voters guides.

Prayers of the Faithful: In the event of the death of a loved one, we want to pray for the deceased at Sunday Masses and announce the death in the bulletin. The normal way to inform the parish is to contact Liturgical Coordinator Peter Vanicelli (pvanicelli@ctkcc.net). When a death occurs at a time when normal communication channels will not allow the parish office to process the information in a timely way (e.g., after business hours on Friday) and you would like the deceased included in the Prayers of the Faithful that weekend, please let Fr. Ed or a deacon know in person before the weekend Mass you are attending.

Liturgical/Sacramental Events: Requests for special activities during the Liturgy, e.g. First Communion, special prayers, renewal of wedding vows, must be submitted for approval to Peter Vanicelli (pvanicelli@ctkcc.net or 734-929-0984), no later than noon on Monday before the weekend.

Scheduling: Please email all scheduling requests to Sharon at scheduling@ctkcc.net. She will send you the room request forms.

Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick/Communion for the Homebound:

Please contact Fr. Ed to arrange a time for the anointing or ask to receive the Sacrament after Mass. To arrange for Communion to be brought to a homebound parishioner, please contact the front office.

Prayer for Healing and Other Needs: Third Sundays after Mass (temporarily suspended due to the pandemic); fourth Fridays at Upper Room Praise & Worship

House blessings: Please contact Dcn. Larry (dclarry@ctkcc.net) or Dcn. Pete (dcpete@ctkcc.net) to arrange for a time to have your home or apartment blessed.

Parish Nurse Ministry provides educational information, resources, etc. Note: This ministry does not provide medical diagnosis, treatment, or hands-on nursing care. Contact Betty Diefenbach (734-272-6918 or popcombetty2@gmail.com).
