The Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time

“The Lord has done great things for us; we are filled with joy!”

The verse quoted above deserves some time of quality reflection, especially during troubling times when the circumstances seem oriented toward us taking our eyes off the Lord Jesus and staring instead at those circumstances that conspire to rob us of our joy. I am reminded of one of my favorite cartoons. A little old lady is standing next to a very disheveled and beaten-up demon—broken horns, black eyes, etc. She is explaining to her friend: “He tried to steal my joy!” Wouldn’t it be wonderful if we took as effective and deliberate a response to the joy thieves in our lives!

The danger is that, when we are presented with an attempt by the snake to rob our joy, our fallen nature almost automatically moves to agreement; the perpetual invitation to wallow in the “ain’t it awfuls” can find too ready a hearing in our wounded hearts. But the King has a better idea: stay focused on Him and let the power of the Holy Spirit minister to us the truth of the Scripture that “The joy of the Lord is our strength!” This takes focus; this takes self-discipline; this takes discernment—especially discernment to understand when what we are being given is, in fact, a temptation. Some simple questions may help us in that discernment process. Does this attitude glorify the Lord Jesus? Does it build the Kingdom? Does it reflect the attitude of a life of faith lived in service to Him? Does it suitably honor those made in the image and likeness of God? Is it reflective of the nature of the Sacred Heart of our King, Who, as our Gospel points out, has a particular desire to assist us when we cry to Him for mercy?

We can make it even more personal by regularly reflecting on those ways in which we personally can proclaim that “The Lord has done great things for us!” I have found it very useful to keep a spiritual journal, keeping track of the different ways in which the Lord Jesus has been present, answered prayer, healed, or otherwise manifested His presence in my life. When we thank and honor Him for the many things that He has done for us, we anchor ourselves more securely in His providential care. When we open the door to the One Who knocks, we are choosing the best path for ourselves and those we love. In that regard, even as He did for the blind man in the Gospel, we are encouraged: “Get up, He is calling you!”

He calls every day—do we take the time to listen? Do we especially take time to listen to Him through His Word, immersing ourselves in the Word of life that it may instruct us in His ways and ever more deeply show us Who He is and how much He loves us?! Hopefully we have learned, like Bartimaeus, how “vulnerable” the Sacred Heart of our King is to our cries for mercy and pity. Hopefully we are not afraid of His response, because we know, as the Scripture reminded us, that “He is able to deal patiently with the ignorant and erring.” We are also reminded that, “even when we sow in tears,” the time will come when we too will be able “to reap rejoicing!”

Last weekend, I visited a few of the churches of our sister parish in Flint. There have been great struggles in that city on a variety of fronts, struggles that continue to this day. However, I found a great many people, even in spite of the difficulties, worshipping the King with joy in their hearts! Many were also very grateful for the help that their community is receiving from you, the people of Christ the King. They were particularly grateful for the help we give to support those who are ministering to them, especially the Servants of God’s Love. The Sisters are doing an amazing job, truly living up to their exalted name! It was a blessing to my heart to see folks who are truly living in very challenging situations, but who are still able to be joyfully proclaiming that the Lord has done great things for them! (It helped me to soberly reassess whether I was too often yielding to the “ain’t it awfuls!”)

The King reigns and loves us beyond words! Let us allow His Spirit to fill us with joy as we continue to say “Yes” to Him! —
Fr. Ed Fridé

Attention, Business Owners:

Advertise in our Annual Guide Book & Directory!

Later this year, we will be publishing our annual Guide Book and Directory, which will be mailed directly to all Christ the King registered parishioners. This valuable communications tool is provided at no cost to our church and parishioners, thanks to the support of our advertisers.

The publisher, Guide Book Publishing (GBP), will be soliciting advertisements from local businesses, but they would prefer to place advertisements from members of our parish over those of competitors. A recent survey by GBP showed that 92.1% of families would rather patronize a Guide Book advertiser over a non-advertiser.

If you own or manage a business and would like to learn more about advertising in our Guide Book, please contact Guide Book Publishing at 1-800-597-3037, Monday-Friday, 9am-5pm (CST). To learn more, go to www.GuideBookPublishing.com. Thank you for your support!

Please pray for the men and women in military service.

Due to a potential threat to families of those in military service resulting from the members' names being publicized through the Internet, we no longer publish the names of men and women in military service. We encourage you to continue to pray for them and to remember all our troops in a special way on Fridays by praying a Rosary for those serving in the military.

Christ the King Vocations Committee

For more information on vocations, please contact:

Diocesan Priesthood and Men Religious Fr. Ed Fride
Permanent Diaconate Dcn. Dan Foley
Women Religious Sr. Rachel Benjamin, SGL
Christian Marriage Dcn. Pete Hansen
Lay Ecclesial Ministry David Mangan

First Saturday Prayer for Vocations, Evangelization, and in Reparation for Blasphemies against Our Lady's Immaculate Heart: prayed online due to the pandemic. To learn more, contact Brigid Kowalczyk (bak.aa47@gmail.com).

Baptisms: Baptismal Catechesis is a Diocesan requirement (you only have to attend the class once). Next class: Monday, Nov. 8. You don't need to wait to have your baby before attending the class. Baptisms are primarily scheduled on the second Sunday of the month at 12:45pm. To schedule your child's Baptism and/or to register for Baptismal catechesis, please contact Peter Vanicelli (pvanicelli@ctkcc.net or 734-929-0984). If attending the catechesis, please read the section on Baptism in the Catechism of the Catholic Church.

Sacrament of Matrimony: Couples planning on getting married through Christ the King must contact Dcn. Pete at dcnpete@ctkcc.net for an appointment. Please note that the wedding date cannot be set until that initial meeting. Due to the fact that we are a personal parish, we are allowed to offer the Sacrament of Matrimony only to our registered parishioners (that is, the bride, groom, or one of the parents must be a registered parishioner). Thank you for your understanding. Questions? Please contact Dcn. Pete.

Confessions: Please see page 2 of the bulletin.

Bulletin Announcements, Brochures, and Posters: All of the above must be submitted to the Parish Office in writing no later than noon on Monday in order to be published that weekend. There are early deadlines before holidays and occasionally for other reasons, so please plan accordingly.

- Bulletin announcements go to bulletin@ctkcc.net or a copy of the announcement may be faxed to 734-663-3735, dropped off, or sent by US Mail. Submissions are prioritized based on specific criteria and space available. Submission alone does not guarantee it will be printed.
- Other announcements, brochures, posters, and special requests should be submitted by noon on Monday to Theresa Hofer (thofer@ctkcc.net or 734-929-0971). To announce a specific event, the event must be taking place during the weekend of the announcement. To announce registration for an upcoming event, a representative of the group requesting the announcement must be available on the day of the announcement to take registrations. Anything not meeting those criteria should be submitted to the bulletin editor for consideration (bulletin@ctkcc.net). No brochures or posters will be posted or distributed without approval by Fr. Ed. No exceptions! This includes campaign information, petitions, and voters guides.

Universal Prayers (i.e., the Prayers of the Faithful): In the event of the death of a loved one, we want to pray for the deceased at Sunday Masses and announce the death in the bulletin. The normal way to inform the parish is to contact Liturgical Coordinator Peter Vanicelli (pvanicelli@ctkcc.net). When a death occurs at a time when normal communication channels will not allow the parish office to process the information in a timely way (e.g., after business hours on Friday) and you would like the deceased included in the Prayers of the Faithful that weekend, please let Fr. Ed or a deacon know in person before the weekend Mass you are attending.

Liturgical/Sacramental Events: Requests for special activities during the Liturgy, e.g. First Communion, special prayers, renewal of wedding vows, must be submitted for approval to Peter Vanicelli (pvanicelli@ctkcc.net or 734-929-0984), no later than noon on Monday before the weekend.

Scheduling: Please email all scheduling requests to Sharon at scheduling@ctkcc.net. She will send you the room request forms.

Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick/Communion for the Homebound:

Please contact Fr. Ed to arrange a time for the anointing or ask to receive the Sacrament after Mass. To arrange for Communion to be brought to a homebound parishioner, please contact the front office.

Prayer for Healing and Other Needs: Third Sundays after Mass (temporarily suspended due to the pandemic); fourth Fridays at Upper Room Praise & Worship

House blessings: Please contact Dcn. Larry (dclarry@ctkcc.net) or Dcn. Pete (dcpete@ctkcc.net) to arrange for a time to have your home or apartment blessed.

Parish Nurse Ministry provides educational information and consultation for care management, as well as assisting people in finding community resources. Note: This ministry does not provide medical diagnosis, treatment, or hands-on nursing care. Contact Betty Diefenbach (734-272-6918 or popcombetty2@gmail.com).

Helping Hands Ministry provides volunteers who offer practical assistance in getting daily needs met. To request help, volunteer, or get more information, please contact Betty (popcombetty2@gmail.com).

Mass Intentions: To arrange for a Mass to be said for a particular intention, please call 734-665-5040 and press 0 to speak with someone at the front desk.

Prayer requests: To submit requests to our prayer chain, email prayer@ctkcc.net.
