

Mission Statement of SS. Peter & Paul, St. Mary 's Burnside, St. Patrick Chapel, Sacred Heart, Brown City

We, the Disciples of Christ, will faithfully radiate the love of Jesus that is in each of us and teach His "Good News" to all. We welcome everyone into His Home, the Roman Catholic Church, by living His gospel of love, hospitality, and service. With the guidance of the Holy Spirit, we will joyfully and wholeheartedly minister to all that we meet along the way, as we journey to the Kingdom of God. Adopted 2009.

14th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Freedom properly defined is freedom properly understood. The Cambridge Dictionary tells us that it is, "the condition or right of being able or allowed to do, say, think, etc., whatever you want to, without being controlled or limited." That same dictionary defines liberty as, "the freedom to live, work, and travel as you want to." Both definitions sound very similar. Is there a difference between freedom and liberty? Many are accustomed to believing that freedom and liberty are interchangeable and simply involve possessing rights and privileges. For the Christian, however, there is a big difference between the two.

St. John Chrysostom directs that "the only person who is free is the one who lives for Christ." There are many other inspirational people throughout history who see freedom as something far greater than liberty. True and properly understood freedom has little to do with entitlement or self-promotion. For the believer, it is a matter of the heart and soul. Freedom (and liberty, for that matter), seen only in terms of the world, can quickly be taken away. The freedom spoken of by St. John Chrysostom can only be lost by personal choice. When one lives for Christ, they live in pursuit of virtues that enlighten one's soul (faith, hope, and love) and strengthen one's character (justice, fortitude, temperance, and prudence). Rather than having the ability to acquire or do more things, true freedom asks us to be detached. Privileges, rights, and responsibilities are important, but they do not define us.

The world is not always open to listening to the truth. "I am sending you like lambs among wolves," Jesus tells his disciples. The secular definitions of freedom and liberty are very attractive. They promise us a great deal. It is no wonder Jesus asks his disciples to travel with very little. The Gospel is not dependent upon things or anything those with worldly power or investment can say or do. When one chooses to live for Christ, they choose to live with peace. That's what true freedom will give us. If we do not want what Christ offers, we can close the door, and the messenger will walk away. Distracted by the lure of personal liberties, we risk losing our freedom. We will not have anything truly life-giving to share with others.

Parish Raffle Tickets

In conjunction with the village of North Branch, Our Family of Parishes is having a North Branch Harvest Fest, Saturday, October 8, 2022. It will be here before you know it!

Events being held on the grounds of SS. Peter & Paul will include a Flea Market, Concessions, Bake Sale and a RAFFLE!

If you have not already done so, please pick up your raffle tickets. They are at the church where you are registered.

First prize is $1500. Second prize is $500 and third prize is $200.

The sale of these tickets is one of the most profitable fundraisers of the year for our Family of Parishes. Each church will receive a percentage of the profits based on the number of ticket sold by their parishioners. This is used for various ministries within each church. Therefore, the more tickets sold, the greater the return to your home church.

When we each buy or sell our allotted number of tickets, it will allow us to continue as well as grow our ministries within our Family of Parishes. Additional tickets are available at the parish office. $200, $100, and $50 will be awarded to the 3 top sellers!

Along with raising money for our Family of Parishes, the Harvest Fest provides an opportunity to build fellowship, pride and unity within our Family of Parishes and the surrounding communities, Above all, it is another opportunity to evangelize and be joyful missionary disciples of Jesus Christ.

All ticket stubs and monies must be returned to the Parish Office the Monday after Labor Day, September 12th. Thank you in advance for participating.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

When God Speaks Like a Polish Grandmother

A friend of mine had a Polish grandmother who was famous for giving her children some blunt advice every time they left the house: "Eyes straight ahead. Mind your own business."

Every mother knows her children best, and this mother knew hers liked to argue and sometimes liked to show off. She knew that could lead to trouble. She could not anticipate every scenario they would encounter each time they departed from her. All she could do was distill what she knew about life, safety, and manners into a few simple words, and hand them over to her children like a set of car keys or a hastily scribbled map. In this way, a woman who rarely said "I love you" expressed her devotion. And long after she was dead and buried, her aging sons and daughters repeated these words to themselves, like a child wrapping himself in a warm blanket.

Jesus does much the same for us, in many portions of the Gospels. "Ask the master to send out laborers for his harvest...Carry no money...Eat what is set before you... Know that the Kingdom of God is at hand...Rejoice because your names are written in Heaven."

He knows us best — knows our strengths, but even more importantly, he knows our weaknesses. He doesn't always have the space to address each of these explicitly in the pages of Scripture, but what he can do is distill the truth of effective evangelization into a few simple words, and hand them over to us as food for our journey of discipleship. In this way, a God who addresses the entire world and every soul who ever lived also speaks intimately to each one of us.— Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

Sacred Heart Scholarship Awards

Congratulations to Elizabeth Geiger and Eva Woodall, both Brown City High school graduates, on receiving the Sacred Heart Scholarship.

Elizabeth has been active in school and church, recently helping at the June church rummage sale. She has been part of the Brown City Honor Society and yearbook club. At Sacred Heart church, Elizabeth has been a lector, trained lectors, and taught faith class for four years. Elizabeth also earned 16 college credits before she starts Saginaw Valley State University in fall.

Eve Woodall is narrowing her choice of colleges down to attend, but she does plan to earn a bachelor's degree in nursing. Eve will soon take the state test to be a certified nurse assistant. In the future, Eve will consider being a traveling nurse, ICU nurse or ER nurse.

~Best of luck to both Elizabeth and Eva.

Prayer for our Courts and Judges

Lord God, I thank you today for the gift of our nation.
You alone rule the world with justice,
Yet you place in our hands the solemn duty
of participating in the shaping of our government.
I pray today for our President and Senators
Who have the responsibility of placing judges on our courts.
Please protect this process from all obstruction.
Please send us men and women of wisdom,
Who respect Your law of Life.
Please send us judges with humility,
Who seek Your truth and not their own opinions.
Lord, give all of us the courage we need to do what is right
And to serve you, the Judge of all, with fidelity.
We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen!

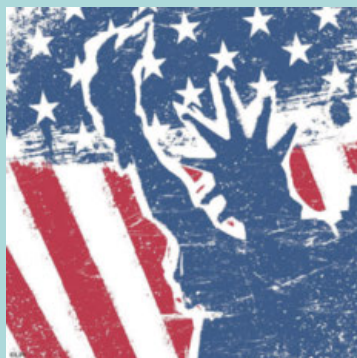

We would like to thank our North Branch Knights of Columbus council for paying for the new mulch at SS Peter & Paul church. The gardens look beautiful! Thank you also to Duane and Hank for laying it around the beds.
