FROM THE PASTOR

Praise the Lord!

Brothers and Sisters,

The first words of Jesus after the resurrection were, “Peace be with you.” (Lk 24:36) During the last supper in the gospel of John, Jesus says, “Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you. Not as the world gives do I give it to you. Do not let your hearts be troubled or afraid.” (Jn. 14:27) There are many other places where we can find references to peace in the gospels.

Think about peace in your life, peace in our world. There is a lot of restlessness in the world. There is the opposite of peace in the world. If we need peace in the world, first there needs to be peace in our hearts, peace in our families.

Today as we reflect on this gospel we need to step back and reflect upon the who, what, when, and how of peace. What is that brings peace into your life? Are you mindful of who and what takes peace away from your life? Are you mindful of the places that you go that lead you into peace or places that you go that rob you of your peace? Do you know where you access peace, are you able to access peace when you want it? Have you learned the skills, disciplines and spiritual exercises that allow you, when you are worked up or things don't go the way you expect it, to get in the place of peace. This is the first aspect of the peace of Jesus.

The second aspect of Peace that Jesus brings is – we are sent to bring peace everywhere we go and to everyone we meet. We become the ambassadors of peace of the resurrected Jesus. There are times we are not ambassadors of peace, but we need to always know that we are called to be ambassadors of peace.

St. Francis of Assisi had this beautiful prayer – “Lord, make me a channel of your peace...” When we have lost our peace and need to access peace, I think the prayer of St. Francis could assist us to access the peace we need. Jesus wants to give us His peace so that we can be ambassadors of peace in the world.

HOLY TRINITY CATHOLIC SCHOOL

Forming Saints and Scholars

Dear Holy Trinity Parishioners,

Hopefully you had the chance to attend our 53rd Annual Holy Trinity School Musical this past Friday, April 12. It was entitled "Roadtrip USA" and the students sang, danced, and performed to a number of songs from all across this country including "God Bless America", "You Are My Sunshine", "On the Road Again", "Home on the Range", "New York, New York", "Sweet Home Alabama" and many others. Check out some of the pictures below from one of our final rehearsals!

Thank you so much for your generous support of this endeavor through your monetary donations and sale of patrons for our program, as well as providing the costume pieces needed for our performers. It truly does take the cooperation of every student, staff member, and family for such an undertaking! Our music lessons are not over for the year yet though as we prepare for the Preschool Mother's Day tea, Preschool Moving Up Ceremonies, May Crowning, and Eighth Grade Graduation. We are also reviewing all of our favorite songs and skills from our past music lessons and learning some new Spring songs too!

"Let the message of Christ dwell among you richly as you teach and admonish one another with all wisdom through psalms, hymns, and songs from the Spirit, singing to God with gratitude in your hearts." Colossians 3:16

Thank you to the Cub Scouts Pack 239, Boy Scouts Troop 167, and Our Lady of Grace Youth Group for assisting in selling pop and water. A thank you also to Fr. Walter, Sharon Pike, Christina Krempec, and the rest of the HT staff for the support they have given us to make these events successful. Of course, a huge thank you to our patrons. Thank you for your generosity and support. Attendance at each of the four events broke the record high from recent past years. The extra money donations are appreciated. And then the desserts... oh my! Thank you so much for the delicious and amazingly looking treats you have brought in. May God bless your hands and talents! We are here at Holy Trinity to support the mission and bring our community closer to our Lord Jesus Christ by the work we do. God Bless!

Leading the FLOCK

BY BISHOP DANIEL E. THOMAS

Repent, and believe in the Gospel

On Ash Wednesday, many Catholics heard the words “Repent and believe in the Gospel,” as blessed ashes were imposed on their foreheads. These first words spoken by Jesus at the beginning of his public ministry (Mark 1:15), were addressed to each sinner who came forward (that is, to everyone!). At once these words are an exhortation to turn away from sin and turn back to our merciful Father, an encouragement to follow Jesus and his teachings more faithfully, and an invitation to true sorrow for our sins. Lent is the sacred time when, through our prayer, fasting and almsgiving, we strive to make right our relationships with the Lord and with one another.

Since the 18 December 2023 publication of the Declaration Fiducia supplicans (FS), on the pastoral meaning of blessings, by the Dicastery for the Doctrine of the Faith, I have received numerous questions and expressions of serious reservation, concern and confusion. While the text of Fiducia supplicans stated that no further guidance or response would be given (FS 41), on 4 January 2024, the same Dicastery published a press release (PR) listing several previously unmentioned conditions for blessings of couples in irregular situations and same sex couples, seeking to clarify the reception of Fiducia supplicans, and recommending “a full and calm reading of the Declaration so as to better understand its meaning and purpose” (PR Intro).

Now, after taking time for a full and calm reading; and after listening to, consultation with and being encouraged by several lay faithful, consecrated religious and clergy, including members of our diocesan consultative bodies, I offer the following observations in exercise of my apostolic mission of teaching, governing, and sanctifying the flock entrusted to my care (PR 2).

To be clear, there is no change to the Catholic Church’s perennial teaching on marriage. The divinely revealed truth is that marriage is the “exclusive, stable, and indissoluble union between a man and a woman, naturally open to the generation of children” (FS 4). Jesus himself taught this definition of marriage willed by the Creator “in the beginning” (cf. Matthew 19:3-9; Genesis 1-2). His Church has faithfully shared his teaching even when differing forms of unions have been promoted by popular cultures in various eras of history.

The Declaration highlights the common practice of Catholics seeking God’s help and guidance in their lives by approaching an ordained minister outside a liturgical context, for a brief prayer of blessing. The Declaration proposes that couples in irregular unions or same-sex unions can receive such informal blessings which are pastoral, not liturgical, in which there is “no intention to legitimize anything” (FS 40) of the immoral lifestyle of those blessed.

But herein lies the confusion. How can the blessing of a couple not be seen as the blessing of their union? Many, having read the documents, have commented to me that they would realistically see only two scenarios of requests for such blessings: a) those couples in irregular unions or same sex unions who are genuinely struggling and earnestly desiring the help of the Church's minister to repent, to follow the Gospel, and to make right their relationship with the Lord and with each other; and b) those couples who desire the Church's minister to condone their situation and affirm that the Lord blesses their union. In the first situation, a request for a blessing is a petition for grace to repent. In the second, a request for a blessing expresses a misguided attempt for approval of an immoral lifestyle which is incongruent with Jesus' teaching.

As shepherd of this local flock, having listened to many of my people, I worry that while Fiducia supplicans and the subsequent press release go to great lengths to insist that the possibility of blessing couples in irregular situations and same sex couples does not officially validate their status or change in any way the Church's perennial teaching on marriage; nevertheless, the reality of performing such proposed blessings lends itself to causing grave scandal.

As we all know, for so many, perception is reality. If a cleric is blessing a couple, it is hard to imagine how that is not seen as a blessing of their union. Such a blessing, it seems to me, could well be misunderstood by the couples themselves and by the faithful, thus being perceived as a blessing of the union, not just the couple. Such blessings would somehow compromise or weaken the Church's perennial teaching either by intention or neglect, because they lack the clarity necessary to assuage misinterpretation, misunderstanding and erroneous conclusions.

Deeply grateful for the hardworking and dedicated clergy serving in the Diocese of Toledo, I encourage them to continue to pray spontaneous non-liturgical prayers with any persons who seek physical, mental, or spiritual health, wisdom in times of crisis and decision-making, grace to fight against temptation, and courage to leave sinful lifestyles and follow Jesus in freedom. This of course includes individuals who may find themselves in irregular or same sex unions, addressing them with love, offering them hope and calling them to conversion of mind and heart. As Fiducia supplicans #5 and the press release articulate, same-sex unions and irregular unions cannot and should not be blessed (PR 2). Thus, it would be morally inappropriate, misleading, and scandalous for clergy in our diocese to pray with a couple in any manner that would feign to approve, condone, endorse, or validate an irregular or same-sex union (PR 5). Ultimately, this could cause scandal for the couples themselves, for the faithful, and for society at large.

Catholic parents of children in irregular or same-sex unions know the complexity of accompanying their children with patient, prudent, and prayerful acts of charity and hospitality which do not obscure, but in fact, allow for the truth of Jesus' teaching about marriage and family to be more clearly revealed and embraced. I trust that the clergy of our diocese will continue to dedicate themselves to exercising their spiritual fatherhood with patience, prudence, and prayer, teaching the unchanging truths of our faith with clarity and accompanying all the people of God, particularly those who struggle.

It is essential for me to express gratitude and encouragement for all in our diocese who faithfully make serious sacrifices in striving to live Jesus' teaching on marriage and family life. Your dedication provides a much-needed witness amid chaos and confusion about the sacred realities of marriage and family. There are those in irregular unions who, out of respect for Jesus' teaching, still come to Mass but refrain from receiving the Holy Eucharist. There are those who experience same-sex attraction but strive to live chastely. We support, accompany, and reassure them as they strive to remain faithful to the Lord's Will.

While discordant voices will continue to engage in debate about the proper path forward for the Church, I invite everyone to join me in remaining faithful, not losing heart, and in focusing more intensely on Jesus and his call to conversion, whatever our vocation. Pray that together we might recognize that we are all sinners, urged anew this Lent to hear and heed the exhortation of Jesus himself: "Repent, and believe in the Gospel."
