

The Holy Family, Dec. 25-26, 2021

Mary, Mother of God – Saturday, Jan. 1 – 9:30 a.m. is a holy day, however the obligation to attend mass has been dispensed.

Chili Cha Cha returns Jan. 29/30, 2022

As mentioned in previous articles, the Chili Cha Cha is returning for 2022 but with some changes. There will be a scaled down evening version on Saturday, Jan. 29, and on Sunday, Jan. 30, chili will also be available for “takeout” or “eat in.”

The CCC evening will be from 6-9 p.m. with half the seating capacity of the past. The maximum number of guests will be 90.

There will be tables of six people max. Invite your vaccinated friends and donate $150 for a table for six. Individual tickets will also be available for a $30 donation.

We hope to have a small trio or quartet for music and a tin can raffle. Tickets will be available in early January.

Tickets will not be necessary for Sunday — donations only. The Hall will be open after the 9:30 a.m. Mass until around 2:30 p.m. Those interested can come in for a hot bowl of chili or takeout. The tin can raffle will extend into Sunday with winners drawn around 2 p.m.

We hope you will participate in some way in this endeavor to raise funds for our two charities, the Capuchin Soup Kitchen and the SH/DC St. Vincent de Paul Chapter. And if you don’t care to have chili, donations of any amount are welcome, with checks made out to SH/DC St. Vincent de Paul.

Thank you in advance for your support of the 14th annual Chili Cha Cha.

F.I.R.E. Youth Ministry Advent Service Project for Appalachia Angel Haven

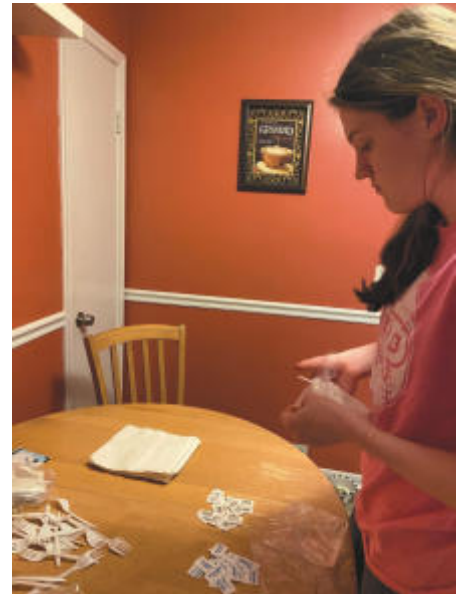

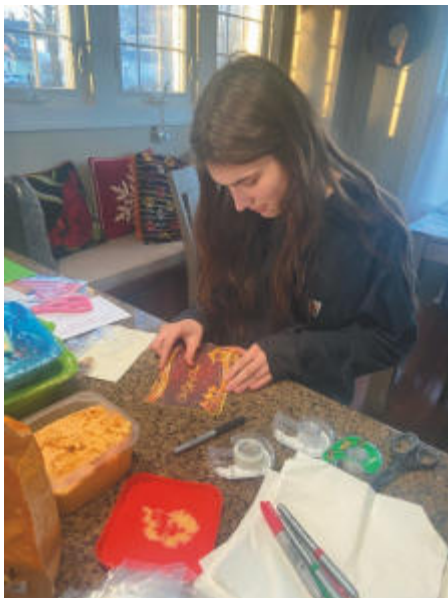

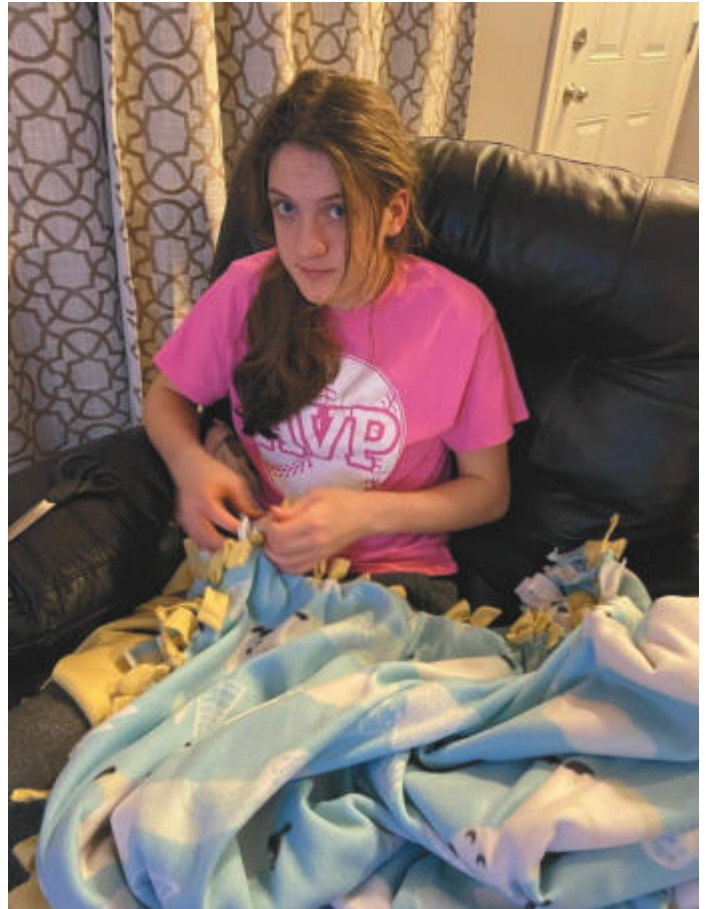

Twenty fourth and fifth grade youth gathered with parent helpers on Friday, Dec. 10, participating in our F.I.R.E. Youth Ministry Advent project.

The event consisted of making a variety of homemade chocolates and packing shoeboxes with a variety of trinkets, crafts, toys, socks, etc. Parents helped wrap the shoeboxes. All will be sent to Appalachian families in Vansant, Virginia.

Teens/Youth Advent Service Blitz Project (continued from Dec. 18/19 bulletin)

High school teens and middle school youth worked on four projects this Advent as part of the West Wayne & Northwest Wayne Vicariate "Advent Service Blitz." SH plus seven other Vicariate parishes all participated. Thank you everyone for your dedicated service!

St. Maria Goretti's St. Vincent de Paul Food Pantry

Our current list for the month of January:

- coffee – no decaf, please
- coffee filters
- pancake syrup – need badly
- strawberry jelly
- spaghetti sauce in a jar
- toilet paper and paper towels
- mayonnaise
- cooking oil
- peanut butter

Our last day for food distribution was Monday, Dec. 20 and will reopen on Monday, Jan. 3. We have been serving 22 to 29 families per week, which is only two days, four hours per week. In the new year, please continue to either drop off food at the pantry on Mondays and Wednesdays from 10:30 a.m. until 2 p.m. at St. Maria Goretti (formerly St. Sebastian) Church, 20710 Colgate St., Dearborn Heights or bring it to church and leave it in the donation boxes/containers.

Here we are, all rushing around for the holidays. Please do not forget your neighbors in need. We are in need of HELP at the pantry. We're looking for a couple of people for Mondays and two for Wednesdays. We just keep growing. If you are able to help, please call Matt at (313) 595-1317 for details. Thank you and Merry Christmas to all.

Simply Give program at Meijer

From now through Jan. 1, if you go to the Meijer store on the hill in Allen Park, pick up a Simply Give donation card located at every other register and donate a minimum of $10, Meijer will match.

This is crucial to our shelves remaining filled. Thank you so much for all you do. Monetary donations are always welcomed and needed as some of our neighbors are homeless. Thank you and God bless you and your families.

When I have a total for our Simply Give Program, I will let everyone know how well we did. I am expecting us to surpass our $22,000 amount from our last program we were in. Thank you all in advance. We would like to wish everyone a glorious Christmas season and a very happy and healthy new year.

~Matt Kulczyk

Psalm 128: Blest Are Those Who Love You

Antiphon

Blest are those who love you, hap - py those who fol - low you, blest are those who seek you, O God.

Verses

1. Happy all those who fear the Lord, and walk in God's pathway; you will find what you long for: the riches of our God.
2. Your spouse shall be like a fruitful vine in the midst of your home, your children flourish like olive plants rejoicing at your table.
3. May the blessings of God be yours all the days of your life, may the peace and the love of God live always in your heart.

Stewardship notes from AOD:
Christmas (Dec. 25/26)

The Nativity of the Lord (Christmas)

On this Solemnity of Christmas, the Scripture readings inspire all faith-filled stewards to stop and ponder in great awe God’s ultimate gift: the gift of His only begotten Son, our Lord, Jesus Christ. Heaven’s gates are open to anyone who strives for eternal salvation through Christ’s birth, life, death on the cross and Resurrection.

Out of heartfelt gratitude, let us give honor, glory, and praise to God for this greatest of gifts: His Son! As a reminder to our children, and to ourselves, today we celebrate Jesus’ birthday. What of our prayer, service and generosity can we present to Him?

The Holy Family of Jesus, Mary and Joseph

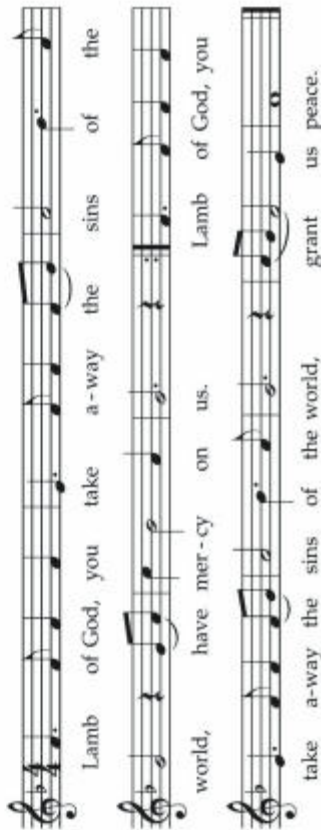

The topics of family, honor and obedience connect today’s Scripture passages. The Book of Sirach instructs those who respectfully honor their father and revere their mother to atone for their sins and in turn, store up riches. Those who are caregivers for aging parents are also remembered — their generosity is an offering against sin. In St. Luke’s Gospel, Mary and Joseph find Jesus in the Temple after a frantic three-day search. The evangelist tells of their return to Nazareth, where Jesus is obedient to them.

Pope St. John Paul II emphasized the family as the “Domestic Church.” Archbishop Allen Vigneron also discusses the importance of the “Domestic Church” in his pastoral letter, Unleash the Gospel (see: Guidepost 7, Families). Please pray for faith-filled families, as their discipleship is the foundation for vocations to the priesthood, religious life, permanent diaconate and other ministries to the Church.

AMEN

Sacred Heart School News

Students prepared for Jesus with activities that teach about Advent

Advent was such a special time of year as we prepared our hearts and minds for the coming of our savior, Jesus Christ. In third grade, the students did a lot of fun activities to help them truly understand what the season of Advent was all about!

Every week, we read stories from the Bible, had an engaging class discussion and then the students reflected on what they learned in their own personal Advent packet.

The students' favorite daily activity was our Advent calendar. We had a special Advent calendar that contained the story of Christmas broken out into 24 mini book ornaments. Each day a different student got to pick that day's miniature book, read it aloud to the class and then hung the miniature book from our classroom Christmas tree.

It was so wonderful to see God's grace within these students as they explored and developed their faith and personal relationships with God!

2021 Tree of Lights Advent Project

*sponsored by Sacred Heart-Divine Child
St. Vincent de Paul*

*100 percent of all monies directly help our “needy neighbors.”
Please pray for the poor.*

The Tree of Lights project is an opportunity for parishioners from both parishes to honor special people in your life, living or deceased.

For a $10 donation per name, lights shine on a parish evergreen throughout the holidays, beginning the Fourth Sunday of Advent through the Feast of Baptism of the Lord. The Tree of Lights evergreen is located near the outdoor gathering space behind Sacred Heart Church (Military side). If requested, we will provide you with an ornament as a remembrance, or to present in honor of your $10 donation.

All persons honored will also be listed in both churches’ bulletins (Sacred Heart’s Guardian and Divine Child’s Infant) toward the end of the holiday season.

Enclose the bottom of this flyer, along with cash or your check written to SVdP Sacred Heart/Divine Child into an envelope marked “Tree of Lights.” For convenience, place envelope into collection basket during Mass. Or, you may deliver your envelope in person to the Parish Office, or mail to:

Sacred Heart Parish Office, Tree of Lights, 912 S. Military, Dearborn, MI 48124
