Gospel Meditation

June 5, 2022: Pentecost Sunday

Even though Pentecost is rightly celebrated in late spring, the robust experience of a New England fall can provide a profound metaphor for reflection. A full expression of fall colors is beautiful to behold. But, with all of its majesty and beauty, the observer knows the experience of death is soon to come. Creation will be dark and barren for a while. Pentecost cannot be separated from the cross. Before God's transformative, life-giving power can bear fruit, we must first die.

Pentecost is all about leaving the lifeless dead wood behind and allowing God, through the power of the Holy Spirit, to create something new. These Pentecost creations happen repeatedly over and over again. The birthing process of the Church is ongoing. God is always bringing life out of death and creating something where there was once nothing. That is why the fall is such an apropos metaphorical season for Pentecost. In order to really receive the gift of the Holy Spirit we have to die to what we once knew and what no longer works.

When fire and wind find their fullest expression, they are in no way gentle nor kind. They have the potential to level anything in their paths. We are experiencing great turmoil in our world, nation, and our Church. Whether the result of circumstance or the work of the Holy Spirit, much of what we knew to be normal and constant is changing. Common systems and institutional structures that may have worked for a time no longer do. When the old and familiar need to be left behind, God creates something new. Change and disorder do not need to be our enemies. They always bring opportunities for something exciting and new. What we need is untiring faith, firm hope, and perfect love.

What we need is for the Holy Spirit to enlighten us to see what is important and what we must do. "O Holy Spirit, descend plentifully into my heart. Enlighten the dark corners of this neglected dwelling and scatter there Thy cheerful beams." (St. Augustine) If we experience joy, even in the midst of turbulence, then we will know we are exactly where God needs us to be. If not, then perhaps there is a lesson in the decaying leaves that graciously descend to the ground on a crisp fall day. ©LPi

Meditación del Evangelio

5 de junio de 2022: Domingo de Pentecostés

Con la Solemnidad de Pentecostés, concluye el tiempo de la Pascua. Tiempo de gozo y alegría en el Señor Resucitado. Hoy, la Iglesia entera se llena de alegría con Pentecostés. Recordemos que, el Espíritu Santo es un don dado a la Iglesia por el Resucitado. "El espíritu del Señor ha llenado toda la tierra; él da unidad a todas las cosas y se hace comprender en todas las lenguas" (Sabiduría 1:7). Todos quedaron llenos del Espíritu Santo y comenzaron a hablar las maravillas de aquel acontecimiento, lo sorprendente es que todos se entendían. ¡Vaya regalo tan grande para todos nosotros, el don del Espíritu Santo!

"El Espíritu Santo es el don pascual por excelencia. Con la unción del Espíritu, la santidad de Jesucristo se imprime en nuestra humanidad y nos hace capaces de amar a los hermanos con el mismo amor con que Dios nos ama. Y, finalmente, el Espíritu envía. Jesús es el Enviado, lleno del Espíritu Santo del Padre. Ungidos por el mismo Espíritu, también nosotros somos enviados como mensajeros y testigos de paz. ¡Cuánta necesidad tiene el mundo de nosotros como mensajeros de paz, como testigos de paz!" (Papa Francisco). Señor, como tus discípulos, también nosotros deseamos tu paz, ellos estaban intranquilos por tu muerte en la cruz. Tuvieron que esperar hasta Pentecostés para encontrar la paz en sus corazones. Queremos vivir en tu paz y en tu amor. Viviendo nuestra fe aferrados a tu amor. "Ven, luz santificadora, y entra hasta el fondo del alma de todos los que te adoran. Concede a aquellos que ponen en ti su fe y su confianza tus siete sagrados dones" (Tomado de la secuencia al Espíritu Santo).

Word of Life/Palabra de Vida

"La Iglesia Católica tiene una larga trayectoria de servicio a quienes son más vulnerables y sigue siendo el mayor proveedor de servicios sociales en los Estados Unidos. Por medio de iniciativas que fieles católicos realizan con sacrificio, la Iglesia atiende a millones de personas mediante agencias y ministerios diocesanos, hospitales católicos y sistemas de atención de la salud, clínicas de inmigración, refugios y escuelas y parroquias católicas. Mediante las comunidades religiosas, centros de atención a embarazadas, servicios para la reubicación de refugiados, agencias de acogida temporal y adopción, maternidades y ministerios parroquiales, la Iglesia de manera constante da testimonio con palabras y acciones de la belleza y dignidad de toda vida humana, incluidos madre e hijo."
