CHRISTIAN SERVICE

Though Father's Day was a few weeks ago, I have been finding myself reflecting on St. Joseph recently. St. Joseph was a humble carpenter from Nazareth, who lived a mostly hidden life. Yet, for centuries he has been venerated as one of the Church's greatest saints. Joseph's greatness was not derived from grand conquests or earthly accomplishments, but rather by fulfilling his vocation as a husband and father. In Joseph we see an all encompassing, selfless commitment to love, protect, and care for the Christ child. "In his relationship to Jesus, Joseph was the earthly shadow of the heavenly Father: he watched over him and protected him, never leaving him to go his own way" (Patris corde, 7).

St. Joseph demonstrates how the seemingly ordinary demands of family life can be elevated to the heights of heroic love. On the long road to Bethlehem, in the simplicity of the manger, and in the darkness surrounding the flight into Egypt, Joseph remains steadfast. As Pope Francis writes, "Fathers are not born, but made. A man does not become a father simply by bringing a child into the world, but by taking up the responsibility to care for that child" (PC, 7). In a world that so often undervalues fatherhood, men may find it challenging to fully embrace their unique and irreplaceable role in the lives of their children.

Through the intercession of St. Joseph, we pray that all fathers may have the courage to answer their call to heroic fatherhood.

Musical Notes...

This week, as I reflect on the many challenges of the past year, I cannot help but to turn to Psalm 98, verse 1, "Sing a new song to the Lord, for he has done marvelous deeds. His right hand and holy arm have won the victory." I am stuck on the word sing! For sixteen months, hymnals have been tucked away and church-goers around the world have been silenced in the pew.

God has truly done marvelous things because it is with great joy that we can finally, at long last, invite you to sing the hymns and songs of our faith! The hymnals have returned to their rightful place and are begging to be picked up and used. If your comfort level allows, please sing with us. If your comfort level only allows you to pick up the hymnal and read the words, that's a blessing too!

We are one small step closer to normal. All things in God's time.

Blessings on your week!

Gospel Meditation

ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

July 11, 2021

15th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Maybe the work is best left to the professionals. That's how many people view the preaching of the Gospel. That's the stuff priests, religious, deacons, lay ministers, and other professional Church people do. It has little to do with me. Well, that's not really true. The fact of the matter is that preaching the Gospel has everything to do with you, with all of us who are baptized members of the Body of Christ. Nobody gets off the hook from that job. The question is, however, how do we do it? Well, there's a safe way, which many choose, to preach the Gospel — and the risky way. The safe way pretty much keeps the Gospel in church and around like-minded people. I say my prayers, go to Mass, contribute to the food pantry, tithe, and attend Bible Study. That pretty much covers the bases, right? Wrong.

The risky way is the more challenging way and for many, the "road less traveled." Imagine those first disciples going out and into people's homes. They must have had some amazing conversations with folks about God's kingdom, changing their hearts, forgiving sins, and looking at the world differently. They must have met people who were hurting, exiled from their communities, neglected, lost, or living self-insulated lives in a society that served the rich and neglected the poor. While there were many who welcomed what they had to say and the conversations they had, there were others who no doubt rejected them and literally tossed them out on their ears! The Gospel, while being a message of joy and hope, is not always received well by those who are very comfortable keeping things as they are.

The risky way involves example and conversation. We have to take the Gospel from church and carry it with us wherever we go. What kinds of conversations do we have with others? We interact with those closest to us, in our work, social circles, institutions, corporations, in politics, and beyond. Our conversations with others reveal a great deal about how we see things and what we consider important. If we are really interested in seeing God's vision for the world succeed, then we will talk about it. It will become a part of our everyday conversation and find its way into our interactions with others. How will we preserve the dignity of human life and encourage others to have a relationship with God? We must be the example, live value centered, virtuous lives, stand against injustice, combating racism, and learn ways to resolve conflicts without violence.

If we are going to succeed going forward, we have to find a way to bring our prayer centered lives into the marketplace. Our conversations have to change. Not everyone wants to hear what the Gospel has to say. That's a risk God asks us to take.

JESUS SENDS OUT THE TWELVE

Mark 6: 7-13

Then Jesus went around teaching from village to village.

7 Calling the Twelve to him, he began to send them out two by two and gave them authority over impure spirits.

8 These were his instructions: "Take nothing for the journey except a staff—no bread, no bag, no money in your belts.

9 Wear sandals but not an extra shirt. 10 Whenever you enter a house, stay there until you leave that town. 11 And if any place will not welcome you or listen to you, leave that place and shake the dust off your feet as a testimony against them."

12 They went out and preached that people should repent.

13 They drove out many demons and anointed many sick people with oil and healed them.

PRAYER TO Padre Pio FOR HEALING

Padre Pio of Pietrelcina, obedient father, you loved the sick and infirm more than yourself because in them you saw Jesus. In the name of God you performed miracles of healing in body, soul and mind.

Your intercession with God healed the ills of past and present and strengthened people to respond with confidence to future challenges. Those who came to you regained a sense of spiritual integrity as you rekindled hope in their lives, and encouraged them to renew the spirit in their hearts.

Through the intercession of Our Heavenly Mother, may we experience your powerful assistance and be healed in our bodily and spiritual needs. Gratefully give praise and thanks to God for all His blessings.

Amen

And the other evil spirits,
