My Dear Friends,

Christmas is a special time. "For unto us a Child is born," reveals to us that Jesus was born as God's gift to each one of us. Like the wise Men, who sought truth and found Jesus, we are pilgrims on a journey toward Christ. We seek the wisdom, the peace and the joy that only the spirit of Emmanuel can provide. As your Shepherd, I invite You to gather around the Lord's table with me to celebrate the richness of Christ's presence with all the people of God in our family of St. Pio. May this Christmas season find you abounding in Love, rejoicing in Hope and secure in a God's Peace. May the Lord's blessing continue with You and your family through the coming year.

Merry Christmas,

Fr. Greg

FAITH FORMATION

A Promise Fulfilled

For thousands of years people waited for the coming of a Messiah. God made many promises to His people and one day God sent His only begotten Son. Not as most would think of a would-be king, but The Messiah, a child, a baby to be Emmanuel, God with us!! One, both human and Divine, the promised One. The light of the world. The One who saves, a Savior, meek and humble and born in a manger. This child would save us from our sinful ways and bring us to salvation to live with Him for all eternity in the Heavenly Kingdom. Jesus, hope for the world. . .hope for all humanity. During the Christmas Season, let us live in hope and see the joy of Jesus in all things, especially as we serve the poor and one another.

Peace be with you all! We wish you and yours a very Merry Christmas and Happy New Year!

Faith Formation Classes will resume on Monday, January 3rd for Grades K-6 and on Friday, January 6th for Middle School Ministry and High School Ministry.

Have a very blessed Christmas Season!

Roxanne Gronkiewicz,
Faith Formation Director

Musical Notes...

For unto us a Child is born: unto us a Son is given, and the government shall be upon His shoulder; and His name shall be called Wonderful, Counselor, The Mighty God, The Everlasting Father, The Prince of Peace.

These words from Isaiah were set to music by Handel and incorporated into his oratorio, Messiah in 1741. One of my personal enduring Christmas traditions is to listen to this most glorious expressions of sacred joy. I love to attend local performances annually. There is something very special to me when I sit in a beautiful church and listen to a collection of singers and instrumentalists perform this work.

I can remember as a young child, my Dad had a recording of The Cambridge Singers singing a collection of Christmas carols. This song was my favorite. So much so that I would play this recording over and over again. To this day, when I hear it, I am brought back to my childhood home at Christmas. That's one of the things I love about music, it has the power to transport us to the unreachable.

Whatever your Christmas traditions are, I pray that they give you much joy and peace this Christmas!

Just a reminder to the Cantors and Instrumentalists that there will be no rehearsal this Tuesday, December 28, 2021.

My warmest wishes to you for a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year!

Debi

CHRISTIAN SERVICE

Christmas is the season of joy, of gift-giving, and of families uniting. Christmas Spirit is joyfully giving and being grateful for the gifts we have.

People who have Christmas spirit are cheerful and happy about celebrating the birth of Jesus Christ. In the spirit, I want to take a moment and thank you for all that you do every day for our families, Parish, and community. The last years have been more challenging than we could have imagined, yet we have found a way to make things work. I am proud of your work, accomplishments, faith and dedication. I consider myself blessed to work with such committed and dedicated volunteers who serve others. I wish you peace on earth throughout the year. May your Christmas memories be as beautiful and as special as YOU!

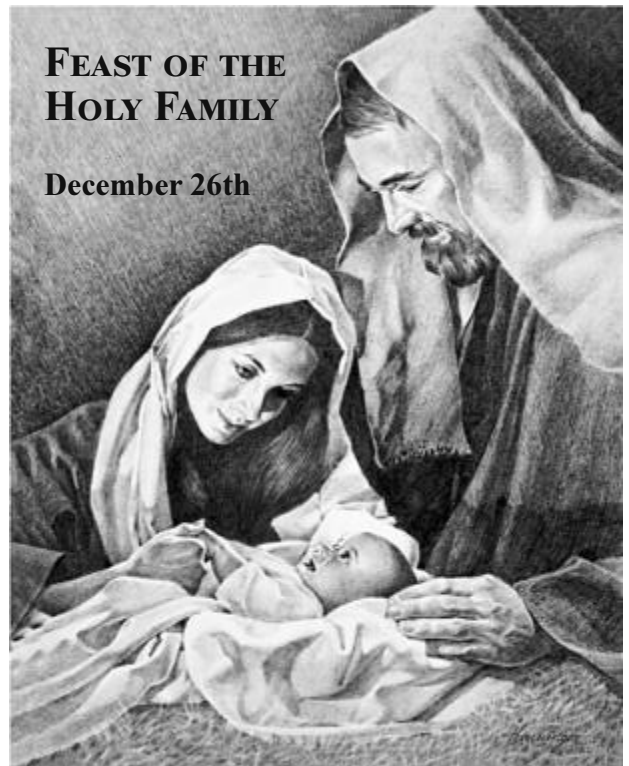

"He who has not Christmas in his heart will never find it under a tree." - Roy L. Smith

Wishing you a Merry Christmas

FEAST OF THE HOLY FAMILY

December 26th

The Most Perfect Dance

“He so loved us that for our sake He was made man in time, through Whom all times were made; was in the world less in years than His servants, though older than the world itself in His eternity; was made man, Who made man; was created of a mother, whom He created; was carried by hands which He formed; nursed at the breasts which He had filled; cried in the manger in wordless infancy, He the Word without Whom all human eloquence is mute (St. Augustine, Sermon 188).”

The miracle of what happens at Christmas is truly an awesome mystery. Revealed in the silent ordinariness of life is God’s intimate love for humanity and all that he made. The Word, existing for all time, comes and dwells among us. God kisses us. We can seek and soar with playful delight as a joy never known before fills our heart.

Joy is best expressed through dance. There is just something truly wonderful about the self-abandon a beautiful melodic dance reveals. If we are able to let go and really be free, it celebrates life in a way few other experiences really can. With the birth of Jesus Christ, God takes the Divine Dance to a deeper and more tangible level. We can now not only see what we believe but believe what we see! This most perfect dance is a call to beauty, innocence, truth, purpose, hope, faith, and love. Today we know, beyond doubt, that we are a necessary part of God’s beautifully choreographed masterpiece of life and not just a random happening without real intent or purpose. We are loved, treasured, and blessed.

Accepting the truth of God’s birth in time we also accept an invitation to dance with God. We can let go of what tethers us to anxious concerns and superficial securities. Throw caution to the wind and go with God. We have been blessed with talents, gifts, and life eternal. Follow the rhythm of the dance with joy and listen to what the Word who became flesh tells us about what the next steps can be. Today, heaven remains the same, but earth has been profoundly changed.

‘Twas the Night Before Jesus Came

‘Twas the night before Jesus came and all through the house, not a creature was praying, not one in the house. Their Bibles were lain on the shelf without care, in hopes that Jesus would not come there.

The children were dressing to crawl into bed, not once kneeling or bowing a head. And Mom in her rocker with baby on her lap, was watching the Late Show while I took a nap.

When out of the East there arose such a clatter, I sprang to my feet to see what was the matter. Away to the window I flew like a flash, tore open the shutters and threw up the sash!

When what to my wondering eyes should appear but angels proclaiming that Jesus was here! With a light like the sun sending forth a bright ray, I knew in a moment this must be The Day!

The light of his face made me cover my head, for it was Jesus returning just like he had said. And though I possessed worldly wisdom and wealth, I cried when I saw him in spite of myself.

In the Book of Life which he held in his hand was written the name of the saved from every land. He spoke not a word as he searched for my name; When he said, “It’s not here,” my head hung in shame.

The people whose names had been written with love, He was gathering to take to his Father above. With those who were ready he rose without a sound, while all the rest of us were left standing around.

I fell to my knees, but it was too late; I had waited too long and thus sealed my fate. I stood and I cried as they rose out of sight; Oh, if only I had been ready tonight.

In the words of this poem the meaning is clear; The coming of Jesus is still drawing near. There’s only one life and when comes the last call. we’ll find that the Bible was true after all!”

PRAYER TO Padre Pio FOR HEALING

Padre Pio of Pietrelcina, obedient father, you loved the sick and infirm more than yourself because in them you saw Jesus. In the name of God you performed miracles of healing in body, soul and mind.

Your intercession with God healed the ills of past and present and strengthened people to respond with confidence to future challenges. Those who came to you regained a sense of spiritual integrity as you rekindled hope in their lives, and encouraged them to renew the spirit in their hearts.

Through the intercession of Our Heavenly Mother, may we experience your powerful assistance and be healed in our bodily and spiritual needs. Gratefully give praise and thanks to God for all His blessings.

Amen

Act of Spiritual Communion
My Jesus,
I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.

I love You above all things,
and I desire to receive You into my soul.

Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart.

I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You.

Amen

Pray to St. Michael for protection against the power of evil, and to bring us closer to God.

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle.

Be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the devil.

May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do Thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Host, by the power of God, thrust into hell Satan, And the other evil spirits, who prowl about the world for the ruin of souls.

Amen

THE GIFT OF ETERNAL FAMILY

There is a lot of imagery around Christmas that has to do with adoption -or, more specifically, with a child being loved by another as if they belonged to that person and loved in such a profound way that in time, they do come to belong to that person.

We see this with Joseph and the infant Jesus. Joseph is not Jesus' biological father. But through a series of actions, and through his faithfulness in small, everyday matters, Joseph becomes the foster father of Jesus.

Perhaps we are parents who have adopted children, or we ourselves were adopted. We have also seen how, through a series of actions of love and sacrifice, someone can become the parent of a person who is not their "blood." A lot of times these families celebrate the day of the adoption. I've heard it called a "gotcha day," and it's marked joyously, like a birthday.

Most of us are not descended from the Israelites, God's Chosen People. But through a series of extraordinary actions of love and sacrifice, God has made Himself our parent, too. And through our own actions, and through faithfulness in small and everyday matters, we are His children.

But in this family, instead of blood ties, we have stewardship ties. It's not about who we look like, it's about how we treat one another. How we take care of one another.

So this Christmas, let's think about how we will celebrate our adoption. As much as it is Jesus' birthday, it's also our "gotcha day" — the day we received the gift of eternal family.
